OVERVIEW

Who We Are

We are a China-based company specializing in the design and sale of nursery products. BeBeBus, our first brand introduced in 2019, has become a renowned brand in China’s nursery product market, serving mid- to high-end consumers. Within five years, BeBeBus has carved out a space by competing in the mid- to high-end segment, which accounted for 23.6% of the total nursery product market in 2024. According to Frost & Sullivan, BeBeBus ranked second among China’s nursery product brands in terms of GMV of mid- to high-end nursery products in 2024, with a market share of 4.2%, affirming our strong foothold and performance in the market.

We have established a proven growth model by initially entering into nursery product segments such as strollers, car seats, cribs and highchairs, that are characterized by product complexity, strong demand and high transaction value. This strategy allows us to rapidly gain recognition from our target users for both our product excellence and premium brand image, setting the stage for expansion into a wider range of product categories. By introducing additional product types that align with various parenting needs, we have diversified our revenue streams while further cementing the strength of our brand. We believe our established growth model provides a robust foundation for our sustained success in the future, allowing us to adapt and thrive in an ever-evolving marketplace.

We achieved strong financial growth throughout the Track Record Period. We recorded revenue of RMB507.2 million, RMB852.1 million, RMB1,248.9 million, RMB581.9 million and RMB725.8 million, in 2022, 2023 and 2024 and the six months ended June 30, 2024 and 2025, respectively. Our gross profit was RMB241.8 million, RMB427.3 million, RMB629.1 million, RMB292.3 million and RMB358.5 million, respectively, with a gross profit margin of 47.7%, 50.2%, 50.4%, 50.2% and 49.4% in the same years/periods. Our adjusted net profit for the year/period (non-HKFRS measure) was RMB9.8 million, RMB59.2 million, RMB110.9 million, RMB44.9 million and RMB78.0 million, in 2022, 2023 and 2024 and the six months ended June 30, 2024 and 2025, respectively. Our Nursery Product Portfolio

We began with nursery products, an essential category for the well-being of families. BeBeBus caters to new generations of parents who embrace independence, smart design and practical functionality. Through focusing on their preferences and priorities, we develop nursery products that enhance everyday parenting moments shared with their beloved little ones by blending thoughtful design and cross-industry expertise into our distinctive style and quality.

Starting with our core products — strollers, car seats, cribs and highchairs, BeBeBus's nursery product portfolio has grown to meet the needs of essential parenting scenarios, from traveling and sleeping to feeding and caring. The table below sets forth the product portfolio of BeBeBus:

Notes:

- (1) During the Track Record Period, we produced all of our car seats and a portion of our highchairs in-house, with certain processes outsourced to third-party manufacturers. For other products, such as strollers, accessories, cribs, baby carriers, pajamas, pillows and baby care products, we outsourced the complete production.
- (2) We offer different sales units for diapers across online and offline channels. We typically sell diapers by case online and by box offline, with each box containing four cases and each case containing four to six packs, depending on the product series and specifications.

SUMMARY

During the Track Record Period, the significant growth in baby care products was primarily driven by the strategic expansion of our online sales channels and an enriched product portfolio. In 2022, 2023 and 2024 and the six months ended June 30, 2025, we partnered with six, six, seven and nine e-commerce platforms respectively. On these platforms, we maintained seven, eight, nine and 14 self-operated stores, as well as one, one, two and two platform-operated stores during the same periods. Additionally, the number of SKUs of baby care products increased from 142 in 2022 to 188 in 2023, further to 254 in 2024, and reached 290 in the six months ended June 30, 2025. We are strategically broadening our fast-moving baby care product portfolio to complement our durable nursery offerings, which not only drives recurring revenue but also accelerates our inventory turnover and supports stronger cash flow. While baby care product sales have grown significantly during the Track Record Period, this does not indicate a shift in our business focus from durable nursery products to consumables. All of our product lines synergize to support our commitment of delivering high-quality products and driving long-term growth.

Notes:

- (1) Average selling price represents the average price (tax-inclusive) at which products are sold through online and offline channels, and it includes both the wholesale prices to distributors and key accounts as well as the retail prices to consumers. The discrepancy between the product of sales volume and average selling price and revenue is due to the fact that the former figures are tax-inclusive, whereas the latter reflects tax-exclusive amounts.
- (2) The average selling price of diapers is calculated on a per-piece basis.
- (3) The average selling price of wipes is calculated on a per-pack basis.

Each BeBeBus product is infused with the brand's defining characteristics, designed to provide families with an enjoyable and user-centric experience.

- Thoughtful designs. BeBeBus is among the first in the world to launch intelligent car seats for children, according to Frost & Sullivan. This car seat incorporates a smart system that rotates automatically when the car door opens, making it easier for parents to place their little ones in and out of the seat. With 360° intelligent sensing, the car seat automatically adjusts its angle when a child falls asleep, minimizing stress on the neck and head to safe levels. The smart alert feature, connected via a mobile app, reminds parents if a child remains in the vehicle. Additionally, our Art+ stroller and Soft+ pillow have been certified by the International Chiropractors Association for their effective spine protection designs. These are just few examples of our commitment to innovation, which is further evidenced by the number of patents we secured. As of June 30, 2025, we had 200 registered patents in China and 17 internationally. We believe our product design and development capabilities are our core competitive edge that will drive our future growth.
- Cross-industry expertise. Our product development team consists of a group of diversified design specialists unified by an interdisciplinary mindset to add value through innovation. They draw inspirations from various sectors, including automotive, consumer electronics, industrial, aviation and beyond. For instance, we utilize a diverse array of raw materials that go beyond the standard options found in nursery products. Our car seats feature Cobra memory cotton, which is typically found in automotive seating, providing enhanced shock resistance, responsive support and long-lasting durability. We also employ waterproof, easy-care fabrics that are used in the automotive industry for quick and effortless cleanup. Similarly, our stroller frames crafted from aviation-grade magnesium alloy offer strength without adding weight.
- Distinctive aesthetics. Our minimalist BeBeBus logo embodies the colorful joy and creativity of childhood which define our design aesthetic. Our designs have earned a number of recognitions worldwide, including the Red Dot Award in 2021 and the Contemporary Good Design Winner Award in 2020.

SUMMARY

- Premium positioning. We strategically position BeBeBus as a premium brand, primarily captivating mid- to high-end families who value quality, functionality and aesthetics over cost. Through deep understanding of our target users, we design, develop and produce products that meet their high expectations in every detail. For each year/period during the Track Record Period, the average transaction value for orders of at least one core product remained above RMB2,400.

Our Sales Network

During the Track Record Period, we generated substantially all our revenue from the PRC. We sell our products through an extensive and diverse sales network integrating offline and online channels to reach a wide range of consumers.

Our membership program is a key strategy for fostering long-term relationships with our users. As of June 30, 2025, we have approximately 3.5 million members across all online channels.
- Our offline channels mainly comprise (i) distributors, (ii) key accounts, and (iii) our interactive store.

- (1) The sales volume of diapers is calculated on a per-piece basis, the sales volume of wipes is calculated on a per-pack basis and the sales volume of other products is calculated on a per-unit basis.
- (2) Average selling price represents the average price (tax-inclusive) at which products are sold through designated channel.
- (3) In 2023 and 2024, wipes accounted for a larger share of sales through distributors compared to online channels. Given that the average selling price of wipes is higher than that of diapers, the overall average selling price of baby care products was higher by the distributors channel compared to online channels in 2023 and 2024.

Our Production Facilities

Our manufacturing strategy focuses on combining in-house production with outsourced processes, which allow us to align our core manufacturing capabilities with cost-effectiveness and operational flexibility.

To maintain high efficiency and meet rigorous quality standards, we collaborate with trusted third-party manufacturers for some product lines. During the Track Record Period, we produced all of our car seats and a portion of our highchairs in-house, with certain processes outsourced to third-party manufacturers. For other products, such as strollers, cribs, baby carriers, pajamas, pillows, baby care products and accessories, the complete production is outsourced.

SUMMARY

The following table sets forth a breakdown of the output volume and percentage of our products which are self-manufactured and outsourced to third-party manufacturers for the years/periods indicated.

We operate our own stores on Tmall, JD.com, Douyin, VIP.com, Pinduoduo and Kuaishou, selling our products directly to consumers. We also sell through platform-owned stores, such as stores operated by JD.com and VIP.com. Additionally, we engage the KOLs to promote our products through live-streaming, and these KOLs charge a commission based on sales generated from their promotional efforts. In addition to e-commerce platforms, we have launched our Weixin mini program and Weixin channels, which function as a self-contained online store and allow consumers to browse and purchase products within Weixin, thereby fostering stronger direct relationships with our consumers. See “Business — Our Sales Network — Online Channels — Private Domain” for details.

The following table sets forth the overall customers and the average transaction value per customer at our self-operated stores on JD.com, Tmall and Douyin and our private domain platform for the years/periods indicated. As for platform-operated stores, we directly sell products to the e-commerce platform without access to its operating data.

For our offline sales, we partner with a network of distributors and key accounts to distribute our products. Additionally, we operate a physical interactive store which serves as a touchpoint with consumers. Through these partnerships, we have built a strong presence in the nursery product market, securing placements in high-end shopping malls and premium retail outlets.

Our Suppliers

Our suppliers consist primarily of e-commerce platforms, raw material suppliers and third-party manufacturers. In 2022, 2023 and 2024 and the six months ended June 30, 2025, our aggregate purchases from our five largest suppliers in each year/period during the Track Record Period accounted for 52.0%, 44.6%, 43.5% and 47.0% of our total purchases in each year/period during the Track Record Period. See “Business — Suppliers and Supply Chain Management” for details.

Our Market Challenges and Opportunities

Market demand for nursery products is influenced by the number of children and broader economic conditions, which impact annual per-child spending on these products. In China, the newborn population declined from 12.0 million in 2020 to approximately 9.5 million in 2024, largely due to a reduction in the number of women of childbearing age and the increasing average age of marriage and childbirth. Despite this decline, factors such as economic growth, improved social welfare (including enhancements in healthcare, education and childcare support) and the introduction of the third-child policy in 2021 may encourage families to have children, potentially mitigating the downward trend in the newborn population. From 2025 to 2029, the newborn population is expected to remain at around 8.0 million per year.

China's nursery product industry is undergoing continuous growth and transformation with ample headroom for expansion. According to Frost & Sullivan, the estimated average spending on durable nursery products in China for each newborn in 2024 from birth to five years old is 31.8% of the spending level observed in the United States. In 2024, the average annual spending on consumable nursery products per child aged zero to five in China accounted for 41.6% of the level in the United States, according to the same source. This gap, combined with a growing preference for nursery products and a more sophisticated approach to parenting, is driving new opportunities in China's mid- to high-end nursery product market. Although constituting only a small subset of the overall nursery products market, according to Frost & Sullivan, China's mid- to high-end nursery product market grew from RMB25.6 billion in 2020 to RMB34.0 billion in 2024 and is projected to reach RMB50.9 billion in 2029. As Chinese families increasingly seek high-quality and innovative parenting solutions, BeBeBus is well positioned to lead this transformation. Our focus on design, functionality and innovation aligns with the increasing preferences of modern families, enabling us to solidify our position in China's mid- to high-end nursery product market.

The nursery product industry in China is highly fragmented, primarily due to the wide range of product categories and the varying strategic focuses and sales priorities of different brands. As measured by GMV, the top five brands in the nursery product market collectively held a market share of approximately 16% in 2024. Brands with different market positioning each has its own mid- to high-end product lines, with the top five brands holding around 18.9% of the market share as measured by GMV of mid- to high-end nursery products in 2024.

SUMMARY

Summary of Consolidated Statements of Profit or Loss

Founded in 2019, we remain in a period of rapid market expansion, which has driven strong and sustained growth. From 2022 to 2024, our revenue increased from RMB507.2 million to RMB1,248.9 million, with gross profit margins rising from 47.7% to 50.4%. Our revenue increased from RMB581.9 million in the six months ended June 30, 2024 to RMB725.8 million in the six months ended June 30, 2025, with the gross profit of 50.2% and 49.4% in the respective period. One of the key drivers was the steady expansion of our SKU portfolio, which increased from 306 as of December 31, 2022 to 369 as of December 31, 2023 and further to 466 as of December 31, 2024. Our SKU portfolio amounted to 459 as of June 30, 2025. For example, the launch of our baby care product line in 2022 created a new revenue stream under the consumable nursery product market and further broadened our consumer base. In parallel, we expanded our sales channels across both online and offline touchpoints, including e-commerce platforms, private domain platforms, offline distributors, key accounts and interactive store, all of which contributed to our increased market reach. From 2022 to June 30, 2025, the number of stores on e-commerce platforms (both self-operated and platform-operated) grew from 8 to 16, the number of our distributors increased from 56 to 155 and the number of third-party stores operated by distributors or key accounts rose from 742 to 3,400, which reinforce our market position and support our continued financial momentum.

The following table sets forth a summary of our consolidated statement of profit or loss with line items in absolute amount and as a percentage of our revenue for the years/periods indicated.

NON-HKFRS MEASURES

In order to supplement our consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income, which is presented in accordance with HKFRS Accounting Standards, we use adjusted net profit for the year/period (non-HKFRS measure), EBITDA (non-HKFRS measure) and adjusted EBITDA (non-HKFRS measure) as additional financial measures, which are not required by, or presented in accordance with HKFRS Accounting Standards to evaluate our operating performance.

We believe that these non-HKFRS measures help identify underlying trends in our business and provide useful information for investors and others to understand and evaluate our results of operation. However, adjusted net profit for the year/period (non-HKFRS measure), EBITDA (non-HKFRS measure) and adjusted EBITDA (non-HKFRS measure) have material limitations as analytical tools. When assessing our operating and financial performance, you should not consider these non-HKFRS measures in isolation from or as substitutes for financial performance metrics that is calculated in accordance with HKFRS Accounting Standards. The term “adjusted net profit for the year/period (non-HKFRS measure),” “EBITDA (non-HKFRS measure)” and “adjusted EBITDA (non-HKFRS measure)” are not defined under HKFRS Accounting Standards and may not be comparable to other similarly named measures used by other companies.

We define adjusted net profit for the year/period (non-HKFRS measure) as (loss)/profit for the year/period adjusted for (i) listing expenses, (ii) equity-settled share-based payment expenses, and (iii) interest on redeemable Preferred Shares. Listing expenses primarily include professional fees incurred in connection with the Listing and the Global Offering. Equity-settled share-based payment expenses represent non-cash expenses related to the granting of Share Options to eligible individuals under the Share Incentive Plan. See Note 28 to the Accountants’ Report for details. Interest on redeemable Preferred Shares represents interest on our Series A, Series A+ and Series B Preferred Shares. See Note 27 to the Accountants’ Report for details. We define EBITDA (non-HKFRS measure) as (loss)/profit for the year/period adjusted for (i) depreciation of property, plant and equipment, (ii) depreciation of right-of-use assets, (iii) amortization of intangible assets, (iv) finance costs, (v) interest income and (vi) income tax. We define adjusted EBITDA (non-HKFRS measure) as EBITDA (non-HKFRS measure) adjusted by listing expenses and equity-settled share-based payments.

SUMMARY

We recorded a net loss of RMB21.2 million in 2022, followed by a net profit of RMB27.2 million in 2023, RMB58.5 million in 2024, RMB28.2 million and RMB48.5 million for the six months ended June 30 2024 and 2025. Our relatively low net loss in 2022 was primarily due to (i) the low gross profit rate in relation to the limited product range, low pricing, and market entry of certain products via complimentary and trial-size packs; and (ii) a relatively high proportion of selling expenses in order to expand distribution channels, enhance brand awareness and reach a broader customer base. The increase in revenue, net profit and adjusted net profit for the year/period (non-HKFRS measure) in 2023 and 2024 and the six months ended June 30, 2024 and 2025 was mainly driven by (i) an increase in sales revenue resulting from stronger brand recognition and a broader SKU portfolio, and (ii) a decrease in effective income tax rate reflecting a reduced ratio of promotional expenses to sales revenue, which increased the portion of expenses eligible for tax deduction.

DIVIDENDS

As advised by our Cayman Islands legal advisor, under Cayman Islands law, a position of accumulated losses does not necessarily restrict our Company from declaring and paying dividends to our Shareholders out of either our profit or our share premium account, provided this appears to the Board to be justified by the financial conditions and the profits of the Company and would not result in our Company being unable to pay its debts as they fall due in the ordinary course of business immediately following the date on which the dividend is proposed to be paid.

We do not maintain a formal dividend policy or have a fixed dividend distribution ratio. During the Track Record Period, we did not declare or distribute any dividend. We have no present plan to pay any dividends on our Shares in the foreseeable future. We intend to retain most, if not all, of our available funds and any future earnings to operate and expand our business.

As we are a holding company incorporated under the laws of the Cayman Islands, the payment and amount of any future dividends will also depend on the availability of dividends received from our subsidiaries. Any future determination to pay dividends will be made at the discretion of our Board of Directors and may be based on a number of factors, including our future operations and earnings, capital requirements and surplus, general financial condition, contractual restrictions and other factors that the Board of Directors may deem relevant. Our Shareholders may approve, in a general meeting, any declaration of dividends, which must not exceed the amount recommended by our Board.

RECENT DEVELOPMENT AND NO MATERIAL ADVERSE CHANGE

We undertook a number of initiatives to advance our global expansion, which includes expanding our overseas distribution network to South Korea. These are our initial efforts to bring BeBeBus to new markets, extending our reach to a broader user community worldwide.

Our Directors confirm that, as of the date of this prospectus, there has been no material adverse change in our financial and trading positions or prospects since June 30, 2025, being the date on which our latest unaudited consolidated financial statements were prepared, and there has been no event since June 30, 2025 which would materially affect the information in the Accountants' Report.

IMPACT OF COVID-19 ON OUR OPERATIONS

In early-2020, China and several other countries experienced an outbreak of COVID-19. To contain its spread, the Chinese government implemented periodic restrictions in various cities until early-2023. Our Directors believe that COVID-19 and the related restrictive measures taken by the government did not have a material adverse impact on our production, business, results of operations or financial performance during the Track Record Period and up to the Latest Practicable Date, as evidenced by our revenue growth of 68.0% from RMB507.2 million in 2022 to RMB852.1 million in 2023, 46.6% from RMB852.1 million in 2023 to RMB1,248.9 million in 2024, and 24.7% from RMB581.9 million in the six months ended June 30, 2024 to RMB725.8 million in the six months ended June 30, 2025.

APPLICATION FOR LISTING OF THE SHARES ON THE STOCK EXCHANGE

We have applied to the Stock Exchange for the listing of, and permission to deal in, the Shares in issue (including the Shares outstanding and to be converted from the Preferred Shares) and to be issued pursuant to (i) the Global Offering, (ii) the exercise of the Over-allotment Option, and (iii) the exercise of Share Options on the basis that, among other things, we satisfy the market capitalization/revenue/cash flow test under Rule 8.05(2) of the Listing Rules with reference to (i) our expected market capitalization at the time of Listing which, based on the low end of the indicative Offer Price range, exceeds HK$2 billion, (ii) our revenue for the year ended December 31, 2024, which exceeded HK$500 million, and (iii) our aggregate positive cash flow from operating activities carried out by our Group for the three years ended December 31, 2024, which exceeded HK$100 million.

OFFERING STATISTICS

The statistics in the following table are based on the assumptions that: (i) the Global Offering has been completed and 10,980,900 Shares are issued pursuant to the Global Offering; (ii) the Over-allotment Option is not exercised; and (iii) the Share Options granted under the Share Incentive Plan are not exercised.

	Based on the Offer Price of HK$62.01 per Offer Share	Based on the Offer Price of HK$71.20 per Offer Share
Market capitalization of our Shares ⁽¹⁾	HK$5,627 million	HK$6,461 million
Unaudited pro forma adjusted consolidated net tangible assets per Share ⁽²⁾	HK$11.90	HK$13.03

Notes:

- (1) The calculation of market capitalization is based on 90,751,378 Shares expected to be in issue immediately upon completion of the Global Offering, assuming the Over-allotment Option is not exercised and without taking into account any Shares which may be allotted and issued pursuant to the exercise of Share Options.
- (2) The unaudited pro forma adjusted consolidated net tangible assets per Share is arrived at after making the adjustments referred to in “Appendix IIA — Unaudited Pro Forma Statement of Adjusted Consolidated Net Tangible Assets” and on the basis that 86,175,740 Shares (excluding 4,575,638 Shares held by WEILING for the Share Incentive Plan as shown in Note 29(a) to the Accountants’ Report) are expected to be in issue immediately following the completion of the Global Offering and assuming that the Global Offering had been completed on June 30, 2025, without taking into account of the Shares which may be issued upon exercise of the Over-allotment Option and the Share Options granted under the Share Incentive Plan.

LISTING EXPENSES

Our listing expenses mainly include underwriting-related expenses, professional fees paid to legal advisers and the Reporting Accountants for their services rendered in relation to the Listing and the Global Offering. The estimated total listing expenses (based on the mid-point of our indicative price range for the Global Offering and assuming that the Over-allotment Option is not exercised) for the Global Offering are approximately RMB63.4 million (equivalent to approximately HK$69.6 million), representing 9.5% of the gross IPO proceeds. The estimated total listing expenses consist of (i) underwriting-related expenses (including but not limited to commissions and fees) of approximately RMB23.3 million (approximately HK$25.6 million), and (ii) non-underwriting related expenses of approximately RMB40.1 million (approximately HK$44.0 million), which consist of fees and expenses of legal advisors and Reporting Accountants of approximately RMB23.2 million (approximately HK$25.4 million), and other fees and expenses of approximately RMB16.9 million (approximately HK$18.6 million). Approximately RMB27.6 million (equivalent to approximately HK$30.3 million) of the estimated listing expense is directly attributable to the issue of new shares. During the Track Record Period, we incurred listing expenses of RMB19.7 million (equivalent to approximately HK$21.7 million), which has been charged to our consolidated statements of profit and loss, and RMB3.4 million (equivalent to approximately HK$3.7 million), which is directly attributable to the issuance of Shares and will be charged to equity upon completion of the Listing. We expect to incur additional listing expenses of approximately RMB40.3 million (equivalent to approximately HK$44.2 million), of which RMB16.1 million (equivalent to approximately HK$17.6 million) is expected to be charged to our consolidated statements of profit and loss and RMB24.2 million (equivalent to approximately HK$26.6 million) will be accounted for as a deduction from equity upon the completion of the Global offering. This calculation is subject to adjustment based on the actual amount incurred or to be incurred.

SUMMARY

FUTURE PLANS AND USE OF PROCEEDS

We estimate that we will receive net proceeds from the Global Offering of approximately HK$661.7 million, after deducting estimated underwriting commissions, fees and expenses payable by us in connection with the Global Offering, assuming an Offer Price of HK$66.60 per Share, being the mid-point of the indicative Offer Price range of HK$62.01 to HK$71.20 per Share, and assuming the Over-allotment Option is not exercised.

We currently intend to apply the net proceeds from the Global Offering for the following purposes:

- Approximately 25.7% of the net proceeds, or HK$170.0 million, is expected to be used to enhance our production capabilities;
- Approximately 16.6% of the net proceeds, or HK$110.0 million, is expected to be used for expanding our presence in overseas markets;
- Approximately 34.1% of the net proceeds, or HK$225.5 million, will be used for our branding activities and the expansion of our sales network;
- Approximately 13.6% of the net proceeds, or HK$90.0 million, is expected to be used for the research and development of new products; and

The following is a description of what we consider to be our material risks. Any of the following risks could materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects. The market price of the Shares could significantly decrease due to any of these risks, and you may lose all or part of your investment.

These factors are contingencies that may or may not occur, and we are not in a position to express a view on the likelihood of any such contingency occurring. RISKS RELATING TO OUR BUSINESS AND INDUSTRY

We face fierce industry competition. Failure to compete with other market players may adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

China’s nursery product market is highly competitive and has experienced consistent growth in recent years. In 2024, the top five brands collectively held approximately 18.9% of the market share as measured by GMV of mid- to high-end nursery products, according to Frost & Sullivan. Some of our current and potential competitors may have greater resources and better competitive positions in certain markets than we do, which may allow our competitors to respond more effectively than us to new or emerging technologies and changes in market requirements. Our competitors may develop products, features or services that are similar to ours or that achieve greater market acceptance, may undertake more far-reaching and successful product development efforts or marketing campaigns, or may adopt more aggressive pricing policies. Certain competitors could use strong or dominant positions in one or more markets to gain competitive advantage against us in areas where we operate by making acquisitions or by making access to our platform more difficult. As a result, our competitors may acquire and engage users at the expense of the growth or engagement of our user base, which may negatively affect our business and financial results.

In addition, competition in the e-commerce business is particularly intense and continues to intensify with the entry of new platforms and innovations. Customer preferences and buying behaviors may rapidly shift as e-commerce platforms become increasingly convenient, user-friendly, and accessible. Enhanced logistics, personalized marketing, advanced technology, and seamless customer experiences offered by various online channels provide consumers with a significantly broader range of choices and alternatives. Consequently, retaining customer loyalty and attracting new customers may become increasingly challenging, potentially impacting our market position, business performance, and financial outcomes.

RISK FACTORS

We believe the following factors affect our ability to compete successfully in the nursery product market, including market research, product development and design capability, ability to meet consumer preferences, product quality, interactive and long-standing customer relationships, and depth and breadth of sales network. We believe we compete favorably across these factors, however, some of our competitors may have better brand recognition, R&D capabilities and production capabilities than ours. As we introduce new products, as our existing products evolve, or as other companies introduce new products and services, we may become subject to additional competition. We cannot assure you that our position in China's nursery product industry will remain unchallenged by competitors, including both international and domestic companies that may possess greater financial and human resources. Consequently, we may face difficulties competing effectively, which could impact our market share and profit margins. Additionally, we cannot ensure that we will continue to differentiate ourselves from other nursery product companies or successfully market the products needed to retain existing customers and attract new ones. Failure to maintain our competitive position may materially adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

Our success depends on market recognition of our brands. Any damage to our brands or reputation may materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

We have achieved our market position and a broad consumer base through our brand in the nursery product industry. Our primary focus has been on continually enhancing our brand awareness among consumers. Since our inception, we have been dedicated to building our flagship brand, BeBeBus. Maintaining and strengthening the reputation and market recognition of our brand is crucial to our business performance as it fosters confidence in our brand and encourages more consumers to choose our products.

Our brands and reputation may be affected by various factors, such as:

- the quality and design of our products;
- consumer satisfaction with our products and services;
- our ability to communicate promptly and effectively and respond to consumers' questions or complaints;
- our ability to protect our trademarks and patents;
- our relationships with suppliers, customers and other business partners, especially e-commerce platforms, distributors and key accounts; and
- public and media coverage about us, whether substantiated or not.

RISK FACTORS

Any complaint, claim or negative publicity about us or our products, even if meritless or immaterial to our operations, could damage our brand and reputation. If we fail to maintain and strengthen the recognition and reputation of our brands, or to mitigate the risks associated with our brand image and reputation, the value of our brands may be compromised, which may materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

We have a limited operating history, which makes it challenging to evaluate our current business and predict our future prospects.

We began operations in 2018. Our relatively short operating history makes it challenging to assess our future prospects or forecast our future results, and you should consider our prospects in light of the risks, expenses and challenges that we may face as an early-stage company with limited experience operating such businesses in a competitive market. We have encountered and expect to continue to encounter risks and difficulties frequently experienced by early-stage businesses, and those risks and difficulties may be heightened in a rapidly evolving market. Some of the risks affect our ability to:

- retain customers and qualified employees;
- maintain effective control of our development as well as operating costs and expenses;
- develop and maintain internal personnel, systems, controls and procedures to comply with the extensive regulatory requirements applicable to the relevant industries;
- identify suitable business partners for production and collaboration;
- respond to competitive market conditions in the relevant industries; and
- respond to changes in our regulatory environment.

Our failure to achieve any of the above may jeopardize our profitability and brand reputation. Our customers and business partners may not fully understand or recognize the value of our products, and the potential new customers and business partners may have difficulty in distinguishing our products and services from those of our competitors. If we fail to demonstrate the value of our products and services, the markets for our products do not continue to develop as we expect, or if we fail to effectively address the needs of the dynamic and evolving industries in which we operate, our business may be materially and adversely affected.

RISK FACTORS

If we are unable to manage our growth or execute our strategies effectively, our expansion may not be successful and our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects may be materially and adversely affected.

Our business has grown substantially since our inception, and we expect continued growth in our operations, revenue and workforce. As we expand our product offerings, we will need to enter into strategic alliances with a larger number of partners efficiently and maintain and expand mutually beneficial relationships with our existing and new partners.

Strategic alliances with third parties could subject us to a number of risks, including risks associated with sharing proprietary information, non-performance by the counterparty, and an increase in expenses incurred in establishing new strategic alliances, any of which may materially and adversely affect our business. We may have little ability to control or monitor third-party partners' actions. To the extent the third parties suffer negative publicity or harm to their reputations from events relating to their business, we may also suffer negative publicity or harm to our reputation by virtue of our association with such third parties. We also need to continuously enhance and upgrade our infrastructure and technology, improve control over our operational, financial and management processes, strengthen our supplier and distributor management, refine our reporting systems and procedures, and expand, train and manage our growing employee base. All these initiatives require significant managerial, financial and human resources. We cannot assure you that we will be able to effectively manage our growth, that our current infrastructure, systems, procedures, and controls — or any new measures introduced to enhance them — will be sufficient or effective in supporting our expanding operations, or that our strategies and new business initiatives will be successfully executed. If we are not able to manage our growth or execute our strategies effectively, our expansion may not be successful and our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects may be materially and adversely affected.

If we fail to grow or retain our consumer base, or if we fail to anticipate or respond to changes in consumer tastes and behavioral patterns in a timely manner, our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects may be materially and adversely affected.

The size of our consumer base and the level of their engagement are critical to our success. If consumers no longer perceive our products as attractive as compared to competing offerings, we may not be able to increase or maintain our consumer base and the level of their engagement. Consumer demand may shift away from our products due to a number of factors, including consumer preferences, income, spending patterns, perception of the safety and quality of our products and changes in economic and social conditions, such as aging demographic. Therefore, our ability to compete successfully requires us to effectively anticipate, gauge and respond to changing consumer demands and tastes for our product lines and to provide consumers with a range of nursery products. A successful strategy requires us to respond promptly to shifts in consumer preferences and behavior in a timely manner. We cannot assure you that we will be successful in anticipating changing consumer preferences and behavioral patterns or developing new products to meet shifts in demand. Our failure to successfully translate market trends into attractive product offerings would have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

We may not be able to further penetrate existing markets or expand into other geographical markets.

To date, we are extending our footprint into major international markets such as Europe, Southeast Asia, and North America. If we are unable to find suitable or reliable customers, our overseas expansion strategy would be significantly affected. In addition, expansion may require a significant amount of capital investment and divert the resources and time of our management. We cannot assure you that we will be able to leverage our experience to expand into other new geographical markets. Our failure to expand into other new markets may have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects, and we may not have the same degree of success in these new markets that we have had to date.

As consumers globally prioritize environmentally conscious choices, the demand for non-toxic, renewable materials and eco-certified products is rapidly increasing. This shift, driven by regulatory changes like the EU's "Green Deal" and heightened consumer awareness, could result in reduced demand for traditional, non-sustainable nursery products. If we fail to adapt our product offerings to align with these evolving global and domestic preferences, we may fail to attract consumers and compete effectively in international markets, particularly in regions such as Europe and North America, where environmental standards are becoming increasingly stringent.

Successful entry into international markets exposes our business operations to a variety of risks, including unfavorable regulatory environments, political instability, currency fluctuations, taxation challenges and labor conditions, which could materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects. Operating in international markets requires the compliance with diverse legal, political, regulatory, quality and safety standards, and societal requirements, as well as adapting to varying economic conditions within these jurisdictions.

Moreover, international expansion demands extensive coordination across various jurisdictions and time zones, placing significant requirements on our management resources. We will be subject to numerous risks associated with international business activities that may increase costs, affect our capacity to market our products, and require substantial managerial attention, including but not limited to:

- ensuring that our products and services meet evolving international regulatory requirements, complying with quality and safety standards, international regulatory requirements and standards, especially any trade restrictions, tariffs, and price or exchange controls imposed by both the PRC and foreign governments;

RISK FACTORS

- managing complexities related to staffing and foreign operations, establishing and maintaining relationships with international suppliers while addressing potential supply chain disruptions, and adapting to foreign laws, regulations and restrictions;
- attracting customers in new international markets, and operating within legal frameworks and business practices that may favor local companies over international competitors;
- complying with foreign government tax, regulatory, and permit requirements, including foreign taxes that may not be offset against taxes imposed on us in the PRC, as well as foreign tax and other laws limiting our ability to repatriate funds to the PRC;
- managing fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates and interest rates, and adjusting to changes in diplomatic and trade relationships;
- protecting or procuring intellectual property rights internationally, and incurring expenses related to legal actions and liabilities in foreign jurisdictions; and
- addressing geopolitical factors, natural disasters, conflicts, terrorism, health epidemics, and their potential impacts, and evaluating the resilience of international economies.

If we fail to effectively mitigate these risks, our business, financial condition, results of operations, prospects, and cash flows could be materially impacted.

Declining birth rates and economic conditions may affect demand for nursery products.

The demand for nursery products relies on the number of children and broader economic conditions, which influence consumer spending per child. A decline in birth rates may reduce the overall market size for these products. In China, the newborn population declined from 12.0 million in 2020 to approximately 9.5 million in 2024, driven by factors such as a shrinking population of women of childbearing age and the rising average age of people getting married and giving birth. Additionally, economic fluctuations may influence consumer spending habits, further affecting market demand. If this trend continues, it could impact overall demand for nursery products, potentially affecting our business, results of operations, financial condition and prospect.

RISK FACTORS

Our business model may not be viable if we are not successful in introducing new designs and products or in making innovations in our existing products.

Our continued success depends on our ability to consistently improve existing products and develop new ones through research and development for commercialization. We introduce and upgrade new products and innovations to existing products from time to time and leverage on our established market reputation to attract customers and, in some cases, enable us to price our products at a premium. If we fail to introduce new designs, develop innovative products, or enhance existing offerings, we may lose our competitive edge. We believe our ability to maintain success and leadership in the industry is closely tied to the strength of our R&D capabilities. A significant decline in these capabilities, due to the loss of key R&D personnel, reduced funding for research and development, or other factors, could result in a substantial loss of market share to competitors.

Our launch of new products may not be successful and may expose us to new challenges and increased risks.

The success of our business expansion and sustained growth depends on our ability to broaden our range of product offerings, set competitive pricing for our products, and maintain cost efficiency in our R&D and manufacturing processes. Launch of new products will require us to invest heavily in identifying the right markets and developing new products. It may also require us to obtain additional permits, certificates or other regulatory approval. We cannot assure you that our efforts will translate into commercial success. Expanding into new markets or launching new products involves significant risks and uncertainties. We may fail to accurately estimate market opportunities, understand competitive landscape, or identify hidden risks in these new markets. If our new products or services are unsuccessful or fail to attract enough consumers to achieve profitability, our business, financial condition and results of operations could be adversely affected.

We mainly rely on e-commerce platforms to market and sell our products online. If these platforms experience interruption or if our cooperation with such platforms terminates, deteriorates or becomes more costly, our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects may be materially and adversely affected.

We rely on online e-commerce platforms to increase our brand exposure and extend our reach to consumers. We also sell products directly to consumers through our self-operated stores on e-commerce platforms. During the Track Record Period, we generated the majority of our revenue from sales on e-commerce platforms. In 2022, 2023 and 2024 and the six months ended June 30, 2024 and 2025, we generated revenue of RMB408.1 million, RMB596.5 million, RMB840.9 million, RMB387.6 million and RMB475.3 million from e-commerce platforms, respectively, representing 80.5%, 70.0%, 67.3%, 66.6% and 65.5% of our revenue during the same years/periods. See “Business — Our Sales Network” for details.

RISK FACTORS

At the same time, we are also exploring development opportunities on emerging e-commerce platforms. To better connect with consumers, we regularly conduct themed marketing activities on e-commerce platforms and in our online stores to attract consumers' attention. We cannot assure you that we will be able to maintain market position due to various factors beyond our control, such as increased competition, evolving sales channels and changing consumer behaviors, all of which may adversely affect our cooperation with the platforms. Changes in the platforms themselves or our cooperation with the platforms may materially and adversely affect our consumer base, and in turn affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects, including:

- the platforms are subject to negative publicity not attributable to us, such as their counterfeit or defective goods;
- the platforms fail to generate consumer traffic;
- our cooperation with the platforms is interrupted, terminates, deteriorates or becomes more costly;
- changes in the policies of the platforms, such as restricting some of our marketing initiatives or the performance of certain influencers we partner with; and
- the platforms are damaged or interrupted by power failure, computer viruses, acts of hacking and vandalism.

In China, sales channels have undergone significant changes and may continue to evolve in the future. We must continue to monitor trends in product distribution and to make necessary changes in order to optimize our current sales network as well as exploit new channels. As such changes are beyond our control, we cannot assure you that our relationship with the e-commerce platforms will remain stable or platforms will constantly attract consumers for us. We cannot assure you that the cost of cooperating with e-commerce platforms will not increase. We also cannot assure you that we are able to respond effectively to changes of consumer behavior with the rise of new platforms or new sales models, especially given the leading position of some of the e-commerce platforms we have collaborated with. Establishing relationships with new business partners can be time-consuming and may incur additional costs. If we fail to expand into new sales channels, we may lose our competitive advantages to competitors or experience consumer attrition, thereby limiting the scale of our development in the future. Our ability to successfully integrate the new channels into our existing multichannel sales network is subject to various factors such as (i) the availability of adequate management and financial resources; (ii) our ability to hire, train and retain skilled personnel; and (iii) our capabilities to adjust our supply chain and other operational and management systems to adapt to an expanded sales network. Failure to successfully expand our sales network could limit the scale of our future growth and, in turn, materially and adversely affect our business prospects.

RISK FACTORS

Our marketing activities may not be effective in attracting consumers, or we may incur significant costs in a variety of sales and marketing efforts through multiple channels. Any failure to execute effective sales and marketing strategies or adjust such strategies to the latest market trend timely may materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations and prospects.

We conduct various marketing activities to promote our products, such as livestreaming events, online promotional campaigns and content marketing, and offline marketing events. Through these marketing activities, we intend to enhance our brand awareness in the market, expand our consumer base and promote sales of our products. We strive to understand consumer preferences and enhance our brand awareness through various strategies. In 2022, 2023 and 2024 and the six months ended June 30, 2024 and 2025, our selling and distribution expenses were RMB188.9 million, RMB285.7 million, RMB391.1 million, RMB182.0 million and RMB224.6 million, respectively, accounting for 37.2%, 33.5%, 31.3%, 31.3% and 30.9% of our revenue during the same years/periods.

We cannot guarantee that the marketing strategies we apply will be cost-effective. In addition, we also may not be able to retain or recruit experienced sales and marketing staff, or to efficiently train junior sales and marketing staff. If the sales and marketing activities to which we devote significant resources are ineffective, our business, financial condition and results of operations may be materially and adversely affected. Additionally, as technology evolves rapidly and the ways people access and share information continue to change, we have to adjust our marketing strategies and diversify our product offerings to cater to consumers with varying preferences and characteristics. We cannot assure you that our marketing activities will precisely capture the consumer behavioral pattern so that purchases of our products will increase, or that our sales and marketing strategies apply effectively to the new brands that we may launch, and the failure of any of these may materially and adversely affect our results of operations.

Moreover, as consumer preferences change over time and new sales channels emerge, we may not always be able to quickly identify or capitalize on these market opportunities. Failure to maintain strong relationships with suppliers, customers, and other business partners, effectively execute our marketing strategies, or promptly adapt to market trends could lead to a loss of market share, reduced revenue, and harm to our business. In particular, our relationships with third parties such as distributors, key accounts and e-commerce platforms are vital for our sales and marketing efforts as they provide us with extensive market access and insights that help enhance our brand awareness. Nonetheless, we cannot guarantee the continuation or strengthening of these relationships, as they may be affected by potential market exits, changes in strategic priorities, or partnerships with competitors. If we fail to maintain these relationships, our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects may be materially and adversely affected.

RISK FACTORS

We depend in part on our distributor network for the sale of our products. We may encounter challenges in efficiently expanding our distributor network. Our limited control over our distributors exposes us to significant risks.

We distribute our products through various channels, including distributors. In 2022, 2023 and 2024 and the six months ended June 30, 2024 and 2025, our revenue generated from sales to distributors amounted to RMB55.8 million, RMB132.4 million, RMB199.0 million, RMB95.1 million and RMB137.5 million, respectively, contributing to 11.0%, 15.5%, 15.9%, 16.3% and 18.9% of our revenue, respectively. We rely on the extensive market reach and established relationships that our distributors have with consumers. However, we cannot assure you that we shall be able to integrate and maintain long-term, in-depth cooperation with our existing sales channels. Furthermore, we cannot assure the successful establishment of partnerships with new distributors and the renewal of contracts with our existing distributors upon their expiration. If we are unable to meet their requirements, or are expected to incur commercially unreasonable performance costs, our cooperation may be terminated, which could have a material adverse impact on our reach to consumers, business, financial condition and results of operations.

We maintain limited control over the actions and business plans of our distributors. These parties may engage in various forms of misconduct, even if we prohibit them from doing so in our agreements with them, including but not limited to, unauthorized sales of products or distribution into regions that violate distribution rights, unauthorized sales of products on any e-commerce platform, unauthorized or improper use of our brand name, inadequate promotion of our products, and violating the anti-corruption laws in the PRC. Any misconduct by our distributors could have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations, reputation, brand recognition and market position.

We generally permit our distributors to engage sub-distributors but do not enter into agreements or establish direct relationships with them. As a result, we do not have direct control over sub-distributors. Any failure by sub-distributors or retailers to comply with our brand and pricing requirements, whether through unauthorized discounting, sales leakage outside designated regions or brand misuse, could have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations, reputation, brand recognition and market position.

Failure of our distributors to comply with our agreements or relevant legal and regulatory requirements could tarnish our brand image and disrupt our sales. If we become aware of any distributor failing to fulfill its obligations under our agreements or violating laws, regulations or standards, to the extent that we are involved in negative publicity, legal actions or administrative penalties, our ability to effectively market and sell our products may be adversely affected.

In addition, we face risks associated with managing our multichannel sales network. We have implemented measures to prevent risks relating to channel stuffing and cannibalization. See “Business — Our Sales Network — Offline Channels — Distributors” for details. However, our multiple sales channels might compete with each other and we cannot guarantee that our measures will be completely effective, which could have a material and adverse impact on our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

RISK FACTORS

We may not be able to maintain our revenue growth and profitability or realize revenue increase and good profitability continuously, and our historical results of operations and financial performance may not be indicative of future performance.

We experienced significant growth during the Track Record Period. Our revenue increased by 68.0% from RMB507.2 million in 2022 to RMB852.1 million in 2023, and increased by 46.6% to RMB1,248.9 million in 2024. Our revenue further increased by 24.7% from RMB581.9 million in the six months ended June 30, 2024 to RMB725.8 million in the six months ended June 30, 2025. Our gross profit increased by 76.7% from RMB241.8 million in 2022 to RMB427.3 million in 2023, and increased by 47.2% to RMB629.1 million in 2024. Our gross profit further increased by 22.6% from RMB292.3 million in the six months ended June 30, 2024 to RMB358.5 million in the six months ended June 30, 2025. There is no assurance that we will be able to maintain our product sales and our historical growth rate, or achieve a higher growth rate in the future. We face a number of risks in terms of achieving our future plans, such as:

- integrating more channels into our sales network;
- expanding our production facilities;
- controlling costs and operating expenses in anticipation of expanded operations;
- recruiting and retaining suitable and professional employees;
- implementing and enhancing our internal control systems and other systems or processes; and
- addressing new market opportunities and foreseeing challenges as they arise.

If some factors beyond our control emerge, such as decreased consumer spending, intensified competition, a slowdown in China's nursery product industry, or changes in the regulatory environment or general economic conditions, our revenue growth may become slow, and our revenue and gross profit may be negatively affected.

We recorded net liabilities as of December 31, 2022, 2023 and 2024, and recorded a net loss in the year ended December 31, 2022.

We recorded net liabilities of RMB144.8 million, RMB112.2 million, and RMB42.8 million as of December 31, 2022, 2023 and 2024, respectively. In addition, we recorded a net loss of RMB21.2 million in 2022. Our net loss and net liabilities position as of each of these dates were primarily due to the recognition of the financial liabilities for the redeemable Preferred Shares that we issued to certain investors as shown in Note 27 to the Accountants' Report. However, there is no assurance that we will generate sufficient net income or operating cash flows to meet our working capital requirements and repay our liabilities as they become due. There can be no assurance that we will be able to prudently manage our working capital or raise additional equity or debt financing on terms that are acceptable to us. Our inability to take these actions as and when necessary could materially adversely affect our liquidity, results of operations and financial condition.

We recorded net current liabilities of RMB129.6 million as of June 30, 2025.

We recorded net current liabilities of RMB129.6 million as of June 30, 2025, primarily due to the reclassification of redeemable Preferred Shares. Net current liabilities may expose us to certain liquidity risks and could constrain our operational flexibility as well as adversely affect our ability to expand our business. Our future liquidity, the payment of trade and other payables, as and when they become due, will primarily depend on our ability to maintain adequate cash inflows from our operating activities and adequate external financing, which will be affected by our future operating performance, prevailing economic conditions, our financial, business and other factors, many of which are beyond our control. If we do not have sufficient working capital to meet future financial needs, we may need to resort to external funding. Our inability to obtain additional external borrowings on a timely basis or on acceptable terms, or at all, may also force us to abandon our development and expansion plans, and our business, financial condition and results of operations may be materially and adversely affected.

Our dependence on a small number of customers exposes us to revenue fluctuations and potential financial instability.

The performance of our business has been, and will continue to be, dependent on a small group of major customers. Revenue from our five largest customers in each year/period during the Track Record Period amounted to RMB126.9 million, RMB269.7 million, RMB406.7 million and RMB246.3 million, respectively, accounting for 25.0%, 31.7%, 32.6% and 33.9% of our total revenue for the respective years/periods. Our largest customer in each year/period during the Track Record Period contributed RMB58.3 million, RMB97.7 million, RMB161.5 million and RMB111.9 million, respectively, accounting for 11.5%, 11.5%, 12.9% and 15.4% of our total revenue for the respective years/periods. See “Business — Customers” for details.

We typically enter into one-year contracts with our major customers, which include provisions allowing termination in the event of a material breach on our part. Given the short-term nature of these agreements, we cannot guarantee the continuation of business relationships at the same level or under the same terms. Our ability to negotiate favorable terms is limited, and we cannot assure that payments will be made in accordance with the agreed-upon credit terms, or that they will be made in full.

The loss of, or a reduction in purchases from, any of these major customers could significantly impact our operations. Finding replacement customers in a timely manner, if at all, may prove difficult. As a result, any disruption to our relationships with these major customers could materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, and results of operations.

RISK FACTORS

Depending on a limited number of suppliers, we produce our products through in-house manufacturing and outsourcing to a few third-party manufacturers, which may subject us to supplier concentration risks. Any decline in our production capacity and any disruption to, or material unfavorable changes in, our outsourcing cooperation with third-party manufacturers will have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

Our production capacity is integral to our production control and supply chain management system, which depends on our ability to manage the key factors affecting our production capacity, namely, raw materials, labor and energy. The demand and sales of our certain products may sharply increase during our marketing campaigns and peak production seasons, which in turn may cause production capacity to be unable to satisfy sales needs.

Our material costs constituted 17.5%, 17.3%, 11.6%, 12.0% and 8.6% of our cost of sales for the years/periods ended December 31, 2022, 2023 and 2024 and the six months ended June 30, 2024 and 2025, respectively. We work closely with a network of reliable suppliers to maintain a steady and sufficient supply and directly source specific raw materials through third-party manufacturers as needed, such as plastic, steel, paper, cotton and fabrics. We may face challenges in obtaining adequate supplies in the necessary quantities, quality and at a reasonable cost. If there are significant disruptions or reductions in the supply of raw materials, or if prices increase substantially, we could incur additional costs to secure sufficient quantities to meet production schedules and fulfill customer commitments. Moreover, if we are unable to identify alternative sources or obtain the necessary raw materials in a timely manner, any resulting production shortfalls could lead to inventory shortages at our retail outlets. Any of the foregoing could impair our ability to meet customer demand and may have an adverse effect on our reputation, business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

During the Track Record Period, we relied on a limited number of suppliers, especially third-party manufacturers and e-commerce platforms. Our purchases from our five largest suppliers in aggregate in each year/period during the Track Record Period amounted to RMB204.5 million, RMB271.9 million, RMB396.8 million and RMB229.9 million, respectively, accounting for 52.1%, 44.6%, 43.5% and 47.0% of our total purchases in each year/period during the Track Record Period. Our purchases from our largest supplier in each year/period during the Track Record Period amounted to RMB77.0 million, RMB93.1 million, RMB117.8 million and RMB68.8 million, respectively, accounting for 19.6%, 15.3%, 12.9% and 14.1% of our total purchases for the respective years/periods. See “Business — Suppliers and Supply Chain Management” for details. This reliance creates a concentration risk that could have a material adverse effect on our supply chain and operations. Third-party manufacturers may not be able to provide us with products of sufficiently high quality either in a timely manner or at a competitive price. We may, from time to time, need to reject products that do not meet our specifications, which could result in a stock shortage or potential delays in delivering products to our customers. In addition, if there are significant increases in the prices quoted by our third-party manufacturers, we may not be able to in turn increase prices of our services or products to our customers due to competitive pricing pressures. In such cases, we may have to seek alternative third-party manufacturers with comparable prices and products or develop similar manufacturing capabilities internally which may result in delivery delays to our customers. If we are unable to locate suitable substitutes or manufacture these products internally, we may have to cease sales of such items, which could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

The manufacturing process for products in our industry is complex and any failure to adhere to quality and safety standards may adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

The nursery product industry is subject to quality and safety standards in jurisdictions where we operate. In addition, such standards are generally higher than those stipulated in many other industries, in large part due to the need to protect infants and children from harm arising from defective products. For example, strollers and car seats may be subject to mass recalls if there are incidents of such models allegedly resulting in injury or death to infants or children. We did not incur any material recalls during the Track Record Period and up to the Latest Practicable Date. We cannot assure you that future instances of product recalls will not have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects. We believe that consumers value nursery product companies that have a reputation for high quality and safety. If we fail to adhere to quality and safety standards that meet the expectations of consumers when manufacturing our products, our reputation may be harmed, we may lose critical customer orders, or our products may be recalled and we face product liability claims.

Our production may be disrupted by events beyond our control, including operational hazards or natural calamities.

Our manufacturing equipment includes potentially dangerous equipment, such as flammables and chemicals. Any significant accident or fire could interrupt our operations and result in legal and regulatory liabilities. Our insurance coverage for accidents resulting from the proper or improper use of such equipment, and our fire insurance, may be inadequate to offset losses arising from claims related to accidents or fires. Moreover, any equipment involved in an accident, malfunction or fire may be damaged or destroyed, and we may need to devote time and resources to repair or restore it, thereby adversely impacting our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects. The operation of our manufacturing equipment may be disrupted for reasons that are beyond our control, including natural disasters, industrial accidents, fires, arson, terrorist attacks, technical failures and labor disputes.

Our delivery, return and exchange policies may subject us to additional costs and expenses, which may adversely impact our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

We have adopted shipping policies that do not necessarily pass the full cost of shipping on to our customers. Our product return policy allows products with defects to be returned and exchanged by our customers within a specified period. If we experience any deterioration in the quality of our products, we will incur higher costs associated with returns, exchanges and warranties. We have also adopted customer-friendly return and exchange policies that make it convenient and easy for customers to change their minds within seven days after completing direct online purchases from us. See “Business — Customers Support” for details. During the Track Record Period, we have recorded RMB0.8 million, RMB2.2 million, RMB3.6 million and RMB2.1 million for our warranties, respectively. As sales volume grows, the number of products requiring warranty services will also increase, resulting in higher additional costs and expenses.

In addition to higher warranty-related expenses, returns and exchanges can significantly affect our profitability and disrupt operations. During the Track Record Period, we recorded exchange amounts of RMB0.4 million, RMB2.6 million, RMB3.1 million and RMB4.5 million, respectively, and we recorded return amounts of RMB3.7 million, RMB13.9 million, RMB15.7 million and RMB10.1 million, respectively, both of which directly reduced profit due to refund outflows and product losses from wear, damage or depreciation. A high return volume can also affect inventory planning and product mix, resulting in slower turnover, particularly for seasonal products that, when returned after peak periods, may become obsolete and incur higher storage costs. Elevated return or exchange rates may also weaken consumer confidence, prompt negative feedback on social media, and harm our brand reputation. Operationally, sudden changes in return volume can disrupt supply chain planning, including production and procurement, which potentially causes overproduction or raw material waste. We also incur additional costs related to returns, such as labor for inspection and sorting, repackaging, restocking or disposal and shipping and logistics expenses for both returned and replacement items.

In addition, we may also be required by law to adopt new or amend existing return, exchange and warranty policies from time to time. While these policies improve customer experience and promote customer loyalty, which may in turn help us acquire and retain customers, they also subject us to additional costs and expenses which we may not recoup through increased revenue. We cannot assure you that our return, exchange and warranty policy will not be misused by our customers, which may significantly increase our costs and may materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects. If we revise these policies to reduce our costs and expenses, our customers may be dissatisfied, which may result in loss of existing customers or failure to acquire new customers at a desirable pace, which may materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

We are subject to various environmental and safety laws and regulations that may potentially result in costs for compliance or, in the case of non-compliance, could lead to monetary damages, fines, other liabilities, and harm to our brand and reputation.

We are subject to multiple environmental and safety laws and regulations related to the manufacturing of our products in the manufacturing process and the operation of our production facilities. Such laws and regulations govern the use, storage, discharge and disposal of hazardous materials during the manufacturing process. Development in these laws or other new environmental and safety laws and regulations may require us to change our operations, potentially resulting in a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows and prospects. These laws can give rise to administrative oversight costs, cleanup costs, property damage, liability for bodily injury, fines and penalties. Violations of these laws and regulations could result in substantial fines and penalties, third-party damages, suspension of production, remedial actions or a cessation of our operations. Contamination at properties we own or operate may result in liability for us under environmental laws and regulations.

In addition, Chinese government may issue new regulations that may require us to take additional actions to ensure compliance in the future. If our plants or any of our other future constructions fail to comply with applicable regulations, we could be subject to substantial liability for clean-up efforts, personal injury or fines or be forced to close or temporarily cease the operations of our production facilities or other relevant constructions, any of which could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

Our operations are also subject to workplace safety laws and regulations, which require compliance with various workplace safety requirements, including requirements related to environmental safety. These laws and regulations can give rise to oversight costs, compliance costs, liability for bodily injury (including workers' compensation), fines, and penalties. Additionally, non-compliance could result in delay or suspension of production or cessation of operations. The costs required to comply with workplace safety laws can be significant, and non-compliance could adversely affect our production or other operations, which could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

We are also subject to applicable fire safety laws in the PRC. In accordance with the Fire Prevention Law of the PRC (《中華人民共和國消防法》) adopted on April 29, 1998, amended, and taking effect on April 29, 2021, a special construction project as provided in the Interim Provisions on the Examination and Acceptance of Fire Control and Design of Construction Projects (《建設工程消防設計審查驗收管理暫行規定》) adopted on June 1, 2020, amended, and taking effect on October 30, 2023, shall be subject to fire protection design review before such project commence construction and shall be subject to fire protection inspection before such project was put into use. Other construction projects shall be subject to fire protection inspection filing, and the competent department of housing and urban-rural development shall conduct a random fire protection inspection thereof. The constructor or user entity shall apply to the fire and rescue department of the local government at or above county level for a fire safety inspection before a public gathering place is put into use or opens for business.

Moreover, there is a growing focus on the environmental practices of manufacturers. Additionally, more stringent social responsibility laws and regulations may be adopted in the future, which may result in an increase in our cost of compliance. Compliance with such regulations is considered costly industry-wide. As we expand into new markets, we will become subject to additional environmental and safety laws and regulations. We may incur additional costs to ensure compliance with such laws and regulations, as well as to manage local labor practices.

We may encounter cost increases or disruptions in the supply of raw materials or other components used in our products.

We incur substantial cost of purchases associated with the procurement of raw materials and components necessary for manufacturing and assembling our products. The prices of these raw materials and components are subject to fluctuations and influenced by factors beyond our control, including market conditions, inflation, supply chain shortages, and global demand for these materials and components, all of which could adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operation and prospects.

Furthermore, currency fluctuations and tariffs, along with other economic or political conditions, may lead to significant increases in shipping costs and the prices of raw materials or components. Any substantial increase in these costs would raise our operating expenses and could potentially reduce our profit margins.

Any issues or delays in scaling and maintaining operations at our existing production facility or establishing new production facilities could negatively affect the production of our products.

We manufacture our car seats and highchairs products at our own production facility in Ningbo, Zhejiang. We also plan to build another production facility in Ningbo (“New Ningbo Facility”), which is expected to commence operations in 2026. Maintaining and expanding our production facilities, as well as establishing new ones, will require substantial capital resources and might incur associated depreciation costs. There is no guarantee that we can complete these constructions in a cost-effective manner or recoup these investments through our production and sales. Any construction delays or budget overruns could adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operation and prospects.

Our production facilities, filled with production machines, raw materials and components, expose both employees and visitors to heightened risks of bodily injury. These risks arise from interactions with heavy equipment, the complex nature of mechanical operations, and potential exposure to hazardous materials. Moreover, the conditions within these plants can lead to accidents unless safety protocols are strictly enforced and updated on a regular basis. Any resulting bodily injuries at our production facility, regardless of our fault, could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operation and prospects.

Additionally, in accordance with PRC laws and regulations, construction projects are subject to extensive government oversight and approval processes, including but not limited to project approvals and filings, approvals for construction land and project planning, environmental protection permits, pollution discharge licenses, drainage permits, work safety approvals, fire protection clearances, and inspections and acceptance by relevant authorities. Any failure to abide by these approval processes may lead to fines or project use suspensions, any of which would materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operation and prospects.

Our leased property interests may be defective or subject to other non-compliance and our right to lease the properties may be affected, which could cause disruption to our business.

As of the Latest Practicable Date, we maintained nine leased properties in the PRC with an aggregate gross floor area of approximately 18,836.93 square meters from third parties, mainly used as stores, production facilities, and offices. Our leases may be terminated unexpectedly due to various reasons, such as the landlord opting to repurpose the property, financial disputes, or breaches of lease terms. Such terminations could force us to find alternative premises quickly, potentially at higher costs or less favorable locations, impacting our operational efficiency and increasing costs. When leases on critical properties come up for renewal, there may be challenges in renegotiating terms that are as favorable as the original lease. Landlords may demand higher rent, more stringent lease conditions, or shorter lease durations. Inflationary pressures or changes in the real estate market could also exacerbate this issue, leading to increased operational costs and potentially limiting our flexibility in business operations.

Pursuant to the applicable PRC laws and regulations, both lessors and lessees are required to file the lease agreements with relevant authorities for record and obtain property leasing filing certificates for their leases. As of the Latest Practicable Date, five of the above-mentioned leases have been registered and filed with the relevant PRC authorities. The failure to file and obtain property leasing filing certificates for the other four leases, as required under PRC laws, may be ordered by relevant authorities to make correction within a stipulated period. Failure to make correction within the stipulated period may subject us to a fine ranging from RMB1,000 to RMB10,000 for each agreement not filed. If such fines are imposed, the maximum penalty we may be required to pay would be approximately RMB40,000 for the above four leased properties.

In addition, as of the Latest Practicable Date, two of our leased properties were mortgaged to independent third parties before entering into the lease agreements, and two of these leased properties were subject to judicial attachments. We may not be able to lease, occupy and use such leased properties if the lease was challenged by a third-party rights holder, and the attachment to these properties will not materially adversely affect our business, financial condition, or results of operations. See “Business — Properties — Leased Properties” for details. However, our use of these leased properties may still be adversely affected. As a result, we may need to close or relocate the current properties mainly used as stores, production facilities, and offices by us. We may be forced to divert management attention, time and costs to find new sites and relocate these properties mainly used as stores, production facilities, and offices by us.

RISK FACTORS

Warehousing and logistics capabilities are key to our operations. We are subject to risks relating to the warehousing and logistics of the products we sell. Any interruption or delay of delivery or improper handling of goods may affect our efficiency and customer satisfaction, which may result in a negative effect on our business.

We store our products in the warehouses of third-party warehousing service suppliers before delivery. If accidents such as fires occur, our ability to perform the contracts with our customers could be adversely affected.

During the Track Record Period, we have relied primarily on third-party logistics service providers for our distribution needs. We cannot guarantee that our products will always be delivered within the agreed timeframe. Since we do not have direct control over these outsourced logistics providers, we cannot assure the quality of the delivery process. Improper handling of products could lead to customer dissatisfaction and damage our brand reputation. Any delay or disruption in delivery, or mishandling of goods, could materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operation and prospects.

We are required to obtain and maintain necessary licenses, approvals and permits for our operations, the failure to obtain or renew any of which may have a material adverse effect on us.

Our business operations require us to obtain and periodically renew various approvals, licenses, registrations, and permits. For instance, in addition to business licenses, we must secure Registration of Emissions from Stationary Sources permits (固定污染源排污登記) for our production activities, which are granted upon demonstrating compliance with relevant laws and regulations, including the Classification Management Catalogue to Pollutant Emission Permit for Stationary Sources of Pollution (《固定污染源排污許可分類管理名錄》). These approvals, licenses and permits are subject to examination or verification by relevant authorities and are valid for a fixed period of time, subject to renewal and accreditation. We cannot guarantee that we will be able to renew in a timely manner all of the licenses upon their expiration.

In addition, we may increase our business lines or make acquisitions in the future, which may expose us to the risk of being unable to obtain the required licenses, approvals or permits. Further, the approvals, licenses, registrations and permits issued to us may be suspended or revoked in the event of noncompliance or alleged noncompliance with any terms or conditions thereof, or pursuant to any regulatory action.

Our New Ningbo Facility, which is expected to commence operations in 2026, is under construction. During the Track Record Period, there was an instance where construction commenced on certain parcels before the formal amendment of the construction permit, which has been fully rectified. See “Business — Legal Compliance and Proceedings — Permits and Certificates for Our New Ningbo Facility” for details. Any failure to renew the approvals that have expired or apply for and obtain the required approvals, licenses, registrations or permits, or any suspension or revocation of any of the approvals, licenses, registrations and permits that have been or may be issued to us, as well as any noncompliance incidents, may increase our operational costs and impede our operations.

We rely on an integrated information management infrastructure to manage our operations.

We depend on our integrated information management infrastructure, particularly our ERP system, to effectively manage our production control and supply chain. The ERP system holds critical data for various business functions, such as quotas, inventory, and financials. To ensure the system's secure operation, we have implemented a range of internal management policies, including regulations for IT system account and access management, as well as IT system change control. Any failure or disruption to our ERP system, whether due to technical issues, design defects, or human error, could hinder our ability to manage production control and supply chain operations. Such a disruption may result in inaccurate cost estimates, supply chain disruptions, or, in extreme cases, material financial losses and operational setbacks.

Furthermore, our ERP system operates on a SaaS subscription model, with the flexibility to upgrade versions or implement custom developments to align with our evolving business needs. However, as our business grows, we may encounter limitations if the ERP system cannot be modified or upgraded to support the increasing demands of our expanding and diversifying operations.

In addition, we track key operating metrics, such as industrial design, visual aesthetics and structural integrity, to assess business performance, which are calculated using internal project management software. If any material inaccuracies are found in the metrics we use, or if they are perceived as unreliable, our reputation could suffer, and our evaluation methods may be called into question. Furthermore, if investors base their decisions on inaccurate operating metrics, we could face potential legal actions or disputes. Any of the foregoing could materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

Our future performance is dependent on our ability to attract and retain key personnel.

Our future performance depends to a significant extent upon our ability to continue to attract, retain and motivate key personnel, including members of our senior management team and our skilled technical and market research, product development and design, and marketing and sales personnel. We expect the demand for skilled and experienced personnel to increase as the nursery product industry expands. In addition, we will require an increasing number of experienced executives and other skilled employees to implement our growth plans. If we lose the services of any of these key personnel without suitable replacement, such loss may limit our competitiveness, interrupt our production processes, reduce our manufacturing quality or cause consumer dissatisfaction, any of which would adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects. Moreover, we do not maintain "key personnel" insurance for the loss of any key personnel. If we are unable to retain or replace our existing personnel or attract, retain and motivate experienced personnel in the future, our operations may be disrupted, and the growth of our business may be delayed or restricted.

Negative publicity about us or our peers, regardless of its accuracy, could materially and adversely affect our business, brand image or reputation.

Our reputation and brand are vulnerable to many threats that can be difficult or impossible to control. Any malicious or negative publicity about our Company, implicating the quality of our products and services, the integrity of our business practices, compliance with laws, and financial condition or prospects, whether with merit or not, could severely harm our business, financial condition, results of operation and prospects. Furthermore, negative developments in the nursery product industry, such as regulatory actions against other players or adoption of new laws or regulations that restrict the provision of nursery products, may result in a negative perception of the industry as a whole and undermine the brand recognition we have established. In addition, we are exposed to detrimental conducts against us, including complaints, anonymous or otherwise, to regulatory agencies regarding our operations, accounting, revenue, and regulatory compliance. Moreover, any actual or perceived illegal acts, misbehavior, or unsatisfactory performance by our employees, or any players in our industry may undermine consumers' perception of the industry as a whole and adversely affect our business and results of operations. Allegations against us may also be posted on the internet by any person or entity that identifies itself or remains anonymous. Defense against the allegations may incur significant time and divert management's attention, and there is no assurance that we will be able to conclusively refute each of the allegations within a reasonable period of time, or at all. Our reputation may also be negatively affected as a result of public dissemination of allegations or malicious statements about us or our industry, which in turn may materially and adversely affect our stock price.

In addition to traditional media, there has been increasing use of social media platforms and similar media in China that provide individuals with access to a broad audience of consumers and other interested persons. The availability of information on instant messaging applications and social media platforms is virtually immediate without affording us an opportunity for redress or correction. The opportunity for dissemination of information, including inaccurate information, is seemingly limitless and readily available. Information concerning our Company, Shareholders, affiliates, Directors, officers and other employees may be posted on such platforms at any time. The risks associated with any such negative publicity or incorrect information cannot be completely eliminated or mitigated and may materially harm our business, financial condition, results of operation and prospects.

We may be subject to complaints, disputes and lawsuits in the ordinary course of our business.

We may be subject to complaints, disputes and lawsuits in the ordinary course of our business, which may be associated with issues such as breach of contract, employment or labor disputes, intellectual property infringement and environmental matters. Any complaints, disputes and lawsuits filed by or against us, whether or not meritorious, could result in significant costs and diversion of resources, and could cause serious damage to our reputation. In addition, complaints, disputes and lawsuits filed against us may result from improper supplies to us, while our suppliers may not compensate us for any costs incurred by us as a result of such complaints, disputes and lawsuits in a timely manner, or at all. In that case, our business and financial condition may be negatively affected.

We may face product liability claims if our products are defective or are unfit for their intended use.

If our products are unfit for their intended use or contain design or manufacturing defects, we may face product liability claims from our customers or end users of our products. Currently, PRC law does not require us to purchase product liability insurance in China. As of the Latest Practicable Date, we had not maintained any product liability insurance for products that we sell in China. We cannot guarantee that a product liability claim or other litigation will not be brought against us in the future, or that we will be able to purchase product liability insurance or other related insurance on acceptable terms. If we were held liable for uninsured losses or amounts, our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects may be adversely affected. We may also have to allocate significant resources and time to defend ourselves if legal proceedings for product liability are instituted against us. If any such claims are made, our reputation may also be adversely affected, which may lead to loss of future business and our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects could be materially adversely affected.

Any misconduct by our employees or by business partners and/or their employees could potentially expose us to significant legal liabilities, reputational harm, and other damages that may adversely affect our business.

We rely on our employees to maintain and operate our business and have implemented an internal code of conduct to guide the actions of our employees. However, we do not have control over the actions of our employees, and any misbehavior of our employees could materially and adversely affect our reputation and business.

We also rely on our business partners, including suppliers and third-party manufacturers. We may not be able to successfully monitor, maintain and improve the quality of their products and services. In the event of any unsatisfactory performance by our business partners and/or their employees, our business, financial condition, results of operations, prospects and cash flows may be materially and adversely affected.

In addition, we collaborate with a number of influencers, including KOLs, for our branding and marketing. Influencers' reputation is important to our brand image as our consumers may associate the performance of influencers with our brands. Our reputation could therefore be potentially damaged from the inappropriate actions or online posts of influencers which are beyond our control. In addition, with the expansion of influencers in China, the government may issue stricter laws and regulations to encourage a healthy and orderly development of such market. If the influencers fail to comply with the relevant laws, regulations, rules and policies, they may negatively impact our and our customers' reputations and may cause loss to us and our customers. However, we cannot assure you that there would not be any incident in the future, in which case, our reputation, business and prospects may be materially and adversely affected.

Our insurance coverage may not completely cover the risks related to our business and operations.

Natural disasters, acts of war, terrorist acts, political unrest and epidemics, or other events which are beyond our control, may adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations. We may bear the risk of loss of raw materials or finished products in transit. We may also face the risk of loss or damage to our properties, machinery and inventories due to the occurrence of any of the above events. Furthermore, we are subject to hazards and risks that are normally associated with our operations. Our production activities are conducted primarily at our production facilities located in Ningbo. Our operations are subject to interruption or damage by fire, power failure and power shortages, hardware and software failure, floods, natural disasters and other events beyond our control at our production facility. As a result, any interruption could seriously compromise our production activities, and our business, financial condition and results of operations may be materially and adversely affected. We cannot assure you that our insurance policies are sufficient to cover all the risks associated with our operations. Losses incurred for liabilities not sufficiently covered by our insurance policies may have a material and adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

Unauthorized use of our trademarks and patents and the sale of counterfeit products carrying our brands could result in an erosion of intangible assets, and our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects may be adversely affected.

Our trademarks and patents are key to our success and competitive positioning. We actively register and protect these intellectual properties in the jurisdictions where we currently operate and plan to expand, including China, North America, Southeast Asia, and Europe. In addition to the trademarks already registered in our name, we have submitted applications for registration in several regions, including the PRC, Hong Kong, Southeast Asia, Europe, and the United States. We have also applied for patents in the PRC and internationally. Details of our intellectual property rights are set out in Appendix IV to this prospectus under the heading "Further Information about Our Business — Intellectual Property Rights." We cannot assure you that such applications will be successful and should any of them be challenged, rejected or become unsuccessful for any other reason, we may be unable to use such trademarks and patents, and it may be difficult for us to establish any claim against any infringement of those trademarks or patents.

We cannot assure you that the actions we take to protect our trademarks and patents will prove to be sufficient. The unauthorized use of our trademarks on or patents in counterfeit products could harm our market image and reputation, which could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects. We cannot assure you that there will not be future acts of infringement of our trademarks and patents by other parties, nor can we assure you that we will be able to defend ourselves successfully against such acts, as we have done in the past.

In addition, our brand names, or names similar to our brand names, may be registered or in use by third parties in markets we may wish to enter. As a result, we may have to incur significant expenses to acquire the right to use our brand names in such markets. If we are unable to do so, we may be prevented from entering such markets or may only be able to do so using a different brand name.

Third parties may assert or claim that we have infringed their intellectual property rights.

Our competitors or other third parties may have intellectual property rights and interests which could potentially come into conflict with ours. If any trademark or patent infringement or other intellectual property claim against us is successful, we may have to pay damages to the claimant for losses they have or might have suffered. Furthermore, we may not have a legal right to continue to develop, produce, use or sell products that are adjudicated to have infringed third parties' intellectual property rights. We may be legally required to expend significant resources to redesign our products so that they do not infringe third parties' intellectual property rights or we may be required to obtain relevant licenses to avoid further infringements. Intellectual property litigation against us could significantly disrupt our business, divert our management's attention or consume much of our financial resources. As a result, any intellectual property dispute could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

Laws and regulations related to e-commerce activities may impose additional requirements and obligations on our online operations.

The e-commerce activities we conduct on the e-commerce platforms with which we collaborate are critical to us. With the consistent development of the e-commerce industry, activities related to e-commerce are subject to stricter regulations in areas such as data privacy. For example, the E-Commerce Law of the PRC (《中華人民共和國電子商務法》), promulgated by the Standing Committee of the National People's Congress of the PRC on August 31, 2018 and implemented on January 1, 2019, requires all e-commerce operators, broadly defined to include natural persons, legal persons and unincorporated organizations that engage in business activities of selling commodities or offering services through the internet and other information networks, to abide by the principles of voluntariness, equality, equity and good faith, observe the law and business ethics, participate fairly in market competition, perform obligations in aspects including protection of consumer rights and interests, environment, intellectual property rights, cybersecurity and individual information, assume responsibility for the quality of products or services, and accept supervision by the government and the public. We may still need to change our online sales models to comply with the evolving laws and regulations, which may subject us to high costs in our online channels. We cannot assure you that we will be able to meet all the regulatory requirements in a timely manner.

Any failure or perceived failure to meet network and data security and personal information protection requirements may materially and adversely affect our business and financial condition and results of operations.

We collect certain information from our consumers for operation and transportation purposes. Our business is subject to various laws and regulations in China associated with data processing, such as the Personal Information Protection Law of the PRC (《中華人民共和國個人信息保護法》), the PRC Cybersecurity Law (《中華人民共和國網絡安全法》), the PRC Data Security Law (《中華人民共和國數據安全法》) and the Measures for Cybersecurity Review (《網絡安全審查辦法》). See “Regulatory Overview — Regulations Relating to Cybersecurity, Data Security, and Privacy Protection” for details. We cannot ensure that our data may not be abused by our employees or leaked by intention or negligence to third parties, which may cause damage to our consumers. Any failure or perceived failure to comply with laws or regulations related to network and data security and personal information protection with respect to the collection, use, storage, retention, transmit, disclose and other processing of data may result in negative publicity, claims, litigation or investigations imposed by applicable authorities, and materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations. See “Business — Information Technology — Data Privacy and Security” for details.

Our results of operations may fluctuate due to seasonality, and the results for any period in a year are not necessarily indicative of full-year results.

We have experienced, and we expect to continue to experience, seasonal fluctuations in our business. E-commerce platforms where we sell our products host major shopping events, such as the 618 Shopping Festival (618購物節) and the Double 11 Shopping Festival (雙十一購物節), which significantly influence market demand. Consequently, during the Track Record Period, we typically recorded higher sales in the second and fourth quarters of the calendar year. In light of such seasonal pattern of the demand for our nursery products, our revenue and results of operations are likely to continue to fluctuate due to seasonality, and thus the results for any period in a year are not necessarily meaningful, nor can these comparisons be relied upon in assessing or predicting our future financial performance in a particular year.

RISK FACTORS

If we fail to effectively manage our inventory, our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects may be materially and adversely affected.

We are exposed to inventory risks due to various factors such as heightened competition, new product launches, potential product defects, changes in consumer demand and shifts in consumer spending patterns. Effective business operation requires maintaining optimal inventory levels to ensure timely deliveries and mitigate risks associated with excess or insufficient stock.

To manage our inventory effectively, we implement inventory control policies and use a vendor-managed inventory model to handle stock levels and orders. See “Business — Production and Supply Chain Management — Inventory Control” for details. However, demand forecasting is inherently uncertain, and significant changes in demand can occur after orders are placed but before delivery. Incorrect demand forecasts can lead to inventory obsolescence and shortages, resulting in inventory write-downs or sales at reduced prices, which would adversely impact our profitability. Moreover, underestimating product demand may cause production delays if manufacturers cannot scale up production quickly, potentially causing delays in product delivery and damaging our reputation. Any of the foregoing could materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects. As we plan to expand our product lineups, we may continue to face challenges in effectively managing our inventory.

We are subject to credit risk relating to the collection of trade receivables from our customers.

Our trade receivables represent the amounts due from customers for products sold in the ordinary course of business. Generally, we extend credit terms ranging from 30 to 90 days from the billing date. A substantial majority of our outstanding accounts receivable are not secured by collateral, third-party bank guarantees, financing arrangements, or credit insurance. As of December 31, 2022, 2023 and 2024 and June 30, 2025, our trade receivables amounted to RMB12.9 million, RMB26.7 million, RMB31.4 million and RMB71.5 million, respectively. We cannot assure you that we will be able to recover all or any part of our trade receivables due from our customers within the agreed credit terms or at all. Furthermore, to the extent we expand our business to international markets, our exposure to credit and collectability risk on our accounts receivable may be higher in certain international markets and our ability to mitigate such risks may be limited. Failure to collect any overdue trade receivables may have an adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

RISK FACTORS

We are subject to payment-related risks that may result in higher operating costs or the inability to process payments, either of which could harm our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

Orders placed by customers on our platforms are processed through debit cards, credit cards and third-party payment channels. These systems may not always be fully effective due to technical glitches or human error. Any failure to identify or prevent payment fraud could damage our reputation and result in lost sales and revenue.

In addition, our business depends on the billing, payment, and escrow systems of the third-party payment service providers to maintain accurate records of payments by customers and collect such payments. We cooperate with third-party payment channels, such as Weixin Pay and Alipay, to facilitate consumers' payment at our stores. According to our collaboration agreement, these third-party payment platforms provide us with funds transfer services. When customers purchase our products, they can settle payments through their platforms, and the corresponding funds will be transferred to our account. At the same time, these third-party platforms also collect personal and payment information from both merchants and users during the service process. However, without written consent, neither our Company nor the payment platform shall disclose any such information to third parties. If any of our third-party payment service providers terminates its relationship with us or refuses to renew its agreement with us on commercially reasonable terms, we would need to find alternative payment service providers and may not be able to secure similar terms or replace such payment service providers in an acceptable timeframe. Further, the software and services provided by our third-party payment service providers may fail to meet our expectations, contain errors or vulnerabilities, encounter disruption or compromise, or experience outages. Our third-party payment service providers may also be penalized or suspended if they fail to protect personal information in compliance with relevant laws and regulations. If the quality, utility, convenience, or attractiveness of these payment processing and escrow services declines, or if we have to change the pattern of using these payment services for any reason, the attractiveness of our Company could be materially and adversely affected.

We are also subject to various rules, regulations, and requirements, regulatory or otherwise, governing electronic funds transfers that could change or be reinterpreted to make it difficult or impossible for us to comply. If we fail to comply with these rules or requirements, we may be subject to fines and higher transaction fees and become unable to accept the current online payment solutions from our customers, and our business, financial condition, and results of operations could be materially and adversely affected. Business involving online payment services is subject to a number of risks that could materially and adversely affect third-party online payment service providers' ability to provide payment processing and escrow services to us, including:

- dissatisfaction with these online payment services or decreased use of their services;

RISK FACTORS

- increasing competition, including from other established Chinese internet companies, payment service providers, and companies engaged in other financial technology services;
- changes to rules or practices applicable to payment systems that link to third-party online payment service providers;
- breach of customers' personal information and concerns over the use and security of information collected from buyers;
- service outages, system failures, or failures to effectively scale the system to handle large and growing transaction volumes;
- increasing costs to third-party online payment service providers, including fees charged by banks to process transactions through online payment channels, which would also increase our costs of revenue; and
- failure to manage funds accurately or loss of funds, whether due to employee fraud, security breaches, technical errors, or otherwise.

We are subject to certain risks relating to third-party payment arrangements.

During the Track Record Period, we accepted payments made by third parties to settle the amounts that several customers owed to us in connection with their purchases of our products. In 2022, 2023 and 2024, the aggregate amount settled through such third-party payments was RMB45.3 million, RMB100.1 million, and RMB75.6 million, respectively, accounting for 8.2%, 10.8%, and 5.5% of our total amount received from our customers during the corresponding years. In 2022, 2023 and 2024, the number of distributors who settled payments through third-party payment arrangements was 46, 56 and 100, respectively. Except for some of our sole proprietorship customers, we have ceased to accept any third-party payment starting from December 15, 2024. See “Business — Third-party Payment Arrangements” for details. We are subject to the risks relating to such third-party payments, including potential claims from third-party payors seeking reimbursement of funds as they may not have been contractually obligated to us, and possible claims from liquidators representing these third-party payers. In the event of any claims or legal actions, whether civil or criminal, initiated against us by third-party payers or their liquidators regarding third-party payments or for violation or noncompliance of laws and regulations, we would need to allocate significant financial and managerial resources to defend ourselves, and we may be forced to comply with the court ruling and return the payment for the products that we sold and services that we provided, and our business, prospects, financial condition, results of operations, and cash flows may be adversely affected.

RISK FACTORS

Changes to the PRC tax laws may have an adverse effect on our financial condition and results of operations.

Under the EIT Law, foreign-invested enterprises and domestic companies are subject to a uniform tax rate of 25%. If we no longer enjoy the preferential income tax treatment in the future, or there are further developments in the PRC taxation laws, rules and regulations, comparisons between our past post-tax financial results may not be meaningful and should not be relied upon as indicators of our future performance. Furthermore, there can be no assurance that there will be no further changes to the PRC tax laws that could adversely affect us. In addition, any increase in our EIT rate in the future due to the introduction of the EIT Law could have an adverse effect on our financial condition and results of operations.

Our recognition of deferred income tax asset is subject to significant management judgment, and we cannot guarantee we will generate sufficient taxable profits in the future to fully utilize the deferred income tax assets.

A deferred income tax assets is recognized for unused tax losses, unused tax credits, and deductible temporary differences to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profits will be available to utilize the asset. Significant management judgement is required to determine the amount of deferred income tax assets that can be recognized based upon the likely timing and the level of future taxable profits of the individual entities together with tax planning strategies. We cannot assure you that we will generate sufficient taxable profits in the future to fully utilize the deferred income tax assets. If we cannot utilize the deferred income tax assets, our financial conditions will be adversely affected.

We may need to withhold tax on dividends received from our PRC subsidiaries or dividends payable by our Company to our foreign investors.

Under the EIT Law, the profits of a foreign invested enterprise arising in 2008 and onwards which are distributed to its immediate holding company outside the PRC will be subject to a withholding tax rate of 10.0%. Pursuant to a special arrangement between Hong Kong and the PRC, the profits distributed by a PRC company to a Hong Kong resident enterprise will be taxed at a rate of no more than 5.0% if the Hong Kong resident enterprise owns over 25% of the PRC company. Approvals from competent local tax authorities are required before an enterprise can enjoy the relevant tax treatments relating to dividends under relevant taxation treaties. However, according to a tax circular issued by the SAT in February 2009, if the main purpose of an offshore arrangement is to obtain a preferential tax treatment, the PRC tax authorities have the discretion to adjust the preferential tax rate enjoyed by the relevant offshore entity. We cannot assure you that the PRC tax authorities will not levy a higher withholding tax rate to dividends received by our subsidiaries in Hong Kong from our PRC subsidiaries.

RISK FACTORS

In addition, under the EIT Law and implementation regulations issued by the State Council, PRC income tax at the rate of 10% is applicable to dividends payable to investors that are “non-resident enterprises” (and that do not have an establishment or place of business in the PRC, or that have such establishment or place of business but the relevant income is not effectively connected with the establishment or place of business) to the extent such dividends have their source within the PRC. Similarly, any gain realized on the transfer of Shares by such investors is also subject to 10% PRC income tax if such gain is regarded as income derived from sources within the PRC unless a treaty otherwise provides. The 10% income tax rate applicable to dividends or gain realized on the transfer of Shares may be subject to a reduced rate of tax based on an available tax treaty between the PRC and the government of the jurisdiction of which the recipient is a tax resident. If our Company is considered a PRC “resident enterprise,” for those non-PRC Shareholders, it is unclear whether the dividends our Company pays with respect to our Company’s Shares or the gain the investors may realize from the transfer of the Shares would be treated as income derived from sources within the PRC and be subject to PRC tax. If our Company is required under the EIT Law to withhold PRC income tax on dividends payable to our foreign Shareholders, the value of your investment in our Company’s Shares may be materially and adversely affected.

Increase in labor costs enforcement of stricter worker protection laws and regulations in the PRC may adversely affect our business and profitability.

China’s overall economy and the average wage in China have increased in recent years and are expected to grow. The average wage level for our employees has also increased in recent years. We expect that our labor costs, including wages and employee benefits, will increase. Unless we are able to pass on these increased labor costs to our consumers, our profitability and results of operations may be materially and adversely affected.

In addition, we have been subject to stricter regulatory requirements in terms of entering into labor contracts with our employees and paying various statutory employee benefits to designated government agencies and are encouraged to take out worker-related insurances. See “Regulatory Overview — Regulations Relating to Employment, Social Insurance and Housing Fund” for details. In the event that we decide to terminate some of our employees or otherwise change our employment or labor practices, the PRC Labor Contract Law and its implementation rules may limit our ability to effect those changes in a desirable or cost-effective manner, which could adversely affect our business and results of operations.

As the interpretation and implementation of labor-related laws and regulations are still evolving, our employment practices may violate labor-related laws and regulations in China, which may subject us to labor disputes or government investigations.

RISK FACTORS

We may be subject to additional contributions of social insurance and housing provident fund and late payments and fines imposed by relevant governmental authorities.

In accordance with the PRC Social Insurance Law (《中華人民共和國社會保險法》) and the Regulations on the Administration of Housing Fund (《住房公積金管理條例》) and other relevant laws and regulations, China has established a social insurance system, including basic pension insurance, basic medical insurance, work-related injury insurance, unemployment insurance, maternity insurance, and housing fund system. An employer is required to make contributions for the statutory social insurance and housing fund for its employees in accordance with the rates provided under relevant regulations and withhold the contribution amounts to be paid by the employees themselves. During the Track Record Period, we had not made social insurance and housing provident fund contributions for our employees in full. In 2022, 2023 and 2024 and the six months ended June 30, 2025, the aggregate shortfall of social insurance and housing provident fund contributions amounted to RMB5.9 million, RMB7.7 million, RMB9.4 million and RMB5.4 million, respectively. Pursuant to applicable PRC laws and regulations, if the employer fails to register and establish an account for housing provident fund contributions, the authority could order the employer to correct it within a prescribed time limit, where failure to do so at the expiration of the time limit shall result in a fine of not less than RMB10,000 nor more than RMB50,000 being imposed. Furthermore, in light of the Article 19(1) of the Supreme People's Court's Interpretation (II) on Several Issues Concerning the Application of Law in Labor Dispute Cases (《最高人民法院關於審理勞動爭議案件適用法律問題的解釋 (二)》) (the "New Judicial Interpretation"), promulgated on July 31, 2025, and effective as of September 1, 2025, if an employer and an employee agree or the employee undertakes that social insurance contributions need not be paid, the People's Court shall deem such agreement or undertaking invalid. Furthermore, where an employer fails to pay social insurance contributions in accordance with the law, and the employee seeks to terminate the labor contract and claims economic compensation from the employer pursuant to Article 38(3) of the PRC Labor Contract Law, the People's Court shall support such claims, in which case, the employer remains liable for paying economic compensation (calculated as the number of years of employment multiplied by the monthly salary) to the employee, notwithstanding any prior agreement to waive social insurance contributions. See "Regulatory Overview — Regulations Relating to Employment, Social Insurance and Housing Fund" for details.

We cannot assure you that we will not be liable for paying economic compensation to our employees, or the relevant government authorities will not require us to pay the outstanding amount and impose late fees or fines on us. If we are otherwise subject to investigations related to non-compliance with labor laws and are imposed severe penalties or incur significant legal fees in connection with labor law disputes or investigations, our business, prospects, results of operations, financial condition, and cash flows may be adversely affected.

RISK FACTORS

Our equity-settled share-based compensation expenses may cause shareholding dilution to our existing Shareholders and have a material and adverse effect on our financial performance.

We adopted equity-settled share-based payment arrangements of share awards for the benefit of our Directors, officers and employees as remuneration for their services provided to us to incentivize and reward the eligible persons who have contributed to our success. In 2022, 2023 and 2024 and the six months ended June 30, 2025, we incurred equity-settled share-based payment expenses of RMB5.4 million, RMB5.4 million, RMB9.8 million and RMB15.4 million, respectively. To further incentivize our employees, we may grant additional Option Shares in the future. Issuance of Shares with respect to such share-based compensation may dilute the shareholding to our existing Shareholders. Expenses associated with equity-settled share-based compensation may also increase substantially, which may have an adverse effect on our financial performance.

We may be unable to obtain financing on favorable terms, or at all, to meet our funding requirements.

We currently fund our operations principally by the proceeds from sales of our products and the extension of existing bank financing. To finance our ongoing operations, existing and future capital expenditure requirements, acquisition and investment plans and other funding requirements, we may need to obtain adequate financing from external sources to supplement our internal sources of liquidity in the future. Our ability to obtain external financing in the future is subject to a variety of uncertainties, including, among other things:

- regulatory approvals to raise financing in the domestic or international markets;
- our financial condition, results of operations, cash flows and credit history;
- the condition of the global and domestic financial markets; and
- changes in the PRC monetary policy with respect to bank interest rates and lending practices and conditions.

We cannot assure you that we will be able to secure sufficient cash flow from our operations or additional bank financing in the future on favorable terms or at all or that any fluctuation in interest rates will not affect our ability to fund our operations and planned developments. If adequate funding is not available to us on favorable terms, or at all, we may not be able to fund our existing operations and develop or expand our business and, therefore, our business, financial condition and results of operations may be materially and adversely affected.

RISK FACTORS

Our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects may be adversely affected by fair value changes of financial assets at FVTPL and valuation uncertainty.

We had financial assets at FVTPL of RMB73.6 million, RMB36.6 million, RMB31.0 million and RMB152.3 million as of December 31, 2022, 2023 and 2024 and June 30, 2025, respectively, which primarily consist of wealth management products purchased from reputable, licensed commercial banks in China. We cannot guarantee that in the future, our financial assets at FVTPL will not be measured using unobservable inputs, which could introduce additional risks. We are exposed to the risk that our counterparties, such as the banks issuing these wealth management products, may fail to meet their contractual obligations. This could occur in the event of a counterparty's bankruptcy or insolvency, potentially leading to a material adverse impact on our financial position and cash flow. Furthermore, these wealth management products are subject to market conditions, including fluctuations in capital markets and interest rates. Volatility in the market or changes in interest rates could negatively affect our financial position and cash flow, which in turn may have a material and adverse effect on our overall financial condition. Additionally, general economic and market conditions play a significant role in determining the fair value of these products, further adding to the potential risks. Any of the foregoing could impair our ability to meet consumer demand and may harm our reputation, business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

The acquisition of other companies or businesses, entering into joint ventures, or investing in financial products could result in operating difficulties and other harmful consequences.

To enhance our growth, we may acquire businesses, enter into joint ventures or invest in financial products that we believe would enhance our products and brands and/or our sales and distribution network. Our ability to grow through these strategies depends upon our ability to identify, negotiate successfully with and acquire suitable targets. Even if we successfully complete an acquisition, joint venture transaction or investment, we may experience:

- difficulties in integrating the acquired or joint venture business, its personnel or its products into our existing business;
- delays or failures in realizing the benefits of the acquired or joint venture business or its products;
- diversion of our management's time and attention from other business concerns;
- failures to generate returns from investments in financial products;
- higher costs of integration than we anticipated; or
- difficulties in retaining key employees of the acquired business who are necessary to manage the acquired business.

Any of the above factors could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

RISK FACTORS

Our business benefits from certain government grants, financial incentives and discretionary policies granted by local governments. Expiration of, or changes to, these incentives or policies would have an adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operation and prospects.

In the past, local governments in China granted certain financial incentives from time to time to our PRC subsidiaries or consolidated affiliated entities as part of their efforts to encourage the development of local businesses. In 2022, 2023 and 2024 and the six months ended June 30, 2025, we recorded RMB3.8 million, RMB10.3 million, RMB15.3 million and RMB23.9 million of government grants, respectively. However, the timing, amount and criteria of government financial incentives are determined within the sole discretion of the local government authorities and cannot be predicted with certainty before we actually receive any financial incentive. We generally do not have the ability to influence local governments in making these decisions. Local governments may decide to reduce or eliminate incentives in the future to adapt to a constantly developing society. We cannot assure you of the continued availability of the government incentives currently enjoyed by our PRC subsidiaries or consolidated affiliated entities. Any reduction or elimination of incentives would have an adverse effect on our results of operations.

Our risk management and internal control systems may not be adequate or effective.

We are dedicated to the establishment and maintenance of robust risk management and internal control systems. While we seek to improve our risk management and internal control systems on a continuous basis, we cannot assure you that these systems are sufficiently effective in ensuring, among other things, accurate reporting of our financial results and the prevention of fraud. See “Business — Risk Management and Internal Control” for details. Since these systems depend on implementation by our employees, we cannot assure you that our employees are sufficiently or fully trained to implement these systems, or that their implementation will be free from human error or mistakes. If we fail to timely update, implement and modify, or fail to deploy sufficient human resources to maintain our risk management policies and procedures, our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects could be materially and adversely affected.

We may be subject to anti-corruption, anti-bribery, anti-money laundering, financial and economic sanctions, and similar laws and regulations, and noncompliance with such laws and regulations can subject us to administrative, civil, and criminal penalties, collateral consequences, remedial measures, and legal expenses, all of which could adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

We may be subject to anti-corruption, anti-bribery, anti-money laundering, financial and economic sanctions, and similar laws and regulations in various jurisdictions in which we conduct activities, including the United States Foreign Corrupt Practices Act (“FCPA”), and other anti-corruption laws and regulations. The FCPA prohibits us and our officers, Directors, employees, and business partners acting on our behalf, including agents, from corruptly offering, promising, authorizing, or providing anything of value to a “foreign official” for the purposes of influencing official decisions or obtaining or retaining business or otherwise obtaining favorable treatment. The FCPA also requires companies to make and keep books, records, and accounts that accurately reflect transactions and dispositions of assets and to maintain a system of adequate internal accounting controls. A violation of these laws or regulations could adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations, and prospects.

We are also in the process of implementing policies and procedures designed to ensure compliance by us and our Directors, officers, employees, representatives, consultants, agents, and business partners with applicable anti-corruption, anti-bribery, anti-money laundering, financial and economic sanctions, and similar laws and regulations. However, our policies and procedures may not be sufficient and our Directors, officers, employees, representatives, consultants, agents, and business partners could engage in improper conduct for which we may be held responsible.

Non-compliance with anti-corruption, anti-bribery, anti-money laundering, or financial and economic sanctions laws and regulations could subject us to whistleblower complaints, adverse media coverage, investigations, and severe administrative, civil and criminal sanctions, collateral consequences, remedial measures, and legal expenses, all of which could materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations, prospects and cash flows.

Certain countries or organizations, including the United States, the European Union, the United Nations, the United Kingdom, and Australia, have, through executive order, legislations or other government means, implemented measures that impose economic sanctions against certain countries, regions or targeted industry sectors, groups of companies or persons, and/or organizations within such countries and regions. Sanctions laws and regulations are continually evolving, with new individuals and entities regularly being added to the list of sanctioned persons. Moreover, new requirements or restrictions may come into effect, potentially intensifying scrutiny on our business, particularly concerning our international expansion plans, or resulting in one or more of our business activities being deemed to have violated sanctions. Our business and reputation could be adversely affected if the authorities of relevant jurisdictions were to determine that any of our future activities constitutes a violation of the sanctions they impose.

Recent news might have negative impacts on the diaper market in PRC, as well as confidence in made-in-China diapers, and consequently impacting demand for our Company's products.

In March 2025, a prominent report aired on the 315 Consumer Rights Day television program, highlighting concerns regarding substandard diapers being sold in the market, which may have been misrepresented as premium products. The report implicated certain domestic manufacturers, which may lead to a decline in consumer confidence in made-in-China diapers, particularly in the baby care sector. This negative publicity may have a broader impact on the reputation of products manufactured in the PRC, including diapers, potentially affecting consumer purchasing behavior. As a result of these developments, the demand for its products could be adversely impacted, as consumers may become more cautious or skeptical regarding the quality of domestically produced diapers. While the Company adheres to stringent quality control standards and is committed to maintaining product safety and integrity, any sustained negative perception of made-in-China products could affect consumer confidence and, consequently, the Company's sales performance.

Global or regional economic, political and social conditions, as well as changes in demographic structure, could adversely affect our industry.

External factors such as potential terrorist attacks, acts of war, financial crises, changes in demographic structure, economic recessions or geopolitical and social turmoil in those parts of the world that serve as markets for our products, could adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects in ways that we cannot predict. As such, uncertainties relating to economic, political and social conditions, as well as changes in demographic structure, could make it difficult for our customers and us to accurately plan future business activities. More generally, these geopolitical, social and economic conditions, as well as changes in demographic structure, could result in increased volatility in worldwide financial markets and economies that could adversely impact our revenue. We are not insured for losses and interruptions caused by terrorist attacks or acts of war. Therefore, any of these events or circumstances could adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

Changes to international trade regulations, quotas, tariffs and duties may affect prices of and demand for our products.

The countries into which we plan to import our products, or the countries to which our products will be exported, may from time to time impose additional new quotas, duties, tariffs and requirements regarding where raw materials must be purchased, additional workplace regulations or other restrictions on our imports, including adversely modifying existing restrictions. Adverse changes in these costs and restrictions could harm our business. To the best knowledge of our Directors, during the Track Record Period and as of the Latest Practicable Date, we have maintained compliance with all applicable anti-dumping orders in foreign jurisdictions where such measures are in force and where we conduct material operations, with no pending investigations or proceedings related thereto of which we have been formally notified. We cannot assure you that future international trade regulations, quotas, tariffs and duties will not increase our costs or provide our competitors with an advantage over us, either of which may have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

RISK FACTORS

Unanticipated regulatory changes may have an adverse impact on our business, financial condition, results of operation and prospects.

We operate in a highly regulated industry both in China and overseas. We seek to adhere strictly to regulations in all the jurisdictions in which we operate, particularly those regulations pertaining to safety and quality. Nevertheless, changes in regulations may have an adverse impact on our business, financial condition, results of operation and prospects if we are unable to respond timely to such changes by, for example, not being able to produce sufficient quantities of a product that adhere to such new regulations. We may also be negatively affected by regulations on the sourcing of raw materials or components, to the extent we are unable to procure such materials or components on a cost-effective basis, if at all.

We face risks related to health epidemics, natural disasters, terrorist activities, political unrest, financial or economic crisis and other force majeure events, which could significantly disrupt our operations.

Our business could be adversely affected by the effects of health epidemics. In recent years, there have been outbreaks of COVID-19 pandemic in China and globally. In response to COVID-19 pandemic, various nations have adopted, among other measures, restrictions on mobility and travel, cancellation of public activities and temporary suspension on public transportation which may lead to delays or disruption in our operations, including but not limited to, business activities and R&D activities. A recurrence of an outbreak of COVID-19 and other health epidemics could restrict the level of economic activities generally and/or slow down or disrupt our business activities, which could in turn adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

In addition to the impact of health pandemics as described above, our business could be materially and adversely affected by natural disasters, such as snowstorms, earthquakes, fires or floods, or other events, such as wars, acts of terrorism, environmental accidents, power shortage or communication interruptions. The occurrence of such a disaster or prolonged outbreak of an epidemic illness or other adverse public health developments in the countries and regions where we have operations could materially disrupt our business and operations. Such events could also significantly affect our industry and cause a temporary closure of the facilities we use for our operations, which would severely disrupt our operations and have a material and adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

Any financial or economic crisis, or perceived threat of such a crisis, including a significant decrease in consumer confidence, may materially and adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations. With a deteriorating worldwide economy, consumer spending and consumption of non-essential items may diminish, which in turn will affect the demand for our sales and marketing services. It is unclear whether these challenges will be contained and what effects they each may have. There is considerable uncertainty over the long-term effects of the expansionary monetary and fiscal policies that have been adopted by the central banks and financial authorities of some of the economies where we operate our businesses, including China. To the extent any fluctuations in the global economy significantly and adversely affect consumers' demand for our products, our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects may be materially and adversely affected.

RISKS RELATING TO GOVERNMENT REGULATIONS

Changes in the political and economic policies may affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

Our operations are mainly conducted in China. Accordingly, our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects are subject to political, economic and social developments in China. Our business has been and will continue to be affected by the PRC's economy, which in turn is continuously influenced by the global economy. Uncertainties in the global economy and the political environment around the world would also affect China's economic growth. It may be difficult for us to predict all the risks that we could face as a result of the current economic, political and social developments and many of these risks are beyond our control. Failure to respond to such development and risks could materially affect our business operations and financial performance.

The PRC legal system is evolving, and failure to respond to it could affect us.

We conduct our business primarily through our subsidiaries in China. Our operations in China are governed by PRC laws and regulations. The legislation in China and the PRC legal system has continued to evolve over the past few decades and the PRC government has made significant progress in promulgating laws and regulations related to economic affairs and matters; for example, such laws and regulations have significantly enhanced the protections afforded to various forms of foreign investments in China. However, many of these laws and regulations are relatively new, and we may need to take certain corresponding measures to maintain our regulatory compliance, such as adjusting the relevant business or transactions and introducing compliance experts and talents, which may incur additional related costs and impact on our business. Any failure to respond to such evolving regulatory environment in China could materially affect our business and impede our ability to continue our operations.

We may be subject to filing procedure and other requirements of the PRC governmental authorities in connection with future capital raising activities and future major events.

On July 6, 2021, the relevant PRC government authorities issued Opinions on Strictly Cracking Down Illegal Securities Activities in Accordance with the Law (《關於依法從嚴打擊證券違法活動的意見》). These opinions enhanced administration and supervision on overseas listing by the PRC-based companies and proposed to take effective measures, such as promoting the construction of relevant regulatory systems to deal with the risks and incidents faced by the PRC-based overseas-listed companies.

If it is determined that we are subject to any filing or other authorization or requirements of the PRC governmental authorities for future fund-raising activities or other major events, and we fail to complete such filing or meet such requirements in a timely manner or at all, we could be subject to sanctions by the PRC regulatory authorities. Any uncertainties or negative publicity regarding such filing or other requirements stated above could materially and adversely affect our reputation, business, financial condition and results of operations.

RISK FACTORS

Any failure to comply with PRC regulations regarding the registration requirements for employee share incentive plans may subject us to fines and other legal or administrative sanctions, which could adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.

In February 2012, the SAFE promulgated the Notice on Issues Concerning the Foreign Exchange Administration for Domestic Individuals Participating in Stock Incentive Plan of Overseas Publicly Listed Companies (the “SAFE Circular 7”, 《國家外匯管理局關於境內個人參與境外上市公司股權激勵計劃外匯管理有關問題的通知》). Under SAFE Circular 7 and other relevant rules and regulations, PRC residents who participate in a stock incentive plan in an overseas publicly-listed company are required to register with the SAFE or its local branches or commercial banks and complete certain other procedures.

Participants in a stock incentive plan who are PRC residents must retain a qualified PRC agent, which could be a PRC subsidiary of the overseas publicly listed company or another qualified institution selected by a PRC subsidiary, to conduct SAFE registration and other procedures with respect to the stock incentive plan on behalf of its participants. The participants must also retain an overseas entrusted institution to manage matters in connection with their exercise of stock options, the purchase and sale of corresponding stocks or interests and fund transfers. In addition, the PRC agent is required to amend its SAFE registration with respect to the stock incentive plan if there is any material change to the stock incentive plan, the PRC agent or the overseas entrusted institution or other material changes.

We and our PRC employees who may be granted options and/or restricted share units will be subject to these regulations upon the completion of this Global Offering. Failure to complete their SAFE registrations may subject these PRC residents to fines of up to RMB300,000 for entities and up to RMB50,000 for individuals, as well as legal sanctions and may also limit our ability to contribute additional capital into our PRC subsidiary, limit our PRC subsidiary’s ability to distribute dividends to us, or otherwise materially and adversely affect our business.

In addition, SAT and MOFCOM have issued certain circulars with respect to employee share options. Under these circulars, our employees working in China will be subject to PRC individual income tax if they exercise Share Options. Our PRC subsidiaries have the obligation to file documents relating to the Share Options with the relevant tax authorities and may be required to withhold individual income tax for those employees. If our employees fail to pay income tax, or if we fail to make the filing according to the relevant laws and regulations or withhold income tax in any case as required, we may face sanctions imposed by the relevant tax authorities.

RISK FACTORS

We may be classified as a “PRC resident enterprise” for PRC enterprise income tax purposes, which could result in unfavorable tax consequences to us and our Shareholders and have a material adverse effect on our results of operations and the value of your investment.

Under the EIT Law, an enterprise established outside of the PRC with a “de facto management body” within China is considered a resident enterprise and will be subject to the enterprise income tax on its global income at the rate of 25%. The implementation rules define the term “de facto management body” as the body that exercises full and substantial control over, and overall management of, the business, production, personnel, accounts and properties of an enterprise. On April 22, 2009, the SAT issued the Notice of the State Administration of Taxation on Issues Concerning the Determination of Chinese-Controlled Enterprises Registered Overseas as Resident Enterprises on the Basis of Their Bodies of Actual Management (《國家稅務總局關於境外註冊中資控股企業依據實際管理機構標準認定為居民企業有關問題的通知》), known as Circular 82, which was last amended on December 29, 2017. Circular 82 provides certain specific criteria for determining whether the “de facto management body” of a PRC-controlled enterprise that is incorporated offshore is located in China. The criteria set forth in the circular may reflect the SAT’s general position on how the “de facto management body” test should be applied in determining the tax resident status of all offshore enterprises. According to Circular 82, an offshore incorporated enterprise controlled by a PRC enterprise or a PRC enterprise group will be regarded as a PRC tax resident by virtue of having its “de facto management body” in China and will be subject to PRC enterprise income tax on its global income only if all of the following conditions are met: (i) the primary location of the day-to-day operational management is in the PRC; (ii) decisions relating to the enterprise’s financial and human resource matters are made or are subject to approval by organizations or personnel in the PRC; (iii) the enterprise’s primary assets, accounting books and records, company seal, and board and shareholder resolutions are located or maintained in the PRC; and (iv) at least 50% of voting board members or senior executives habitually reside in the PRC.

We believe none of our entities outside of China is a PRC resident enterprise for PRC tax purposes. However, the tax resident status of an enterprise is subject to determination by the PRC tax authorities, and uncertainties remain with respect to whether we would be deemed an entity having our “de facto management body” in China. As a majority of our management members are based in mainland China, it remains unclear how the tax residency rule will apply to our case. If the PRC tax authorities determine that our Company or any of our subsidiaries outside of the PRC is a PRC resident enterprise for PRC enterprise income tax purposes, our Company or such subsidiary could be subject to PRC tax at a rate of 25% on its worldwide income, which could materially reduce our net profit. In addition, we will also be subject to PRC enterprise income tax reporting obligations. Furthermore, if the PRC tax authorities determine that we are a PRC resident enterprise for enterprise income tax purposes, gains realized on the sale or other disposition of our Shares may be subject to PRC tax, at a rate of 10% in the case of non-PRC enterprises or 20% in the case of non-PRC individuals (in each case, subject to the provisions of any applicable tax treaty), if such gains are deemed to be from PRC sources. It is unclear whether non-PRC Shareholders of our Company would be able to claim the benefits of any tax treaties between their country of tax residence and the PRC in the event that we are treated as a PRC resident enterprise. Any such tax may reduce the returns on your investment in our Company.

We principally rely on dividends and other distributions on equity paid by our PRC subsidiaries to fund any cash and financing requirements we may have. Any limitation on the ability of our PRC subsidiaries to make payments to us could have a material adverse effect on our ability to conduct our business or our financial condition.

We are a holding company, and we principally rely on dividends and other distributions on equity that may be paid by our PRC subsidiaries for our cash and financing requirements, including the funds necessary to pay dividends and other cash distributions to the holders of our Shares and service any debt we may incur. If our PRC subsidiaries incur debt on their own behalf in the future, the instruments governing the debt may restrict their ability to pay dividends or make other distributions to us.

Under PRC laws and regulations, wholly foreign-owned enterprises in China may pay dividends only out of their retained earnings as determined in accordance with PRC accounting standards and regulations. In addition, a wholly foreign-owned enterprise is required to set aside at least 10% of its after-tax profits each year, after making up previous years' accumulated losses, if any, to fund certain statutory surplus reserve funds, until the aggregate amount of such a fund reaches 50% of its registered capital. At the discretion of shareholders of the wholly foreign-owned enterprise, it may make further contribution to the surplus reserve using its after-tax profits based on PRC accounting standards. These surplus reserve funds are not distributable as cash dividends. Any limitation on the ability of our wholly-owned PRC subsidiaries to pay dividends or make other distributions to us could materially and adversely limit our ability to grow, make investments or acquisitions that could be beneficial to our business, pay dividends, or otherwise fund and conduct our business.

Governmental regulations on currency exchange may limit our ability to utilize our revenue effectively. If our PRC resident Shareholders or beneficial owners fail to comply with relevant PRC foreign exchange regulations, business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects may also be materially affected.

The convertibility of Renminbi into foreign currencies and, in certain cases, the remittance of currency out of China are subject to PRC foreign exchange regulations. Under existing PRC foreign exchange regulations, payments of current account items, such as profit distributions and trade and service-related foreign exchange transactions, can be made in foreign currencies without prior approval from SAFE by complying with certain procedural requirements. However, approval from or registration with appropriate governmental authorities is required where Renminbi is to be converted into foreign currency and remitted out of China to pay capital expenses such as the repayment of loans denominated in foreign currencies.

RISK FACTORS

The PRC government may regulate cross-border transactions falling under capital account. We receive substantially all of our revenue in RMB, and if we fail to meet the requirements of foreign exchange regulations in the PRC, our ability to pay dividends in foreign currencies to our Shareholders, including holders of our Shares, may be limited. PRC regulations relating to offshore investment activities by PRC residents may establish regulatory procedural requirements on PRC subsidiaries for increasing their registered capital or distributing profits to us or otherwise exposing us or our PRC resident beneficial owners to liability and penalties under PRC law.

Pursuant to the Circular on Relevant Issues Concerning Foreign Exchange Administration for Financing and Round-trip Investments by Domestic Residents through Offshore Special Purpose Vehicles (《國家外匯管理局關於境內居民通過境外特殊目的公司融資及返程投資外匯管理有關問題的通知》) (the “SAFE Circular 75”), promulgated by the SAFE and effective on November 1, 2005, a PRC resident must register with the local SAFE branch prior to establishing or controlling an overseas special purpose vehicle. SAFE issued the Circular of the SAFE on Foreign Exchange Administration of Overseas Investment, Financing and Roundtrip Investments Conducted by Domestic Residents through Special Purpose Vehicles (《國家外匯管理局關於境內居民通過特殊目的公司境外投融資及返程投資外匯管理有關問題的通知》) (the “SAFE Circular 37”), effective on July 4, 2014, and replaced the SAFE Circular 75. SAFE Circular 37 requires PRC residents (including PRC individuals and PRC corporate entities as well as foreign individuals with a habitual residence in China due to economic interests) to register with SAFE or its local branches in connection with their direct or indirect offshore investment activities. SAFE Circular 37 further requires amendment to the SAFE registrations in the event of any changes with respect to the basic information of the offshore special purpose vehicle, such as changes of the offshore special purpose vehicle’s name and operational term, or any significant changes with respect to the PRC individual shareholder, such as the increase or decrease of capital contributions, share transfer or exchange, or mergers or divisions. SAFE Circular 37 is applicable to our Shareholders who are PRC residents.

If our Shareholders who are PRC residents fail to make the required registration or to update the previously filed registration, our PRC subsidiaries may be prohibited from distributing their profits or the proceeds from any capital reduction, share transfer or liquidation to us, and we may also be prohibited from making additional capital contributions into our PRC subsidiaries. In February 2015, SAFE promulgated a Notice on Further Simplifying and Improving Foreign Exchange Administration Policy on Direct Investment (《關於進一步簡化和改進直接投資外匯管理政策的通知》) (“Notice 13”), effective from June 2015, and further amended by SAFE on December 30, 2019. Under Notice 13, applications for foreign exchange registration of inbound foreign direct investments and outbound overseas direct investments, including those required under SAFE Circular 37, will be filed with qualified banks instead of SAFE. The qualified banks will directly examine the applications and accept registrations under the supervision of SAFE.

RISK FACTORS

As of the Latest Practicable Date, to the best of our knowledge, our Shareholders had complied with the requirements as stipulated under SAFE Circular 37 in all material aspects. However, we may not be informed of the identities of all the PRC residents holding direct or indirect interest in our Company, and we cannot provide any assurance that these PRC residents will comply with our request to make or obtain any applicable registrations or continuously comply with all requirements under SAFE Circular 37 or other related rules. In addition, we cannot provide any assurance that all of our Shareholders and beneficial owners who are PRC residents will comply with our request to make, obtain or update any applicable registrations or comply with other requirements required by SAFE Circular 37 or other related rules in a timely manner. Even if our Shareholders and beneficial owners who are PRC residents comply with such request, we cannot provide any assurance that they will successfully obtain or update any registration required by SAFE Circular 37 or other related rules in a timely manner due to many factors, including those beyond our and their control. The failure or inability of the relevant Shareholders to comply with the registration procedures set forth in these regulations may subject us to fines and legal sanctions, such as restrictions on our cross-border investment activities, on the ability of our wholly foreign-owned subsidiaries in China to distribute dividends and the proceeds from any reduction in capital, share transfer or liquidation to us. Moreover, failure to comply with the various foreign exchange registration requirements described above could result in liability under PRC law for circumventing applicable foreign exchange restrictions. As a result, our business operations and our ability to distribute profits to you could be materially and adversely affected.

Fluctuations in the value of the Renminbi and other currencies may have a material adverse impact on your investment.

During the Track Record Period, substantially all of our revenue and expenditures were denominated in Renminbi, while the net proceeds from the Global Offering will be in Hong Kong dollars. Fluctuations in the exchange rate between the Renminbi and the Hong Kong dollar will affect the relative purchasing power in Renminbi terms of the proceeds from the Global Offering. Fluctuations in the exchange rate may also cause us to incur foreign exchange losses and affect the relative value of any dividend issued by us.

Movements in Renminbi exchange rates are affected by, among other things, changes in political and economic conditions and China's foreign exchange regime and policy. With the development of the foreign exchange market and progress towards interest rate liberalization and Renminbi internationalization, the PRC government may in the future announce further changes to the exchange rate system, and we cannot assure you that the Renminbi will not appreciate or depreciate significantly in value against other currencies in the future. It is difficult to predict how market forces or relevant government policies may impact the exchange rate between the Renminbi and other currencies in the future.

RISK FACTORS

As of the Latest Practicable Date, the fluctuations in the value of the Renminbi and other currencies do not have a material adverse impact on the business, financial condition or results of operations of our Group, and we have not entered into any hedging transactions in an effort to reduce our exposure to foreign currency exchange risks. In any event, the availability and effectiveness of these hedges may be limited and we may not be able to hedge our exposure successfully, or at all.

Policies on foreign investment in the PRC may adversely affect business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

The investment activities of foreign investors in the PRC are subject to certain regulations regarding the industry participated and imposed to additional verification procedures by certain authorities. The Special Management Measures (Negative List) for the Access of Foreign Investment (2024) (《外商投資准入特別管理措施(負面清單)(2024年版)》, the “Negative List”) issued by the NDRC and MOFCOM, which set out in a unified manner the restrictive measures for the access of foreign investments such as the requirements for equity and senior management, and the industries that are prohibited for foreign investment. The Negative List covers 11 industries, and any field not covered by the Negative List shall be administered under the principle of equal treatment to domestic and foreign investment. As of the Latest Practicable Date, our main business in China does not fall within the Negative List. However, certain industries are specifically prohibited for foreign investment, which may restrict us from entering into these industries afterwards.

PRC regulation of loans to, and direct investments in, PRC entities by offshore holding companies may cause delay in using the proceeds of the Global Offering to make loans or additional capital contributions to our PRC subsidiaries, which could materially and adversely affect our liquidity and our ability to fund and expand our business.

We may transfer funds to our PRC subsidiaries or finance our PRC subsidiaries by means of Shareholders’ loans or capital contributions after completion of the Global Offering. Any loans to our PRC subsidiaries, which are foreign-invested enterprises (“FIEs”), cannot exceed a statutory limit, and shall be filed with SAFE or its local counterparts after the loan agreement is signed.

Furthermore, any capital contributions we make to our PRC subsidiaries shall be subject to the requirement of making necessary filings or reports in the Foreign Investment Comprehensive Management Information System, and registration with a local bank authorized by SAFE. We may not be able to obtain these government registrations or approvals, or complete these government filings on a timely basis, if at all. If we fail to receive such registrations or approvals or complete such filings, our ability to provide loans or capital contributions to our PRC subsidiaries in a timely manner may be negatively affected, which could materially and adversely affect our liquidity and our ability to fund and expand our business.

RISK FACTORS

On March 30, 2015, SAFE promulgated the Circular on Reforming the Administration Measures on Conversion of Foreign Exchange Registered Capital of Foreign-invested Enterprises (《國家外匯管理局關於改革外商投資企業外匯資本金結匯管理方式的通知》) (“Circular 19”). On June 9, 2016, SAFE further issued the Circular of the State Administration of Foreign Exchange on Reforming and Regulating Policies on the Control over Foreign Exchange Settlement of Capital Accounts (《國家外匯管理局關於改革和規範資本項目結匯管理政策的通知》) (“Circular 16”), which, among other things, amended certain provisions of Circular 19. According to Circular 19 and Circular 16, FIEs are allowed to settle 100% of their foreign exchange capitals and foreign debts from foreign currency into Renminbi on a discretionary basis, and the flow and use of the Renminbi capital converted from foreign currency-denominated registered capital of a foreign-invested company is regulated such that Renminbi capital may not be used for business beyond its business scope or to provide loans to persons other than affiliates unless otherwise permitted under its business scope. The applicable foreign exchange circulars and rules may limit our ability to transfer the net proceeds from the Global Offering to our PRC subsidiaries and convert the net proceeds into Renminbi, which may adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.

The M&A Rules and certain other PRC regulations establish various procedures for some acquisitions of Chinese companies by foreign investors, which could make it more difficult for us to pursue growth through acquisitions in China.

A number of PRC laws and regulations, including the Provisions on Merger and Acquisition of Domestic Enterprises by Foreign Investors (《關於外國投資者併購境內企業的規定》) promulgated by MOFCOM on June 22, 2009 and effective from June 22, 2009, the Anti-monopoly Law (《中華人民共和國反壟斷法》) promulgated by the Standing Committee of the National People’s Congress of the PRC on June 24, 2007 and effective from August 1, 2007, and the Rules of Ministry of Commerce on Implementation of Security Review System of Mergers and Acquisitions of Domestic Enterprises by Foreign Investors (《商務部實施外國投資者併購境內企業安全審查制度的規定》) promulgated by MOFCOM on August 25, 2011 and effective from September 1, 2011, have established procedures and requirements that are expected to make merger and acquisition activities in China by foreign investors more time-consuming. These include requirements in some instances that MOFCOM be notified in advance of any change-of-control transaction in which a foreign investor takes control of a PRC domestic enterprise and that the approval from MOFCOM be obtained in circumstances where overseas companies established or controlled by PRC enterprises or residents acquire affiliated domestic companies. PRC laws and regulations also require certain merger and acquisition transactions to be subject to merger control review or security review. Moreover, the Anti-Monopoly Law requires that transactions which are deemed concentrations and involve parties with specified turnover thresholds be cleared by relevant government authorities before they can be completed. On February 7, 2021, the Anti-monopoly Commission of the State Council (國務院反壟斷委員會) issued the Anti-Monopoly Guidelines for the Internet Platform Economy Sector (《關於平台經濟領域的反壟斷指南》) that specifies some of the activities of internet platforms may be identified as monopolistic, and concentrations of undertakings involving variable interest entities are subject to anti-monopoly scrutiny as well. According to the Anti-monopoly Law most recently amended on June 24, 2022 and effective from August 1, 2022, business operators shall not abuse data, algorithms, technology, capital advantages and platform rules to exclude or limit competition. The Anti-monopoly Law also requires relevant government authorities to strengthen the examination of concentration of undertakings in areas such as finance, media, science and technology, and enhances penalties for violation of the regulations regarding concentration of undertakings.

We may continue to grow our business by acquiring complementary businesses. Complying with the requirements of the above-mentioned regulations and other relevant rules to complete such transactions could be time-consuming, and any required approval processes, including obtaining approval from MOFCOM or its local counterparts and other government authorities, may delay or inhibit our ability to complete such transactions. It is unclear whether our business would be deemed to be in an industry that raises “national defense and security” or “national security” concerns. However, MOFCOM or other government agencies may publish explanations in the future determining that our business is in an industry subject to the security review, in which case our future acquisitions in China, including those by way of entering into contractual control arrangements with target entities, may be closely scrutinized or prohibited. As such, our ability to expand our business or maintain or expand our market share through future acquisitions would be materially and adversely affected.

You may experience difficulties in effecting service of legal process or enforcing foreign judgments against us, our executive Directors or senior management.

Most of our assets are situated in mainland China and most of our Directors and officers named in this prospectus reside in mainland China. As a result, it may be difficult to effect service of process outside mainland China upon most of our Directors and officers, including with respect to matters arising under applicable securities laws. Mainland China does not have treaties providing for the reciprocal recognition and enforcement of judgment of courts with the United States, the United Kingdom and many other countries and regions. Consequently, recognition and enforcement in the PRC of judgments of a court in these jurisdictions may be difficult, the outcomes of which are often unpredictable.

On July 14, 2006, Hong Kong and mainland China entered into the Arrangement on Reciprocal Recognition and Enforcement of Judgments in Civil and Commercial Matters by the Courts of the Mainland and of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region Pursuant to Choice of Court Agreements Between Parties Concerned (《關於內地與香港特別行政區法院相互認可和執行當事人協議管轄的民商事案件判決的安排》) (the “2006 Arrangement”), and promulgated on July 3, 2008, pursuant to which a party with a final court judgment rendered by a Hong Kong court requiring payment of money in a civil and commercial case pursuant to a choice of court agreement in writing may apply for recognition and enforcement of the judgment in mainland China. Similarly, a party with a final judgment rendered by a PRC court requiring payment of money in a civil and commercial case pursuant to a choice of court agreement in writing may apply for recognition and enforcement of the judgment in Hong Kong. A choice of court agreement in writing is defined as any agreement in writing entered into between parties after the effective date of the 2006 Arrangement in which a Hong Kong court or a PRC court is expressly designated as the court having sole jurisdiction for the dispute. Therefore, it is not possible to enforce a judgment rendered by a Hong Kong court in mainland China if the parties in dispute have not agreed to enter into a choice of court agreement in writing.

On January 18, 2019, the Supreme People's Court of the PRC and the government of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region entered into the Arrangement on Reciprocal Recognition and Enforcement of Judgments in Civil and Commercial Matters by the Courts of the Mainland and of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region (《關於內地與香港特別行政區法院相互認可和執行民商事案件判決的安排》) (the “2019 Arrangement”), which seeks to establish a bilateral legal mechanism that provides clarity and certainty for the recognition and enforcement of judgments in a wider range of civil and commercial matters between Hong Kong and mainland China, based on criteria other than a written choice of court agreement. The 2019 Arrangement became effective on January 29, 2024, both in mainland China and in Hong Kong and replaced the 2006 Arrangement. Under the 2019 Arrangement, any party concerned may apply to the relevant PRC court or Hong Kong court for recognition and enforcement of the effective judgments in civil and commercial cases subject to the conditions set forth in the 2019 Arrangement. However, we cannot assure you that all final judgments will be recognized and effectively enforced by the relevant PRC court.

RISKS RELATING TO THE GLOBAL OFFERING

There has been no public market for our Shares prior to the Global Offering, and you may not be able to resell our Shares at or above the Offer Price you pay, or at all.

Prior to the completion of the Global Offering, there has been no public market for our Shares. There can be no guarantee that an active trading market for our Shares will develop or be sustained after completion of the Global Offering. In addition, the Offer Price is the result of negotiations between our Company and the Joint Global Coordinators (for themselves and on behalf of the Underwriters), which may not be indicative of the price at which our Shares will be traded following completion of the Global Offering. The market price of our Shares may drop below the Offer Price at any time after completion of the Global Offering.

The price and trading volume of our Shares may be volatile which could result in substantial losses for investors purchasing our Shares in the Global Offering.

The trading price of our Shares may be volatile and could fluctuate widely in response to factors beyond our control, including general market conditions of the securities markets in Hong Kong and elsewhere in the world. In particular, the performance and fluctuation of the market prices of other companies with business operations located mainly in China that have listed their securities in Hong Kong may affect the volatility in the price of and trading volumes for our Shares. A number of China-based companies have listed their securities, and some are in the process of preparing to list their securities in Hong Kong. Some of these companies have experienced significant volatility, including significant price declines after their initial public offerings. The trading performances of the securities of these companies at the time of or after their offerings may affect the overall investor sentiment towards China-based companies listed in Hong Kong and consequently may impact the trading performance of our Shares. These broad market and industry factors may significantly affect the market price and volatility of our Shares, regardless of our actual operating performance. In addition, short seller reports attacking us could also negatively impact the trading price of our Shares. Public companies that have substantially all of their operations in China have been the subject of short selling, and much of the scrutiny and negative publicity has centered on allegations in areas such as financial reporting, accounting and corporate governance. If we cannot respond timely to the allegations in the short seller reports, the trading price of our Shares will continue to fluctuate significantly after such attack. Further, regardless of whether such allegations are grounded, we could have to expend a significant amount of resources to investigate such allegations and/or defend ourselves.

If securities or industry analysts do not publish research or reports about our business, or if they adversely change their recommendations regarding our Shares, the market price and trading volume for our Shares could decline.

The trading market for our Shares will be influenced by research or reports that industry or securities analysts publish about our business. If research analysts do not establish and maintain adequate research coverage or if one or more analysts who cover us downgrade our Shares or publish inaccurate or unfavorable research about our business, the market price for our Shares would likely decline. If one or more of these analysts cease to cover us or fail to regularly publish reports on us, we could lose visibility in the financial markets, which, in turn, could cause the market price or trading volume for our Shares to decline.

The actual or perceived sale or availability for sale of substantial amounts of our Shares, especially by our Directors, executive officers and substantial Shareholders, could materially and adversely affect the prevailing market price of our Shares.

Future sales of a substantial number of our Shares, especially by our Directors, executive officers and substantial Shareholders, or the perception or anticipation of such sales, could negatively impact the market price of our Shares in Hong Kong and our ability to raise equity capital in the future at a time and price that we deem appropriate. The Shares held by our existing Shareholders are subject to certain lock-up periods beginning on the date on which trading in our Shares commences on the Stock Exchange. While we are currently not aware of any intention of such persons to dispose of significant amounts of their Shares after the expiry of the lock-up periods, we cannot assure you that they will not dispose of any Shares they may own now or in the future. Market sale of Shares by such Shareholders and the availability of these Shares for future sale may have negative impact on the market price of our Shares.

RISK FACTORS

You will incur immediate and substantial dilution and may experience further dilution in the future.

The Offer Price of our Shares is higher than the net tangible book value per Share immediately prior to the Global Offering. Therefore, purchasers of our Shares in the Global Offering will experience an immediate dilution. If we issue additional Shares in the future, purchasers of our Shares in the Global Offering may experience further dilution in their shareholding percentage.

We cannot assure you that the Shares will remain listed on the Stock Exchange.

There is no guarantee of the continued listing of the Shares. Among other factors, our Company may not continue to satisfy the listing requirements of the Stock Exchange. Holders of the Shares would not be able to sell their Shares through trading on the Stock Exchange if the Shares were no longer listed on the Stock Exchange.

There can be no assurance of the accuracy or completeness of certain facts, forecasts and other statistics obtained from various government publications, market data providers and other independent third-party sources, including the industry expert reports, contained in this prospectus.

This prospectus, particularly “Industry Overview,” contains information and statistics relating to the nursery product industry in China. Such information and statistics have been derived from various government publications, other third-party reports, either commissioned by us or publicly accessible, and other publicly available sources. We believe that the sources of the information are appropriate sources for such information, and we have taken reasonable care in extracting and reproducing such information. However, the information from official government sources has not been independently verified by us, the Joint Sponsors, any of our or their respective directors, officers or representatives or any other person involved in the Global Offering, and no representation is given as to its accuracy. Collection methods of such information may be flawed or ineffective, or there may be discrepancies between published information and market practice, which may result in the statistics being inaccurate or not comparable to statistics produced for other economies. In addition, we cannot assure you that such information is stated or compiled on the same basis or with the same degree of accuracy as similar statistics presented elsewhere. In any event, you should consider carefully the importance placed on such information or statistics.

We cannot assure you that we will declare and distribute any amount of dividends in the future, and you may have to rely on price appreciation of our Shares for return on your investment.

We did not declare or distribute dividends to our Shareholders during the Track Record Period. We may pay cash dividends on our ordinary shares in the foreseeable future. There can be no assurance that we will declare and distribute any amount of dividends in the future. Therefore, you should not rely on an investment in our Shares as a source for any future dividend income.

RISK FACTORS

Our Board of Directors has complete discretion as to whether to distribute dividends, subject to certain restrictions under Cayman Islands law, namely that our Company may only pay dividends either out of profits or share premium account, and provided always that in no circumstances may a dividend be paid if this would result in our Company being unable to pay its debts as they fall due in the ordinary course of business. In addition, our ability to pay dividends or make other distributions to our Shareholders is subject to various factors, including our business and financial performance, capital and regulatory requirements and general business conditions. Moreover, our Shareholders may by ordinary resolution declare a dividend, but no dividend may exceed the amount recommended by our Board of Directors. Even if our Board of Directors decides to declare and pay dividends, the timing, amount and form of future dividends, if any, will depend on, among other things, our future results of operations and cash flow, our capital requirements and surplus, the amount of distributions, if any, received by us from our subsidiary, our financial condition, contractual restrictions and other factors deemed relevant by our Board of Directors. Accordingly, the return on your investment in our Shares will likely depend entirely upon any future price appreciation of our Shares. There is no guarantee that our Shares will appreciate in value or even maintain the price at which you purchased the Shares. You may not realize a return on your investment in our Shares and you may even lose your entire investment in our Shares.

We are a Cayman Islands company and, because judicial precedent regarding the rights of Shareholders is more limited under the laws of the Cayman Islands than other jurisdictions, you may have difficulties in protecting and enforcing your Shareholder rights.

Our corporate affairs are governed by our Memorandum and Articles and by the Cayman Companies Act and common law of the Cayman Islands. The rights of Shareholders to take legal action against our Directors and us, actions by minority Shareholders and the fiduciary responsibilities of our Directors to us under Cayman Islands law are to a large extent governed by the common law of the Cayman Islands. The common law of the Cayman Islands is derived in part from comparatively limited judicial precedent in the Cayman Islands as well as from English common law, which has persuasive, but not binding, authority on a court in the Cayman Islands. The laws of the Cayman Islands relating to the protection of the interests of minority Shareholders differ in some respects from those established under statutes and judicial precedent in existence in the jurisdictions where minority Shareholders may be located. See “Appendix III — Summary of the Constitution of Our Company and Cayman Islands Company Laws” for details. As a result of all of the above, minority Shareholders may have difficulties in protecting their interests under the laws of the Cayman Islands through actions against our management, Directors or our major Shareholders, which may provide different remedies to minority Shareholders when compared to the laws of the jurisdiction in which such shareholders are located.

RISK FACTORS

Our controlling Shareholders have significant influence over our Company and their interests may not be aligned with the interests of our other Shareholders.

Immediately upon the completion of the Global Offering, without taking into account any Shares which may be issued pursuant to the exercise of the Over-allotment Option and any Shares which may be allotted and issued pursuant to the exercise of Share Options, our controlling Shareholders will collectively control approximately 52.50% of the voting power at general meetings of our Company. Our controlling Shareholders will, through their voting power at the Shareholders' meetings and their delegates on the Board, have significant influence over our business and affairs, including decisions in respect of mergers or other business combinations, acquisition or disposition of assets, issuance of additional Shares or other equity securities, timing and amount of dividend payments, and our management. Our controlling Shareholders may not act in the best interests of our minority Shareholders. In addition, without the consent of our controlling Shareholders, we could be prevented from entering into transactions that could be beneficial to us. This concentration of ownership may also discourage, delay or prevent a change in control of our Company, which could deprive our Shareholders of an opportunity to receive a premium for the Shares as part of a sale of our Company and may significantly reduce the price of our Shares.

You should read the entire document carefully and should not rely on any information contained in press articles or other media regarding us and the Global Offering.

We strongly caution you not to rely on any information contained in press articles or other media regarding us and the Global Offering. Prior to the publication of this prospectus, there has been press and media coverage regarding us and the Global Offering. Such press and media coverage may include references to certain information that does not appear in this prospectus, including certain operating and financial information and projections, valuations and other information. We have not authorized the disclosure of any such information in the press or media and do not accept any responsibility for any such press or media coverage or the accuracy or completeness of any such information or publication. We make no representation as to the appropriateness, accuracy, completeness or reliability of any such information or publication. To the extent that any such information is inconsistent or conflicts with the information contained in this prospectus, we disclaim responsibility for it and you should not rely on such information.

Forward-looking statements contained in this prospectus are subject to risks and uncertainties.

This prospectus contains forward-looking statements with respect to our business strategies, operating efficiencies, competitive positions, and growth opportunities for existing operations, plans and objectives of management, certain pro forma information and other matters.

RISK FACTORS

The words “anticipate,” “believe,” “could,” “potential,” “continue,” “expect,” “intend,” “may,” “plan,” “seek,” “will,” “would,” “should” and the negative of these terms and other similar expressions identify a number of these forward-looking statements. As a consequence, these forward-looking statements should be considered in light of various important factors, including those set out in “Risk Factors.” Accordingly, such statements are not a guarantee of future performance and you should not place undue reliance on any forward-looking information. All forward-looking statements in this prospectus are qualified by reference to this cautionary statement.

WAIVERS FROM STRICT COMPLIANCE WITH THE LISTING RULES

In preparation for the Listing, we have sought the following waivers from strict compliance with the relevant provisions of the Listing Rules.

WAIVER IN RELATION TO MANAGEMENT PRESENCE IN HONG KONG

Pursuant to Rule 8.12 of the Listing Rules, an issuer must have a sufficient management presence in Hong Kong. This normally means that at least two of its executive directors must be ordinarily resident in Hong Kong.

The headquarters and business operations of our Group are primarily based, managed, and conducted in the PRC. Our executive Directors ordinarily reside in the PRC. Our senior management team is based in the PRC and manages our business operations in the PRC. Historically, our Directors typically met in the PRC. As our executive Directors and senior management team play very important roles in our business operations, we consider that it is in the best interest of our Company for them to be based in the place where our Group has significant operations. As such, our Company does not, and will not for the foreseeable future, have a sufficient management presence in Hong Kong for the purpose of satisfying the requirement under Rule 8.12 of the Listing Rules.

Accordingly, we have applied to the Stock Exchange for, and the Stock Exchange has granted us, a waiver from strict compliance with the requirement under Rule 8.12 of the Listing Rules. We will ensure that there is an effective channel of communication between us and the Stock Exchange by way of the following arrangements:

- (a) we have appointed Mr. Wang, and Ms. Au Wing Han (區泳嫻) (“Ms. Au”), our joint company secretary, as our authorized representatives (the “Authorized Representatives”) pursuant to Rule 3.05 of the Listing Rules. Our Authorized Representatives will act as our principal channel of communication with the Stock Exchange. Our Authorized Representatives will be readily contactable by phone, email, and/or facsimile to promptly deal with enquiries from the Stock Exchange, and will also be available to meet with the Stock Exchange to discuss any matter within a reasonable period of time upon request of the Stock Exchange;
- (b) when the Stock Exchange wishes to contact our Directors on any matter, our Authorized Representatives will have all necessary means to contact all of our Directors (including our independent non-executive Directors) promptly at all times. Our Company will also inform the Stock Exchange promptly in respect of any change in our Authorized Representatives. We have provided the Stock Exchange with the contact details of all Directors to facilitate communication with the Stock Exchange;
- (c) all Directors who do not ordinarily reside in Hong Kong possess or can apply for valid travel documents to visit Hong Kong and can meet with the Stock Exchange within a reasonable period upon request of the Stock Exchange;

WAIVERS FROM STRICT COMPLIANCE WITH THE LISTING RULES

- (d) we have appointed Somerley Capital Limited as our Compliance Advisor upon the Listing pursuant to Rule 3A.19 of the Listing Rules for a period commencing on the Listing Date and ending on the date on which we comply with Rule 13.46 of the Listing Rules in respect of our financial results for the first full financial year commencing after the Listing Date. The Compliance Advisor will have access at all times to our Authorized Representatives, Directors and senior management team, and will act as an additional channel of communication with the Stock Exchange when our Authorized Representatives are not available; and
- (e) we have provided the Stock Exchange with the names, mobile phone numbers, office phone numbers, facsimile numbers and email addresses of at least two of the Compliance Advisor's officers who will act as our Compliance Advisor's contact persons between the Stock Exchange and our Company.

WAIVER IN RELATION TO APPOINTMENT OF JOINT COMPANY SECRETARY

Pursuant to Rules 3.28 and 8.17 of the Listing Rules, the company secretary of an issuer must be an individual who, by virtue of his or her academic or professional qualifications or relevant experience, is, in the opinion of the Stock Exchange, capable of discharging the functions of company secretary.

Note 1 to Rule 3.28 of the Listing Rules further provides that the Stock Exchange considers the following academic or professional qualifications to be acceptable:

- (a) a member of The Hong Kong Chartered Governance Institute;
- (b) a solicitor or barrister as defined in the Legal Practitioners Ordinance (Chapter 159 of the Laws of Hong Kong); and
- (c) a certified public accountant as defined in the Professional Accountants Ordinance (Chapter 50 of the Laws of Hong Kong).

Note 2 to Rule 3.28 of the Listing Rules further sets out the factors that the Stock Exchange will consider in assessing an individual's "relevant experience":

- (a) length of employment with the issuer and other issuers and the roles he or she played;
- (b) familiarity with the Listing Rules and other relevant laws and regulations including the SFO, the Companies Ordinance, the Companies (Winding Up and Miscellaneous Provisions) Ordinance and the Takeovers Code;
- (c) relevant training taken and/or to be taken in addition to the minimum requirement under Rule 3.29 of the Listing Rules; and
- (d) professional qualifications in other jurisdictions.

WAIVERS FROM STRICT COMPLIANCE WITH THE LISTING RULES

Our Company was incorporated in the Cayman Islands, and we primarily conduct business activities in the PRC. All our Directors and senior management who are familiar with our activities and have extensive experience in board and corporate management matters presently do not possess any of the qualifications under Rule 3.28 of the Listing Rules, and may not be able to solely fulfill the requirements of the Listing Rules.

We propose to appoint Mr. Yan Dong (顏棟) (“Mr. Yan”) and Ms. Au as our joint company secretaries. Although Mr. Yan does not possess the qualifications under Rule 3.28 of the Listing Rules, we would like to appoint him as a joint company secretary due to his experience in corporate finance and equity investment and his familiarity with our business operations and internal management.

Accordingly, we have applied to the Stock Exchange for, and the Stock Exchange has granted us, a waiver from strict compliance with the requirements under Rules 3.28 and 8.17 of the Listing Rules in relation to the appointment of Mr. Yan as our joint company secretary. Pursuant to paragraphs 13 and 15 of Chapter 3.10 of the Guide, the waiver will be for a three-year period from the Listing Date (the “Waiver Period”) and on the following conditions: (i) the proposed company secretary must be assisted by a person who possesses the qualifications or experience as required under Rule 3.28 of the Listing Rules (the “Qualified Person”) and is appointed as a joint company secretary throughout the Waiver Period, and (ii) the waiver can be revoked if there are material breaches of the Listing Rules by the issuer.

We have appointed Ms. Au, a member of The Hong Kong Chartered Governance Institute, who is a Qualified Person, as a joint company secretary to provide assistance to Mr. Yan during the Waiver Period so as to enable Mr. Yan to acquire the relevant experience as required under Note 2 to Rule 3.28 of the Listing Rules to duly discharge his duties. Given Ms. Au’s professional qualifications and experience, she will be able to explain to both Mr. Yan and our Company the relevant requirements under the Listing Rules. Ms. Au will also assist Mr. Yan in organizing Board meetings and Shareholders’ meetings as well as other matters which are incidental to the duties of a company secretary. She is expected to work closely with Mr. Yan, and will maintain regular contact with Mr. Yan, our Directors, and senior management. In addition, Mr. Yan will comply with the annual professional training requirement under Rule 3.29 of the Listing Rules and will enhance his knowledge of the Listing Rules during the Waiver Period. Mr. Yan will also be assisted by (a) the Compliance Advisor, particularly in relation to compliance with the Listing Rules, and (b) the Hong Kong legal advisor of our Company on matters concerning our Company’s ongoing compliance with the Listing Rules and the applicable laws and regulations. If and when Ms. Au ceases to be a joint company secretary before the end of the Waiver Period, our Company will appoint another Qualified Person as a replacement. Such a waiver can be revoked if there are material breaches of the Listing Rules by our Company.

WAIVERS FROM STRICT COMPLIANCE WITH THE LISTING RULES

We will liaise with the Stock Exchange before the end of the Waiver Period to enable it to assess whether Mr. Yan, having had the benefit of Ms. Au's and, if applicable, another Qualified Person's assistance for three years, has acquired relevant experience within the meaning of Rule 3.28 of the Listing Rules so that a further waiver will not be necessary.

For further information regarding the qualifications and experience of Mr. Yan and Ms. Au, see "Directors and Senior Management."

CONSENT IN RESPECT OF THE PROPOSED SUBSCRIPTION OF SHARES BY A CORNERSTONE INVESTOR WHO IS A CONNECTED CLIENT

Paragraph 5(1) of Appendix F1 to the Listing Rules provides that no allocations will be permitted to "connected clients" of the overall coordinator(s), any syndicate member(s) (other than the overall coordinator(s)) or any distributor(s) (other than syndicate member(s)) (collectively, the "Distributors", and each a "Distributor"), without the prior written consent of the Stock Exchange.

Paragraph 13(7) of the Appendix F1 to the Listing Rules states that "connected client" in relation to an exchange participant means any client which is a member of the same group of companies as such exchange participant.

Huatai Capital Investment Limited ("HTCI") has entered into a cornerstone investment agreement with the Company and CITIC Securities (Hong Kong) Limited, CLSA Limited, Haitong International Capital Limited, Haitong International Securities Company Limited and Futu Securities International (Hong Kong) Limited. HTCI and Huatai Securities Company Limited ("HTSC") will enter into a series of cross border delta-one OTC swap transactions (the "Tongyi OTC Swaps") with each other and their ultimate clients ("HTCI Ultimate Clients (Tongyi)"), respectively, pursuant to which HTCI will hold the Offer Shares on a non-discretionary basis to hedge the Tongyi OTC Swaps, respectively, while the economic risks and returns of the underlying Offer Shares are passed to the HTCI Ultimate Clients (Tongyi). HTCI, HTSC and Huatai Financial Holdings (Hong Kong) Limited ("Huatai"), one of the Joint Bookrunners, Joint Lead Managers and Underwriters of the Global Offering, are members of the same group of companies. Accordingly, HTCI is a connected client of Huatai.

We have applied for, and the Stock Exchange has granted, a consent under paragraph 5(1) of Appendix F1 to the Listing Rules to permit HTCI (in connection with the Tongyi OTC Swaps) to participate in the Global Offering as a cornerstone investor on the following basis and conditions as set out in Paragraph 5 of Chapter 4.15 of the Guide for New Listing Applicants:

- (a) any Offer Shares to be allocated to HTCI will be held on behalf of independent third parties;

WAIVERS FROM STRICT COMPLIANCE WITH THE LISTING RULES

- (b) the cornerstone investment agreement of HTCI does not contain any material terms which are more favourable to HTCI than those in other cornerstone investment agreements;
- (c) no preferential treatment has been, nor will be, given to HTCI by virtue of its relationship with Huatai, in any allocation of Offer Shares in the International Offering other than the assured entitlement under the cornerstone investment agreement;
- (d) HTCI confirms that to the best of its knowledge and belief, it has not received and will not receive preferential treatment in the allocation of Offer Shares in the Global Offering as a cornerstone investor by virtue of its relationship with Huatai, other than the assured entitlement under the relevant cornerstone investment agreements;
- (e) each of the Company, the Overall Coordinators and HTCI has provided the Stock Exchange with written confirmations in accordance with Chapter 4.15 of the Guide for New Listing Applicants; and
- (f) details of the cornerstone investment and details of the allocations will be disclosed in “Cornerstone Investors” section of this prospectus and the allotment result announcement.

OVERVIEW OF GLOBAL NURSERY PRODUCT INDUSTRY

Nursery products refer to products intended for the use of infants and young children, typically under five years old, which serve fundamental needs in areas such as travel, sleep, feeding and caring. These products prioritize safety, functionality and comfort, featuring non-toxic materials, ergonomic designs and compliance with safety standards.

With growing awareness of child well-being, the demand for nursery products has steadily increased worldwide. According to the Frost & Sullivan Report, the global nursery product market increased from US$80.5 billion in 2020 to US$98.3 billion in 2024, representing a CAGR of 5.1% from 2020 to 2024, and is estimated to reach US$103.2 billion in 2025 and US$125.4 billion in 2029, representing a CAGR of 5.0% from 2025 to 2029. Market growth and trends vary across regions, which reflect differences in birth rates, consumer spending, and regulatory environments.

- North America. The North American nursery product market is experiencing growth, driven by rising consumer demand for premium, safe and functional items such as high-end strollers, car seats, and cribs that meet strict safety standards such as FMVSS 213. Market size grew from US$18.5 billion in 2020 to US$23.6 billion in 2024 (CAGR 6.3%) and is expected to reach US$24.8 billion by 2025 and US$29.9 billion by 2029 (CAGR 4.8%).
- Europe. The European market is expanding as consumers increasingly prioritize eco-friendly and sustainable nursery products, including organic food items and environmentally friendly diapers, alongside traditional concerns about safety and functionality. Market size grew from US$16.9 billion in 2020 to US$19.2 billion in 2024 (CAGR 3.3%) and is projected to reach US$20.1 billion by 2025 and US$24.1 billion by 2029 (CAGR 4.7%).

INDUSTRY OVERVIEW

- Japan. Despite a declining birth rate, the Japanese market remains stable with steady growth, driven by a strong consumer preference for high-quality, organic, eco-friendly and high-tech infant products. Market size rose from US$2.3 billion in 2020 to US$2.6 billion in 2024 (CAGR 3.1%) and is expected to reach US$2.7 billion by 2025 and US$3.0 billion by 2029, maintaining the same CAGR 2.5% growth rate.
- Southeast Asia. The rapidly growing Southeast Asian market is fueled by the increasing shift toward online shopping and a rising demand for affordable, high-quality products, with consumers prioritizing cost performance. The Southeast Asia market experienced the fastest growth, increasing from US$5.6 billion in 2020 to US$7.7 billion in 2024 (CAGR 8.6%) and is forecast to reach US$8.5 billion by 2025 and US$11.4 billion by 2029 (CAGR 7.6%).

The global nursery products market is increasingly leaning toward eco-friendly alternatives, driven by both shifting consumer preferences and regulatory changes. Parents around the world are prioritizing sustainability and thereby favoring products made from non-toxic, renewable materials such as FSC-certified wood and organic fabrics. This trend is especially pronounced in regions such as Europe, where the European Union Green Deal aims to phase out disposable plastics by 2030, encouraging manufacturers to adopt more sustainable solutions. EU member states, particularly Germany, demonstrate a strong preference for environmentally certified products, with baby furniture made from sustainably sourced wood being a key example.

At the same time, the rising demand for high-quality, safe products is motivating manufacturers to create products that comply with strict safety standards and also offer long-term durability. Adjustable products, such as height-adjustable cribs or convertible furniture, are gaining traction due to their ability to extend the product lifecycle and minimize waste. As global environmental awareness continues to grow, the market shift towards eco-friendly and sustainable nursery products is expected to accelerate, compelling manufacturers to adapt in order to maintain competitiveness in this evolving landscape.

OVERVIEW OF CHINA'S NURSERY PRODUCT INDUSTRY

The nursery product market in China has experienced steady growth, driven by rising disposable income and increased household spending on children. Per capita disposable income increased from RMB32,189 in 2020 to RMB41,314 in 2024, representing a CAGR of 6.4% from 2020 to 2024, and is expected to reach RMB43,481 by 2025 and RMB52,840 by 2029, with a CAGR of 5.0% from 2025 to 2029. As a result, China's nursery product market, encompassing both durable and consumable segments in terms of product category, expanded from RMB121.8 billion in 2020 to RMB144.1 billion in 2024, representing a CAGR of 4.3% from 2020 to 2024, and is expected to reach RMB151.4 billion in 2025 and RMB183.7 billion in 2029, representing a CAGR of 5.0% from 2025 to 2029.

The nursery product market comprises two main segments in terms of product positioning: nursery products for mid- to high-end consumers and nursery products for the mass market. The key distinction between these segments is pricing, with mid- to high-end nursery products ranked within the top 40th percentile of their category. These nursery products are characterized by high-quality materials, refined design and enhanced functionality, and often reflect strong brand equity to appeal to consumers seeking elevated aesthetics, ease of use and a curated parenting experience. Compared with other consumer goods categories such as electronics or automotive, mid- to high-end nursery products tend to carry stronger emotional and lifestyle associations. In contrast, mass-market nursery products fall below the 40th percentile in pricing, targeting affordability and practical functionality and thereby appealing to a wider demographic.

Mid- to high-end nursery products represent a smaller segment within China's broader nursery products market compared to mass-market segment, accounting for 23.6% of total market in 2024. Recent years have seen steady growth in both segments, with the mid- to high-end segment outpacing its counterpart. The size of the mid- to high-end nursery product market in China increased from RMB25.6 billion in 2020 to RMB34.0 billion in 2024, with a CAGR of 7.4% from 2020 to 2024, compared to the CAGR of the mass-market at 3.4% over the same period. The mid- to high-end nursery product market is expected to reach RMB37.1 billion in 2025 and RMB50.9 billion in 2029, representing a CAGR of 8.2% from 2025 to 2029. In comparison, the mass-market segment is forecasted to grow at a slower rate, reaching RMB132.9 billion by 2029 at a CAGR of 3.9% during the same period.

Market Demand for Nursery Products in China

Market demand for nursery products is influenced by the number of children and broader economic conditions, which impact annual per-child spending on these products. In China, the newborn population declined from 12.0 million in 2020 to approximately 9.5 million in 2024, largely due to a reduction in the number of women of childbearing age and the increasing average age of marriage and childbirth.

Despite this decline, factors such as economic growth, improved social welfare (including enhancements in healthcare, education and childcare support) and the introduction of the third-child policy in 2021 may encourage families to have children, potentially mitigating the downward trend in the newborn population. From 2025 to 2029, the newborn population is expected to remain at around 8.0 million per year.

The rising number of affluent households in China has contributed to increasing demand for nursery products, as families with higher disposable income prioritize investing in high-quality goods for their children. This trend is expected to persist, with the number of affluent households projected to grow annually from 5.0 million in 2020 to 5.4 million in 2029. These demographic shifts are likely to drive greater willingness among parents to pay premium prices for nursery products that emphasize quality, safety and design, thereby boosting and diversifying market demand.

Drivers of China's Nursery Product Industry

The key growth drivers of China's nursery product industry include:

- Evolving Parenting Priorities and Expectations. A new generation of parents is taking a more informed, thoughtful approach to childcare, focusing not just on functionality but also on quality of life. This shift has driven demand for products that not only align with children's developmental milestones, but also resonate with their aesthetic preferences, as modern families seek premium, stylish and self-fulfilling solutions that enhance the overall parenting experience. To stay competitive, brands are using data and consumer insights to meet these evolving needs of today's parents. According to Frost & Sullivan, 82% of families are willing to purchase nursery products that reflect individuality and taste, indicating parents' increased attention to product identity and personalization as well as rising demand for branded and design-driven nursery products.
- Spending Power of First-Time Parents. Changing societal trends have contributed to a rise in delayed parenthood, which results in a growing segment of first-time parents with greater financial stability. With higher disposable income, this demographic tends to invest more in high-quality, well-designed nursery products. Their spending habits are shaping market trends and fueling growth in categories such as smart technology, multifunctional nursery gear and eco-friendly materials. According to Jiangsu Economic News, over 60% of families in China spend more than RMB2,000 per month on child-rearing, with post-95 parents allocating approximately 30% of their monthly income to nursery products. This spending behavior supports the continuous expansion of the nursery product industry, particularly among higher-income urban households.
- Expanded Selection of High-Quality Products. In recent years, China's consumer market has seen a rise in high-quality nursery products that cater to individual preferences. In response to changing consumer demands, brands are increasingly focusing on innovative, high-quality solutions. These products often feature eco-friendly materials, multifunctional designs and unique attributes, reflecting the modern parents' priorities such as sustainability, convenience and advanced functionality. According to Frost & Sullivan, more than 60% of families prioritize safety and green formulations when purchasing nursery products. Over 35% of parents focus on durability and more than 30% value usability, indicating that product material and long-term performance are key purchase factors.

INDUSTRY OVERVIEW

- Improved Supply Chain and After-Sales Services. Nursery product brands are placing greater emphasis on optimizing supply chain management and after-sales support to boost consumer satisfaction and foster loyalty. Streamlined logistics ensure that products reach consumers on time and meet their changing demands, while responsive after-sales services address any concerns and maintain consumer confidence. These improvements help improve product quality, increase repurchase rate, and strengthen a brand's position in the market.
- Strengthened Policy Support and Improved Business Environment. The government is strengthening the childcare service infrastructure by advocating for inclusive, diverse and standardized childcare services, while actively supporting the production of safe and high-quality nursery products from domestic manufacturers. Policy measures, including the Strategic Plan for Expanding Domestic Demand (擴大內需戰略規劃綱要), aim to alleviate the financial and logistical challenges of raising children and align fertility strategies with broader economic and social development objectives. These efforts are fostering a favorable environment for business operations and propelling growth in the nursery product market. As of April 2025, the National Development and Reform Commission announced the rollout of a national child-rearing subsidy system. For example, families in Hangzhou receive RMB5,000 for a second child and RMB20,000 for a third child. These financial incentives are expected to support birth rates and further stimulate demand for nursery products.
- Enhanced Intellectual Property Protection. Strengthened intellectual property protections are driving increased investment in product development, design innovation, and technological advancements among brands in the nursery product industry. This emphasis on innovation is translating into safer, more user-friendly products that align closely with consumer demands. By safeguarding proprietary designs and technologies, IP protections help brands establish unique identities and gain a competitive edge. Additionally, these measures reduce counterfeiting and promote fair competition, fostering an environment that encourages ongoing research and development. In turn, this builds consumer confidence and contributes to the sustainable growth of the market.

Entry Barriers for New Entrants

- Brand Recognition. Established brands have strong consumer trust, which makes it difficult for new entrants to gain market share. Parents prefer products with proven safety and reliability, therefore limiting opportunities for lesser-known brands.
- Distribution Challenges. Leading e-commerce platforms and brick-and-mortar retailers prioritize brands with strong sales histories. New entrants struggle to secure listings and visibility without local partnerships or significant marketing investment.

INDUSTRY OVERVIEW

- Regulatory Compliance. China manufacturing standards impose strict safety and quality requirements, covering materials, chemical composition and structural integrity. Compliance requires extensive testing and certification, which result in increased costs and hurdles in market entry.
- Limited Consumer Insights. The nursery market places high value on user feedback for product development, with established brands continuously refining their offerings based on accumulated customer data. New entrants, who lack the depth of consumer insights, may struggle to develop products that meet evolving market expectations.

Market Challenges and Threats

- Counterfeit Products. Counterfeit nursery products, often lacking safety certification, mislead consumers and pose health risks for infants and young children. Counterfeits damage brand credibility and erode consumer trust, which would force legitimate brands to invest in brand protection and consumer education.

OVERVIEW OF CHINA'S DURABLE NURSERY PRODUCT INDUSTRY

Durable nursery products are long-lasting essentials designed for travel, sleep, and feeding. They are made with sturdy materials and designed for safety and convenience in daily care, such as strollers, cribs, car seats, baby carriers and highchairs, along with other related products. China's market for durable nursery products has shown consistent growth, supported by steady consumer demand. The estimated average spending on durable nursery products in China for each newborn in 2024 from birth to five years old is RMB5,968, which is only 30% to 33% of the spending level in North America, 35% to 40% of that in developed European countries, 49.9% of that in Japan, and on similar level with that in Southeast Asia.

Strollers, the largest segment within this category, expanded from RMB16.7 billion in 2020 to RMB22.2 billion in 2024 at a CAGR of 7.4% from 2020 to 2024, and is expected to reach RMB24.2 billion in 2025 and RMB33.0 billion in 2029 at a CAGR of 8.1% from 2025E to 2029. Similarly, the sizes of the car seat and baby carrier segments grew from RMB5.9 billion and RMB3.6 billion in 2020 to RMB10.0 billion and RMB4.9 billion in 2024 at a CAGR of 14.0% and 8.3% from 2020 to 2024, respectively, and is expected to continue growing with a CAGR of 12.2% and 10.0% from 2025 to 2029, respectively.

Drivers and Future Trends of China's Durable Nursery Product Industry

- Focus on Children's Health, Comfort and Safety. Early childhood is critical for spinal development, as natural spinal curves essential for posture and balance are formed during this period. Without proper support, children face risks of spinal deformities, scoliosis and chronic pain. These concerns have led parents to prioritize health, comfort and safety when selecting durable nursery products, with many demonstrating a high willingness to pay for premium brands that offer superior quality and design. According to Frost & Sullivan, over 95% of families consider practicality, safety and cost-effectiveness when purchasing nursery products. Additionally, child safety regulations, such as those requiring the use of certified car seats to prevent traffic injuries, further reinforce the importance of well-designed nursery products. The market penetration rate for car seats in China increased from 21% in 2019 to greater than 45% in 2024. Modern parents, particularly those of the new generation, are increasingly focused on their children's well-being, driving demand for high-quality products with features such as shock absorption, multifunctionality and smart monitoring.

INDUSTRY OVERVIEW

- Penetration of Premium Brands. As parental expectations for high-quality, durable and safe products continue to rise, there is an increasing preference for premium brands known for their superior features and reliability. Premium brands in the nursery product market, particularly those focused on spine protection and other child safety items, are gaining significant traction. According to Frost & Sullivan, the market size of mid- to high-end nursery products in China expanded from RMB25.6 billion in 2020 to RMB34.0 billion in 2024, representing a CAGR of 7.4% from 2020 to 2024. The visibility and trustworthiness of these brands, bolstered by strategic marketing and brand positioning, are helping to meet the growing demand for high-quality products, further accelerating market growth. This trend aligns with a broader market shift toward premiumization, where consumers are willing to invest more in products that promise better protection and enhanced functionality.
- Social Media as a Catalyst for Market Growth. Social media has become a major force driving the durable nursery product market. Its ability to rapidly disseminate information, foster consumer trust, and provide interactive, personalized engagement has significantly boosted interest and sales, particularly within the mid- to high-end nursery product segment. Many parents rely on social media or expert advice to inform purchasing decisions, contributing to the growth of this industry. According to Frost & Sullivan, over 50% of consumers rely on social media to obtain information about travel gear products for infants and young children and make purchasing decisions based on these insights. As digital commerce continues to expand and social media platforms evolve, this trend is expected to further propel the expansion of the mid- to high-end durable nursery product market.
- Technological Innovation and Material Upgrading. Technological innovation is influencing the durable nursery product market, attracting an increasing population of tech-savvy parents. Advances in lightweight materials and ergonomic design are making durable nursery products more portable and comfortable. Ergonomic innovations provide better support for a child's spinal curve, reducing pressure and minimizing the risk of injury. These streamlined protective designs address parents' high standards for safety and comfort.
- Heightened Child Safety Legislation. The revised Law on the Protection of Minors, adopted at the 9th meeting of the Standing Committee of the 14th National People's Congress and effective from April 26, 2024, which requires children under the age of four to be secured in car seats meeting national safety standards, has driven a significant increase in demand for safety-compliant products. This legal change has raised awareness among parents about the importance of car seat safety, prompting a notable shift toward premium car seat options. Premium brands, which offer advanced safety features and superior comfort, are in higher demand as parents prioritize both compliance with legal requirements and the protection of their children.

Entry Barriers for New Entrants

- High Capital Investment. Manufacturing durable nursery products such as strollers, cribs, and car seats requires significant upfront costs. Investment in product design, high-quality materials and specialized manufacturing processes is essential to meet industry standards and consumer expectations. Additionally, the rising focus on ESG efforts demands sustainable supply chains, eco-friendly materials and ethical labor practices, which elevates costs and further raises entry barriers.
- Brand Trust and Safety Standards. Parents prioritize safety and reliability when selecting nursery gear. Strict regulatory requirements and product certifications demand extensive testing, increasing costs and limiting market entry for new brands. Established brands with proven safety records generally hold a competitive advantage.
- Distribution Challenges. Unlike consumable items, durable nursery products often require physical retail presence. Many parents prefer to see, touch and test these products before purchasing, making access to offline retail channels critical. Although e-commerce penetration continues to grow, logistics costs and strict return policies create additional challenges.
- Patent Protection and Proprietary Technology. Established brands generally hold a strong portfolio of patents covering key product innovations, materials and safety mechanisms. Intellectual property protections create a significant barrier for new entrants, which restricts their ability to develop differentiated products without the risk of legal challenges or costly licensing agreements.

Market Challenges and Threats

- Long Purchase Cycle. Durable nursery products have a longer replacement cycle compared to consumable products. Parents make one-time or infrequent purchases of cribs, strollers and car seats, which limit the opportunities for repeat sales. Brands must focus on expanding product lines or offering modular and upgradeable designs to maintain customer engagement.

Compared to mass-market durables, mid- to high-end durable nursery products use better-quality materials, incorporate additional design features, and are associated with higher-end brand positioning and pricing.

INDUSTRY OVERVIEW

The table below sets forth the price range for each product type of mid- to high-end durable nursery products.

Product Type	Price Range of Mid- to high-end Durable Nursery Products (Unit)	Average Price Range of Products (Unit)
Stroller	Above RMB1,600	RMB700-1,200
Car seat	Above RMB1,500	RMB800-1,000
Baby carrier	Above RMB420	RMB100-300
Crib	Above RMB2,000	RMB1,200-1,600
Highchair	Above RMB500	RMB200-400

Mid- to high-end durable nursery products accounted for 34.8% of the total durable nursery product market in 2024. China's mid- to high-end durable nursery product market expanded from RMB13.6 billion in 2020 to RMB19.8 billion in 2024, achieving a CAGR of 9.9% from 2020 to 2024. This growth outpaced the mass-market segment, which grew at a slower CAGR of 5.8% over the same period. The mid- to high-end durable nursery product market is projected to reach RMB22.3 billion in 2025 and RMB33.3 billion by 2029 with a CAGR of 10.5% from 2025 to 2029. In contrast, the mass-market segment is expected to grow at a more moderate rate, reaching RMB39.8 billion in 2025 and RMB51.8 billion by 2029 with a CAGR of 6.8% over the same period.

OVERVIEW OF CHINA'S CONSUMABLE NURSERY PRODUCT INDUSTRY

Consumable nursery products are everyday baby care essentials that need regular replenishment for hygiene, feeding, and comfort, such as diapers, wipes, feeding accessories, bedding, formula and skincare products. Baby care products are items used for the daily hygiene and care of infants and young children, such as diapers and wipes. Feeding products, including baby bottles and sippy cups, are utensils specifically designed for infants and young children for feeding. Bedding products, such as sleep bags and bedding, are designed for use during sleep and rest. In 2024, the average annual expenditure on consumable nursery products per child from birth to five years old in China reached RMB1,717, accounting for 42% to 45% of the level in North America, 50% to 55% of that in developed European countries, 70.7% of that in Japan, and similar level with that in Southeast Asia.

In China's consumable nursery product market, baby care products, particularly diapers, lead the market due to their high frequency of use as daily essentials. The size of baby care product segment increased from RMB61.0 billion in 2020 to RMB66.8 billion in 2024 and is expected to reach RMB73.4 billion by 2029. Meanwhile, the size of bedding product segment saw the fastest growth, with a CAGR of 6.4% from 2020 to 2024, driven by ongoing product innovations, in contrast to the more modest growth rates of 2.3% for baby care products and 1.2% for feeding products in the same period.

Drivers and Future Trends of China's Consumable Nursery Product Industry

- Growing Focus on Hygiene and Convenience. In today's fast-paced society, Parents are increasingly prioritizing products that promote their young children's health and hygiene, driving demand for baby care products with gentle formulations designed for delicate skin and effective protection against irritation and bacteria. In addition, convenience has become a crucial factor for consumers, particularly in the consumable nursery product industry. Young parents, balancing work and family life, favor products that simplify baby caring and saving time. For example, daily disposable diapers in pouches offer ease of use without the need for organization, enhancing the user experience. According to public information and the analysis of Frost & Sullivan, regarding diaper and wet wipe products, more than 70% of consumers attach importance to the safety of the materials, more than 40% of consumers value high cost-effectiveness, and over 30% of consumers prioritize convenience. This growing demand for convenience has led brands to invest in research and development for product and packaging optimization, attracting more consumers and fueling the continuous growth of the industry.
- Rising Disposable Income and Demand for Mid- to high-end Products. As China's economy continues to grow and disposable income rises, parents are increasingly willing to invest in high-quality products for their children. According to public information and Frost & Sullivan, from 2020 to 2024, the per capita disposable income increased from RMB32,189 to RMB41,314, with a CAGR of 6.4%. According to the same source, the per capita disposable income is projected to reach RMB52,840 in 2029 from RMB43,481 in 2025, with a CAGR of 5.0% from 2025 to 2029. This evolving consumer preference has prompted producers and suppliers to focus on developing premium and diversified product lines, incorporating eco-friendly materials and innovative designs. As a result, the demand for mid- to high-end nursery products is driving both market expansion and continuous product innovation, with companies seeking to meet the growing expectations of more affluent and discerning parents.
- Favorable Policies to Drive Market Growth. The Chinese government's transition from the "two-child policy" to the "three-child policy," coupled with supportive measures aimed at encouraging higher fertility rates, is expected to lead to an increase in the birth rate. This demographic shift is projected to drive significant growth in demand for nursery products, as more children will require essential items such as car seats, cribs and clothing. In response, the nursery products industry is expected to see expanded supply chains and increased product innovation to meet the evolving needs of families. According to Frost & Sullivan, although China's birth rate has declined in recent years, the government has continued to implement a series of measures to reverse the long-term demographic trend. Beginning with the relaxation of the one-child policy and the rollout of the comprehensive two-child policy in 2016, and later the formal introduction of the three-child policy in 2021, government authorities have taken active steps to support families and stimulate births, accompanied by the removal of penalties such as social maintenance fees and the introduction of supportive initiatives focused on childcare, education, housing and parental leave. These national-level policy changes, backed by the highest decision-making bodies in China, are expected to gradually stabilize the population structure and provide a policy foundation for sustained demand in the maternal and nursery product sectors. Despite current demographic headwinds, the industry remains a long-term beneficiary of government-led efforts to support family development and improve fertility rates.

- Product Innovation. As consumer demand for higher quality, comfort and sustainability rises, brands have introduced advancements such as ultra-thin diapers, high absorbency, antibacterial properties and eco-friendly materials. Advances in materials and automation, such as highly absorbent diapers and hands-free breast pumps, are meeting demand for more convenient and efficient baby care products. As technology advances and consumer preferences evolve, continued innovation is expected to shape the future of the market.
- Shifting Consumer Priorities. Modern parents are placing greater importance on product quality when choosing consumable nursery products. According to public information and Frost & Sullivan, more than 40% of people take good quality as a driving factor when purchasing maternal and infant products, and regard “putting children at the center” as one of their main parenting concepts as well. This shift is driven by concerns for their children’s health and comfort, with a growing focus on key attributes such as material quality, absorbency and breathability. In particular, products such as diapers that reduce skin irritation and rashes are in high demand, further pushing the market toward premium, branded options.
- Growth of Online Channels. E-commerce has transformed the purchasing landscape for consumable nursery products, offering parents increased convenience and access to quality branded goods. According to Frost & Sullivan, over 60% of nursery products were purchased online in 2024, and this share is expected to exceed 75% by 2029. Online platforms provide price advantages and personalized recommendations, which have further fueled demand for mid- to high-end products. This shift to digital retail is expected to continue driving market growth in the coming years.

Entry Barriers for New Entrants

- Consumer Loyalty. Established brands have built strong brand recognition and trust over time. Their reputation for quality and reliability makes it difficult for new entrants to attract consumers, particularly in the highly competitive diaper and wipes segment.
- Supply Chain Management. Efficient sourcing, production and distribution are critical for success in the consumable nursery product market. Managing raw material costs, maintaining consistent product quality and ensuring timely delivery at scale pose significant challenges for new entrants.

INDUSTRY OVERVIEW

- Retail and Distribution Access. Established brands dominate key sales channels, including e-commerce platforms and large retail network. New brands must secure strong partnerships or invest heavily in digital marketing and direct-to-consumer strategies to gain visibility and shelf space.

Market Challenges and Threats

- Environmental Concerns. Growing consumer demand for sustainable nursery products, such as biodegradable diapers and eco-friendly packaging, is changing market expectations. Companies must invest in innovation and material alternatives to stay competitive while managing cost implications.

Compared to mass-market consumables, mid- to high-end consumable nursery products use more refined materials or formulations, come from brands with stronger reputations, and are priced at a higher level. Mid- to high-end consumable nursery products accounted for 16.3% of the total consumable nursery product market in 2024.

The table below sets forth the price range for each product type of mid- to high-end consumable nursery products.

This growth outpaced the mass-market segment, which recorded a slower CAGR of 2.3% over the same period. The mid- to high-end consumable nursery product market is projected to continue its steady growth, reaching RMB14.8 billion in 2025 and RMB17.6 billion by 2029, with a CAGR of 4.4% from 2025 to 2029. In contrast, the mass-market segment is expected to expand at a slower pace, reaching RMB81.0 billion by 2029, with a CAGR of 2.1% over the same period.

TRENDS IN KEY RAW MATERIAL PRICES

The nursery product industry relies heavily on key materials such as aluminum alloys, acrylonitrile-butadiene-styrene (“ABS”), and cotton, making price fluctuations in these inputs a critical factor in operational planning and product development. From 2020 to 2024, the price per ton of aluminum alloys and cotton increased from RMB14.9 thousand and RMB12.9 thousand to RMB20.5 thousand and RMB14.9 thousand, respectively, with a CAGR of 8.4% and 3.6%, respectively. In 2024, the price per ton of ABS was RMB11.1 thousand, with a CAGR of -3.7% from 2020 to 2024.

The key raw material prices of nursery products fluctuated from 2019 to 2023. The pandemic-induced downturn in demand during 2019-2020 led to a decline in prices, followed by a recovery in 2021 as production resumed post-pandemic. In 2022 and 2023, new production capacities coming online and ongoing supply chain pressures contributed to a renewed decrease in prices. However, with global conditions stabilizing in the aftermath of the pandemic, the sharp price fluctuations seen in recent years are unlikely to repeat. Moving forward, the costs of these essential materials are projected to grow at a steady and moderate pace between 2023 and 2028, reflecting a more balanced market environment.

SOURCE OF THE INDUSTRY INFORMATION

Frost & Sullivan was commissioned to conduct an analysis of, and to report China's nursery product market at a fee of approximately RMB0.6 million. The commissioned report has been prepared by Frost & Sullivan independent of the influence of the Company and other interested parties. Frost & Sullivan provides professional services including, among others, industry consulting, commercial due diligence, and strategic consulting.

Frost & Sullivan conducted both primary and secondary research using a variety of resources. Primary research involved consumer survey, interviewing key industry experts and leading industry participants. Secondary research involved analyzing data from various publicly available data sources, such as the National Bureau of Statistics of China, information released by other Chinese government authorities, annual reports published by industry participants, industry organizations, as well as Frost & Sullivan's internal database.

The market projections in the commissioned report are based on the following key assumptions: (i) the overall social, economic, and political environment in China is expected to remain stable during the forecast period; and (ii) China's economic and industrial development is likely to maintain a steady growth during the forecast period.

The forecast on China's future social economic and political environment would rely on government information disclosure and the historical social economics performance over the past five years with economic outlook released by government as well. With the historical stable economical growth performance and authorities' outlook and statements reaffirmed policy continuity, Frost and Sullivan makes assumptions that overall social economic and political environment in china is expected to remain stable during the forecast period. The detailed information as follows:

- Macroeconomic performance in 2024 and future trajectory. In 2024, China's GDP reached RMB134.9 trillion, representing a 5.0% year-on-year increase, and quarterly growth rates were 5.3%, 4.7%, 4.6% and 5.4%, respectively. In the same year, China's per capita disposable income rose to RMB41,314, reflecting a year-on-year growth of 5.1%, which indicates a continued trend in consumption and household purchasing power, both of which are closely tied to demand in the nursery product industry. Given the macroeconomic trends observed in 2024, and building on the 5.4% year-on-year GDP growth recorded in the first quarter of 2025, it is expected that China's economic growth will remain within a stable and moderate range over the next five to ten years.
- Resilience backed by supportive and consistent policy. China's economy demonstrated resilience in 2024. Senior officials, including the Commissioner of the National Bureau of Statistics, highlighted China's long-term strengths and capacity for high-quality growth. At the Central Economic Work Conference held in December 2024, policymakers reviewed current economic conditions and called for continued efforts to boost consumption and expand domestic demand, which are intended to support economic resilience and help offset external pressures. On January 17, 2025, the Commissioner of the National Bureau of Statistics stated that China's economy remains on a solid footing, with sustained strengths and growth potential, and that the underlying trend of long-term development has not changed. In early 2025, statements from national leadership reaffirmed policy continuity, emphasizing economic stability alongside gradual structural improvement and signaling the government's ongoing intention to foster sustainable development.

These factors point to a macroeconomic environment where consumer confidence and industrial activity are expected to remain relatively stable, providing a supportive foundation for the continued development of consumer-related sectors, including the nursery product industry.

Where an issuer submits an application for an initial public offering to competent overseas regulators, such issuer or its major domestic operating entity must file with the CSRC within three business days after such application is submitted. The regulation also requires subsequent reports to be filed with the CSRC on material events, such as change of control or voluntary or forced delisting of the issuer(s) who have completed overseas offerings and listings.

of RMB1.5 million. Given the financial condition of our Group at that time, the parties agreed to settle the service fee by Mr. Wang transferring RMB75,000 registered capital of BeBeBus Technology to Guangzhou Ronghui, representing an implied valuation of our Group of RMB60 million. In June 2023, given Mr. Yan's abundant experience in corporate finance and equity investment, as well as his familiarity with our business operations and internal management, Mr. Wang invited Mr. Yan to join our Group to assist with the Reorganization and other preparation work for the Listing, as well as corporate governance related matters. Apart from Guangzhou Ronghui's past shareholding in BeBeBus Technology and Mr. Yan's current positions in our Group, there is no other past or present relationship between Mr. Yan and his spouse on one hand and our Group on the other hand.

- (6) Such transfers of registered capital of BeBeBus Technology were effected to either restructure part of Mr. Wang's shareholding in BeBeBus Technology from direct shareholding to indirect shareholding through limited partnerships, or as a token of appreciation for Ms. Shen's contributions as the co-founder of our Group. These transfers were carried out at nil or nominal consideration due to the nature and purpose of the transfers.

(e) Transfers of Registered Capital of BeBeBus Technology in January 2021

In January 2021, the following transfers of registered capital of BeBeBus Technology were effected.

Transferor	Transferee	Registered capital transferred	Consideration
		(RMB)	(RMB)
Guangzhou Ronghui	Mr. Wang ⁽¹⁾	75,000	14,420,000 ⁽¹⁾
Daokoutou	Mr. Wang ⁽¹⁾	36,356	7,000,000 ⁽¹⁾

Note:

- (1) Such transfers of registered capital of BeBeBus Technology were effected to solidify Mr. Wang's control of BeBeBus Technology amid the dilution of his shareholding caused by the Series A Financing and the Series A+ Financing and potential further dilution from additional equity financing then under consideration, as well as to simplify the shareholding structure of BeBeBus Technology in preparation for the Reorganization. The respective consideration for these transfers was determined through amicable negotiations between the parties, with reference to the valuation of our Group in the Series A Financing of RMB300 million and the Series A+ Financing of RMB436 million, the then valuation of our Group of approximately RMB700 million determined by potential investors taking into account the overall business status and prospects of our Group, and the prevailing market sentiment in the venture capital markets at the time of such transfers. The increase in the valuation of our Group from May 2020 to January 2021 was primarily due to improvements in the overall business status of our Group (including our Group's substantial sales increase in 2020, particularly the strong sales performance during the 618 shopping festival that year), the recognition of BeBeBus Technology as a National High-tech Enterprise (國家高新技術企業), the successful completion of the Series A Financing and the Series A+ Financing which demonstrated external validation of our Group's competitive strengths and promising business prospects, and the vibrant and optimistic market sentiment in the venture capital markets at that time. Such an increase in valuation reflects our Group's robust sales growth and rapid expansion and aligns with our upward financial performance during the Track Record Period.

Mr. Wang has been overseeing the strategic planning, global business expansion and product R&D of our Group since its inception. The Voting Proxy granted by SLING to WANGBOYAN will enable Mr. Wang, through WANGBOYAN, to maintain the level of control in our Company that existed prior to the dilution caused by the Global Offering. Ms. Shen believes that entrusting the voting rights attached to the relevant Shares held by SLING to WANGBOYAN will further solidify Mr. Wang’s consistent leadership and management of our Group, thereby facilitating the overall strategic planning and decision-making process of our Group.

Pursuant to the Voting Proxy, during the term of the Voting Proxy, WANGBOYAN shall have the right to exercise the voting rights attached to the relevant Shares held by SLING, in its sole discretion, on all matters submitted to a vote at a meeting of Shareholders or by written resolution of the Shareholders, except for (i) matters in relation to hostile takeover and (ii) matters in respect of which WANGBOYAN is required to abstain from voting pursuant to the Articles of Association, the Listing Rules, or any other applicable laws and rules. In such cases, SLING will be entitled to exercise the voting rights attached to the relevant Shares.

Pursuant to the Voting Proxy, SLING shall not, among others, (i) exercise or transfer the voting rights attached to the relevant Shares without prior written consent of WANGBOYAN, (ii) acquire any additional Shares or securities convertible into the Shares in any form without prior written notice to WANGBOYAN, and (iii) take any action that may prevent WANGBOYAN from performing, or make it impossible for WANGBOYAN to perform, its obligations under the Voting Proxy.

The Voting Proxy became effective from the date of execution (i.e., February 2, 2024) for an indefinite period until the earliest of: (i) a written agreement between the parties to terminate the Voting Proxy, (ii) when WANGBOYAN materially breaches the Voting Proxy (including when WANGBOYAN engages in any wilful misconduct, fraud, or gross negligence when exercising the voting rights attached to the relevant Shares held by SLING or fails to abstain from exercising the voting rights attached to the relevant Shares held by SLING as required under the Articles of Association or the Listing Rules) or fails to perform any material obligations under the Voting Proxy and, if such breach or failure can be rectified, such breach or failure is not rectified within ten days after SLING notifies WANGBOYAN of such breach or failure, and (iii) when SLING ceases to hold any Shares.

SLING has given a lock-up undertaking in favor of our Company, the Joint Sponsors, the Overall Coordinators, and the Hong Kong Underwriters for a term of six months from the Listing Date. For details, see “Underwriting — Undertaking by Other Existing Shareholders.”

HISTORY, REORGANIZATION AND CORPORATE STRUCTURE

PUBLIC FLOAT AND FREE FLOAT

Pursuant to Rule 8.08(1) of the Listing Rules, assuming that the Over-allotment Option is not exercised, (i) based on an Offer Price of HK$62.01 per Offer Share (being the low end of the indicative Offer Price range), our expected market capitalization upon the Listing is HK$5.63 billion, and the minimum prescribed public float percentage applicable to our Shares is 25.0%; (ii) based on an Offer Price of HK$66.60 per Offer Share (being the mid-point of the indicative Offer Price range), our expected market capitalization upon the Listing is HK$6.04 billion, and the minimum prescribed public float percentage applicable to our Shares is 24.8%; and (iii) based on an Offer Price of HK$71.20 per Offer Share (being the top end of the indicative Offer Price range), our expected market capitalization upon the Listing is HK$6.46 billion, and the minimum prescribed public float percentage applicable to our Shares is 23.2%.

The 47,640,920 Shares held by WANGBOYAN and SLING, representing approximately 52.50% of our total issued Shares upon the completion of the Global Offering (assuming that the Over-allotment Option is not exercised and without taking into account any Shares which may be allotted and issued pursuant to the exercise of Share Options), will not be counted towards public float as both WANGBOYAN and SLING are core connected persons of our Company.

To the best knowledge of our Directors, save as disclosed above, none of the other Shareholders (including the Pre-IPO Investors) (i) is a core connected person of our Company, (ii) has been financed directly or indirectly by a core connected person of our Company for the acquisition of Shares, or (iii) is accustomed to take instructions from a core connected person of our Company in relation to the acquisition, disposal, voting or other disposition of Shares registered in its name or otherwise held by it. Consequently, approximately 47.50% of our total issued Shares upon the completion of the Global Offering (assuming that the Over-allotment Option is not exercised and without taking into account any Shares which may be allotted and issued pursuant to the exercise of Share Options) will be counted towards public float, which is in compliance with the requirement under Rule 8.08(1) of the Listing Rules. In addition, our Company will satisfy the free float requirement under Rule 8.08A(1) of the Listing Rules upon the Listing.

OVERVIEW

Who We Are

We are a China-based company specializing in the design and sale of nursery products. BeBeBus, our first brand introduced in 2019, has become a renowned brand in China's nursery product market, serving mid- to high-end consumers. Within five years, BeBeBus has carved out a space by competing in the mid- to high-end segment, which accounted for 23.6% of the total nursery product market in 2024. According to Frost & Sullivan, BeBeBus ranked second among China's nursery product brands in terms of GMV of mid- to high-end nursery products in 2024, with a market share of 4.2%, affirming our strong foothold and performance in the industry.

We have established a proven growth model by initially entering into nursery product segments such as strollers, car seats, cribs and highchairs, that are characterized by product complexity, strong demand, and high transaction value. This strategy allows us to rapidly gain recognition from our target users for both our product excellence and premium brand image, setting the stage for expansion into a wider range of product categories. By introducing additional product types that align with various parenting needs, we have diversified our revenue streams while further cementing the strength of our brand. We believe our established growth model provides a robust foundation for our sustained success in the future, allowing us to adapt and thrive in an ever-evolving marketplace.

We achieved strong financial growth throughout the Track Record Period. We recorded revenue of RMB507.2 million, RMB852.1 million, RMB1,248.9 million, RMB581.9 million and RMB725.8 million in 2022, 2023 and 2024 and the six months ended June 30, 2024 and 2025, respectively. Our gross profit was RMB241.8 million, RMB427.3 million, RMB629.1 million, RMB292.3 million and RMB358.5 million, respectively, with a gross profit margin of 47.7%, 50.2%, 50.4%, 50.2% and 49.4% in the same years/periods. Our adjusted net profit for the year/period (non-HKFRS measure) was RMB9.8 million, RMB59.2 million, RMB110.9 million, RMB44.9 million and RMB78.0 million in 2022, 2023 and 2024 and the six months ended June 30, 2024 and 2025, respectively. Additionally, our EBITDA (non-HKFRS measure) was RMB33.4 million, RMB109.4 million, RMB164.4 million, RMB80.0 million and RMB111.1 million in 2022, 2023 and 2024 and the six months ended June 30, 2024 and 2025, respectively, with adjusted EBITDA (non-HKFRS measure) of RMB38.8 million, RMB115.9 million, RMB191.4 million, RMB84.0 million and RMB128.0 million in the same years/periods.

- (1) Average selling price represents the average price (tax-inclusive) at which products are sold through online and offline channels, and it includes both the wholesale prices to distributors and key accounts as well as the retail prices to consumers. The discrepancy between the product of sales volume and average selling price and revenue is due to the fact that the former figures are tax-inclusive, whereas the latter reflects tax-exclusive amounts.
- (2) The average selling price of diapers is calculated on a per-piece basis.
- (3) The average selling price of wipes is calculated on a per-pack basis.

Each BeBeBus product is infused with the brand's defining characteristics, designed to provide families with an enjoyable and user-centric experience.

- Thoughtful designs. BeBeBus is among the first in the world to launch intelligent car seats for children, according to Frost & Sullivan. This car seat incorporates a smart system that rotates automatically when the car door opens, making it easier for parents to place their little ones in and out of the seat. With 360° intelligent sensing, the car seat automatically adjusts its angle when a child falls asleep, minimizing stress on the neck and head to safe levels. The smart alert feature, connected via a mobile app, reminds parents if a child remains in the vehicle. Additionally, our Art+ stroller and Soft+ pillow have been certified by the International Chiropractors Association for their effective spine protection designs. These are just few examples of our commitment to innovation, which is further evidenced by the number of patents we secured. As of June 30, 2025, we had 200 registered patents in China and 17 internationally. We believe our product design and development capabilities are our core competitive edge that will drive our future growth.

- Cross-industry expertise. Our product development team consists of a group of diversified design specialists unified by an interdisciplinary mindset to add value through innovation. They draw inspirations from various sectors, including automotive, consumer electronics, industrial, aviation and beyond. For instance, we utilize a diverse array of raw materials that go beyond the standard options found in nursery products. Our car seats feature Cobra memory cotton, which is typically found in automotive seating, providing enhanced shock resistance, responsive support and long-lasting durability. We also employ waterproof, easy-care fabrics that are used in the automotive industry for quick and effortless cleanup. Similarly, our stroller frames crafted from aviation-grade magnesium alloy offer strength without adding weight.
- Distinctive aesthetics. Our minimalist BeBeBus logo embodies the colorful joy and creativity of childhood which define our design aesthetic. Our designs have earned a number of recognitions worldwide, including the Red Dot Award in 2021 and the Contemporary Good Design Winner Award in 2020.
- Premium positioning. We strategically position BeBeBus as a premium brand, primarily captivating families who value quality, functionality and aesthetics over cost. Through deep understanding of our target users, we design, develop and produce products that meet their high expectations in every detail. For each year/period during the Track Record Period, the average transaction value for orders of at least one core product remained above RMB2,400.

Our Market Opportunities

China's nursery product industry is undergoing continuous growth and transformation with ample headroom for expansion. According to Frost & Sullivan, the estimated average spending on durable nursery products in China for each newborn in 2024 from birth to five years old is 31.8% of the spending level observed in the United States. In 2024, the average annual spending on consumable nursery products per child aged zero to five in China accounted for 41.6% of the level in the United States, according to the same source. This gap, combined with a growing preference for nursery products and a more sophisticated approach to parenting, is driving new opportunities in China's mid- to high-end nursery product market. According to Frost & Sullivan, China's mid- to high-end nursery product market grew from RMB25.6 billion in 2020 to RMB34.0 billion in 2024 and is projected to reach RMB50.9 billion in 2029. As Chinese families increasingly seek high-quality and innovative parenting solutions, BeBeBus is well positioned to lead this transformation. Our focus on design, functionality and innovation aligns with the increasing preferences of modern families, enabling us to solidify our position in China's mid- to high-end nursery product market.

Beyond reinforcing our market position in China, we are actively pursuing expansion into major international markets such as Europe, Southeast Asia, and North America. Our goal is to build strong distribution networks in these markets to connect BeBeBus with families around the world. By drawing on our reputation for quality and innovation, we aim to meet the needs of global consumers seeking mid- to high-end nursery products, establishing our presence in the international arena.

COMPETITIVE STRENGTHS

We believe the following competitive strengths contribute to our success and propel us into the future:

We create user-centric designs and parent-proven nursery products

Our approach to product development sets us apart in the nursery product market, enabling us to challenge traditional standards and introduce innovative products that surpass user expectations. By focusing on user needs, we craft products that excel in design, functionality, and user experience.

We capture user demand to shape industry trends. Our dedicated user behavioral research team employs a proven methodology to uncover the visible and hidden needs of our target users across diverse parenting scenarios. We analyze the growth stages of infants and children alongside parents' aspirations to enhance their parenting experience. By examining every stage in the lifecycle of nursery products from package delivery and installation to daily use, we explore and identify potential improvements in design and functionality, all aimed at enhancing user experience. In addition to detailed behavioral studies and analysis of user journeys, we utilize market reports, social media, surveys and interviews to deepen our understanding of user preferences and pain points. This comprehensive approach enables us to identify gaps in the market and develop products that directly respond to user needs. For example, our Wish+ crib departs from conventional wooden designs by using eco-friendly materials to create a foldable bed that requires no assembly, allowing for convenient use, easy mobility and efficient storage.

We design products poised for commercial success. At the outset of product development, we address five key questions: Why do users choose this product over competitors? What are the standout features that stick with users after they have experienced this product? What core technology or functionality powers this product? How can I describe this product in one memorable, impactful sentence? What nickname suits the product? This assessment helps us identify products with high growth potential, strong repurchase rates, and frequent use. We have been pushing conventional boundaries in color, material, and finish when designing our nursery products. For instance, we have moved away from the typical warm hues associated with nursery products, favoring minimalist aesthetics in bold colors like white and silver. Drawing inspiration from diverse fields, we incorporate high-quality materials such as Dupont foam in car seats and aviation-grade magnesium alloy in strollers. Every detail is thoughtfully considered, ensuring reliability under diverse conditions and delivering a product experience that resonates with modern parents.

We continuously monitor user feedback, leveraging these insights to inform our product development. This creates a positive feedback loop where genuine user needs inspire future innovations, helping us stay aligned with evolving consumer demands. For example, following the success of our Wish+ crib, we introduced the Polar+ crib (also known as the “Big White Bed”) in December 2024. This new model retains the foldable and portable features of its predecessor while adding functionalities such as air purification, side table, storage box, and night light, all developed from our ongoing user study efforts. We believe our ability to capture user needs and develop innovative products is a key driver to our current success and will continue to propel our growth in the future.

We cultivate user loyalty through a user-centric marketing strategy

Our brand and marketing efforts are built around a user-centric approach. We target quality-seeking families who value high-quality products and personalized services. These discerning consumers typically seek professional advice, consider influencer recommendations and review online feedback before making purchase decisions, especially for nursery products.

To engage this audience effectively, we have implemented a multifaceted strategy:

- We partner with influencers to build trust in the parenting community. By collaborating with celebrities, social media personalities and superusers, we promote our products and strengthen our brand’s presence. These partnerships foster trust within parenting communities, elevating our visibility and credibility while reinforcing user confidence in our offerings.
- We engage social media to drive sales and enhance brand recognition. We selectively engage popular social media platforms by implementing tailored strategies to maximize our marketing effectiveness. On Xiaohongshu, we leverage the platform’s precise recommendation system to connect our product-related content with target audience, thereby amplifying the appeal of our products. On Douyin, we focus on brand communication, tracking the reach and engagement of videos associated with our products to maximize visibility. To create stronger connections, each product is given a memorable nickname, such as “Butterfly Stroller” and “Big White Bed,” making them easily recognizable in social conversations. Over the period from March 2023 to September 2024, our brand content on Xiaohongshu and Douyin sparked more than 830,000 posts and original videos, which demonstrate the power of our digital marketing strategy in engaging and connecting with a wide user base.

- We cultivate long-term relationships through our membership program and personalized services. Our membership program helps us gain valuable insights into user preferences, needs and purchasing behaviors. This information enables us to execute highly targeted marketing campaigns, product recommendations and promotions that enhance user engagement and boost repurchase rates. Additionally, we offer complimentary parenting consulting services to our members. Our parenting consultants provide personalized, one-on-one support, creating a warm, professional experience that builds trust and loyalty among our users. By introducing members to a variety of products that cater to their evolving needs, we capture lifetime value while addressing diverse parenting challenges. This thoughtful approach, coupled with the strong reputation of our brand, drives increased demand for our products and fosters a loyal community. As of June 30, 2025, we nurture a loyal community of over 3.0 million members. The repurchase rate across our private domain platforms rose from 45.7% in 2022 to 47.5% in 2023, further to 53.3% in 2024, and reaching 52.3% in the six months ended June 30, 2025, reflecting the strong connection we have built with our members.

We fuel growth through our comprehensive sales network that melds digital with physical

We have developed a sales strategy that connects with users across diverse touchpoints, enabling us to reach a broad user base in a variety of scenarios and ensure a seamless shopping experience. Our network spans both online and offline channels, encompassing popular e-commerce platforms, social media, and live streaming networks in China, and brick-and-mortar retail stores. This approach allows us to meet users wherever they shop, enhancing their shopping experience and reinforcing our brand presence across multiple channels.

We have developed tailored strategies for each sales channel. For e-commerce platforms like Tmall and JD.com, we leverage our understanding of their ranking and recommendation systems to drive traffic to our stores and increase the conversion rate through targeted marketing. On social media platforms such as Douyin, we establish our own stores or incorporate purchase links directly into content, seamlessly bridging discovery and purchase to create a smooth shopping experience. Offline, we partner with leading baby and kids retailers as well as distributors across over 300 cities in China. We support our distribution partners with marketing materials, promotional resources, and sales training to align with their user demographics. Additionally, we have explored innovative sales opportunities by partnering with forward-thinking brands to offer co-branded car seats, further extending our reach to relevant consumer groups.

Both our online and offline sales channels delivered strong results during the Track Record Period. In 2022, 2023 and 2024 and the six months ended June 30, 2024 and 2025, our revenue from online sales totaled RMB416.9 million, RMB636.5 million, RMB936.8 million, RMB432.2 million and RMB531.6 million, respectively, while offline sales reached RMB90.3 million, RMB215.6 million, RMB312.1 million, RMB149.7 million and RMB194.3 million, respectively. Our offline presence works hand-in-hand with our digital strategy, offering consumers a chance to experience our products in person. In 2023, we launched our first interactive store in Ningbo, marking an exciting step toward creating an engaging, hands-on brand experience. This store allows consumers to touch, feel, and explore our products up close, helping bridge the gap between online shopping and in-person engagement. In 2022, we did not generate any revenue through the interactive store. In 2023, 2024 and the six months ended June 30, 2024 and 2025, we generated revenue of RMB0.9 million, RMB1.7 million, RMB0.9 million and RMB0.7 million, respectively, representing 0.1%, 0.1%, 0.1% and 0.1% of our total revenue for the corresponding years/periods. Additionally, we partnered with a local distributor to open an interactive store in Hong Kong featuring our brand in January 2025. We believe our sales network enables us to deepen relationships with our users, better understand and actively respond to their needs, promote our brand values, and advocate for a high-quality lifestyle, ultimately reinforcing user loyalty.

We advance innovation through robust manufacturing and supply chain management capabilities

We own and operate a state-of-the-art production facility of approximately 14,111 square meters in Ningbo, which integrates precision manufacturing with static testing. This capability accelerates our product development process by producing early-stage samples in-house and conducting real-time evaluations. This way, we can translate innovative concepts into tangible products swiftly while refining designs in a timely and cost-efficient manner.

Our industrial system supports precision craftsmanship in high-quality products. We adhere to rigorous quality standards, holding ISO9001 certification for quality management and IATF16949 certification for our self-owned factory in Ningbo, a standard typically reserved for automotive suppliers. Additionally, all of our products have met corresponding safety requirements, and our strollers and car seats have also obtained the China Compulsory Certification from the China Quality Certification Center. To date, we possess the ability to manufacture all our core products in-house. With our own manufacturing capabilities, we establish standardized processes and quality benchmarks for our suppliers, provide training on best practices, and implement direct oversight of their operations, ensuring consistent quality across both internal and external production lines.

Our facility follows standardized workflows to allow precise control over every production stage. This flexibility allows for efficient transition between in-house production and outsourcing, reducing costs and mitigating risks from potential supply chain disruptions. In 2023, we manufactured 121,173 car seats and 3,098 highchairs in-house, accounting for all car seat production and 57.7% of total highchair production. To meet growing demand, we are building a second production facility in Ningbo, slated for completion in 2026, with an annual capacity to produce 800,000 units of strollers, car seats, cribs and highchairs.

We propel sustainable success with a visionary management team and an innovative culture

We are led by a visionary and highly experienced management team that embodies an entrepreneurial spirit, deep industry expertise, and a commitment to innovation. Our founder, Mr. Wang Wei, possesses extensive experience in design, strategy, and brand consulting, with a deep dedication to enhancing the quality of life for families. GROWTH STRATEGIES

We believe the following strategies pave the way for our sustained success in the future.

Expand globally to strengthen leadership in mid- to high-end nursery products

We are extending our reach into key international markets, including Europe, Southeast Asia, and North America. In each target market, we will craft strategies informed by local dynamics, from consumer preferences to regulatory landscapes, ensuring our efforts resonate with diverse audiences. To achieve this, we plan to allocate (i) approximately 7.6% of the net proceeds, or HK$50.0 million, which will be used for our expansion in North America, (ii) approximately 6.0% of the net proceeds, or HK$40.0 million, which will be used for our expansion in Europe, such as Germany, France, the United Kingdom, Italy and Spain, and (iii) approximately 3.0% of the net proceeds, or HK$20.0 million, which will be used for our expansion in Southeast Asia, such as Indonesia and Thailand.

Our global strategy combines online and offline channels to maximize impact. For online sales, we plan to utilize global e-commerce platforms like Amazon to efficiently reach overseas consumers. To support our global expansion, we launched our new website in October 2024 to facilitate our international sales online. For our offline sales network, we will look for collaborating with partners who possess in-depth knowledge and rich resources regarding distribution networks. As a first step, we have set up subsidiaries in the United States and Indonesia for local distribution.

We believe that our international expansion will significantly enhance our competitive edge and position us for sustained growth.

Continue innovation to upgrade and expand product offerings

Our growth is fueled by the continuous innovation. We will ramp up our investment in research and development, expanding our technological capabilities and fortifying our intellectual property portfolio. To achieve this, we plan to allocate approximately 13.6% of the net proceeds, or HK$90.0 million, which is expected to be used for the research and development of new products, aimed at expanding both the breadth and depth of our product portfolio. Powered by our innovation capabilities, we are dedicated to regularly iterating and upgrading our flagship products to ensure they remain at the forefront of the market. Our commitment to excellence drives our endeavor to not only meet but exceed the expectations of modern parents, enhancing their parenting experience with every new release.

Additionally, we are committed to expanding our product line to address a wider spectrum of family scenarios. By leveraging deep insights into user needs and our integrated research and development, supply chain management, and manufacturing capabilities, we continuously innovate to introduce functional and stylish products that resonate with modern families. To this end, we will continue to attract, cultivate and retain talent of product design, and research and development, ensuring that our portfolio remains fresh, innovative, and aligned with consumer expectations.

Strengthen brand image and enhance user engagement

We will continue to strengthen the BeBeBus brand equity through strategic marketing and collaborations. To achieve this, we plan to allocate approximately 31.8% of the net proceeds, or HK$210.5 million, which is expected to be used for the enhancement of brand image and user engagement. Our approach includes forging partnerships with other brands, IPs, and celebrities to create co-branded products, thereby expanding our market reach and influence. We will refine our marketing content by breaking down key strategic elements into modular pieces, allowing us to customize it for each sales channel and user group. Additionally, we will enhance our membership program by expanding our parenting consulting team and hosting more in-person events. To support these initiatives, we plan to actively recruit top professionals in brand management, marketing, and traffic operations to improve the effectiveness of our brand communication. By strengthening our brand image, we aim to attract new users while fostering loyalty among our existing clientele.

Expand and optimize domestic online and offline sales channels

In addition to our global expansion efforts, we are committed to enhancing and optimizing our online and offline channels to boost domestic sales. To achieve this, we plan to allocate approximately 2.3% of the net proceeds, or HK$15.0 million, for sales network expansion. For online sales, we will focus on promoting baby care products by creating more engaging product-related content. For offline sales, we will prioritize strengthening our in-person presence in high-end shopping malls and other high-traffic locations by opening additional brand image stores. To improve sales efficiency, we will diversify product offerings within key account channels. Additionally, we are expanding our reach through partnerships with brands that complement our product line by establishing store-in-store collaboration with our brand partners.

Strengthen digital operations and expand in-house production capacity to meet rising demand

We remain committed to enhancing our technology research and development, investing in both cutting-edge hardware and skilled technical personnel. By improving our digital operations, we aim to integrate product development, sales, and operations more effectively. We are dedicated to upgrading our member services by using digital tools to create detailed user profiles, gain insights into consumer trends, and improve service quality.

To meet growing market demand while maintaining product excellence, we continue to invest in expanding our self-owned factory in Ningbo. With state-of-the-art production facilities, we aim to increase the percentage of in-house manufacturing, ensuring high-quality craftsmanship and greater production efficiency. To achieve this, we plan to allocate (i) approximately 19.6% of the net proceeds, or HK$130.0 million, which will be allocated to the construction of a new production facility in Ningbo, Zhejiang, and (ii) approximately 6.0% of the net proceeds, or HK$40.0 million, used for purchasing new equipment to upgrade production process.

Strategic investment in and acquisition of brands and/or assets

We will explore and pursue investment and acquisition opportunities in brands that demonstrate growth potential and provide synergies to enhance our existing portfolio. We primarily target brands with a strong market presence, significant market share, proprietary technology, or a robust product lineup. As of the Latest Practicable Date, we had not identified any potential investment or acquisition targets, nor had we entered into any agreements in this regard.

OUR BeBeBus BRAND AND NURSERY PRODUCTS

We have created the BeBeBus brand to embody a dedication to functionality, design and aesthetics that cater to the needs of modern parents. In just five years, BeBeBus has become a renowned brand in China's nursery product market targeting mid- to high-end consumers. In 2023, it was recognized by Forbes China as one of the top ten maternal and child consumer product merchants and distributors and was honored with the 2023 Golden Flag Award.

BUSINESS

During the Track Record Period, all of our revenue was generated from sales of products under the BeBeBus brand. Designed with love and care, our product lineup supports parents through the four essential scenarios of parenting: traveling, sleeping, feeding and caring.

Travel Gear

We offer travel-friendly nursery products to make family journeys easy and enjoyable. Our travel products keep children close, secure and comfortable, while giving parents the freedom to manage their journey with ease as they navigate new destinations together. Our curated selection of children's travel gear includes strollers, car seats and baby carriers, all created to meet the needs of families on the move.

Strollers

Stroller is the first product we have introduced to the market. We have launched four stroller series, with Art+, Armor+ and Butterfly+ being available in the market as of the Latest Practicable Date.

Art+ Stroller

Armor+ Stroller

Butterfly+ Strollers

Our strollers are designed to prioritize spine protection, comfort and portability.

- Ergonomic design for spine protection. The seats integrate our signature eggshell spine-protection technology or the unibody backrest design, ensuring proper support for the delicate spines of children from newborns to four-year-olds. Our strollers reduce the risk of choking with a recline range of 105 to 175 degrees and feature elevated side guards to help prevent side tipping, offering optimal protection for babies and toddlers on the go.
- Comfort for every ride. The built-in suspension and shock-absorbing system, coupled with the multi-position seat and the puncture-resistant wheels, provide a smooth and stable ride across various surfaces.
- Portability meets durability. Designed for convenience, the strollers fold with a single click, making storage and transport hassle-free. The Butterfly+ model features a 360-degree one-click seat rotation, allowing parents to adjust the child's position to be forward-facing or rear-facing. For durability without added weight, we have innovatively crafted the frames using aviation-grade magnesium alloy.

Car Seats

Our car seats feature high-tech designs to provide safe and comfortable riding experiences for children from newborns to 12-year-olds. We have launched five series of car seats, including Shield+, Astron+, and Shell+, which were available in the market as of the Latest Practicable Date.

Shield+ Car Seat

Astron+ Car Seat

Shell+ Booster Seat

Our car seats bring together innovation, comfort, safety and adaptability to meet the evolving needs of children and their families.

- Tech-driven, future-ready design. Our car seats are equipped with 360-degree intelligent rotation that automatically swivels the seat when the car door opens, making it effortless to place their little ones in and out of the seat. Intelligent adjustment features allow smooth and quick positioning without disrupting the children's ride. Our Astron+ car seat features a smart alert function that sends reminders to parents via a mobile app, helping prevent instances of children being unintentionally left in vehicles.
- First-class comfort and safety. Designed with both comfort and safety in mind, our seats replicate the natural C-shaped posture of a baby in the womb, offering vital support for spinal health. IsoFix integrated into the Cobra memory cotton provides shock absorption and optimal protection. An all-directional safety defense system enhances security, while three-level ventilation and heating modes keep children comfortable and dry in any weather, offering a premium experience akin to sitting in a first-class airplane seat.
- Adaptable for growth. The adjustable headrest grows with the child, accommodating both babies and young children for a secure and comfortable ride. For older children, our lightweight and ergonomically designed booster seats Shell+ provide added support, catering to different age groups and stages of development.
- Parent-friendly maintenance. The car seats feature waterproof, easy-care fabric that simplifies cleaning, making them ideal for busy parents juggling daily tasks.

Baby Carriers

Our Free+ baby carrier is another product we launched, focusing on the health of the child and the comfort of the parent user. Its extended seating bench is designed to naturally position the child's legs in an ergonomic M-shape, alleviating pressure on the hip joint to prevent O-shaped leg development. Inspired by the FitGo button design commonly used in tennis shoes, we have incorporated an intuitive adjustment mechanism into the carrier, allowing parents to easily modify its length and tightness with one hand. To provide additional support for mothers, particularly those recovering from Cesarean sections, the carrier includes an L-shaped shock-absorbing abdominal cushion for added protection and comfort. Accommodating the fast-paced lifestyles of parents, we have used a waterproof, easy-to-clean nano-coated fabric for our carrier.

Free+ Baby Carrier

Attributable to these user-friendly features, the Free+ baby carrier has gained strong popularity among parents, leading to a notable boost in sales. According to Frost & Sullivan, we were the best-selling brand in the baby carrier market targeting mid- to high-end consumers in China by GMV in 2024, further solidifying our position as the preferred choice among parents.

Sleep Gear

Our sleep gear supports restful sleep for children at every stage of growth. With a focus on children's comfort and parents' convenience, we offer a range of high-quality sleep gear, including cribs, pajamas and pillows, making bedtime routines smoother and more manageable for parents while addressing the evolving needs of growing families.

Cribs

Our product portfolio includes two cribs designed for babies and toddlers up to three years old: our Wish+ series, a recipient of the prestigious Red Dot Award, and the multifunctional Polar+ series, both of which provide innovative solutions for childcare needs.

Wish+ crib is designed with an emphasis on safety and health using materials free of paint and formaldehyde to create a non-toxic environment for children. Its design enables simple setup and assembly, and it can be folded into a compact size in just four steps, making it well-suited for use both at home and during family vacations. The curved, cloud-shaped padding helps protect children from bumps and injuries, while silent swivel casters allow effortless and quiet mobility within a room. The smooth-rolling wheels can also be locked in place for added stability. Wish+ crib serves as a fully functional baby crib, playpen, or co-sleeper.

Wish+ Crib (unfolded and folded)

Polar+ crib, launched in December 2024, is designed for multifunctional flexibility, combining seven modes to cater to a variety of family needs, including an independent crib, air purification, side table, storage box, and night light, among other configurations. Its magnetic closure system enables quick folding and unfolding in just one second, making it portable and practical for parents with busy schedules. For added safety, the multi-Cobra impact protection system provides superior shock absorption. The crib also includes an ionized air purification system, creating a clean and breathable environment to support better sleep for children. With six adjustable height settings, the Polar+ crib adapts to a growing child's needs while providing functional convenience for parents.

Polar+ Crib (unfolded and folded)

Pajamas

We unveiled our pajamas to serve better sleep for babies and young children. Snuggle+ and Rainbow+ pajamas use advanced temperature-regulating technology, providing a lightweight material that retains warmth and effectively wicks moisture. The breathable, quick-drying fabric features one-way moisture transfer, preventing reverse seepage to keep the baby warm and dry during deep sleep, reducing the risk of discomfort from chills. Made with ultra-soft spinning techniques, the pajamas are thin, gentle and comfortable against the skin. Available in seasonal variations, they offer consistent comfort to support restful sleep all year round.

Snuggle+ Pajama

Rainbow+ Pajamas

Pillows

We also launched a new line of pillows. Soft+ pillows feature four adjustable height options to accommodate different age groups from newborns to ten years and beyond, providing appropriate support as children grow. For newborns, Clouds+ series is equipped with features to help shape a baby's head by adjusting to the size of their head. Thermoplastic elastomers hollow tubes within the pillows offer balanced support and maintaining comfort and safety. Both sides of the pillows can be used and are made with breathable materials that encourage airflow, helping to keep children cool and comfortable during use.

Feeding Gear

We have created and released a collection of products designed for children's dining settings, including highchairs and tableware.

Highchairs

Our Egg+ highchair provides seating solutions that prioritize both the comfort of children and the aesthetic preferences of parents. Designed for babies and toddlers aged six months to three years, Egg+ supports a weight of up to 50 kg.

The Egg+ series features a Scandinavian-inspired design with a distinctive eggshell-shaped backrest that provides gentle support for a child's developing spine while complementing modern living spaces. With adjustable height settings, the highchair adapts to a child's evolving needs, functioning as a highchair, dining chair, activity chair, or study chair. A 360-degree swivel adds convenience for parents during mealtimes. Tableware Crystal+, Cheer+ and Glitter+ series of baby bottles, sippy cups and insulated bottles meet the feeding and drinking needs of children at different stages of development. Our baby bottle, suitable for newborns and older, is available in two sizes: 160 ml and 300 ml, with bottles made from durable Polyphenylsulfone material. Our sippy cup, recommended for babies and toddlers over three months, comes in 200 ml and 270 ml sizes, with bottles made from lightweight and impact-resistant Tritan. Our insulated bottle delivers long-lasting temperature control for toddlers via triple-lock technology, a seamless leak-proof interior and a smart color-changing temperature indicator.

Both series feature an off-center nipple design that mimics the natural breastfeeding motion, providing children with a more familiar and comfortable feeding experience. Each bottle is equipped with anti-colic valves to help reduce gas buildup, minimizing the chances of discomfort. These valves also reduce the risk of choking and splashing, ensuring a safer and more pleasant feeding time for both children and caregivers.

Crystal+ Baby Bottles

Cheer+ Sippy Cup

Glitter+ Baby Bottles

Glitter+ Insulated Bottle

Foodie+ series features insulated bowls, food bowls, milk cups, and cutlery, designed for babies and young children from four months to six years old. Each product incorporates a triple-layer insulation system that keeps food warm or cool for extended periods, making it suitable for a variety of meals. The playful, cartoon-inspired designs engage children's curiosity, turning mealtime into a more interactive and enjoyable experience while supporting the development of healthy eating habits.

Baby Care Products

Apart from our core products, we have introduced a line of consumable nursery products since January 2022, including diapers, wet wipes and dry wipes.

Diapers

We have introduced five diaper series: Platinum+, Sports+, Zero+, Gold+, and Shea+. Each series is designed with breathable, quick-absorbing cores that effectively lock in moisture, keeping babies dry for longer periods. The surface layer, made from ultra-fine fibers or cotton, is infused with squalane, panthenol or tea tree seed extracts to gently care for sensitive skin. A soft waistband helps reduce pressure on the abdomen, ensuring a secure yet comfortable fit.

Platinum+ Diaper

Sports+ Diaper

Zero+ Diaper

Gold+ Diaper

Shea+ Diaper

According to Frost & Sullivan, we are the first in the industry to introduce small-package diapers designed for one-day use, providing a convenient and hygienic solution for babies and parents. Each diaper is individually wrapped with a sealable strip to protect against moisture and dust. The compact packaging is ideal for parents on the go, fitting easily into diaper bags and meeting daily needs. For active and walking toddlers, we offer diapers and pull-up pants with extended coverage areas to reduce side leakage during movement, delivering reliable performance while maintaining comfort.

Wipes

Rainbow+ wet wipes combine product innovation with on-the-go convenience. Crafted from thick, spunlace non-woven fabric, they effectively lock in moisture for extended use. Each wipe is infused with high-purity water purified through a seven-stage Electrodeionization process, ensuring a clean and safe composition. Enriched with plant-based extracts, they offer natural antibacterial properties while gently nourishing and protecting delicate skin. The wipes are available in two practical options: a bulk pack with 80 large sheets for home use and a compact pack with eight individually wrapped wipes, perfect for travel and on-the-go care.

Rainbow+ Wet Wipes

Our Rainbow+ dry wipes are made from 100% EcoCosy® Fresh™ Fiber, offering strong absorbency that allows for effective cleaning with just one wipe. Soft yet durable, they resist tearing and are suitable for multiple uses. With a dual-sided design, these wipes are versatile enough for both cleaning and skincare. Meeting food-grade safety standards, they provide caregivers with peace of mind, knowing they are safe for children's sensitive skin. Rainbow+ dry wipes are packaged in a convenient pack containing 60 large sheets, making them perfect for everyday use.

PRODUCT RESEARCH AND DEVELOPMENT

We believe our ability to constantly develop innovative and stylish products stems from identifying often-overlooked user needs and applying a design philosophy that draws inspiration from diverse industries, which sets us apart in the market and drives our product development forward.

Our Product Development Team

Under the leadership of our founder, we have established an R&D department comprised of multiple teams dedicated to user research, industrial design, structural design, visual design and molding engineering. As of December 31, 2024, our R&D department consisted of 92 employees, many of whom were industry veterans with extensive industrial and product development experience. During the Track Record Period, we have developed over 50 new products. In 2022, 2023 and 2024 and the six months ended June 30, 2024 and 2025, our product research and development expenses were RMB16.2 million, RMB23.8 million, RMB21.4 million, RMB9.4 million and RMB10.7 million, respectively, representing 3.2%, 2.8%, 1.7%, 1.6% and 1.5% of our revenue in the corresponding years/periods.

Our Product Development Process

We have built a unique product development process that allows us to consistently design and develop top-selling products.

User Research

We analyze the entire process of using a nursery product, beginning with the package delivery, followed by installation or setup, and extending to daily usage. To guide our product selection and initial evaluation, we focused on five key questions at the outset of product development: Why do users choose this product over competitors? What are the standout features that stick with users after they have experienced this product? What core technology or functionality powers this product? How can I describe this product in one memorable, impactful sentence? What nickname suits the product? Only those products that meet these criteria advance to the next phase of development.

Product Planning

Led by our founders and senior management team, we have formed a dedicated product planning committee for each design, comprising the heads of product development, online channels, offline channels, branding, supply chain and customer services. Once a product requirements document passes the committee's feasibility review, the product project department initiates the project and creates a detailed R&D plan. We employ the unique "5Hs" model to choose the target segment of nursery product market featured with high-growing demand, high usage frequency, high premium positioning, high social attributes and high market share. For example, we identified diapers as a key category within the nursery product market that reflects the 5H framework that traditional bulk packaging often poses hygiene risks when parents handle diapers on the go. In response, we introduced small-package diapers designed for one-day use, offering a convenient and hygienic solution. These compact packs allow parents to carry just what they need, keeping diapers sterile and reducing exposure to germs and viruses.

We typically establish a product roadmap spanning three to five years. By closely tracking consumer preferences and market trends, we continuously adjust our plans to meet changing needs and expectations.

Product Design and Evaluation

We focus on delivering practical solutions for parents and caregivers while strengthening the pricing power of our brand. By identifying the right target segments within the nursery product market, we create products that address real needs and foster a stronger connection with our consumers. Once a development project is initiated, a multidisciplinary team takes charge of design and guides the product through to production. Depending on the product's requirements, the design process is led by teams specializing in user research, design or engineering. A project management team facilitates coordination across departments, enabling smooth collaboration as the concept develops into the final product. The product development process includes multiple validation phases, such as industrial design validation, structural design validation, mold validation and trial production validation, all aimed at guaranteeing the creation of high-quality products that meet consumer expectations.

We assess the competitiveness of a product candidate through a comprehensive examination that encompasses multiple metrics, including industrial design, visual aesthetics, and structural integrity. In addition, we will compare the product candidates against competing products in the market using six metrics: price, user experience, tactile sensation, functionality, shape, and color. Following this comprehensive inter-departmental assessment and design evaluation, we proceed to create prototypes for testing usability, user-friendliness and comfort.

Product Test and Modification

Using our in-house production facility and cross-industry supply chain resources, we can quickly produce and test prototypes to assess alignment with the design concept and evaluate user appeal. Before a product launch, we conduct usability testing to validate core functions and practicality, addressing any potential risks to users. We then develop molds to assess manufacturing stability and an initial safety evaluation. Feedback from these stages is provided to the design team to support necessary refinements.

After completing the engineering prototype, we conduct gray-box testing to refine the user experience and satisfaction testing to gather feedback for further improvements and address potential consumer concerns. These test results inform the operations team, enabling them to prepare appropriately for the product launch.

Commercialization

For products that successfully pass these stages, we proceed with small-scale production and initial sales. We diligently monitor feedback and product reviews of our consumers, and continuously refine the product in anticipation of the upcoming product iteration. Following satisfactory sample testing results, we proceed to mass production and sales of products.

We continuously monitor consumer feedback, leveraging these insights to inform our product development. After a new product launch, the project planning committee and product development team conduct regular evaluations to assess its performance and identify potential improvements. During the user experience management phase, feedback is collected through public opinion monitoring, consumer complaints, interviews and surveys. Identified issues are categorized and routed to the relevant departments: operations for content-related concerns, research and development for design issues, quality assurance for product-related problems, logistics for delivery challenges, and customer service for support-related matters.

Strategic Partnership with Expertise

To strengthen our product design and development, we have built strategic partnerships with Dymatic Chemicals since March 2023 to create a joint laboratory, focusing on the development of cotton-based sleep gear. Our collaboration is centered on improving product quality and streamlining production processes, as well as planning for future product needs. Together, we are exploring opportunities in customized product development and research, working toward innovation in materials and expanding our product offerings.

Our Product Design and Development Achievement

Our commitment to product design and development has yielded positive results, as evidenced by the numerous prestigious international awards, including the Red Dot Award in Germany, the Good Design Award in Japan, and the K-Design Award in South Korea in 2021. Our SKU portfolio increased from 306 as of December 31, 2022 to 459 as of June 30, 2025, which keeps our product offerings catering to the needs of modern families.

OUR SALES NETWORK

We sell our products through an extensive and diverse sales network integrating offline and online channels to reach a wide range of consumers. Our online channels cover (i) our self-operated stores on Tmall, JD.com, Douyin, VIP.com, Pinduoduo and Kuaishou, (ii) platform-operated stores on JD.com and VIP.com, and (iii) private domain platforms. Our offline channels mainly comprise (i) distributors, (ii) key accounts, and (iii) our interactive store. During the Track Record Period, we generated substantially all our revenue from the PRC.

[illegible]

Note:

(1) For online channels, our self-operated stores and private domains sell products directly to consumers, whereas for platform-operated stores, we sell products to the platforms first, and they then sell them to consumers.

BUSINESS

The following diagram illustrates the product, service and fund flows between our Company, online platforms, distributors, key accounts and consumers.

Online Channels

We have established our online sales channels across e-commerce platforms in China, including Tmall, JD.com, Douyin, VIP.com, Pinduoduo and Kuaishou, and private domain platforms, such as Weixin mini program and Weixin channels. We believe that sales through online channels enable us to reach a wide consumer base, gain insights into consumer needs, and drive the sales of our products while enhancing our brand awareness.

We operate our own online stores on e-commerce platforms, where consumers can place orders directly. Consumers place orders for our products through these e-commerce platforms and we will be responsible for the delivery of the products to consumers. We retain ownership of our products until the consumers confirm their acceptance of the delivered products. Payments are made through the respective e-commerce platforms, which then settle transactions with us based on their policies.

We also sell through platform-operated stores on e-commerce platforms, which place orders through its designated system. The end consumer places an order and makes payment directly to the store operated by the e-commerce platform. We deliver products to the specified location within the agreed timeframe and manage online product inquiries and after-sales services, except in certain cases where the platforms may manage after-sales support on our behalf. The platform then settles payments with us within five to ten business days after issuing a settlement statement to us and the receipt of the invoice from us, typically after deducting applicable relevant platform fees.

During the Track Record Period, we sold each type of product across all online channels, except for diapers and pajamas, which were available only on select platforms. In 2022, 2023 and 2024 and the six months ended June 30, 2024 and 2025, we generated revenue of RMB416.9 million, RMB636.5 million, RMB936.8 million, RMB432.2 million and RMB531.6 million from online channels, respectively, representing 82.2%, 74.7%, 75.0%, 74.3% and 73.2% of our total revenue for the corresponding years/periods.

E-commerce Platforms

We operate our own stores on e-commerce platforms, selling our products directly to consumers. By maintaining direct sales channels, we can gather valuable feedback from consumers, providing timely insights to refine our products and adjust sales strategies. Alongside our self-operated stores, we also distribute products through the official stores operated by third-party e-commerce platforms.

The following pictures set forth the interface design of our self-operated stores on e-commerce platforms.

We establish self-operated stores on major platforms including Tmall, JD.com, VIP.com, Pinduoduo and Kuaishou, alongside with platform-operated stores including JD.com's official store and VIP.com's official store to drive traffic and increase consumer awareness. Additionally, we maintain nine official accounts on Douyin to engage directly with our audience. Our BeBeBus brand has achieved strong recognition across these platforms. Notably, Tmall has ranked us as the top children's product brand, and JD.com recognized us among the top five children's product brands by GMV during the Double 11 Shopping Festival in 2024.

Our revenue generated from e-commerce platforms achieved continual increase during the Track Record Period, which amounted to RMB408.1 million, RMB596.5 million, RMB840.9 million, RMB387.6 million and RMB475.3 million in 2022, 2023 and 2024 and the six months ended June 30, 2024 and 2025, respectively, representing 80.5%, 70.0%, 67.3%, 66.6% and 65.5% of our total revenue for the corresponding years/periods.

In addition to direct sales through online stores, we collaborate with influencers such as KOLs (who typically have over 1 million follows on Douyin and/or Tmall) to market and sell our products, through online channels. We worked with five, ten, eight and three KOLs in 2022, 2023 and 2024 and the six months ended June 30, 2025, respectively, and these KOLs charged a commission based on sales generated from their promotional efforts. For example, during the Track Record Period, we engaged a leading KOL on Tmall who consistently ranked first on Taobao's livestream sales leaderboard during major events such as Double 11 to promote and sell our products via livestreaming. Revenue attributable to this KOL amounted to RMB72.5 million, RMB73.1 million, RMB62.2 million, RMB29.8 million and RMB27.1 million in 2022, 2023, and 2024 and the six months ended June 30, 2024 and 2025, respectively. The costs associated with the use of influencers are expensed as incurred. During the Track Record Period, we did not consider ourselves to rely on these KOLs to sell our products.

To ensure that KOLs follow our Company policies and comply with relevant laws and regulations when promoting our products or services, we have implemented a structured monitoring framework, which includes the following measures:

- Contractual obligations. Our collaboration agreements with KOLs clearly define legal requirements, including data usage regulations that require user authorization and prohibit unauthorized data collection or cross-border transmission of sensitive data. The agreements also outline penalties for non-compliance, such as fines, compensation, or contract termination.
- Content compliance review. All KOL-generated content, including text, images and videos, is reviewed by either our internal brand team or a third-party agency before publication to ensure compliance with regulatory and policy standards. False advertising, intellectual property infringement and discriminatory statements are strictly prohibited. In overseas markets, KOLs must also comply with the advertising, consumer protection, and data privacy laws of the target country while respecting local cultural norms.
- Review for overseas KOLs. Contracts with overseas KOLs must meet local legal requirements and, when necessary, undergo review by local legal counsel to ensure compliance with applicable regulations.

Through these measures, we are committed to maintaining legal and regulatory compliance in KOL promotions, protecting our brand reputation and safeguarding consumer interests.

BUSINESS

We enter into standardized marketing agreements for promoting our products with the Multi-Channel Network (“MCN”) agencies to which the KOLs belong. Apart from that, we are not involved in signing such agreements related to KOLs with platforms such as Tmall or Douyin nor are any e-commerce platforms parties. Therefore, the KOLs are not our direct clients. The salient terms of the agreements primarily include:

- Terms of agreement . . .* The term of the agreement is based on the number of live streaming sessions mutually agreed upon, typically ranging from one month to one year.
- Scope of service* KOLs provide live streaming promotion services for designated products.
- Service fees* We typically pay a fixed live streaming fee and a commission fee, calculated as a percentage of the transaction amount (excluding returns) generated during live streaming, generally ranging from 10% to 20%, as agreed upon in the agreement.
- Termination* The agreements may terminate upon expiration without renewal or in the event of a material breach.

We generally enter into standardized framework agreements with online channels for our self-operated stores. The salient terms of the agreements primarily include:

- Agreement term . . .* The term of our agreements are typically long-term without definite expiration date.
- Scope of service . .* Platforms typically provide technical support and system maintenance for online store management, including uploading product information, creating orders, managing transactions, completing payments, and running promotional campaigns.
- Service fees* We typically pay a fixed annual fee for system subscriptions, along with a customization fee based on factors such as store category, product category and the services required. The annual fixed service fee is set according to the technical service fee rates published by the e-commerce platforms. For certain online channels, we may also enter into commission-based agreements with the online platforms and incur a variable service fee to e-commerce platforms, calculated as a percentage of the transaction value. If the order is canceled or refunded, the service fee will be refunded.

BUSINESS

Roles and responsibilities . . . Online platforms support store management by providing technical services such as product uploads, order processing, transaction management, payments, and promotions. We operate our own online stores, selling directly to consumers and pay a service fee for platform support.

Payment The fixed fee is typically settled on an annual basis. Variable service fees are paid in real-time according to the provisions of the relevant agreements.

Termination The agreements may terminate upon expiration without renewal, by mutual decision to end cooperation, disagreement with e-commerce platform rule updates, or material breach of the agreements.

We enter into standardized framework agreements with e-commerce platforms for platform-operated stores. The salient terms of the agreements primarily include:

Term of agreement . The term of our agreement is typically one year and renews annually.

Scope of service . . E-commerce platforms typically place orders through their designated systems. We fulfill deliveries within the agreed timeframe, with delivery locations varying by platform. For some platforms, we deliver products to their designated warehouses. For others, we ship products directly from our warehouse to consumers without routing through the platform's warehouse. It provides access to its operating system and supports system integration and debugging. We manage online product inquiries and after-sales services directly for the platform's customers, except in certain cases where the platforms may manage after-sales services on our behalf.

Logistics and delivery We are generally responsible for the delivery of products to any address specified by e-commerce platforms.

Payment Payment is generally due within five to seven business days following the receipt of the settlement statement and/or invoice.

Termination The agreements may terminate upon expiration without renewal, by mutual decision to end cooperation.

Liability for failure of delivery We cover the costs of compensation for complaints resulting from delivery delays or other issues caused by us.

BUSINESS

Private Domain

In addition to e-commerce platforms, we have launched our Weixin mini program and Weixin channels, offering a distinct approach to online sales. By tapping into Weixin's vast user base and building on our growing brand recognition, we have experienced consistent sales growth on these private domain platforms. In 2022, 2023 and 2024 and the six months ended June 30, 2024 and 2025, we generated revenue of RMB8.8 million, RMB40.0 million, RMB95.8 million, RMB44.6 million and RMB56.3 million, respectively, representing 1.7%, 4.7%, 7.7%, 7.7% and 7.8% of our total revenue for the corresponding years/periods. The number of registered members making purchases through private domain platforms surged from approximately 24,400 in 2022 to over 371,000 in 2024, and grew from 220,593 in the six months ended June 30, 2024 to 270,443 in the six months ended June 30, 2025.

We issued and sold single-purpose prepaid cards through our private domain platform, which enable consumers to top up funds and make purchases within the designated platform. Our issuance and sale activities of single-purpose prepaid cards are regulated by the Single-purpose Commercial Pre-paid Cards Measures, according to which we (i) properly fulfill the notification obligation to ensure that the purchaser acknowledges the contents of the agreements of the single-purpose prepaid cards; (ii) collect certain information (i.e., name, ID number, contact info) of the purchaser who purchases single-purpose prepaid cards of a total value of RMB10,000 or above at once. See "Regulatory Overview — Regulations Relating To Single-Purpose Commercial Pre-Paid Cards" for details. Cumulative top-up amounts under our prepaid card program were approximately RMB6.5 million, RMB26.0 million, RMB49.8 million and RMB30.1 million in 2022, 2023 and 2024 and the six months ended June 30, 2025, respectively. Cash received from the sale of prepaid cards or recharges made by consumers is recorded as contract liabilities, and revenue is recognized when the prepaid cards are used or forfeited.

The table below sets out the outstanding balance of prepaid cards and its movement for the years/periods indicated:

	Year Ended December 31,			Six Months Ended June 30,

BUSINESS

All balances of prepaid cards during the Track Record Period were subsequently utilized.

Our prepaid cards are primarily issued through our private domain platform and operate under two distinct models.

- Stored-value accounts. Each consumer may maintain a single stored-value account, with no expiration on the balance. These accounts support top-up and consumption functions only, and the balance is neither transferable nor giftable.
- Gift cards. Gift cards are issued in fixed denominations below RMB4,999, have a validity period of three years, and may be issued in multiple quantities to a single consumer. Gift cards may only be used to purchase designated products. During the Track Record Period and up to the Latest Practicable Date, there have been no instances of unredeemed balances being forfeited by consumers under the gift card model.

To the best of our knowledge, during the Track Record Period, all of our online channel partners were independent third parties. To the best of our knowledge, our online channel partners or their respective associates have no past or present family, business, employment or financial relationship with us or our subsidiaries, Shareholders, Directors or senior management or any of their respective associates.

Offline Channels

We distribute our products through a broad offline network that spans across the country, reaching consumers through various channels: (i) distributors which are generally intermediaries that purchase products from us and resell them to their customers without using a strong consumer-facing brand, (ii) key accounts with well-established, widely recognized brand names and franchised storefronts, such as major baby and kids retailers, and (iii) our interactive store in Ningbo. Through these partnerships, we have built a strong presence in the nursery product market, securing placements in high-end shopping malls and premium retail outlets. These strategic locations are selected to reach families with higher purchasing power, positioning our brand as a top choice for parents who seek quality and reliability. As of June 30, 2025, we partnered with 12 key accounts and 155 distributors, enabling us to establish a solid presence in over 300 cities across China.

Distributors

We cooperate with distributors to broaden our consumer base and promote sales. Distributors expand our market reach through their established networks and strong local expertise. As of June 30, 2025, we had 155 distributors, covering over 300 cities in more than 20 provinces. In 2022, 2023 and 2024 and the six months ended June 30, 2024 and 2025, we generated revenue of RMB55.8 million, RMB132.4 million, RMB199.0 million, RMB95.1 million and RMB137.5 million from distributors, respectively, representing 11.0%, 15.5%, 15.9%, 16.3% and 18.9% of our total revenue for the corresponding years/periods. In each year/period of the Track Record Period, our top five distributors in each year/period during the Track Record Period contributed RMB44.2 million, RMB121.0 million, RMB177.6 million and RMB100.4 million to our revenue, representing 8.7%, 14.2%, 14.2% and 13.8% of our total revenue in each year/period during the Track Record Period.

To maintain high standards in sales and service, we follow a rigorous selection process and ongoing evaluation of our distributors. Our key criteria include the strength of their sales networks, industry background, resources, financial stability, creditworthiness, and alignment with long-term partnerships. During the Track Record Period, we mainly engaged new distributors in first-tier to second-tier cities in line with our marketing strategies. In 2022, 2023 and 2024 and the six months ended June 30, 2025, we terminated cooperation with 25, 21, 31 and six distributors, respectively. We terminate cooperation with existing distributors based on a number of factors, including (i) channel compatibility, which allows us to pursue collaboration with higher-quality distributors that align better with our product sales strategies, and (ii) their sales performance, such as the sales-to-purchase ratio which is calculated as the number of units sold by distributors relative to the number of units they purchase from us, and sell-through rate which is calculated as the number of units sold divided by the inventory held by the distributor, and (iii) compliance considerations, including failure to meet the requirements set forth in the third-party payment guidelines. In addition, for newly onboarded distributors, we may terminate cooperation if they fail to place a repeat order within three months. For existing distributors, our sales managers conduct routine follow-ups, typically on a weekly basis, to assess ongoing performance. See “— Third-party Payment Arrangement — Cessation of Third-party Payments” for details.

The table below sets out the total number of distributors and their movements for the years/periods indicated:

	Year Ended December 31,			Six Months Ended June 30,
	2022	2023	2024	2025
Number of distributors at the beginning of the year/period .	50	56	85	145

Number of distributors at the end of the year/period	56	85	145	155

Notes:

- (1) New distributors refer to distributors that placed their first order with us in our system in a particular year/period.
- (2) Terminated distributors refer to those whose collaboration with us ended within a specific year/period.

BUSINESS

We maintain a buyer-seller relationship with our distributors, and we do not grant exclusive distribution rights in certain regions to the distributors. The salient terms of the standard distribution agreements primarily include:

Duration	The term of the distribution agreement is typically one year, renewal on an annual basis.
Payment and credit term	We typically require distributors to make payments prior to the delivery of products and generally do not offer credit terms.
Selling prices	We provide guidance on the retail prices for consumers. See “Business — Pricing” for details. We offer sales rebates to distributors based on the actual payment amount, granted upon reaching specified sales targets.
Logistics, delivery and other responsibilities	We are typically responsible for delivering products to the addresses specified by our distributors. We are entitled to oversee distributors’ inventory, product flow and sales performance.
Transfer of ownership	The ownership risks transfer to distributors after they complete the inspection and confirm receipt of our products.
Return policy	We generally do not accept product returns from distributors unless the product is defective.
Termination	The agreement may be terminated upon expiration, by mutual consent of the parties, or in accordance with the provisions specified therein. We generally retain the right to terminate the agreement in the event of a breach of its terms by the distributor.

We generally permit our distributors to engage sub-distributors but do not enter into agreements or establish direct relationships with them. As a result, we do not have direct control over sub-distributors. Our policies regarding sub-distributors, as set forth in our standard distribution agreements, are as follows:

- Distributor responsibilities. Our distributors are fully responsible for their respective sub-distributors within authorized regions, which includes overseeing their activities, ensuring compliance with our distribution agreements, and taking necessary actions in case of violations.

- Ongoing monitoring. We reserve the right to require distributors to submit basic information and operational data on their sub-distributors. Distributors must independently verify this information to ensure accuracy.
- Enforcement measures. Any violation of our policies by sub-distributors is considered a violation by the responsible distributor. If a sub-distributor breaches any terms of the distribution agreement, such as selling below the retail prices outlined in our pricing guidelines, encroaching on online channels, or conducting sales beyond authorized regions, the responsible distributor will be held accountable for these violations. Any sub-distributor found in violation of our agreement will be placed on a blacklist under the responsible distributor and prohibited from further selling our products.

We determine the authorized regions for our distributors based on their geographic location and the strength of their local service capabilities. Distribution rights are granted at the provincial, regional or city level, depending on the distributor's operational scale, market presence and ability to provide effective coverage, which helps us match distribution scope with execution capacity and local market knowledge.

We do not impose mandatory sales targets on our distributors, allowing purchases to reflect actual market demand rather than sales pressure. Outside of specific promotional periods that require stock preparation, we generally do not impose minimum purchase requirements or sales targets. Instead, we work closely with distributors to maintain balanced and reasonable inventory levels. We typically require distributors to make full payment before product delivery, with revenue recognized only upon acceptance of the goods, and we do not grant credit terms. Additionally, we maintain close oversight and engage in regular communication with distributors to monitor inventory levels. Product returns after delivery and acceptance are generally not permitted unless the product is defective. During the Track Record Period and up to the Latest Practicable Date, we did not receive any significant product returns from distributors.

Sales by distributors outside their assigned regions or across online and offline channels without prior approval are classified as cannibalization, which is prohibited in our agreements with distributors. To mitigate this, we apply the following measures:

- Price monitoring. We regularly review product pricing across channels to verify compliance with distribution agreements, which helps maintain uniform pricing and prevents unauthorized discounting.
- Shipment tracking. Shipment records and logistics pathways are closely monitored. When distributors exceed their authorized scope, we enforce penalties as specified in their agreements, which include warnings, fines, rebate adjustments, or suspension of cooperation.
- Product tracing. Each product is assigned a serial number through our tracing system, enabling full lifecycle tracking. This system helps identify and address cannibalization risks, safeguarding the integrity of our distribution network.

BUSINESS

To the best of our knowledge, all our distributors were independent third parties during the Track Record Period. We apply uniform service guidelines and policies to all distributors. To the best of our knowledge, our distributors, or their respective associates, do not have any past or present family, business, employment, or financial relationships with us or our subsidiaries, our Shareholders, Directors or senior management, or any of their respective associates.

Key Accounts

We have built a strong presence in offline retail channels by partnering with prominent baby and kids retailers in China, among others. Collaborating with these leading retailers allows us to reach a wide base of consumers by leveraging their extensive geographical and market coverage. Displaying our products in these well-established offline stores helps showcase our offerings and strengthens our brand visibility among consumers. As of December 31, 2022, 2023 and 2024 and the six months ended June 30, 2025, we partnered with 11, ten, 12 and 12 key accounts, respectively, allowing consumers in over 300 cities in more than 20 provinces to purchase our products offline. In 2022, 2023 and 2024 and the six months ended June 30, 2024 and 2025, we generated revenue of RMB34.5 million, RMB82.3 million, RMB111.4 million, RMB53.8 million and RMB56.0 million from key accounts, respectively, representing 6.8%, 9.7%, 9.0%, 9.2% and 7.7% of our total revenue for the corresponding years/periods. In each year/period of the Track Record Period, our top five key accounts contributed RMB34.1 million, RMB80.9 million, RMB107.5 million and RMB53.2 million to our revenue, representing 6.7%, 9.5%, 8.6% and 7.3% of our total revenue in each year/period during the Track Record Period. We evaluate our cooperation with key accounts based on a combination of strategic and commercial considerations, including their contribution to our brand positioning, associated channel costs and actual sales performance. Specifically, we may terminate cooperation if a key account does not meet our brand positioning standards (such as lacking a premium image or sufficient market influence) or if the associated cost structure proves inefficient (such as extended credit terms or additional promotional expenses). We may also discontinue cooperation where sales performance fails to demonstrate meaningful growth potential. During the Track Record Period, we discontinued partnerships where two or more of these criteria did not meet our established thresholds for brand alignment, cost efficiency or sales performance.

BUSINESS

The following table shows the movement of the key accounts we collaborated with during the Track Record Period.

	Year Ended December 31,			Six Months Ended June 30,
	2022	2023	2024	2025
Number of key accounts at the beginning of the year/period . .	7	11	10	12
Number of new key accounts ⁽¹⁾ .	8	2	6	2
Number of terminated key accounts ⁽²⁾	(4)	(3)	(4)	2
Number of key accounts at the end of the year/period	11	10	12	12

Notes:

- (1) New key accounts primarily include those that placed their first order with us in our system in a particular year/period.
- (2) Terminated key accounts refer to those whose collaboration with us ended within a specific year/period.

The salient terms of the standard agreements with our key accounts primarily include:

Duration The term of the agreement is typically one year, renewal on an annual basis.

Payment and credit term We provide sales rebates to key accounts under terms defined by each account, with rebates calculated on either total purchase value or actual payment amount upon achieving specified sales targets. We generally deliver products before receiving payments and grant a credit period typically ranging from 30 to 90 days to key accounts.

Roles and responsibilities We provide free product samples to key accounts for display purposes. When consumers place orders at the stores of key accounts, we arrange delivery to either the key account's designated location or directly to the consumers upon receipt of notice from key accounts.

Logistics We are generally responsible for the delivery of products to any address specified by key accounts.

BUSINESS

Transfer of ownership	The ownership risks transfer to key accounts after they complete the inspection and confirm receipt of our products.
Return arrangement	We generally do not allow key accounts to return products except for limited reasons such as product quality issues, which is in line with industry practice, according to Frost & Sullivan.
Termination	The agreement may be terminated upon expiration, by mutual consent of the parties, or in the event of any material breach of the agreement by the parties.

To the best of our knowledge, all of our key accounts were independent third parties during the Track Record Period. To the best of our knowledge, our key accounts or their respective associates have no past or present family, business, employment or financial relationship with us or our subsidiaries, Shareholders, Directors or senior management or any of their respective associates.

Interactive Store

In 2023, we launched our first interactive store in Ningbo. Our interactive store is designed to offer a functional and inviting space where shopping feels comfortable and efficient. The layout is carefully curated to showcase our products in a way that makes it easy for consumers to explore and select what they need. Such store design ensures a smooth, family-friendly shopping experience. During the Track Record Period, our interactive stores are primarily oriented toward individual consumers and we generally do not conduct sales to corporate customers through interactive stores. In 2023, 2024 and the six months ended June 30, 2024 and 2025, we generated revenue of RMB0.9 million, RMB1.7 million, RMB0.9 million and RMB0.7 million, respectively, representing 0.1%, 0.1%, 0.1% and 0.1% of our total revenue for the corresponding years/periods.

The following images illustrate the design of our interactive store.

PRICING

As we are positioned as a nursery product provider targeting mid- to high-end consumers, the prices of our products are typically higher than those offered by our competitors, according to Frost & Sullivan. Our pricing decisions are influenced by several factors, including brand positioning, product quality and features, competitive dynamics, market trends, manufacturing and operational costs, and raw material expenses.

Our headquarters establishes a consistent retail pricing guideline and promotional discount policies that apply across both online and offline channels. For online channels, we maintain uniform retail pricing for consumers. Periodically, we participate in promotional events like the 618 Shopping Festival and Double 11 Shopping Festival and offer discounts to registered members based on our membership policies. On our private domain platforms, we maintain the same pricing structure while offering exclusive loyalty benefits. With each purchase, consumers earn points that can be redeemed for gifts or used as cash discounts on future orders, which provides added value to consumers and encourages repeat purchases.

Across both online and offline channels, our promotional discount policies follow a tiered approach based on promotional cadence, with baseline standard pricing applied under normal conditions and tiered discount levels activated during small-scale, seasonal or large-scale campaigns. For example, products offered through online platforms may follow a three-tier promotional pricing structure that differentiates between regular promotions, minor sales events or major campaigns such as the 618 Shopping Festival and Double 11 Shopping Festival. Similarly, offline pricing reflects wholesale price guidance aligned with retail markup expectations and may be subject to discounts determined by market dynamics, regional competition or distributor terms. While we consider product characteristics when setting internal pricing reference ranges, we adopt a unified pricing guideline and do not vary our pricing policies at the product-type level.

We provide retail pricing guidelines and promotional discount policies to our online and offline channel partners through a pricing compliance notice, which sets forth the approved retail prices for each of our products. Approved retail prices refer to the minimum allowable selling prices to consumers after taking into account relevant promotional activities. Such prices are the actual selling prices after discounts. We determine approved retail prices through a dynamic pricing mechanism rather than a fixed discount rate, which includes: (i) competition-based pricing, which references pricing of comparable products on e-commerce platforms; (ii) cost-plus pricing, which factors in production costs, channel expenses and reasonable margins; and (iii) activity-based tiered pricing, which sets differentiated price floors based on the level of promotional intensity, such as regular promotions, minor sales events or major campaigns.

We define “non-compliant pricing” as any unauthorized deviation from these approved retail prices, including excessive discounting that violates our promotional discount policies and leads to actual transaction prices falling below the approved level, which we believe risk damaging our brand image and disrupting the stability of our distribution network. To maintain pricing consistency, we periodically review and adjust the approved retail prices and promotional discount policies to reflect market conditions. We take appropriate action against non-compliant platforms and/or distributors or responsible parties based on the severity and frequency of the violation, which include issuing notices requesting price adjustments, filing complaints to remove non-compliant listings, and imposing penalties on suppliers or distributors responsible for unauthorized low-price sales.

For online channels, we collaborate with a third-party service provider to monitor and enforce retail pricing consistency. These providers use automated data collection technologies to track the prices of our products across various online platforms. Through a combination of automated monitoring software and manual inspections, we conduct 24-hour real-time tracking of product prices across all platforms. Our system automatically detects and flags unusually low-priced listings and subsequently triggers real-time alerts. In addition, our dedicated personnel review and consolidate daily pricing data to identify irregularities and mark non-compliant listings or stores. For offline channels, we sell products to our distributors at wholesale prices and provide suggested retail prices for consumers. Distributors may adjust their pricing based on market conditions and local competitive landscapes, provided that they remain compliant with our approved retail prices and promotional discount policies.

Our sales rebate policy is designed to incentivize distributors based on actual sales performance and does not involve the imposition of binding sales targets. For durable nursery products (such as travel gear), we adopt a tiered rebate mechanism linked to three performance levels. Distributors are eligible for rebates based on the specific tier achieved within a given period, with each tier corresponding to a reference sales threshold. These thresholds are indicative and used for rebate calculation purposes only, and do not constitute mandatory sales targets. For consumables nursery products (such as baby care products), sales benchmarks are determined by regional sales managers based on market potential within each distributor's authorized territory. These benchmarks inform the applicable rebate levels but are not enforced as compulsory targets.

BRANDING AND MARKETING

Brand Building

Our success is grounded in long-term brand building and a reputation for quality that naturally grows through word-of-mouth. Exceptional products and services lie at the heart of our brand's identity. We see every consumer as a potential advocate, with their genuine recommendations serving as the most impactful way to reach others.

True success comes not only from what we create but from how families embrace and depend on our products. Guided by this belief, we dedicate significant resources to research and development, driving innovation to strengthen our supply chain and deliver meaningful value. From carefully selected global suppliers and the EATNS carbon management system to IATF16949-certified quality standards and rigorous in-house testing, we focus on creating safe, dependable products with thoughtful craftsmanship. By continuously exploring new materials and adopting novel design methods, we develop next-generation products that evolve with the needs of today's families.

Building a strong brand requires time and consistent effort. Every consumer interaction — whether through marketing, consumer experiences, or other touchpoints — reflects our core values. Our branding team is committed to maintaining a clear and resonant image that connects with families and highlights the unique qualities of our products. By refining our messaging and communication, we aim to foster deeper relationships with parents and establish a meaningful, lasting presence in their lives.

We use diverse marketing strategies to amplify our influence across the sales network, integrating diverse approaches to connect with families and strengthen our brand presence.

- Word-of-mouth referrals and influencer endorsement. Word-of-mouth recommendations play a pivotal role in our marketing approach. We partner with reputable influencers including KOLs and superusers on popular social media platforms, selecting individuals whose expertise, influence, and values align with our brand image. As of June 30, 2025, we had cooperated with more than 16,000 influencers from various platforms, of which approximately 20 KOLs have more than one million followers. These partners test and share their experiences with our products through creative vlogs and content, building trust with their followers. By leveraging these endorsements, we expand our audience reach and establish stronger connections with our target audience. BeBeBus has also become a favored choice for parenting scenarios among celebrities in the nursery product and fashion space.

- Cross-brand collaborations. Our well-established brand reputation and loyal consumer base serve as a foundation for strategic partnerships. Collaborations with brands enable us to deliver curated products and services that address diverse family needs.
- Consumer marketing events. Our marketing initiatives combine video content, celebrity collaborations, and social media platforms to deliver campaigns that reach wide audiences and foster meaningful engagement.
- Social media promotions. Our 2024 #OneStepLess (#少一步更輕鬆) campaign generated over 49 million impressions across Xiaohongshu and Douyin. The campaign encouraged parents to explore nature with their children, using real-life parenting scenarios to showcase the practicality of our products. Families experienced firsthand the ease and convenience of our products.
- Social responsibility initiatives. Social responsibility is integral to our brand identity, fostering connections with families while addressing important community issues. In September 2022, the “BeBeBus x Desert Post Office” initiative focused on postpartum depression, providing a platform for mothers to share their experiences and raising awareness about maternal mental health. In June 2024, the “BeBeBus x Rainbow Library” project supported children’s education by donating an eco-friendly library to a remote border region in Inner Mongolia.

Membership System

We have implemented a tiered membership program to enhance our consumer experience and foster brand loyalty. Our members can earn points for each purchase and access additional benefits as they progress through the tiers. We also provide complimentary parenting consulting services to our members, addressing their evolving needs for nursery products and helping them navigate issues and challenges in childcare. Through our membership program, we deepen connections with consumers and gain valuable insights into their needs and preferences, helping to drive sales and guide the expansion of our product offerings. By consistently engaging with our members, we have built a community of over 3.0 million registered members across online platforms as of June 30, 2025. As advised by our PRC Legal Adviser, although Article 7 of the Cybersecurity Review Measures stipulates that an online platform operator possessing personal information of over one million users and pursues a listing in a foreign country (赴國外上市), such operator must apply for cybersecurity review, our proposed Listing does not fall within the scope of “pursuing a listing in a foreign country (赴國外上市)” and therefore the cybersecurity review requirement under Article 7 of the Cybersecurity Review Measures is not applicable to us.

CUSTOMER SUPPORT

Providing superior service and support is a high priority for us. Our commitment to users is reflected in the assistance offered by our in-house parenting experts and the scope of our after-sale, delivery, and warranty services.

Parenting Counselor Service

We offer complimentary parenting consulting services to our members, addressing their evolving needs for nursery products and offering guidance on childcare challenges. See “— Branding and Marketing — Membership system” for details. We have established a dedicated consulting team with more than 30 parenting experts. By establishing the membership program, we have strengthened our relationship with consumers while giving us valuable insights into their preferences and needs, which help refine our marketing strategies, support product development, and drive sales growth.

Delivery

Reliable and timely delivery is a key aspect of the shopping experience. We use third-party logistics providers to handle product shipments for online purchases. Through partnerships with these providers, we have expanded our geographic reach, enabling us to deliver products to consumers within seven days after an online order is placed.

After-Sales Services

We manage after-sales services for all products sold directly or through distributors, providing consumers with return, exchange, and repair options in compliance with regulatory requirements. In mainland China, unused products can generally be returned within seven days of purchase, except for certain items requiring intact packaging. If packaging is damaged, consumers may pay the packaging cost to return the product. Defective products can be returned, exchanged, or repaired within 30 days of purchase. These services are accessible through authorized service centers or via mail to our repair facilities. Mail-in repairs are typically processed within seven business days, with updates provided by our customer service team throughout the process.

During the Track Record Period, the total amount returned by our consumers amounted to RMB3.7 million, RMB13.9 million, RMB15.7 million and RMB10.1 million for 2022, 2023 and 2024 and the six months ended June 30, 2025, respectively, representing approximately 0.7%, 1.6%, 1.3% and 1.4% of our total revenue for the corresponding years/periods. During the Track Record Period and up to the Latest Practicable Date, there were no material product recalls, product returns, product liability claims or consumer complaints that adversely affected our business.

BUSINESS

Warranty Policies

We offer limited warranties covering parts and labor for our products. For car seats, the maximum warranty period is seven years from the date of purchase. For other products, such as strollers, cribs and highchairs, we provide a one- or two-year warranty. In international markets, including the United States, the United Kingdom, and Southeast Asia, we comply with local laws that require manufacturers to provide warranty for statutory periods. Most products sold in these regions include a warranty of at least 12 months. For the years/periods ended December 31, 2022, 2023 and 2024 and the six months ended June 30, 2025, our warranty expenses amounted to RMB0.8 million, RMB2.2 million, RMB3.6 million and RMB2.1 million, respectively.

Quality Assurance with Third-party Manufacturers

Our agreements with third-party manufacturers include quality assurance provisions, pursuant to which these manufacturers are required to repair, replace or accept the return of any products with quality issues and to prevent such items from entering the market. Additionally, they must compensate us for any losses arising from material quality issues as defined in the agreements. If quality issues occur, we reserve the right to demand immediate rectification and suspend cooperation until the issues are resolved.

PRODUCTION AND SUPPLY CHAIN MANAGEMENT

Our manufacturing strategy focuses on combining in-house production with outsourced processes, which allow us to align our core manufacturing capabilities with cost-effectiveness and operational flexibility. During the Track Record Period, we produced car seats and highchairs in-house while subcontracting certain processes to third-party manufacturers, and outsourced the complete production of other products. We have not encountered any loss due to product liability claims during the Track Record Period and up to the Latest Practicable Date.

The following table sets forth a breakdown of the output volume and percentage of our products which are self-manufactured and outsourced to third-party manufacturers for the years/periods indicated.

Outsourced Production

We outsource certain production processes for car seats and highchairs, including plastic processing, fabric sewing, aluminum processing and metal fabrication, to third-party manufacturers. The full production of strollers and accessories, cribs, baby carriers, pajamas, pillows and baby care products is also outsourced. In 2022, 2023 and 2024 and the six months ended June 30, 2025, we had maintained collaborations with 19, 32, 36 and 36 third-party manufacturers to support our production needs, respectively, and the costs of outsourced goods constituted 64.6%, 66.4%, 72.2% and 76.3% of the total cost of sales for the corresponding years/periods.

When selecting third-party manufacturers, we evaluate factors such as certifications, proven experience, production capabilities, technological expertise, R&D capacity, product quality, service scope, pricing, and willingness to establish long-term partnerships. These manufacturers are regularly assessed on seasonal and annual bases, covering various aspects such as including quality management, product design, research and development, supplier and procurement processes, production controls, warehouse operations, and non-conforming product handling.

We maintain stringent control over outsourced manufacturing by providing detailed design specifications and manufacturing standards for all raw materials and outsourced processes. In collaboration with both internal and external testing laboratories, we conduct regular evaluations to assess packaging, appearance, physical properties and chemical properties of raw materials and outsourced products and issue corresponding inspection reports. Additionally, we hold key patents and technologies related to the production, further fortifying our control over the manufacturing process.

Products that exhibit cosmetic defects or minor imperfections and do not meet our quality standards are returned to the supplier. The supplier is required to conduct a comprehensive inspection, separate the qualified products, and resubmit them for reinspection. Only after passing this secondary inspection do we accept them into our inventory. For products found to be non-compliant with national regulations, we return them to the supplier, which is required to isolate and properly dispose of the non-compliant items before manufacturing new, compliant products. Once the newly produced items pass inspection, we accept them into our inventory.

Our solid reputation, expansive production scale, and long-standing relationships with manufacturing partners enable us to establish reliable and cost-efficient collaborations with third-party manufacturers. During the Track Record Period, we did not encounter any losses or product liabilities associated with the manufacturing process of our third-party manufacturers. See “Risk Factors — Risks Relating to Our Business and Industry — Depending on a limited number of suppliers, we produce our products through in-house manufacturing and outsourcing to few third-party manufacturers, which may subject us to supplier concentration risks. Any decline in our production capacity and any disruption to, or material unfavorable changes in our outsourcing cooperation with third-party manufacturers, will have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects” for details.

We generally enter into framework agreements with third-party manufacturers. The salient terms of such agreements include:

Quality assurance	The third-party manufacturer is responsible for the quality of the products.
Pricing	Pricing is determined on the basis of third-party price comparisons and internal cost analysis to maintain market competitiveness.
Payment and credit term	Payments are typically made on a 45- to 90-day credit term, using either cash or bank drafts.
Exclusivity	Suppliers providing core components or critical manufacturing processes are required to refrain from offering similar services to competing products within the same category.
Duration	The duration of the agreement is typically for two years.
Termination	The agreement will terminate upon expiration or by mutual agreement, or other means as set forth in the agreement. We generally have the right to terminate the agreement with third-party manufacturers who breach the agreement.

Production Facilities

Production Facility in Operation

Our in-house production facility, located in Ningbo, Zhejiang, specializes in foam molding and assembly processes for key products such as car seats and highchairs. The facility began operations in 2021 and spanned 14,111 square meters. In 2023, 2024 and the six months ended June 30, 2025, it contributed to the production of 121,173, 123,888 and 42,335 units of car seats, representing 100.0%, 100.0% and 100.0% of the total production of car seats, respectively, and 3,098, 16,301 and 1,891 units of highchairs, respectively, representing 57.7%, 94.3% and 79.7% of the total production of highchairs, respectively.

The table below sets forth details on the design capacity, production output, and capacity utilization rate of our production facility for the years/periods indicated.

BUSINESS

In 2024, our production capacity utilization rate for car seats and highchairs declined compared to 2023, primarily due to our capacity expansion undertaken to meet future market demand. In the six months ended June 30, 2025, our production capacity utilization rates for car seats and highchairs declined relative to full-year levels during the Track Record Period, primarily due to (i) the temporary suspension of highchair production from January to May 2025 to undertake modifications necessary for compliance with the revised national safety standards of infants' and children's furniture, after which production resumed in June 2025, and (ii) the use of prior-year inventories of car seats to satisfy part of the sales demand in the first half of 2025, attributable to a slight decline in sales volume from 53 thousand units in the six months ended June 30, 2024 to 51 thousand units in the six months ended June 30, 2025, and a drawdown of existing inventory from 18,585 units as of December 31, 2024 to 4,271 units as of June 30, 2025.

The following diagram illustrates the key stages in the production process of car seats and highchairs. As shown in the diagram, the outsourced production process is not the critical part of the overall production process.

We have established stringent safety protocols to maintain high operational standards and address potential risks. These protocols cover equipment management, contingency plans for major equipment failures, power outage procedures, emergency response measures, and a safety production responsibility system. During the Track Record Period and up to the Latest Practicable Date, we did not encounter any material incidents arising from the use of potentially dangerous equipment. See “Risk Factors — Risks Relating to Our Business and Industry — The manufacturing process for products in our industry is complex and any failure to adhere to quality and safety standards may adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects” for details.

Production Facility Under Construction

We are in the process of constructing another production facility in Ningbo, Zhejiang, which is expected to be completed in 2026, with an annual design capacity of 800,000 units of products, including 300,000 units of car seats, 300,000 units of strollers, 100,000 units of cribs and 100,000 units of highchairs. During the Track Record Period, we have witnessed steady sales growth of our nursery products. In 2024, our sales volumes reached approximately 115,000 units of car seats, 180,000 units of strollers, 29,000 units of cribs, and 16,000 units of highchairs. In the six months ended June 30, 2025, our sales volumes reached approximately 51,000 units of car seats, 88,000 units of strollers, 15,000 units of cribs and 4,000 units of highchairs. See “Business — Overview — Our Nursery Product Portfolio” for details. We anticipate a continuous increase in demand for our products in the foreseeable future. See “Industry Overview — Overview of China’s Durable Nursery Product Industry” for details.

The planned production capacity of the new facility is based on our projections of demand over the next five years, which reflects both the continued expansion of our domestic sales and our strategic efforts to grow our presence in overseas markets. For example, although our 2024 sales volume for highchairs was approximately 16,000 units, the current market penetration remains relatively low and we see significant room for growth. We are also actively developing high-volume, traffic-driving models of highchairs to further increase market share.

To seize market opportunities and strengthen our market position, we decided to construct the new production facility to further enhance the high quality of our products and meet the projected needs for our offerings. The new facility is intended to support our shift from a primarily outsourced production model to one with a greater focus on in-house production. By doing so, we aim to ensure more consistent product quality through close, step-by-step quality monitoring, respond more quickly to changes in product design and demand, and safeguard our proprietary manufacturing know-how.

Inventory Control

Our inventory primarily consists of finished products, and we implement strict policies to maintain optimal inventory levels. Procurement and production plans are developed by taking into account product-specific requirements, production cycles and sales forecasts, enabling us to respond promptly to market demand. Each product category is managed based on its unique supply chain dynamics and sourcing cycles. We use inventory management strategies to adjust production plans and sales targets for each product category according to its inventory levels and supply chain characteristics.

We utilize a vendor-managed inventory model, working closely with supply chain partners to effectively manage stock levels. Our inventory system provides real-time data, offering management clear visibility into inventory status and supporting informed decision-making.

During the Track Record Period, we had maintained appropriate inventory levels. As of December 31, 2022, 2023 and 2024 and June 30, 2025, we had RMB52.8 million, RMB61.1 million, RMB98.6 million and RMB62.2 million of inventories, respectively, and our inventory turnover days were 58 days, 49 days, 47 days and 39 days, respectively.

Warehousing and Logistics

During the Track Record Period, we primarily engaged third-party providers for warehousing and logistics services. We select these service providers based on criteria such as reputation, operational scale, track record, and pricing. We typically enter into long-term agreements with our logistics service providers, which range from one years to three years. Our logistics service providers bear the risks associated with the delivery of our products, the liability for product damages occurring during the transportation process and are required to maintain appropriate insurance coverage. As of June 30, 2025, we engaged three warehouse service providers covering logistics services in different regions.

During the Track Record Period and up to the Latest Practicable Date, we did not encounter significant losses related to warehousing operations, and there were no major disruptions in product delivery, nor did we incur losses due to delayed or mishandled shipments by our logistics providers.

QUALITY CONTROL

We understand that product quality is a key driver of our long-term success. Our products undergo thorough testing and validation throughout their lifecycle, starting from the design and development phase, through procurement, production, storage and delivery, which ensure that we meet both industry standards and consumer expectations. See “— Production and Supply Chain Management” for details.

To maintain high-quality standards during production, we have implemented detailed quality control procedures aimed at minimizing the risk of subpar products entering the market. Our Ningbo production facility has earned IATF16949 certification, a standard typically associated with the automotive industry, which reflects our dedication to the highest quality practices. In addition, for products produced in our Ningbo production facility, we conduct inspections on all raw materials, work-in-progress, and semi-finished products through sampling tests, and arrange comprehensive tests for each assembly line.

For outsourced products, we work closely with third-party manufacturers, providing them with clear specifications and quality guidelines. These manufacturers are rigorously evaluated on an annual basis, with assessments covering product quality, production efficiency and delivery timelines. In addition, we conduct sampling tests on these products prior to their sale. For any defective products, we implement measures such as rework or destruction to prevent them from reaching the market. For those have already been sold, we have established a product recall procedure to protect customers’ legitimate rights to the fullest extent. During the Track Record Period and up to the Latest Practicable Date, we did not experience any major customer complaints on product quality or any product liability claims, product recalls or legal consequences, which, individually or taken together, resulted in a material and adverse effect on us. If a manufacturer fails to meet our expectations or shows consistent quality issues without making necessary improvements, they may be removed from our whitelist of approved suppliers.

As of June 30, 2025, our quality control team comprised 29 employees who are based at our production facility in Ningbo and our Shanghai office. The team is responsible for overseeing our overall quality strategies and ensuring minimal deviation from set procedures. They also keep abreast of the latest standards and policies to ensure our compliance with relevant requirements. During the Track Record Period and up to the Latest Practicable Date, we did not experience any material sales returns, product recalls or product liability claims that adversely affected our business or financial condition. See “Risk Factors — Risks Relating to Our Business and Industry — The manufacturing process for products in our industry is complex and any failure to adhere to quality and safety standards may adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects” for details.

CUSTOMERS

Our customers consist of consumers and business customers. For our online business, we sell products through e-commerce platforms such as Tmall, JD.com, Douyin, VIP.com, Pinduoduo and Kuaishou, and private domain platforms such as Weixin mini program and Weixin channels. For our offline sales, we partner with a network of distributors and key accounts to distribute our products. Additionally, we operate a physical interactive store which serves as a touchpoint with consumers.

We typically determine the credit term granted to our business customers by assessing factors such as business relationship and credit background. Our top five customers in each year/period during the Track Record Period accounted for 25.0%, 31.7%, 32.6% and 33.9% of our total revenue for the respective years/periods. Our largest customer accounted for approximately 11.5%, 11.5%, 12.9% and 15.4% of our revenue in each year/period during the Track Record Period.

The following table summarizes information about our five largest customers by revenue in each year/period during the Track Record Period:

SUPPLIERS AND SUPPLY CHAIN MANAGEMENT

Our suppliers consist primarily of e-commerce platforms, raw material suppliers and third-party manufacturers. We purchase platform services and promotion services from e-commerce platforms to support the online sales of our products. These services include providing technical support, optimizing product display, enhancing consumer experience, and boosting product visibility and targeted advertising and marketing campaigns. For products that we manufacture in-house, such as car seats, we source raw materials from qualified suppliers guided by our production plan and outsource certain processes. This strategic approach allows us to balance cost-effectiveness with quality assurance, ensuring that our products meet both market demands and our stringent quality standards. All raw materials and components provided by our suppliers must comply with our quality control requirements.

We procure all raw materials used in our production facilities from third-party suppliers. Our principal raw materials include plastic, steel, paper, cotton and fabrics. Our procurement department handles the acquisition of raw materials, all of which were supplied by domestic suppliers during the Track Record Period. In 2022, 2023 and 2024 and the six months ended June 30, 2025, we procured core components, including safety belts, fabrics and hardware components, from six, eight, eight and 15 third-party suppliers, respectively. In 2022, 2023 and 2024 and the six months ended June 30, 2025, our raw material costs represented 17.5%, 17.3%, 11.6% and 8.6% of our cost of sales in each year/period during the Track Record Period. During the Track Record Period, fluctuations in the prices of major raw materials did not impact our operational planning or product development. This was primarily due to our well-established supply chain, which is designed to withstand market volatility. We have also implemented a diversified sourcing strategy that allows us to procure raw materials from multiple suppliers and regions. This approach not only mitigates the risks associated with price fluctuations but also ensures the stability and continuity of our production processes.

BUSINESS

We strategically outsource certain components of our finished products, through which we leverage their expertise and capabilities to produce in a cost-effective manner. In 2022, 2023 and 2024 and the six months ended June 30, 2025, the cost of components sourced from third-party manufacturers accounted for 64.6%, 66.4%, 72.2% and 76.3% of our cost of sales, respectively.

We maintain a network of suppliers to minimize potential interruptions to our business operations and avoid over-reliance on any single supplier. Since the prices of raw materials and components are influenced by the general supply-demand cycle, we closely monitor these conditions and adjust our procurement plans accordingly in response to anticipated shortages or price changes. We maintain close relationships with our suppliers, viewing this as a key competitive advantage essential for maintaining a competitive pricing structure and ensuring supply stability. During the Track Record Period, we did not encounter any difficulties in sourcing suppliers for raw materials or experience any significant production disruptions due to shortages.

Our aggregate purchases from our five largest suppliers in each year/period during the Track Record Period accounted for 52.0%, 44.6%, 43.5% and 47.0% of our total purchases for the respective years/periods. Our purchases from our largest supplier in each year/period during the Track Record Period accounted for 19.6%, 15.3%, 12.9% and 14.1% of our total purchases for the respective years/periods.

THIRD-PARTY PAYMENT ARRANGEMENTSBackground

In 2022, 2023 and 2024, we received payments made by third parties to settle the amounts that several customers owed to us in connection with their purchases of our products. In 2022, 2023 and 2024, the aggregate amount settled through such third-party payments was RMB45.3 million, RMB100.1 million, and RMB75.6 million, respectively, accounted for 8.2%, 10.8%, and 5.5% of our total amount received from our customers during the corresponding years/periods. In 2022, 2023 and 2024, the number of distributors that settled payments through third-party channels, referred to as “Third-Party Settled Customers,” was 46, 56, and 100, respectively. The increase was mainly due to the growth of our business volume and the large-scale expansion of our customers. Specifically, in 2023 and 2024, our Company’s expanded product portfolio, especially the rapid growth of our baby care products business, led to the addition of numerous distributors focusing on our new product categories. No individual Third-Party Settled Customer made a material contribution to our revenue in 2022, 2023 and 2024.

Reasons for Utilizing Third-Party Payments

In 2022, 2023 and 2024, the Third-Party Settled Customers were primarily small and mid-sized distributors that settled payments through third parties, referred to as “Third-Party Payers,” that were typically legal representatives, controlling Shareholders, family members, employees, or other affiliated individuals connected to the Third-Party Settled Customers. The use of third-party payments by these customers was mainly due to the small scale of their operations, which made it more convenient for them to process payments through the bank or Alipay accounts of the Third-Party Payers. We typically required Third-Party Settled Customers to provide identification of their legal representative, a copy of their business license, and other necessary basic information during the onboarding process. Our standard distribution agreements also include specific terms governing third-party payment arrangements to ensure transparency and compliance. For each third-party payment order, we maintain detailed order records to track and identify any potential risks. Additionally, we have signed third-party payment agreements with some of our partnered customers, to ensure that those third-party accounts are used exclusively for paying distribution product fees and not for any other improper purposes. Furthermore, when receiving payments from a third party, we verify the payer’s identity against our customer’s business license. If the payer is not listed as the legal representative, we conduct additional verification with the customer’s legal representative or responsible person to confirm the payer’s identity. According to Frost & Sullivan, it is a common practice in China’s nursery product industry for entities to settle payments through Third-Party Payers, primarily because (i) small and mid-sized distributors usually prefer to use the personal accounts of legal representatives, controlling Shareholders, family members, employees, or other affiliated parties, as corporate accounts can be cumbersome to manage; and (ii) these distributors appoint family members as finance managers, whose personal bank accounts are often used for payments. In 2022, 2023 and 2024, we did not initiate any third-party payment arrangements, and we only received payments from Third-Party Payers upon the request of the Third-Party Settled Customers. Additionally, the pricing and payment terms of the agreements with the Third-Party Settled Customers were in line with those of other customers, and we did not provide any discounts, commissions, rebates, or other benefits to either Third-Party Settled Customers or Third-Party Payers to facilitate or encourage these payment arrangements, without initiating such arrangements ourselves. In 2022, 2023 and 2024, all of the Third-Party Settled Customers and the Third-Party Payers were independent third parties to us. As of the Latest Practicable Date, there were no payments from the Third-Party Settled Customers and/or the Third-Party Payers outstanding and/or withdrawn.

To the best knowledge of our Directors, in 2022, 2023 and 2024, (i) our third-party payments are backed by legitimate transaction and commercially reasonable arrangements; (ii) there is no concealment or misrepresentation of the origin or nature of any criminal proceeds or income derived from such proceeds, which means these payments do not constitute money laundering, nor do they involve any situation that would lead to civil and criminal liability under applicable PRC laws and regulations; (iii) the third-party payments we accepted were not intended to circumvent any applicable PRC tax laws and regulations or other applicable PRC laws and regulations, and we had fully paid all taxes applicable to the payments we received from the Third-Party Payers according to applicable PRC tax laws and regulations; and (iv) we had not been subject to any inquiry, investigation or administrative penalties by the competent government authorities concerning the PRC tax laws and regulation as a result of the third-party payments we received. Based on the foregoing, our PRC Legal Advisor is of the view that the third-party payments we accepted in 2022, 2023 and 2024 did not contravene applicable PRC laws or regulations. Based on the foregoing, nothing has come to the attention of the Joint Sponsors to disagree with the aforementioned view of the Directors and the PRC Legal Advisor in any material respect.

Implication and Termination of the Third-party Payment Arrangements

We ascertained the implications of the third-party payment arrangements through interviewing nine Third-Party Settled Customers which represents the top five Third-Party Settled Customers in 2022, 2023 and 2024 and obtaining confirmations from 36 Third-Party Settled Customers in respect of the details of their Third-Party Payers. The payments under the third-party payment arrangements represented approximately 82.6%, 93.6%, and 92.0% of total third-party payments we received in 2022, 2023 and 2024, respectively. The confirmations include:

- The third-party payment arrangements were voluntary arrangements between the Third-Party Settled Customers and their Third-Party Payers. We did not propose any such arrangements and, except for accepting the payments, did not participate in such arrangements in any other way;

BUSINESS

- The Third-Party Settled Customer's delegation of payment obligations to their Third-Party Payers involve genuine underlying business transactions between the Third-Party Settled Customers and us. The third-party payments are not used for bribery or other illegitimate purposes;
- The Third-Party Settled Customers and their Third-Party Payers did not receive any financial aid from us. Funds involved in the third-party payments were from legal sources and such third-party payment arrangements were not used for illegal activities such as money laundering;
- The third-party payment arrangements did not involve any additional tax arrangement;
- The payment obligation of the Third-Party Settled Customers shall be deemed to be fully performed after the designated Third-Party Payers paid the amount due;
- The designated Third-Party Payers have not and will not request for the return of funds paid to us under the third-party payment arrangements;
- The Third-Party Settled Customers and their Third-Party Payers also made payments to the counterparties through third-party payment arrangements in the course of business operations. Such third-party payment arrangements are not uncommon in their business operations; and
- The third-party payment arrangement did not involve any cross-border payments or require approval from the SAFE.

Cessation of Third-party Payments

To mitigate risks associated with third-party payments, we discontinued all third-party payments since December 15, 2024. We have amended and enhanced our internal control measures for preventing future utilisation of third-party payment arrangements, and set out clear restrictions on third-party payment arrangements including:

- For corporate customers, all payments must be made by the relevant corporate customer to the Group directly;
- For customers who are individual industrial and commercial households, only payments from the relevant operator is accepted by the Group; and
- The Group's finance department will cross check the payor identity prior to despatch of products to ensure due compliance with the internal control measures and any payments from third-party shall be rejected and returned.

As confirmed by each of the executive Directors, the CFO and the Director of supply chain and manufacturing of the Company, the Group has ceased to accept third-party payment since December 15, 2024. We believe that the cessation of third-party payments has had, and will continue to have, no material adverse impact on the business, financial condition or results of operations of our Group. As advised by the Internal Control Consultant, no breach of the third-party payment restriction has been identified from the sample check conducted. Considering (i) the aforementioned internal control measures strictly mandate that payments can only be made by the relevant corporate customer or operator, thereby directly reducing the likelihood of third-party payments; (ii) our finance department will also cross check the payor identity and we will also conduct regular review on the effectiveness of the aforesaid internal control measures and promptly address any abnormalities and malfunctions; and (iii) no breach of the third-party payment restriction has been identified from the sample check conducted, our Directors, as advised by the Internal Control Consultant, are of the view that the internal control measures adopted by the Group is adequate and effective in preventing future utilisation of third-party payment arrangement. Based on the independence due diligence work performed by the Joint Sponsors and having considered the work and procedures performed by the internal control consultant, nothing has come to the attention of the Joint Sponsors to disagree with the view of the Directors.

INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY

IT Systems

To streamline our operations and improve efficiency, we have implemented a suite of information technology systems that support key business functions across our Company. These systems work together to optimize processes, improve data accuracy, and enhance collaboration across departments. Below are the key aspects of our IT infrastructure:

- Procurement and production optimization. Our specialized systems help streamline procurement and production workflows, ensuring the timely and accurate management of materials and resources.
- Product traceability. We have introduced a traceability system that allows consumers to verify the authenticity of our products using unique codes, reinforcing product quality and strengthening brand trust.
- Financial management. Our financial management system automates key processes such as data tracking, report generation, and financial oversight, promoting transparency, accuracy, and compliance across all financial operations.
- Operations support. The operations management system stabilizes our daily business functions, minimizing disruptions and maintaining smooth, secure workflows throughout the organization.

- R&D management. Our R&D management system streamlines the product development process, from initial planning to final execution, supporting innovation and improving R&D efficiency. Additionally, we protect sensitive documents and key company records through robust encryption systems to maintain data security.
- Warehouse management. A dedicated warehouse management system optimizes inventory control, providing real-time tracking and improving the accuracy of stock management.
- Human resource management. Our human resources system supports all aspects of human resources operations, from recruitment and onboarding to performance tracking, compensation management, and human resources analytics.

By integrating these systems, we create a connected platform that links procurement, production, sales, and other core functions, driving operational efficiency and ensuring smooth coordination across the business. During the Track Record Period, we were not aware of any material IT system breakdown which adversely affected our operations.

Data Privacy and Security

With the prior consent of our consumers, we collect and maintain certain consumer information during the ordinary course of business, strictly to the extent necessary for the sale and delivery of our products and the provision of related services. We only collect personal data through our mobile app and private domain platform. No data is collected via any other channels. On our mobile app, which was designed to enable customers to connect and control their car seats via Bluetooth, we may collect consumers' mobile phone numbers for user registration. On our private domain platform, we gather personal and behavioral data, including (i) membership information such as member ID, membership level, and loyalty points and contact details including name, phone number, gender, date of birth and profile image, primarily for membership management purposes; (ii) transaction and browsing data, including order history, product SKUs, and payment records, to facilitate order processing and enable targeted offers; and (iii) marketing-related data, including customer service records, as well as template and delivery log information from SMS, push notifications, and Weixin messages, aimed at managing membership service communications effectively. During the Track Record Period and up to the Latest Practicable Date, we have not received any notification from the relevant authority that the data processed has been determined to be important data or core data, was not involved in any investigation of data processing activities that affect or may affect national security, and have not conducted any cross-border data transmission. We strictly comply with data privacy and security regulations. See "Regulatory Overview — Regulations Relating to Cybersecurity, Data Security, and Privacy Protection" for details.

We have allocated substantial resources to implementing advanced information security technologies and management practices to safeguard the personal data of our consumers and employees throughout the entire data lifecycle. Specifically, we employ advanced protection, encryption and disaster backup techniques for data storage and transmission, conduct regular audits to identify and mitigate potential security vulnerabilities and provide comprehensive training to our employees on data privacy and security protocols. Our network and computers are equipped with enterprise-grade hardware and anti-virus software to ensure data integrity. Furthermore, we have established stringent access controls and monitoring mechanisms, supported by robust policies for information security management, account and authorization management, and data security oversight. These systems are designed to prevent unauthorized access and ensure compliance with domestic data protection standards. We also comply with applicable laws and regulations through the establishment of strict information protection policies and procedures covering all aspects of data collection, storage, use, and sharing. Regular audits and risk assessments further enhance our data protection systems, allowing us to address the evolving complexities of information security. As of the Latest Practicable Date, we were in compliance with relevant laws and regulations, completing the network security level assessments of our major systems and filing the corresponding information system security level protection records. Our cloud servers are equipped with advanced cloud firewalls and disaster recovery systems, enabling us to defend against malicious attacks and recover in the event of an incident.

In addition, we have established a robust management system to oversee third-party collaborations involving data processing, including record-keeping, compliance monitoring, and evaluation. For third-party service providers such as order management systems, mini program software, logistics services and third-party payment channels, we have signed data protection agreements outlining rights, obligations, and compliance requirements. For customer information management system providers, we have required written commitments to implementing encryption, data masking, and secondary verification for personal and sensitive data.

During the Track Record Period and up to the Latest Practicable Date, our PRC Legal Advisor is of the view that we did not experience any material data breaches, losses, or unauthorized use of consumers' personal information. As advised by our PRC Legal Advisor, we were in compliance with the applicable laws and regulations with respect to data security and personal information protection during the Track Record Period and up to the Latest Practicable Date in all material respects.

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

We believe that our brand and our intellectual property rights, including our trademarks, patents, copyrights and domain names, are important to our future business development. In optimizing the value of our intellectual property rights, we effectively manage, safeguard and protect them in both domestic and overseas markets. We acquired patents from an independent third party primarily engaged in the import and export of technologies and goods, as well as the manufacturing and sale of nursery products, automobile parts, and accessories. These patents related to foaming technologies, which included invention patents and utility model patents, have been used in the manufacturing process of car seats. We strategically acquired these patents in order to (i) avoid potential intellectual property infringements, (ii) obtain patent protection more efficiently than through complex patent filing processes, and (iii) accelerate the commercialization of our car seats and lower related R&D costs. These acquisitions took place prior to and during the year 2022, with total considerations amounting to RMB49.5 million. Revenue generated from car seats are RMB140.8 million, RMB188.0 million, RMB207.4 million, RMB91.2 million and RMB99.0 million in 2022, 2023 and 2024 and the six months ended June 30, 2024 and 2025, respectively. In acquiring these patents, we considered the following factors when determining the corresponding consideration: (1) the patent's R&D costs, (2) the technological advantages and market scarcity of the patent, and (3) the patent's legal status. During the process of acquiring the patent, we also acquired the relevant machinery and equipments together with the patent from this independent third parties. Additionally, we maintain an ongoing business relationship with some original patent owners for the purchase and sale of equipment and raw materials. Apart from the above-mentioned, there is no past or present relationship between the seller and our Company, our Company's subsidiaries, Directors, Shareholders, senior management, or any of their respective associates. We believe that by acquiring these patents, we can integrate advanced foam-related technologies into our existing technological framework, enhancing our product performance and driving innovation. This will not only strengthen our existing market share but also open up new market opportunities. Additionally, as a defensive measure, acquiring patents can help us avoid potential intellectual property disputes with competitors. To be specific, acquiring such relevant technology patents not only deters potential litigation from competitors by raising the cost of initiating lawsuits, but also equips us with counterclaim leverage in the event of legal disputes. If challenged, the acquired patents can be used to assert infringement against the opposing party, thereby increasing the likelihood of settlement or cross-licensing. Moreover, securing these patents can proactively eliminate potential intellectual property barriers, ensuring smoother business operations while enhancing our corporate value and reinforcing our brand image. The net book value of patents stood at RMB26.1 million as at June 30, 2025. To the best knowledge of our Directors, during the Track Record Period and up to the Latest Practicable Date, there had been no material incident relating to our infringement of third parties' intellectual property rights.

As of June 30, 2025, we had 603 registered trademarks, 200 registered patents, and 42 copyrights in China, as well as 104 registered trademarks and 17 registered patent internationally. We hold patents of three different categories, namely, invention patents, utility patents and design patents. As of June 30, 2025, we held ten invention patents, 93 utility patents and 97 design patents in China, and our registration applications for ten invention patents, 13 utility patent and 12 design patents in China were pending. See "Appendix IV — Statutory and General Information" for details.

We actively defend against infringement of our intellectual property rights and any counterfeiting of our products. We recognize that counterfeiters copy our newly developed and innovative products and designs, and that counterfeiting may continue to affect our brand image. Therefore, consistent with our commitment to product quality control, we maintain high vigilance in monitoring counterfeiting and aggressively guard against counterfeiting by engaging in cooperative relationships with our distributors and other companies to assist us in the detection of counterfeit products by inspecting suspicious products. When counterfeit products are detected, we dedicate top management support and resources to enforce our rights. During the Track Record Period and up to the Latest Practicable Date, we are not involved in any material lawsuit or threatened action with respect to our intellectual property rights.

BUSINESS

In addition, we have established an internal counterfeiting warning system that allows our various internal departments to share information rapidly and to take immediate action upon detection of counterfeit products. During the Track Record Period and up to the Latest Practicable Date, we were not aware of any material incident of counterfeit products which adversely affected our operations, nor any material incident involving infringement of intellectual property rights by us which adversely affected our operations.

EMPLOYEES

As of June 30, 2025, we employed 641 full-time employees, the majority of whom are based in Shanghai, Ningbo and Kunshan. As advised by our PRC Legal Advisor, during the Track Record Period and up to the Latest Practicable Date, our employment practices for dispatched workers was in compliance with relevant requirements under applicable PRC laws and regulations regarding labor dispatch in all material aspects. The following table sets forth our number of employees by function as of June 30, 2025.

Division	Number of Employees	% of Total Employees
R&D	92	14.4
Manufacturing	111	17.3
Sales and marketing	383	59.8
Management and administration	55	8.6
Total	641	100.0

Remuneration

Our success depends on our ability to attract, retain and motivate qualified personnel. As part of our human resources strategy, we offer employees competitive salaries, performance-based cash bonuses and other incentives. Employee remuneration is determined based on factors such as qualifications, contributions and years of experience. As part of our remuneration policies for our key personnel, we have in place a Share Incentive Plan, which is designed to provide incentives and rewards to our valuable employees. See “Appendix IV — Statutory and General Information” for details. We believe that by recognizing their contributions with a shareholding stake in our Company, we are aligning their interests with our interests, thereby encouraging their continued commitment to our long-term success.

Welfare Contributions

As required under PRC laws and regulations, we participate in various employee social security plans organized by applicable local municipal and provincial governments, including housing, pension, medical, work-related injury and unemployment benefit plans. We are required to make contributions to employee benefit plans at specific percentages of employee salaries, bonuses and certain allowances of our employees, up to a maximum amount specified by the local government from time to time. We participate in and make contributions to those social security plans and employee benefit plans. During the Track Record Period and up to the Latest Practicable Date, we have not experienced any material labor disputes or any difficulty in recruiting staff for our operations.

Training

We have implemented a robust training policy aimed at fostering the continuous development and growth of our employees. As part of this policy, we conduct a variety of training programs annually, covering areas such as management and leadership skills, technological advancements, business development and legal and regulatory compliance. For our customer service and manufacturing teams, we provide standardized pre-employment and on-the-job training to uphold the quality of our services and products. These training sessions are delivered by a combination of internal speakers, who possess extensive experience and knowledge within our Company, and third-party consultants who bring in external expertise and industry best practices. Through these diverse training opportunities, we aim to enhance the skills and capabilities of our employees, ensuring they remain well-equipped to meet the evolving demands of our industry and contribute effectively to our success.

Social Insurance and Housing Provident Funds

Background and Reasons for Non-compliance

Under applicable PRC laws and regulations, we are required to participate in government-sponsored employee benefit plans, including social insurance, housing provident funds, and other welfare-related programs. Contributions to these plans must be made in amounts equal to specified percentages of employees' salaries, bonuses, and allowances, up to a cap determined by local government regulations at the locations where our employees are based. During the Track Record Period and as of the Latest Practicable Date, we did not fully contribute to social insurance and housing provident funds based on the actual salaries of our employees primarily because (i) our labor force, especially in sales and production roles, is highly mobile, which has made it infeasible for us to make full contributions in time for the relevant employees that left us shortly after joining; (ii) certain employees were not willing to bear their share of social insurance and housing provident funds strictly in proportion to their salary, and (iii) a certain number of our employees are migrant workers who are typically not willing to participate in the social welfare schemes of the city where they temporarily reside as such contributions are not transferable among cities. In 2022, 2023 and 2024 and the six months ended June 30, 2025, the aggregate shortfall of social insurance and housing provident fund contributions amounted to RMB5.9 million, RMB7.7 million, RMB9.4 million and RMB5.4 million, respectively.

Legal Consequences

According to PRC laws and regulations, under-contribution to social insurance may subject us to compensate for the delayed payment amount within a prescribed period and to pay a daily overdue charge of 0.05% of the delayed payment amount. Failure to comply within the prescribed timeline may lead to fines ranging from one to three times the overdue amount. Additionally, pursuant to applicable PRC laws and regulations, if the employer fails to register and establish an account for housing provident fund contributions, the authority could order the employer to correct it within a prescribed time limit, where failure to do so at the expiration of the time limit shall result in a fine of not less than RMB10,000 nor more than RMB50,000 being imposed. Similarly, if there is any failure to pay the full amount of housing provident fund as required, the competent housing provident fund management center may require payment of the outstanding amount within a prescribed period. If the payment is not made within such time limit, the authorities may seek enforcement through the PRC courts. We might also be subject to potential labor disputes arising from such arrangements with the relevant employees.

Pursuant to the Urgent Notice of the General Office of the Ministry of Human Resources and Social Security on Implementing the Guidelines of the Executive Meeting of the State Council to Practically and Effectively Stabilize the Collection of Social Insurance Payments (《人力資源社會保障部辦公廳關於貫徹落實國務院常務會議精神切實做好穩定社保費徵收工作的緊急通知》) promulgated on September 21, 2018, by the Ministry of Human Resources and Social Security, administrative authorities are prohibited from organizing centralized collection efforts for historical social insurance arrears.

Internal Control and Remedial Measures

We have implemented a framework of internal controls with the objective of achieving full contributions for social insurance and housing provident funds in compliance with applicable laws and regulations. We have taken the following internal control measures, promulgated in December 2024, to ensure compliance with the social insurance and housing provident fund contribution requirements under the relevant laws and regulations to the extent practicable:

- Training. Strengthen the training of our personnel, including training on various compliance-related topics for our employees;
- Communicating with employees. Actively communicate with employees to ensure compliance with the appropriate contribution base, which may also require them to bear additional contributions to social security and housing fund;
- Internal control measures. Establish an internal control team to monitor our ongoing compliance with the social insurance and housing provident fund contributions regulations and oversee the implementation of any necessary measures;

BUSINESS

- Increasing awareness of developments in the law. Regularly keep abreast of the latest developments in PRC laws and regulations relating to social insurance and housing provident funds; and
- External counsel. Consult external legal counsel for advice on relevant PRC laws and regulations.

Notwithstanding these efforts, we have encountered practical limitations that have impeded full contributions for social insurance and housing provident funds, including high workforce mobility, reluctance among certain employees to bear their legally required share of contributions, and administrative barriers related to migrant workers.

Our PRC Legal Advisor and our Directors are of the view that the aforementioned failure to fully contribute to social insurance and housing provident funds would not have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition or results of operations, based on the following considerations: (i) consultations with competent government authorities covering substantially all of our employees indicate that they had not received any employee complaints regarding social insurance and housing provident funds and would not voluntarily initiate regulatory actions to require supplementary contributions or impose penalties in the absence of such complaints; (ii) during the Track Record Period and up to the Latest Practicable Date, we had not been subject to any administrative penalties related to social insurance or housing provident fund contributions; (iii) we were not aware of any material employee complaints or material labor disputes concerning social insurance or housing provident funds during the Track Record Period and up to the Latest Practicable Date; (iv) as of the Latest Practicable Date, we had not received any notifications from the relevant government authorities requiring payment of shortfalls or overdue charges for social insurance or housing provident funds; and (v) as advised by our PRC Legal Advisor based on the aforementioned and taken into account Supreme People's Court's Interpretation (II) on Several Issues Concerning the Application of Law in Labor Dispute Cases (《最高人民法院關於審理勞動爭議案件適用法律問題的解釋(二)》), which took effect on September 1, 2025, in the absence of material employee complaints, the likelihood of being subject to material administrative penalties or collection of historical arrears is remote. As a result, we had not made any provision for the shortfall in our social insurance and housing provident fund contributions during the Track Record Period and up to the Latest Practicable Date.

Pursuant to the Article 19(1) of the New Judicial Interpretation, if an employer and an employee agree or the employee commits that social insurance contributions are not required to be paid, the People's Court shall deem such agreement or commitment invalid, and where an employer fails to pay social insurance contributions, and the employee requests to terminate the labor contract and claims economic compensation from the employer in accordance with the PRC Labor Contract Law, the People's Court shall support such claims. See "Regulatory Overview – Regulations Relating to Employment, Social Insurance and Housing Fund" for details. Our PRC Legal Advisor and our Directors are of the view that the New Judicial interpretation would not have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition or results of operations, based on the following considerations: (i) as advised by the PRC Legal Advisor, upon its implementation, the New Judicial Interpretation will not affect the compliance status of our social insurance and housing provident fund contributions, (ii) it will not influence the assessment of any contribution shortfalls or increase our exposure to penalties, as there have been no agreements or commitments between our employees and our Company to waive social insurance contributions as confirmed by the Company, and (iii) any shortfall in social insurance and housing provident fund contributions, regardless of the reason (including cases resulting from employees' election), has been included in our shortfall calculation.

Nevertheless, we cannot assure you that the relevant local governmental authorities will not take a contrary view or require us to pay outstanding amounts, late fees or fines, pecuniary penalties or other administrative actions on us. Any investigations, penalties, or legal disputes related to noncompliance with labor laws could adversely impact our business, financial condition and results of operations. See “Risk Factors — Risks Relating to Our Business and Industry — We may be subject to additional contributions of social insurance and housing provident fund and late payments and fines imposed by relevant governmental authorities” for details.

We have been actively communicating with the relevant local government authorities. We commit to promptly fulfilling our obligations as required as soon as practicable in the event that we receive the notification from the relevant government authorities, if any, to require us to rectify, make timely payments, or pay the outstanding amounts due to any deficiencies in our social insurance and housing provident funds in full cooperation with relevant competent government authorities.

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE MATTERS

Our ESG subject areas mainly include supply chain management, employee management, corporate governance, energy consumption and waste generation. We are dedicated to improve the ESG performance of ourselves and, to the extent practicable, our stakeholders such as distributors and suppliers. With respect to our own operation, we have identified specific metrics and set performance targets based on their historical levels. Upon our Listing, our Board will take overall responsibility of our ESG strategy, become directly involved in setting up and periodically reviewing our ESG policies, and evaluate our ESG strategies, priorities and targets.

ESG Governance

We have implemented a structured ESG framework to facilitate effective governance, cross-department collaboration and compliance monitoring for sustainable business practices.

Our ESG governance structure clearly defines roles and responsibilities to maintain strong oversight. The Board is responsible for setting ESG strategies and objectives, overseeing their execution, and conducting an annual review of the sustainability strategy to make necessary adjustments. We also have ESG task force to manage the operational aspects, including data collection, internal communication and training. It collects KPI data every six months and assists the Board in identifying, assessing and monitoring risks across departments annually.

Our functional departments, including research and development, production, brand operations and sales, collaborate closely to implement ESG strategies based on their specific roles and responsibilities. Additionally, the internal audit department conducts regular evaluations to monitor ESG-related activities and verify compliance with information disclosure standards.

We have also adopted an ESG risk assessment and management model that integrates ESG compliance into day-to-day operations, including the creation of an ESG risk repository for environmental risk, social risk and governance risk, with designated personnel in each department responsible for identifying and managing ESG risks. We conduct annual risk assessments based on the completeness of institutional processes and management practices, allowing us to continually optimize and improve ESG-related operations.

We have established a comprehensive ESG strategy that outlines strategic planning related to supply chain management, product quality, and energy consumption. Our ESG objectives are integrated into our business operations to drive sustainable development and long-term value creation.

We have set company-level core objectives to ensure sustainable growth and operational efficiency, including:

- Sales growth, business expansion and per capita productivity
- Asset efficiency
- Cash flow management
- Customer-centric approach
- New product commercial success rate
- Organizational capability building
- Innovation
- Cost reduction and efficiency enhancement
- Supply chain development

BUSINESS

To effectively measure the implementation of our ESG objectives, we have established specific performance assessment indicators (KPIs) that cover various critical aspects, including but not limited to:

- Emission and energy management: type and amount of emission and energy consumed, fulfillment rate for emission reduction goals
- Pollutant management: number of complaints and penalties received, etc. standardized indicator for each type of pollutant
- Compliance and quality management: number of successful system audits, timely closure rate of audit findings
- Customer experience: quality issue resolution rate, domestic and international customer complaint rates, quality-related production stoppages, incoming material acceptance rate
- Production efficiency: production achievement rate, per capita productivity, production yield rate capacity fulfillment rate
- Employment management: employee turnover rate, number of remuneration and employee rights related complaints and disputes, ratio of ESG performance indicator, diversity of employee, employee satisfaction rate, number of bribery litigations, fraud incidents, and anonymous tips
- Workplace safety: number of occupational safety incidents frequency of sanitization and safety inspections
- Product innovation and market performance: Customer-centric new product commercial success rate (complaint rate, customer satisfaction, on-time delivery rate, and business expansion)
- Talent training and development: employee retention rate, employee training rate, number of forced labor and juvenile employment related complaints and disputes
- Technological innovation: development and application of new processes, technologies, and materials
- Supply chain optimization: number of high-quality suppliers, supply chain sustainability
- Product liability: number of products recalled, number of products, service and promotion related complaints, disputes and incidents, consumer satisfaction rate

- Board governance: diversity of the board and senior management, number of interest risk incidents, relevance of senior management remuneration with ESG performance indicator

We have identified and assessed 46 ESG related risks covering environmental, social, and governance aspects, and formulated corresponding risk mitigation strategies. Through our ESG risk assessment and management framework, we ensure that ESG compliance and corporate culture are embedded into our daily operations. ESG risks are assigned to responsible departments based on their respective functions, with designated personnel overseeing management and supervision. Based on the completeness of institutional processes and management measures, we conduct annual ESG risk assessments and continuously refine our ESG management system to enhance corporate sustainability and long-term competitiveness.

To manage risks related to ESG issues, we enhance our internal control system by incorporating the protection of our customers' environmental information into our credit management process, in line with the latest international and local policies. Additionally, we use a classification system to categorize environmental and social issues into three levels, namely core, important and general levels. Such classification helps us prioritize these issues based on our business strategies and stakeholder input. At the same time, we actively pursue opportunities arising from climate change by continuously developing green financial products and services.

Assessment of Climate Risks and Opportunities

Climate change poses notable risks to business operations, including physical and transition risks. Guided by the recommendations of the Task Force on Climate-Related Financial Disclosures (“TCFD”) we evaluate and address these risks, incorporating mitigation measures into our operations to support sustainable development.

- Physical Risks encompasses both acute and chronic risks.
 - o Acute risks result from extreme weather events such as floods, storms and heatwaves, which can disrupt our warehousing and logistics operations. These disruptions often lead to higher repair costs for damaged infrastructure, supply chain delays and contractual issues that reduce business volumes. Such events can also cause factory downtime and financial losses, affecting overall operational resilience.
 - o Chronic risks arise from long-term climate changes, such as sustained high temperatures. These conditions can impact employee health and safety, requiring protective measures such as heat-related allowances and enhanced safety protocols. Over time, these measures can increase labor costs, adding financial strain to operations.

- Transition Risks are linked to the shift toward a low-carbon economy and arise from regulatory changes, technological developments and evolving market demands.
 - o Adapting to these changes often involves costs, such as implementing energy-efficient systems, renewable energy solutions or green infrastructure. Failure to comply with environmental regulations can lead to penalties or operational disruptions.
 - o Climate policies also influence consumer preferences, with increasing demand for sustainable supply chain solutions. Businesses reliant on unsustainable practices may face reduced demand, while transitioning to greener alternatives requires significant investments in technology and processes. Aligning operations with these changes is essential for maintaining competitiveness and supporting sustainable growth.

To manage climate-related risks, we have incorporated energy efficiency goals and emission reduction strategies into our operations, which strengthens our sustainability efforts and addresses the challenges posed by climate change. We have systematically identified and prioritized key ESG topics by engaging with stakeholders, including employees, customers and investors, to understand their concerns.

In alignment with industry trends, strategic goals, and international standards — such as the Hong Kong Stock Exchange Environmental, Social and Governance Guide, the Global Reporting Initiative, the Sustainability Accounting Standards Board, and the TCFD, we conducted a thorough analysis of both internal and external factors, leading to the identification of 26 material ESG topics/issues. These material ESG topics/issues were determined following a comprehensive materiality assessment, which integrated analysis of industry trends, future challenges, potential business impacts and feedback from a wide range of stakeholders. We conducted ten stakeholder surveys to gather input on the prioritization of these issues. The ESG committee and Board reviewed the results and approved the final priorities to make sure that they align with our overall strategic direction.

We regularly update these topics in response to external developments and stakeholder feedback. The evaluation process and its outcomes are disclosed in our ESG report, providing transparency and strengthening credibility.

Metrics and Targets

We monitor the following metrics to assess and manage the environmental and climate-related risks arising from our manufacturing processes:

Carbon Emission:

- Scope 1: 61.2 tons of CO₂ equivalent in 2022, 45.8 tons of CO₂ equivalent in 2023, 38.6 tons of CO₂ equivalent in 2024, and 8.3 tons of CO₂ equivalent in the six months ended June 30, 2025.
- Scope 2: 356.8 tons of CO₂ equivalent in 2022, 427.7 tons of CO₂ equivalent in 2023, 482.7 tons of CO₂ equivalent in 2024, and 119.7 tons equivalent in the six months ended June 30, 2025.
- Scope 3: Starting in 2025, we will begin collecting energy consumption data from key suppliers, prioritizing data on water, electricity, and oil consumption to lay the foundation for Scope 3 carbon emissions disclosure; In 2026, we will continue to enhance the supplier management system and gradually expand coverage to other suppliers; By 2027, we aim to leverage digital tools to improve supplier ESG and carbon reduction risk management.

In 2024, our output value increased by 43.4% compared to 2023, and greenhouse gas emissions increased by 10.1%, from 473.5 tons to 521.2 tons. Nevertheless, our average monthly emissions per RMB10,000 of output decreased by 23.2%, reflecting improved efficiency.

Energy Consumption — Electricity

During the Track Record Period, the majority of our electricity consumption was primarily attributed to foaming machines, air compressors, production lines, lighting, and air conditioning, where we consumed electricity of 664,864.0 kWh, 797,071.7 kWh, 899,461.1 kWh and 209,924 kWh in 2022, 2023 and 2024 and the six months ended June 30, 2025, respectively. The reduction experienced in the first half of 2025 was mainly attributable to seasonal patterns in air conditioning usage, which is in line with the trend of our production output. We monitor our electricity consumption levels at our offices, including conducting monthly electricity usage statistics to closely track our energy consumption patterns.

Energy Consumption — Water

During the Track Record Period, the majority of our water consumption was primarily attributed to employees' basic domestic water usage and the cooling water required for the foam molds in the foaming workshop, where we consumed water of 2,042.7 m³, 3,070.1 m³, 3,515.5 m³ and 1,058.1 m³ in 2022, 2023 and 2024 and the six months ended June 30, 2025, respectively. We monitor our water consumption levels at our offices, including analyzing monthly water usage statistics.

To balance business growth with environmental sustainability following the Listing, we have set the following energy consumption and carbon reduction targets:

- Overall Goal. From 2023 to 2025, we aim to reduce carbon emissions by 2% annually, increasing the reduction rate to 2.8% annually from 2026. These efforts align with China's "2060" carbon neutrality goal, targeting full carbon neutrality by 2059. At the same time, we plan to drive down energy consumption, reducing water consumption intensity from 0.23m³ per output value of RMB10,000 in 2022 to 0.18 m³ per output value of RMB10,000 in 2025 and cutting electricity consumption intensity from 51.37 kWh per output value of RMB10,000 in 2022 to 40.40 kWh per output value of RMB10,000 in 2025, with both water and electricity usage slated to decline by 5% annually from 2023 through 2025. We also aim to reduce the waste and packaging materials per output value of RMB10,000 by 5% annually.
- Carbon Management. A carbon management system will be implemented, covering tracking, planning, operations and monitoring of carbon emissions. A designated carbon management leader will oversee annual progress and reporting.
- Carbon Footprint. We have defined 2023-2029 as a carbon reduction phase and 2029-2059 as the carbon neutrality phase. By 2029, we aim to adopt neutrality measures, achieving full neutrality by 2059.

We will further improve our ESG data processes in line with the ESG Reporting Guide outlined in Appendix C2 to the Listing Rules. Key targets will be reviewed annually to track progress and support long-term sustainability.

ESG Management Framework and Initiatives

As a non-regulated entity without quota compliance obligations and minimal direct environmental pollution, such as air or wastewater emissions, we recognize the importance of addressing our indirect environmental impacts. Guided by frameworks such as MSCI's ESG Industry Materiality Map, SASB's Materiality Map, and TCFD recommendations, we have identified key ESG issues, assessed associated risks and opportunities, and implemented targeted strategies to integrate sustainability into our operations.

- Energy Conservation and Emissions Reduction. We focus on ESG disclosure related to energy consumption from our IT infrastructure. Our energy conservation and emissions reduction strategy aims to enhance energy efficiency and minimize unnecessary consumption, including but not limited to:
 - o Emissions: upgrading equipment, optimizing processes, and adopting renewable energy sources such as solar and wind power to reduce reliance on fossil fuels.

- o Electricity: completely turning off electronic devices during non-working hours; paying attention to unplugging electric kettles and microwaves, especially before weekends and holidays, to reduce power consumption in the office; and installing independently controllable lighting switches in different lighting zones and using motion sensor or sound activated lights in public areas.
 - o Water: encouraging employees to turn off faucets tightly to prevent water leakage, posting water-saving reminder stickers in restrooms to raise awareness about responsible water usage; and promptly repairing any dripping faucets to minimize water wastage.
 - o Packing materials: optimize packaging solutions and streamline packaging materials to avoid excessive product packaging; and recycling discarded packaging materials during production as in-house circulation containers for secondary use.
- Carbon Footprint Management. To promote low-carbon development, we have established a carbon footprint management system, which guides the development of low-carbon products, fosters a market environment that supports sustainable consumption, and promotes environmentally conscious practices across the supply chain. For example, we encourage suppliers to prioritize energy-efficient products, use low-energy appliances, and adopt local sourcing to minimize emissions from transportation. In 2023, our emissions reduction plan aimed to cut total emissions per RMB10,000 of output by 2% compared to 2022, addressing both direct and indirect emissions:
 - o Direct emissions include measures such as reducing vehicle usage through departmental oversight and transitioning from diesel to electric forklifts to lower combustion-related emissions.
 - o Indirect emissions include measures such as improving work efficiency to reduce unnecessary overtime, maintaining air conditioning temperatures at no lower than 24°C, turning off lights and equipment when not in use, and installing solar photovoltaic systems and intelligent energy management systems in new facilities to increase renewable energy use.

- Quality and Supply Chain Management. Our commitment to ESG also extends to quality and supply chain management. Endorsements from clinical medicine enhance product functionality and safety while increasing public awareness of children’s health. In supply chain management, we collaborate with top-tier suppliers and enforce rigorous quality control standards. To mitigate ESG risks within our supply chain, we have implemented the following control measures:
 - o Incorporating ESG Factors in Supplier Onboarding: We prioritize suppliers with ISO certifications covering environmental, quality, and occupational health standards, which are included in our supplier admission criteria.
 - o Establishing Waste Management Measures: We have formulated the Chemical Management Policy to regulate hazardous waste and engaged certified third-party agencies for its disposal.
 - o Enhancing Green Procurement: We record suppliers’ environmental certifications (e.g., REACH) during the selection process to ensure compliance with sustainability standards.
 - o Strengthening Energy Consumption Management: Our equipment department regularly upgrades machinery to improve energy efficiency and reduce consumption.

By investing in advanced manufacturing technologies, high-performance materials, and product certifications, we integrate sustainable practices into operations and contribute to raising industry standards. See “— Production and Supply Chain Management” for details.

Corporate Culture and Employee Well-being

Rooted in a strong corporate culture and a commitment to social responsibility, we integrate ESG principles into every aspect of our operations. By prioritizing quality, innovation, and safety, we enhance the reputation and competitiveness of domestic nursery product brands. Drawing on the unique insights of our female employees, we refine the consumer experience to better meet the needs of young parents.

As a leader in the nursery product industry, we are committed to setting standards for lawful employment practices and advocate for women’s rights in the workplace. As of June 30, 2025, our workforce comprised 641 employees, with women making up 51.6% of the total. Within functional departments, the sales team included 383 employees, with women representing 58.8%, while the design department had 92 employees, 37.0% of whom were women. Beyond gender, our workforce is diverse in terms of age and expertise. Approximately 50.1% of employees are under 30, 47.9% are aged 30-50, and 2.0% are over 50. In terms of education, 5.4% of manufacturing department employees, 38.1% of sales and marketing department employees, 56.5% of R&D department employees, and 67.3% of management and administration department employees have obtained bachelor's degrees or above. Such mix of age and background fosters a dynamic and innovative organizational culture.

We offer competitive remuneration and comprehensive training programs to support professional development. Additionally, we prioritize providing a safe and healthy working environment, focusing on occupational safety and the physical and mental well-being of all employees. See “— Employees” for details.

SEASONALITY

We have experienced, and we expect to continue to experience, seasonal fluctuations in our business. E-commerce platforms where we sell our products host major shopping events, such as the 618 Shopping Festival and the Double 11 Shopping Festival, which significantly influence market demand. Consequently, during the Track Record Period, we typically recorded higher sales in the second and fourth quarters of the calendar year. As a result, comparisons of our sales and results of operations across different periods within a financial year may not provide a reliable basis for assessing our performance. Seasonal factors specific to the nursery product industry are expected to continue driving fluctuations in our revenue. See “Risk Factors — Risks Relating to Our Business and Industry — Our results of operations may fluctuate due to seasonality, and the results for any period in a year are not necessarily indicative of full-year results” for details.

COMPETITION

The nursery product industry in China is highly competitive and fragmented, with more than 1.0 million market participants by the end of 2024, according to Frost & Sullivan. The industry players generally fall into two categories: (i) companies focusing on specific categories such as strollers, car seats or feeding tools, and (ii) companies offering a wider product portfolio to meet the needs of families throughout different stages of early childhood.

In recent years, many companies have shifted toward broader product portfolios to increase consumer engagement and strengthen their market presence. At the same time, rising income levels and growing parental focus on safety and product design have contributed to the expansion of the segment of nursery products targeting mid- to high-end consumers. In response, companies are investing in product innovation and emphasize safety, functionality, aesthetics, personalization and sustainable materials. Such ongoing differentiation has led to the emergence of new brands and the continued evolution of consumer expectations.

We compete with both international and domestic nursery product brands. Due to differences in category focus, pricing and channel strategies, competitors tend to position themselves across a range of market segments. In the segment of nursery products targeting mid- to high-end consumers, the market remains fragmented with the top five brands accounting for approximately 18.9% of GMV in 2024, according to Frost & Sullivan.

BUSINESS

We believe the following factors affect our ability to compete successfully in the nursery product market, including market research, product development and design capability, ability to meet consumer preferences, product quality, interactive and long-standing customer relationships, and depth and breadth of sales network. We believe we compete favorably across these factors, however, some of our competitors may have better brand recognition, R&D capabilities and production capabilities than ours. See “Risk Factors — Risks Relating to Our Business and Industry — We face fierce industry competition. Failure to compete with other market players may adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects” for details.

INSURANCE

As of the Latest Practicable Date, we believe that our insurance coverage is in line with the industry practice and adequate to cover our key assets, facilities and liabilities, including but not limited to employer liability insurance and property and group accident insurance. We also procured insurance policies by type and amount that we consider sufficient and evaluated such insurance policies from time to time based on our past experience changes in production and industry developments. As of the Latest Practicable Date, we had not maintained any product liability insurance for products that we sell in China. As we plan to expand its business in overseas markets, we will procure product liability insurance for products we sold overseas as needed. See “Risk Factors — Risks Relating to Our Business and Industry — Our insurance coverage may not completely cover the risks related to our business and operations” for details.

PROPERTIES

We own and lease certain properties in China primarily to be used as production facilities and offices. According to Chapter 5 of the Listing Rules and section 6(2) of the Companies (Exemption of Companies and Prospectuses from Compliance with Provisions) Notice, this Document is exempted from compliance with the requirements of section 342(1)(b) of the Companies (Winding Up and Miscellaneous Provisions) Ordinance in relation to paragraph 34(2) of the Third Schedule to the Companies (Winding Up and Miscellaneous Provisions) Ordinance which requires a valuation report with respect to all our interests in land or buildings, for the reason that, as of June 30, 2025, none of our properties has a carrying amount of 15% or more of our consolidated total assets.

Owned Properties

As of the Latest Practicable Date, we had the right to use 15 parcels of land with a total gross land area of approximately 32,581.9 sq.m. located in Ningbo and Kunshan. As of the Latest Practicable Date, we had obtained all relevant land use rights certificates of such 15 parcels of land in Ningbo and Kunshan. As of the Latest Practicable Date, three of the aforementioned parcels of land located in Ningbo had been mortgaged to a bank as security for banking facilities with a maximum amount of up to RMB29.13 million.

As of the Latest Practicable Date, we owned 12 properties in Kunshan, with an aggregate area of approximately 2,032.6 sq.m. primarily used for office purpose.

Leased Properties

As of the Latest Practicable Date, we had nine leased properties with a total area of approximately 18,836.93 sq.m. in Shanghai, Ningbo and Zhuhai. The above properties are primarily used for stores, production facilities, and offices purposes. Among the nine properties we have leased, five of them have one or more of the following defects:

Mortgages on Leased Properties

As of the Latest Practicable Date, two of our leased properties were mortgaged to independent third parties before entering into the lease agreements. With respect to these properties, our PRC Legal Advisor of the view that we would not be subject to any fines or penalties but that we may not be able to lease, occupy and use such leased properties if the lease was challenged by a third-party rights holder.

Attachment to Leased Properties

As of the Latest Practicable Date, two of our leased properties were subject to judicial attachments. These properties are primarily used for production and office purposes. According to our PRC Legal Advisor, the attachment to these properties will not materially adversely affect our business, financial condition, or results of operations, based on the following considerations: (i) one of the properties subject to a judicial attachment is currently in the process of being released from the attachment, and as for the other property, which is used as a production facility, we had not received any notifications or orders from the court requiring us to cease the use as of the Latest Practicable Date; (ii) according to related PRC laws and regulations, the use of leased properties subject to mortgages and judicial seizures will not result in any fines or penalties for us; (iii) we have obtained written assurances from the lessors guaranteeing our uninterrupted use of the affected properties throughout the lease term; and (iv) should relocation become necessary, we believe we would be able to identify and transition to an alternative site with minimal disruption and relatively low reallocation costs.

Non-registration of Lease Agreements

As of the Latest Practicable Date, four of our lease agreements had not been registered with the local housing authority as required under PRC laws and regulations, primarily due to a lack of cooperation from the property owners in completing the registration process, which is beyond our control. According to our PRC Legal Advisor, failure to register these lease agreements within the prescribed period may result in administrative penalties ranging from RMB1,000 to RMB10,000 per agreement. The estimated total penalty for the non-registration of the four lease agreements is approximately RMB4,000 to RMB40,000, with RMB40,000 being the maximum potential penalty. Our PRC Legal Advisor has further confirmed that the failure to register these lease agreements does not affect their validity under PRC law and regulations. During the Track Record Period and up to the Latest Practicable Date, we have not received any notifications or warnings from regulatory authorities regarding potential administrative penalties for the non-registration of these agreements. We plan to register the four lease agreements with the local housing authority as required under PRC laws and regulations as soon as practicable. For the one subject to judicial attachments and not in the process of being released, we will proceed with the lease registration immediately after the attachment is lifted. We have implemented internal controls to prevent future non-compliance related to leases. Specifically, we have appointed seasoned staff to (i) conduct site inspections and verify the absence of judicial attachments or ownership disputes before entering into any lease; (ii) ensure our standard lease agreements clearly outline registration and disclosure obligations; and (iii) continuously monitor the status of leased properties throughout the lease term, promptly reporting any attachment issues to our finance department, legal team and senior management for immediate action. Based on the aforementioned, our PRC Legal advisor and our Directors are of the view that the non-registration of these lease agreements would not have a material adverse impact on our business, financial condition, or results of operations.

LICENSES, APPROVALS AND PERMITS

We are required to maintain various licenses, approvals and permits to operate our business. During the Track Record Period and up to the Latest Practicable Date, we had obtained all requisite licenses, approvals and permits from the relevant government authorities that are material for our business operations. The following table sets forth details of our material licenses and permits:

License/Permit	Holder	Grant Dates	Expiration Dates	Description of the License/Permit
Information Reporting for Single-purpose Prepaid Card Operators	BeBeBus Technology	October 30, 2024	N/A	Permission to conduct single-purpose commercial prepaid card business
Pollutant Emission Registration Receipt for Stationary Sources of Pollution	BeBeBus Safety	February 10, 2022	February 9, 2027	Registration of pollutant emission for stationary sources of pollution

LEGAL COMPLIANCE AND PROCEEDINGS

We are subject to various regulatory requirements and guidelines issued by the regulatory authorities in the jurisdictions in which we operate. We require our employees to follow our employee manual and code of business conduct and ethics. We also carry out regular on-the-job compliance training to our management and employees to maintain a healthy corporate culture and enhance their compliance perception and responsibility. During the Track Record Period and up to the Latest Practicable Date, we did not commit any non-compliance of laws and regulations which individually or in the aggregate, in the opinion of our Directors, would have a material and adverse effect on our business, financial condition or results of operations. See “— Employees — Social Insurance and Housing Provident Funds” and “— Properties — Leased Properties.” As advised by our PRC Legal Advisor, during the Track Record Period and up to the Latest Practicable Date, we had complied with the relevant laws and regulations in all material respects saved for the matter disclosed below concerning the permits and certificates for our New Ningbo Facility.

Permits and Certificates for Our New Ningbo FacilityBackground and Reasons for Non-compliance

During the Track Record Period, BeBeBus Ningbo acquired three adjacent land parcels in Xinbao Village, Fenghua District, Ningbo for the development of the New Ningbo Facility, with the first parcel acquired in July 2024. After obtaining the construction land planning permit for the first parcel but before the issuance of the construction permit, officials from the Fenghua District Housing and Urban-Rural Development Bureau (the “Housing Bureau”), along with other relevant department authorities, convened a special meeting with BeBeBus Ningbo in October 2024. During this meeting, it was agreed in principle that (i) the Housing Bureau would process the construction permit for the west annex facilities on the first parcel under a pilot “deficiency-tolerant approval mechanism” (容缺審批), subject to certain conditions, and (ii) BeBeBus Ningbo would be required to commence construction within one week of the issuance of construction permit and to modify construction procedures with the relevant authorities upon consolidating all land parcels (the “Special Meeting”).

In November 2024, a construction permit, was formally issued by the Housing Bureau for the west annex to the first parcel. Relying on its understanding of the agreements reached in the Special Meeting and in the context of Ningbo’s pilot program for deficiency-tolerant approval mechanism, which allows qualified projects to proceed under certain conditions, BeBeBus Ningbo interpreted that it could commence work on all three parcels after acquiring the construction permit for the west annex to the first parcel and subsequently commenced piling work across the entire site prior to the construction permit being formally amended to encompass three parcels. When the construction began on the New Ningbo Facility in November 2024, we had not obtained the requisite construction permit covering the three land parcels other than the west annex to the first parcel. Additionally, at that time, we had not obtained other requisite permits and certificates for the second and third parcels, including the land use right certificate, construction land planning permit, and construction planning permit. In February 2025, the amendment to the construction permit was completed to cover all three parcels.

Latest Status and Remedial Measures

In July 2025, the Comprehensive Administrative Law Enforcement Bureau of Fenghua District (the “Law Enforcement Bureau”) issued a decision not to impose any administrative penalty on BeBeBus Ningbo for the construction work undertaken on the three parcels prior to the permit amendment, thereby relieving BeBeBus Ningbo of any potential financial or punitive liability concerning this construction issue. As advised by the PRC Legal Advisor, (i) the Law Enforcement Bureau is the competent authority to issue the decision, as it holds the authority to impose administrative penalties for construction-related matters, and (ii) based on formal interviews conducted with both the Housing Bureau and the Law Enforcement Bureau, our New Ningbo Facility can proceed with normal construction activities.

As of the Latest Practicable Date, BeBeBus Ningbo has obtained all requisite permits for the construction of the New Ningbo Facility over the three land parcels, including (a) land use right certificate, (b) construction land planning permit, (c) construction planning permit, and (d) construction permit.

To prevent a recurrence of such a procedural deficiency, we have implemented enhanced internal control measures governing project initiation and construction applications, including:

- our designated preparation and construction department is required to formally submit a complete application to the local construction administrative department and provide all required approval documents, including bank-issued credit certificates and approved construction land permits, upon project approval; and
- our internal audit team will continuously monitor the effectiveness of these measures through periodic reviews of control design and rigorous testing of operational compliance.

As of the Latest Practicable Date, no material deficiencies have been identified in the risk assessment processes for construction and property procedural compliance, and the internal control consultant has provided no further comment following a follow-up review regarding the implementation of enhance internal control measures.

RISK MANAGEMENT AND INTERNAL CONTROL

We have devoted ourselves to establishing and maintaining risk management and internal control systems consisting of policies and procedures that we consider to be appropriate for our business operations, and we are dedicated to continuously improving these systems.

We have adopted and implemented comprehensive risk management policies in various aspects of our business operations, such as financial reporting, information system, internal control, human resources and investment management.

Financial Reporting Risk Management

We have in place a set of accounting policies in connection with our financial reporting risk management, including accounting manual, budget management policies, treasury management policies, expense management policies, and employee reimbursement policies. Our system makes timely warning of the risk of cost overruns. We also provide regular training to our finance department employees to ensure that they understand our financial management and accounting policies and implement them during daily operations.

Information System Risk Management

Sufficient maintenance, security and protection of our data and other related information are critical to our business. We have implemented various internal procedures and controls to ensure that our data are protected and to minimize the potential for information leakage or loss. Our operations team and data security team are responsible for monitoring the operation of our information system in real time. They regularly perform data recovery tests and use cyberattack simulations to improve our data protection capability.

Human Resources Risk Management

We have in place an employee handbook and a code of conduct which have been distributed to all of our employees. The handbook contains internal rules and guidelines regarding anti-corruption, conflicts of interests, confidentiality and intellectual property protection, work ethics, and fraud prevention mechanisms. We provide employees with regular training as well as guidance on the requirements contained in the employee handbook.

We have in place an anti-bribery and corruption policy to safeguard against any corruption within our Company. The policy explains potential bribery and corruption conduct and our anti-bribery and corruption measures. We make our internal reporting channel open and available for our employees to report any bribery and corruption acts to the head of internal audit on an anonymous basis.

During the Track Record Period and up to the Latest Practicable Date, we were not aware of any incidents caused by our employees and/or business partners that may materially and adversely affect our reputation and brand image.

Regulatory Compliance Risk Management

We are subject to evolving regulatory requirements across multiple jurisdictions, including requirements to obtain and renew certain licenses, permits, approvals and certificates for our business operations in various jurisdictions. In order to manage our ongoing compliance with the laws and regulations applicable to our business effectively, we have implemented several internal control measures. In particular, we designated personnel to regularly monitor changes in laws, regulations and policies issued by the relevant government authorities in the jurisdictions we operate, to ensure we obtain requisite licenses to operate our business, and we have the up-to-date understanding with the applicable requirements. In addition, we require our legal department to review the status of our licenses and permits on a regular basis.

We continually review the implementation of our regulatory compliance risk management policies and measures to ensure our policies and implementation are effective and sufficient, and continually improve our internal policies according to changes in laws, regulations and industry standards, and update internal protocols for legal documents.

Internal Audit

We maintain an internal audit department which is responsible for reviewing the effectiveness of internal controls and reporting to the Audit Committee and senior management on any issues identified. Our internal audit department members hold regular meetings with management to discuss any internal control issues we face and the corresponding measures to solve such issues. The internal audit department reports to the Audit Committee to ensure that any major issues identified are channeled to the committee on a timely basis. The Audit Committee then discusses the issues with, and reports to, the Board of Directors, if necessary.

RELATIONSHIP WITH OUR CONTROLLING SHAREHOLDERS

OUR CONTROLLING SHAREHOLDERS

Immediately upon the completion of the Global Offering (assuming that the Over-allotment Option is not exercised and without taking into account any Shares which may be allotted and issued pursuant to the exercise of Share Options), WANGBOYAN will hold approximately 46.55% of our total issued Shares. WANGBOYAN is owned by Boyan Holdings as to 65% and WWANG as to 35%. Boyan Holdings is wholly owned by Vistra Trust (Singapore) Pte. Limited, the trustee of the Boyan Family Trust with Mr. Wang as the settlor and protector and WWANG as the beneficiary. WWANG is wholly owned by Mr. Wang. Pursuant to a deed of voting proxy entered into between SLING and WANGBOYAN, WANGBOYAN is also entitled to exercise the voting rights attached to the relevant Shares held by SLING, which represent approximately 5.95% of our total issued Shares immediately upon the completion of the Global Offering (assuming that the Over-allotment Option is not exercised and without taking into account any Shares which may be allotted and issued pursuant to the exercise of Share Options). Accordingly, WANGBOYAN, Boyan Holdings, WWANG, and Mr. Wang constitute a group of controlling Shareholders after the Listing.

INDEPENDENCE FROM OUR CONTROLLING SHAREHOLDERS

Our Directors believe that our Group will be capable of carrying out our business independently from our controlling Shareholders and their respective close associates after the Listing for the reasons set out below.

Operational Independence

We have established our own organizational structure, with each department assigned to specific areas of responsibilities which have been in operation and are expected to continue to operate independently from our controlling Shareholders and their respective close associates. We have independent access to suppliers and customers. We are also in possession of all relevant licenses, assets, copyrights, trademarks, and other intellectual properties necessary to carry on and operate our business. In addition, we have sufficient operational capacity in terms of capital and employees to operate independently.

Based on the above, our Directors believe that our Group will be able to operate independently from our controlling Shareholders and their respective close associates after the Listing.

Management Independence

Upon the Listing, our Board will comprise three executive Directors and three independent non-executive Directors, and our senior management team will comprise three members. Our executive Directors and senior management team are responsible for the daily management of our operations.

RELATIONSHIP WITH OUR CONTROLLING SHAREHOLDERS

Our Directors believe that our Group will be able to function independently from our controlling Shareholders and their respective close associates after the Listing for the following reasons:

- (a) our Board has a balanced composition of executive Directors and independent non-executive Directors. Our independent non-executive Directors are not associated with our controlling Shareholders or their respective close associates, which ensures that decisions of our Board are made only after due consideration of independent and impartial opinions;
- (b) our independent non-executive Directors individually and collectively possess the requisite knowledge, experience, and competence to provide a balance of potentially interested Directors with a view to promote the interests of our Company and our Shareholders as a whole;
- (c) our Company has established internal control mechanisms to identify connected transactions to ensure that our Shareholders or Directors with conflicting interests in a proposed transaction will abstain from voting on the relevant resolutions;
- (d) each of our Directors is aware of his or her fiduciary duties and responsibilities under the Listing Rules as a director of a listed issuer, which require that he or she acts for the benefit and in the best interest of our Company, and does not allow any conflict between his or her duties as a Director and his or her personal interests; and
- (e) if there is a potential conflict of interest arising out of any transaction to be entered into between our Group and our Directors or their respective close associates, the interested Directors are obliged to declare and fully disclose such potential conflict of interests, and shall abstain from voting at the relevant Board meetings in respect of such transactions.

Based on the above, our Directors believe that they will be able to perform their managerial roles in our Company independently from our controlling Shareholders and their respective close associates after the Listing.

Financial Independence

Our Group has its own independent financial, internal control, and accounting systems. We make financial decisions and determine our use of funds according to our own business needs. We opened bank accounts independently and do not share any bank account with our controlling Shareholders or their respective close associates. We made tax filings and paid tax independently of our controlling Shareholders and their respective close associates pursuant to applicable laws and regulations. We established an independent finance department as well as implemented sound and independent audit, accounting, and financial management systems. We have adequate internal resources to support our daily operations. We do not expect to rely on our controlling Shareholders or their respective close associates for financing after the Listing as we expect that our working capital will be funded by our daily operations as well as the proceeds from the Global Offering.

In addition, we are capable of obtaining financing from independent third parties without relying on any guarantee or security provided by our controlling Shareholders or their respective close associates. As of the Latest Practicable Date, there were no subsisting loans, guarantees or pledges provided by our controlling Shareholders or their respective close associates to our Group. In addition, during the Track Record Period and as of the Latest Practicable Date, we had received several rounds of Pre-IPO Investments from third-party investors independently. For details of the Pre-IPO Investments, see “History, Reorganization and Corporate Structure — Pre-IPO Investments.”

Based on the above, our Directors believe that our Group will be able to maintain financial independence from our controlling Shareholders and their respective close associates after the Listing.

COMPETITION

As of the Latest Practicable Date, none of our controlling Shareholders and their respective close associates was interested in any business, other than our Group, which competes or is likely to compete, either directly or indirectly, with our Group’s business and which requires disclosure pursuant to Rule 8.10 of the Listing Rules.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

Our Directors recognize the importance of good corporate governance to protect the interests of our Shareholders. We have adopted the following corporate governance measures to maintain good corporate governance standards and to avoid potential conflict of interests between our Group and our controlling Shareholders and their respective close associates:

- (a) our Company has established internal control mechanisms to identify connected transactions. Upon the Listing, if our Group enters into connected transactions with our controlling Shareholders or their respective close associates, our Company will comply with the applicable requirements under the Listing Rules;
- (b) where a Shareholders’ meeting is to be held to consider proposed transactions in which our controlling Shareholders or their respective close associates have any material interests, our controlling Shareholders and their respective close associates (as applicable) will not vote on the relevant resolutions;

RELATIONSHIP WITH OUR CONTROLLING SHAREHOLDERS

- (c) our Board has a balanced composition of executive Directors and independent non-executive Directors. Our independent non-executive Directors represent more than one-third of our Board, which ensures that our Board is able to effectively exercise independent judgment in its decision-making process and provide independent advice to our Shareholders. Our independent non-executive Directors individually and collectively possess the requisite knowledge, experience, and competence to perform their duties. They will review whether there is any conflict of interests between our Group and our controlling Shareholders or their respective close associates and provide impartial and professional advice to protect the interests of our minority Shareholders;
- (d) where the advice from an independent professional, such as a financial or legal advisor, is reasonably requested by our Directors (including independent non-executive Directors), the appointment of such independent professional will be made at our Company's expenses; and
- (e) we have appointed Somerley Capital Limited as our Compliance Advisor who will provide advice and guidance to us in respect of compliance with the applicable laws and the Listing Rules, including various requirements relating to Directors' duties and corporate governance matters.

Based on the above, our Directors are satisfied that sufficient corporate governance measures have been put in place to manage potential conflict of interests between our Group and our controlling Shareholders and their respective close associates, and to protect our minority Shareholders' rights after the Listing.

CORNERSTONE INVESTORS

THE CORNERSTONE PLACING

We have entered into cornerstone investment agreements (each a “Cornerstone Investment Agreement,” and collectively, the “Cornerstone Investment Agreements”) with the cornerstone investors set out below (each a “Cornerstone Investor,” and collectively, the “Cornerstone Investors”), pursuant to which the Cornerstone Investors have agreed to, subject to certain conditions, subscribe, or cause their designated entities to subscribe, at the Offer Price for such number of Offer Shares (rounded down to the nearest whole board lot of 100 Shares) which may be purchased for an aggregate amount of US$15.0 million (or approximately HK$117.0 million, calculated based on the exchange rate set out in “Information about This Prospectus and the Global Offering — Exchange Rate Conversion”) (exclusive of brokerage, AFRC transaction levy, SFC transaction levy, and Stock Exchange trading fee) (the “Cornerstone Placing”). The number of Offer Shares to be subscribed for by the Cornerstone Investors is subject to the determination of the final Offer Price.

Assuming an Offer Price of HK$62.01 (being the low end of the indicative Offer Price range set out in this prospectus), the total number of Offer Shares to be subscribed by the Cornerstone Investors would be 1,886,100 Offer Shares, representing approximately 17.18% of the Offer Shares pursuant to the Global Offering and 2.08% of the Shares in issue immediately following the completion of the Global Offering (assuming that the Over-allotment Option is not exercised).

Assuming an Offer Price of HK$66.60 (being the mid-point of the indicative Offer Price range set out in this prospectus), the total number of Offer Shares to be subscribed by the Cornerstone Investors would be 1,756,200 Offer Shares, representing approximately 15.99% of the Offer Shares pursuant to the Global Offering and 1.94% of the Shares in issue immediately following the completion of the Global Offering (assuming that the Over-allotment Option is not exercised).

Assuming an Offer Price of HK$71.20 (being the high end of the indicative Offer Price range set out in this prospectus), the total number of Offer Shares to be subscribed by the Cornerstone Investors would be 1,642,500 Offer Shares, representing approximately 14.96% of the Offer Shares pursuant to the Global Offering and 1.81% of the Shares in issue immediately following the completion of the Global Offering (assuming that the Over-allotment Option is not exercised).

Our Company is of the view that, (i) the Cornerstone Placing will ensure a reasonable size of solid commitment at the beginning of the marketing period of the Global Offering and will provide confidence to the market; and (ii) by leveraging on the Cornerstone Investors’ industry reputation and investment experience, the Cornerstone Placing will help raise the profile of our Company and to signify that such investors have confidence in our business and prospect. Our Company became acquainted with each of the Cornerstone Investors through the Capital Markets Intermediaries.

CORNERSTONE INVESTORS

The Cornerstone Placing will form part of the International Offering, and, unless prior consent is obtained from the Stock Exchange, the Cornerstone Investors will not subscribe for any Offer Shares under the Global Offering other than pursuant to the Cornerstone Investment Agreements. The Offer Shares to be subscribed for by the Cornerstone Investors will rank pari passu in all respects with the fully paid Shares in issue following the completion of the Global Offering and will be counted towards the public float of our Company under Rule 8.08 of the Listing Rules.

Immediately following the completion of the Global Offering, (i) none of the Cornerstone Investors or their close associates will become a substantial Shareholder of our Company; (ii) none of the Cornerstone Investors or their close associates will have any Board representation in our Company; and (iii) equity interests in our Company being beneficially owned by the three largest public Shareholders will be less than 50% for the purpose of Rule 8.08(3) of the Listing Rules.

To the best knowledge of our Company, (i) each of the Cornerstone Investors and its ultimate beneficial owners is an independent third party; (ii) none of the Cornerstone Investors is accustomed to take instructions from our Company, the Directors, chief executive, controlling Shareholders, substantial Shareholders, existing Shareholders or any of its subsidiaries or their respective close associates in relation to the acquisition, disposal, voting, or other disposition of Shares registered in its name or otherwise held by it; (iii) none of the subscription of the relevant Offer Shares by the Cornerstone Investors is directly or indirectly financed by our Company, the Directors, chief executive, controlling Shareholders, substantial Shareholders, existing Shareholders or any of its subsidiaries or their respective close associates; and (iv) each of the Cornerstone Investors is independent from each other and makes independent investment decisions.

As confirmed by each of the Cornerstone Investors, (i) their subscription under the Cornerstone Placing would be financed by their own internal resources or the assets managed for its investors (in the case of Cornerstone Investors which are funds or investment managers); (ii) all necessary approvals have been obtained with respect to the Cornerstone Placing and that no specific approval from any stock exchange (if relevant) or its shareholders is required for the relevant cornerstone investment; (iii) other than a guaranteed allocation of the relevant Offer Shares at the final Offer Price, the Cornerstone Investors do not have any preferential rights in the Cornerstone Investment Agreements compared with other public Shareholders; and (iv) there are no side agreements or arrangements between our Company and the Cornerstone Investors or any benefit, direct or indirect, conferred on the Cornerstone Investors by virtue of or in relation to the Listing other than a guaranteed allocation of the relevant Offer Shares at the final Offer Price.

CORNERSTONE INVESTORS

The total number of Offer Shares to be subscribed by the Cornerstone Investors pursuant to the Cornerstone Placing may be affected by reallocation of the Offer Shares between the International Offering and the Hong Kong Public Offering in the event of over-subscription under the Hong Kong Public Offering as described in “Structure of the Global Offering — The Hong Kong Public Offering — Reallocation.” The number of Offer Shares to be subscribed for by each Cornerstone Investor may be deducted on a pro rata basis in accordance with the terms of the Cornerstone Investment Agreements to satisfy the public demands under the Hong Kong Public Offering, after taking into account the requirements under Appendix F1 to the Listing Rules as well as the discretion of the Overall Coordinators (for themselves and on behalf of the Underwriters) to exercise the Over-allotment Option. Details of the actual number of Offer Shares to be allocated to each Cornerstone Investor will be disclosed in the allotment results announcement to be issued by our Company on or around September 22, 2025.

Pursuant to the Cornerstone Investment Agreements, the Overall Coordinators (for themselves and on behalf of the Underwriters) has the discretion to effect a delayed delivery of the Offer Shares to be subscribed for by all of the Cornerstone Investors on a date later than the Listing Date, subject to the conditions contained therein. Such delayed delivery arrangement is in place to facilitate the over-allocation in the International Offering. There will be no delayed delivery if there is no over-allocation in the International Offering. All Cornerstone Investors have agreed to pay for the relevant Offer Shares that they have subscribed for before the Listing. As such, there will be no deferred settlement of the investment amount for the Offer Shares to be subscribed for by the Cornerstone Investors pursuant to the Cornerstone Investment Agreement.

OVERVIEW

We are a China-based company specializing in the design and sale of nursery products. BeBeBus, our first brand introduced in 2019, has become a renowned brand in China's nursery product market, serving mid- to high-end consumers. Within five years, BeBeBus has carved out a space by competing in the mid- to high-end segment, which accounted for 23.6% of the total nursery product market in 2024. According to Frost & Sullivan, BeBeBus ranked second among China's nursery product brands in terms of GMV of mid- to high-end nursery products in 2024, with a market share of 4.2%, underscoring our success and strong market presence. To date, we are extending our footprint into major international markets such as Europe, Southeast Asia, and North America. At the same time, we are working to broaden our portfolio by exploring new family lifestyle scenarios that resonate with modern households.

We have established a proven growth model by initially entering nursery product segments such as strollers, car seats, cribs and highchairs, characterized by product complexity, strong demand, and high transaction value. This strategy allows us to rapidly gain recognition from our target users for both our product excellence and brand image, setting the stage for expansion into a wider range of product categories. After launching our top-selling, highly sought-after core products, we transitioned from a product-driven growth model to a brand-driven one. By introducing additional product types for the relevant parenting scenarios at more accessible price points, we not only diversify revenue streams but also reinforce our brand's strength and enhance our market presence. It demonstrates our ability to enrich offerings and launch popular products by leveraging our brand image. We believe that this established growth model provides a robust foundation for our sustained success in the future, allowing us to adapt and thrive in an ever-evolving marketplace.

We achieved strong financial growth throughout the Track Record Period. We recorded revenue of RMB507.2 million, RMB852.1 million, RMB1,248.9 million, RMB581.9 million and RMB725.8 million, in 2022, 2023 and 2024 and the six months ended June 30, 2024 and 2025, respectively. BASIS OF PREPARATION

Prior to the incorporation of our Company, the principal activities were carried out by BeBeBus Technology and its subsidiaries. To rationalize the corporate structure in preparation of the Listing of our Company's Shares on the Stock Exchange, our Group underwent the reorganization, as detailed in the section headed "History, Reorganization and Corporate Structure." Upon completion of the Reorganization, our Company became the holding company of our Group.

As the Reorganization only involved inserting some newly formed entities with no business operations as the new holding companies of BeBeBus Technology, the former holding company of our Group, there were no changes in the economic substance of the ownership and the business of our Group. Accordingly, the Reorganization has been accounted for using principles similar to those for a reverse acquisition, with BeBeBus Technology treated as the acquirer for accounting purposes. The Historical Financial Information has been prepared and presented as a continuation of the consolidated financial statements of BeBeBus Technology with the assets and liabilities of BeBeBus Technology recognized and measured at their historical carrying amounts prior to the Reorganization. Intra-group balances, transactions and unrealized gains/losses on intra-group transactions are eliminated in full in preparing the Historical Financial Information.

Our historical financial information has been prepared in accordance with all applicable HKFRS Accounting Standard which collective term includes all applicable individual Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards, Hong Kong Accounting Standards and Interpretations issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants ("HKICPA").

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

The HKICPA has issued a number of new and revised HKFRS Accounting Standards in the Track Record Period. For the purpose of preparing our historical financial information, we have adopted all applicable new and amended HKFRS Accounting Standards throughout the Track Record Period except for any new standards or interpretation that are not yet effective for the Track Record Period. The revised and new accounting standards and interpretations issued but not yet effective for the Track Record Period are set out in Note 33 to the Accountants' Report.

FACTORS AFFECTING OUR RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

Our business, results of operations and financial condition have been, and are expected to continue to be, affected by a number of factors, some of which are outside of our control. These factors include, but are not limited to, the following.

General Factors

Our business and results of operations are impacted by general factors affecting nursery product industry, which include:

- overall economic growth in China and major international markets, such as Europe, Southeast Asia and North America;
- change in per capita disposable income and consumer spending on nursery products;
- evolving family structure and change in birth rates;
- evolving consumption patterns and habits of parents;
- continuous growth and competition landscape of the nursery product market targeting mid- to high-end consumers; and
- relevant laws and regulations, governmental policies and initiatives affecting the nursery product industry.

Company-Specific Factors

Our results of operations are also affected by a number of key factors specific to us, which include:

Continuous Product Innovation

All of our revenue during the Track Record Period was generated from the sales of our nursery products. The revenue growth was primarily driven by increased sales of our core products, such as car seats and strollers, as well as the expansion of our product offerings into pajamas, pillows and baby care products. To sustain our growth momentum, we must continue to innovate and develop user-centric products that deliver an exceptional user experience. This includes launching new models with enhanced functionality and features and exploring new product categories that address a wider spectrum of family scenarios. To achieve this, we will continue to invest in consumer understanding, drive product innovation, and expand supply chain resources, which will lead to increased costs and expenses. While we believe that our strong market research and product development capacities have allowed, and will continue to allow, us to offer popular nursery products to the market, we acknowledge the uncertainties surrounding market reception. Therefore, our ability to enhance and enrich product offerings and the success of their sales will have substantial impact on our future revenue and profit margins.

Marketing and Brand Promotion

The recognition and perception of our brand is essential to our success. We have established a high-end brand image for BeBeBus by creating the exceptional appeal of our products for families pursuing quality and style in their parenting life. We partner with influencers to build trust in the parenting community. We engage social media to spark desire. We operate a membership program to foster brand loyalty. In 2022, 2023 and 2024 and the six months ended June 30, 2024 and 2025, our selling and distribution expenses was RMB188.9 million, RMB285.7 million, RMB391.1 million, RMB182.0 million and RMB224.6 million, accounting for 37.2%, 33.5%, 31.3%, 31.3% and 30.9% of our total revenue, respectively. Such increases were largely in line with our business growth and driven by an increased investment in our branding and marketing activities. We will continue to carry on the existing branding and marketing activities as well as take new initiatives, such as forging partnerships with other brands, IPs and celebrities to create co-branded products. We expect the absolute amount of our selling and distribution expenses will continue to increase along with our business growth in the future. However, as we expand the scale and scope of our business, we expect to make continuous improvement to our selling and distribution efficiency and benefit from economies of scale.

Supply Chain Management

Our ability to effectively manage suppliers and integrate resources along our supply chain is the key to our business and the results of operations. Historically, costs of outsourced goods, material costs and transportation fees have collectively accounted for over 90% of our cost of sales. We collaborate with reliable manufacturers to ensure the timely production that meet our stringent quality control requirements. In 2022, 2023 and 2024 and the six months ended June 30, 2024 and 2025, our costs of outsourced goods were RMB171.3 million, RMB281.9 million, RMB447.7 million, RMB210.1 million and RMB280.3 million, respectively, representing 64.6%, 66.4%, 72.2%, 72.6% and 76.3% of the total cost of sales in the same years/periods. We work closely with a network of reliable suppliers to maintain a steady and sufficient supply and directly source specific raw materials through third-party manufacturers as needed, such as plastic, steel, paper, cotton and fabrics. Our material costs amounted to RMB46.5 million, RMB73.6 million, RMB72.2 million, RMB34.7 million and RMB31.5 million in 2022, 2023 and 2024 and the six months ended June 30, 2024 and 2025, representing 17.5%, 17.3%, 11.6%, 12.0% and 8.6% of our total cost of sales in the same years/periods. In addition, we maintain close business relationships with third-party warehouse and logistics providers. We leverage their strong distribution network to achieve a highly efficient delivery from the factories to the consumers. The transportation fees amounted to RMB24.8 million, RMB42.2 million, RMB69.1 million, RMB32.2 million and RMB42.5 million in 2022, 2023 and 2024 and the six months ended June 30, 2024 and 2025, representing 9.3%, 9.9%, 11.1%, 11.1% and 11.6% of our total cost of sales in the same years/periods.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Our ability to effectively control our supply and other production-related costs has affected and will continue to affect our profitability. We aim to further advance our supply chain management capabilities to improve our operation and management efficiencies, and ultimately improve our financial performance.

Global Expansion

We believe our global opportunity is significant. We strategically target key international markets, including Europe, Southeast Asia and North America. As the initiate step in our global expansion, we launched our new website in October 2024 to facilitate our international sales online. To effectively engage overseas consumers, we will continue to develop both online and offline sales channels. For online sales, we will work with global e-commerce platforms such as Amazon. For our offline sales network, we plan to collaborate with local partners who possess in-depth knowledge and extensive resources related to local distribution. We will enhance our sales and marketing efforts, expand our distribution channels, invest in personnel, and if necessary, establish overseas warehouses to support our global expansion. Additionally, since international markets have varying standards for nursery products, we may need to tailor our product offerings to meet local legal requirements and market conditions. Fluctuations in currency exchange rates between Renminbi and foreign currencies used in international markets may impact our financial condition and results of operations.

Seasonality

We have experienced, and we expect to continue to experience, seasonal fluctuations in our business. E-commerce platforms where we sell our products host major shopping events, such as the 618 Shopping Festival and the Double 11 Shopping Festival, which significantly influence market demand. Consequently, during the Track Record Period, we typically recorded higher sales in the second and fourth quarters of the calendar year. As a result, comparisons of our sales and results of operations across different periods within a financial year may not provide a reliable basis for assessing our performance. Seasonal factors specific to the nursery product industry are expected to continue driving fluctuations in our revenue. See “Risk Factors — Risks Relating to Our Business and Industry — Our results of operations may fluctuate due to seasonality, and the results for any period in a year are not necessarily indicative of full-year results” for details.

MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES AND ESTIMATES

We have identified certain accounting policies that are material to the preparation of our consolidated financial statements. Some of our accounting policies involve subjective assumptions and estimates, as well as complex judgments relating to accounting items. In each case, the determination of these items requires management judgments based on information and financial data that may change in future periods. When reviewing our consolidated financial statements, you should consider (i) our selection of critical accounting policies, (ii) the judgment and other uncertainties affecting the application of such policies, and (iii) the sensitivity of reported results to changes in conditions and assumptions.

We set forth below those accounting policies that we believe involve the most significant estimates and judgments used in the preparation of our consolidated financial statements. See Note 3 and Note 4 to the Accountants' Report for a detailed discussion of our material accounting policies, estimates, assumptions and judgments which are important for understanding our financial condition and results of operations.

Revenue Recognition

We classify income as revenue when it arises from the sale of goods or the provision of services in the ordinary course of our business. Further details of our revenue and other income recognition policies are as follows:

Revenue from Contracts with Customers

Revenue is recognized when control over a product is transferred to the customer at the amount of promised consideration to which we expect to be entitled, excluding amounts collected on behalf of third parties such as value-added tax or other sales taxes.

We primarily sell our products to customers through both online and offline channels. Revenue from product sales is recognized at the point in time when control of the product is transferred to the customer, generally upon their acceptance of the product.

We act as the principal for our revenue transactions and recognize revenue on a gross basis, including for the sale of products sourced externally. In determining whether we act as a principal or an agent, we assess whether we obtain control of the products before transferring them to customers. Control refers to our ability to direct the use of and derive substantially all benefits from the products.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

For contracts where we grant customers the option to acquire additional goods (e.g., loyalty points and rebates), we assess whether the option provides a material right to the customer. If it does, we recognize the option as a performance obligation and record revenue when the additional goods are transferred or when the option expires. If the standalone selling price for a customer's option to acquire additional goods is not directly observable, we estimate it, considering all relevant information, including the difference in discounts the customer would receive with or without exercising the option, and the likelihood of the option being exercised.

Other Income

Interest Income

Interest income is recognized as it accrues under the effective interest method using the rate that exactly discounts estimated future cash receipts through the expected life of the financial asset to the gross carrying amount of the financial asset. For financial assets measured at amortized cost are not credit-impaired, the effective interest rate is applied to the gross carrying amount of the asset. For credit-impaired financial assets, the effective interest rate is applied to the amortized cost of the asset.

Government Grants

Government grants are recognized in the statement of financial position initially when there is reasonable assurance that they will be received and that we will comply with the conditions attaching to them. Grants that compensate us for expenses incurred are recognized as income in profit or loss on a systematic basis in the same periods in which the expenses are incurred. Grants that compensate us for the cost of an asset are recognized as deferred income and subsequently recognized in profit or loss on a systematic basis over the useful life of the asset.

Property, Plant and Equipment

Properties, plant and equipment are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses. See Note 12 to the Accountants' Report for further details.

Gains or losses arising from the retirement or disposal of an item of property and equipment are determined as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the item and are recognized in profit or loss on the date of retirement or disposal.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Depreciation is calculated to write off their cost or valuation of items of property, plant and equipment less their estimated residual values, if any, using the straight-line method over their estimated useful lives as follows.

	Estimated useful life
Plant and buildings	20 years
Machinery and equipment	3 to 10 years
Motor vehicles.	4 years
Office and other equipment	3 to 5 years
Leasehold improvement.	2 to 5 years

Where parts of an item of property, plant and equipment have different useful lives, the cost is allocated on a reasonable basis between the parts, and each part is depreciated separately. Both the useful life of an asset and its residual value, if any, are annually.

Construction in progress represents properties under construction and machinery and equipment pending installation and is stated at cost less impairment losses. Cost comprises the purchase costs of the asset and the related construction and installation costs. Construction in progress is transferred to property, plant and equipment when the asset is substantially ready for its intended use and depreciation will be provided at the appropriate rates in accordance with the depreciation policies specified above. No depreciation is provided in respect of construction in progress.

Intangible Assets

Expenditure on research activities is recognized in profit or loss as incurred. Development expenditure is capitalized only if it can be measured reliably, the product or process is technically and commercially feasible, future economic benefits are probable, and we intend to, and have sufficient resources to, complete the development and use or sell the resulting asset. Otherwise, it is recognized in profit or loss as incurred.

Other intangible assets, including software and patents, that are acquired by us and have finite useful lives are measured at cost less accumulated amortization and any accumulated impairment losses. See Note 14 to the Accountants' Report for further details.

Amortization is calculated to write off the cost of intangible assets less their estimated residual values using the straight-line method over their estimated useful lives, if any, and is generally recognized in profit or loss.

The estimated useful lives for the current and comparative periods are as follows:

Software	3 to 5 years
Patents.	5 to 15 years

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

The estimates and associated assumptions of useful life of software determined by us are based on technical and commercial obsolescence, legal or contractual limits on the use of the asset and other relevant factors. Based on the current functionalities equipped by the software and the daily operation needs, we consider a useful life of three to ten years to be their best estimation.

Patents are capitalized based on the costs incurred to acquire and make them operational. We estimate the useful lives of patents as the shorter of the remaining validity period of the patents or the expected lifespan of the respective products utilizing the patents.

Amortization methods, useful lives and residual values are reviewed at each reporting date and adjusted if appropriate.

Lease Assets

At inception of a contract, we assess whether the contract is, or contains, a lease. This is the case if the contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration. Control is conveyed where the customer has both the right to direct the use of the identified asset and to obtain substantially all of the economic benefits from that use.

As a Lessee

Where the contract contains lease component(s) and non-lease component(s), we have elected not to separate non-lease components and accounts for each lease component and any associated non-lease components as a single lease component for all leases.

At the lease commencement date, we recognize a right-of-use asset and a lease liability, except for leases that have a short lease term of 12 months or less. and leases of low-value items such as laptops and office furniture. When we enter into a lease in respect of a low-value item, we decide whether to capitalize the lease on a lease-by-lease basis. If not capitalized, the associated lease payments are recognized in profit or loss on a systematic basis over the lease term.

Where the lease is capitalized, the lease liability is initially recognized at the present value of the lease payments payable over the lease term, discounted using the interest rate implicit in the lease or, if that rate cannot be readily determined, using a relevant incremental borrowing rate. After initial recognition, the lease liability is measured at amortized cost and interest expense is recognized using the effective interest method. Variable lease payments that do not depend on an index or rate are not included in the measurement of the lease liability and are charged to profit or loss as incurred.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

The right-of-use asset recognized when a lease is capitalized is initially measured at cost which comprises the initial amount of the lease liability adjusted for any lease payments made at or before the commencement date, plus any initial direct costs incurred and an estimate of costs to dismantle and remove the underlying asset or to restore the underlying asset or the site on which it is located, less any lease incentives received. The right-of-use asset is subsequently stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses. See Note 13 to the Accountants' Report for further details.

The lease liability is remeasured when there is a change in future lease payments arising from a change in an index or rate, if there is a change in our estimate of the amount expected to be payable under a residual value guarantee, or if we change its assessment of whether it will exercise a purchase, extension or termination option. When the lease liability is remeasured in this way, a corresponding adjustment is made to the carrying amount of the right-of-use asset or is recorded in profit or loss if the carrying amount of the right-of-use asset has been reduced to zero.

The lease liability is also remeasured when there is a lease modification, which means a change in the scope of a lease or the consideration for a lease that is not originally provided in the lease contract, if such modification is not accounted for as a separate lease. In this case, the lease liability is remeasured based on the revised lease payments and lease term using a revised discount rate at the effective date of the modification.

In the consolidated statement of financial position, the current portion of long-term lease liabilities is determined as the present value of contractual payments that are due to be settled within 12 months after the reporting period.

Inventories

Inventories are assets which are held for sale in the ordinary course of business, in the process of production for such sale or in the form of materials or supplies to be consumed in the production process or in the rendering of services. Inventories are measured at the lower of cost and net realizable value. Cost is calculated using the weighted average cost formula and comprises all costs of purchase, costs of conversion and other costs incurred in bringing the inventories to their present location and condition. Net realizable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business less the estimated costs of completion and the estimated costs necessary to make the sale. When inventories are sold, the carrying amount of those inventories is recognized as an expense in the period in which the related revenue is recognized.

The amount of any write-down of inventories to net realizable value and all losses of inventories are recognized as an expense in the period the write-down or loss occurs. The amount of any reversal of any write-down of inventories is recognized as a reduction in the amount of inventories recognized as an expense in the period in which the reversal occurs.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Accounting Estimates and Judgments

The significant sources of estimation uncertainty in the process of applying our accounting policies are as follows:

Net Realizable Value of Inventories

Net realizable value of inventories is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business, less the estimated costs to completion and selling expenses. These estimates are based on the current market condition and our historical experience with selling products of a similar nature. These estimates could significantly as a result of changes in consumer preferences and competitor actions in response to serve industry cycles. Management reassesses these estimates at the end of each period within the Track Record Period.

Depreciation and Amortization

Property, plant and equipment, right-of-use assets and intangible assets are depreciated on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful lives of the assets. We review the estimated useful lives of the assets regularly in order to determine the amount of depreciation or amortization expense to be recorded during the Track Record Period. The useful lives are based on our historical experience with similar assets. The depreciation expense for future periods is adjusted if there are material changes from previous estimates.

Fair Value of Share-Based Payments

We have granted Share Options to a Director and certain employees. We have used binomial option-pricing model to determine the total fair value of the Share Options granted. Significant estimate on assumptions, such as the underlying equity value, risk-free interest rate, expected volatility and dividend yield, is required to be made by us in applying the binomial option-pricing model.

Recognition of Deferred Tax Assets

Deferred tax assets related to tax losses carried forward and deductible temporary differences are recognized and measured based on the expected manner of realization or settlement of the carrying amounts of the relevant assets and liabilities, using tax rates enacted or substantively enacted as of the reporting date. In determining the carrying amounts of deferred tax assets, we estimate expected taxable profits, which involves various assumptions about our operating environment and requires a significant level of judgment by our Directors. Any changes in these assumptions or judgments could affect the carrying amounts of deferred tax assets and, consequently, our net profit in future years.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Warranty Provisions

We make provisions for warranties on product sales based on our recent claim experience. However, since we are continually upgrading our product designs and launching new models, it is possible that recent claim experience may not accurately predict future claims related to past sales. Any adjustments to the warranty provisions would impact profit or loss in future years.

NON-HKFRS MEASURES

In order to supplement our consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income, which is presented in accordance with HKFRS Accounting Standards, we use adjusted net profit for the year/period (non-HKFRS measure), EBITDA (non-HKFRS measure) and adjusted EBITDA (non-HKFRS measure) as additional financial measures, which are not required by, or presented in accordance with HKFRS Accounting Standards to evaluate our operating performance.

We believe that these non-HKFRS measures help identify underlying trends in our business and provide useful information for investors and others to understand and evaluate our results of operation. However, adjusted net profit for the year/period (non-HKFRS measure) EBITDA (non-HKFRS measure) and adjusted EBITDA (non-HKFRS measure) have material limitations as analytical tools. When assessing our operating and financial performance, you should not consider these non-HKFRS measures in isolation from or as substitutes for financial performance metrics that is calculated in accordance with HKFRS Accounting Standards. The term “adjusted net profit for the year/period (non-HKFRS measure)”, “EBITDA (non-HKFRS measure)” and “adjusted EBITDA (non-HKFRS measure)” are not defined under HKFRS Accounting Standards and may not be comparable to other similarly named measures used by other companies.

We define adjusted net profit for the year/period (non-HKFRS measure) as (loss)/profit for the year/period adjusted for (i) listing expenses, (ii) equity-settled share-based payment expenses, and (iii) interest on redeemable Preferred Shares. Listing expenses primarily include professional fees incurred in connection with the Listing and the Global Offering. Equity-settled share-based payment expenses represent non-cash expenses related to the granting of Share Options to eligible individuals under the Share Incentive Plan. See Note 28 to the Accountants’ Report for details. Interest on redeemable Preferred Shares represents interest on our Series A, Series A+ and Series B Preferred Shares. See Note 27 to the Accountants’ Report for details. We define adjusted EBITDA (non-HKFRS measure) as (loss)/profit for the year/period adjusted for (i) depreciation of property, plant and equipment, (ii) depreciation of right-of-use assets, (iii) amortization of intangible assets, (iv) finance costs, (v) interest income and (vi) income tax. We define adjusted EBITDA (non-HKFRS measure) as EBITDA (non-HKFRS measure) adjusted by listing expenses and equity-settled share-based payments.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

We recorded a net loss of RMB21.2 million in 2022, followed by a net profit of RMB27.2 million in 2023, RMB58.5 million in 2024, RMB28.2 million in the six months ended June 30, 2024 and RMB48.5 million in the six months ended June 30, 2025. Our relatively low net loss in 2022 was primarily due to (i) the low gross profit rate in relation to the limited product range, low pricing and market entry of certain products via complimentary and trial-size packs; and (ii) a relatively high proportion of selling expenses in order to expand distribution channels, enhance brand awareness and reach a broader customer base. The increase in revenue, net profit and adjusted net profit for the year/period (non-HKFRS measure) in 2023, 2024 and the six months ended June 30, 2024 and 2025 was mainly driven by an increase in sales revenue resulting from stronger brand recognition and a broader SKU portfolio.

DESCRIPTION OF MAJOR COMPONENTS OF RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

Revenue

In 2022, 2023 and 2024 and the six months ended June 30, 2024 and 2025, we generated revenue of RMB507.2 million, RMB852.1 million, RMB1,248.9 million, RMB581.9 million and RMB725.8 million, respectively. Geographically, we generated 99.4%, 99.9%, 99.9%, 99.9% and 99.9% of our revenue in mainland China in 2022, 2023 and 2024 and the six months ended June 30, 2024 and 2025.

Revenue by Product Type

During the Track Record Period, we generated all of our revenue from sales of products, including: (i) travel gear such as strollers and accessories, car seats and baby carriers, (ii) sleep gear such as cribs, pajamas and pillows, (iii) feeding gear such as highchairs and tableware, and (iv) baby care products such as diapers and wipes. Our revenue represents the net value of goods sold, after deduction of value-added taxes, allowances for goods returned, and rebates and discounts.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

During the Track Record Period, the significant growth in baby care products was primarily driven by the strategic expansion of our online sales channels and an enriched product portfolio. Specifically, the online sales volume of our baby care products increased from 17.5 million units in 2022 to 95.4 million units in 2023, further to 162.6 million units in 2024, and increased from 73.2 million units in the six months ended June 30, 2024 to 107.3 million units in the six months ended June 30, 2025. Additionally, the number of SKUs of baby care products increased from 142 in 2022 to 188 in 2023, further to 254 in 2024, and reached 290 in the six months ended June 30, 2025. We are strategically broadening our fast-moving baby care product portfolio to complement our durable nursery offerings, which not only drives recurring revenue but also accelerates our inventory turnover and supports stronger cash flow. While baby care product sales have grown significantly during the Track Record Period, this does not indicate a shift in our business focus from durable nursery products to consumables. All of our product lines synergize to support our commitment of delivering high-quality products and driving long-term growth.

To sustain this growth, we have implemented several measures, which include (i) developing private domain platforms and leveraging our membership system to encourage repeat purchases; (ii) collaborating with key accounts to create experiential retail environments and building brand trust; and (iii) introducing a product segmentation strategy with our Platinum+, Zero+, Gold+ and Shea+ series, each catering to key accounts, JD.com and Douyin, respectively, while our Sports+ series driving traffic across all channels.

Revenue by Sales Channel

We sell our products through an extensive and diverse sales network integrating offline and online channels to reach a wide range of consumers. Our online channels cover mainstream e-commerce platforms and private domain platforms in China. Our offline channels primarily comprise sales to distributors and key accounts, such as major baby and kids retailers. See “Business — Our Sales Network” for details.

The following table sets forth a breakdown of revenue, gross profit and gross profit margin by sales channel for the years/periods indicated.

Note:

(1) For online channels, our self-operated stores and private domains sell products directly to consumers, whereas for platform-operated stores, we sell products to the platforms first, and they then sell them to consumers.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Revenue from Online Channels

Online channels are our primary source of revenue, contributing 82.2%, 74.7%, 75.0%, 74.3% and 73.2%, of our total revenue in 2022, 2023 and 2024 and the six months ended June 30, 2024 and 2025, respectively. As part of our marketing strategy, we reach consumers across various online scenarios.

E-commerce platforms. We primarily sell through e-commerce platforms such as Tmall, JD.com, Douyin, VIP.com, Pinduoduo and Kuaishou, which offer a vast range of products to meet the diverse needs of consumers. Our online sales from e-commerce platforms come through two main channels: (i) self-operated stores on major platforms such as Tmall, JD.com, Douyin, VIP.com, Pinduoduo and Kuaishou, and (ii) sales to platform-operated stores, including JD.com's official store and VIP.com's official store. During the Track Record Period, the increase in our revenue generated from e-commerce platforms was primarily driven by the combination of the growing recognition of our BeBeBus brand, the increasing popularity of our products, and the targeted marketing that drove traffic to our stores and increased conversion rate. The decrease in our revenue generated from e-commerce platforms as a percentage of our total revenue during the Track Record Period was primarily due to our efforts to diversify our sales channels and the rapid growth through other online and offline channels.

Private domain. Our private domain includes Weixin mini program and Weixin channels. The increase in revenue generated from our private domain was largely attributed to, in addition to growing brand recognition, our active engagement with members through Weixin. This engagement was strengthened through after-sales customer support, complimentary parenting consultation services and exclusive promotions, all of which fostered customer loyalty and supported revenue growth.

Revenue from Offline Channels

Our offline sales network effectively complements our digital e-commerce experience. During the Track Record Period, offline channels contributed 17.8%, 25.3%, 25.0%, 25.7% and 26.8%, of our total revenue in 2022, 2023 and 2024 and the six months ended June 30, 2024 and 2025, respectively.

Distributors. We leverage distributors' in-depth understanding of local markets and established local resources to expand our offline presence and increase market penetration. During the Track Record Period, all revenue generated from our distribution channel was attributable to domestic distributors. In the six months ended June 30, 2025, we partnered with 175 distributors in China and three distributors overseas. The increase in our revenue generated from distributors during the Track Record Period was primarily due to our efforts to expand our distributor network and optimize our distribution terms which supported increased sales volumes among distributors.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Key accounts. We partner with major baby and kids retailers, among others, to connect more effectively with families. We refer these partners as our key accounts. The increase in our revenue generated from key accounts during the Track Record Period was primarily due to the growing recognition of our BeBeBus brand, the increasing popularity of our products, and the increase in sales of our core products.

Cost of Sales

Our cost of sales consists primarily of (i) costs of outsourced goods, including costs related to collaboration with qualified third-party manufacturers for production, (ii) material costs, primarily related to the production of car seats and highchairs at our in-house production facilities, (iii) transportation fees, mainly for product distribution and delivery, (iv) depreciation and amortization, primarily associated with our production facilities, and (v) staff costs, including salaries, bonuses, social insurance contributions, housing provident funds, and other employee benefits for personnel at our production facility.

Our cost of sales was RMB265.4 million, RMB424.8 million, RMB619.8 million, RMB289.6 million and RMB367.3 million, in 2022, 2023 and 2024 and the six months ended June 30, 2024 and 2025, respectively, accounting for 52.3%, 49.8%, 49.6%, 49.8% and 50.6% of the total revenue in the same years/periods. The significant increase in the cost of sales in absolute amount during the Track Record Period reflected the significant growth of our business.

The following table sets forth a breakdown of our cost of sales by nature in absolute amount and as a percentage of our total cost of sales for the years/periods indicated.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

The proportion of our costs of outsourced goods to total cost of sales increased from 64.6% in 2022 to 66.4% in 2023, and further to 72.2% in 2024 and 76.3% for the six months ended June 30, 2025, primarily due to the continuous growth in sales of our baby care products throughout the Track Record Period, the production of which primarily relies on third-party manufacturers.

The proportion of our material costs to total cost of sales decreased from 12.0% for the six months ended June 30, 2024 to 8.6% for the six months ended June 30, 2025, primarily due to (i) a decline in sales volume of our car seats during the period, and (ii) our prioritization of the clearance of prior-year inventories, resulting in reduced procurement and consumption of raw materials.

Gross Profit and Gross Profit Margin

In 2022, 2023 and 2024 and the six months ended June 30, 2024 and 2025, our gross profit was RMB241.8 million, RMB427.3 million, RMB629.1 million, RMB292.3 million and RMB358.5 million, respectively. Our gross profit margin was 47.7%, 50.2%, 50.4%, 50.2% and 49.4% for the corresponding years/periods.

In 2022, 2023 and 2024 and the six months ended June 30, 2024 and 2025, our gross profit margins for online channels were 49.9%, 52.9%, 53.9%, 54.8% and 54.0%, respectively, whereas those for offline channels were 37.2%, 42.0%, 39.8%, 37.0% and 36.9%, respectively.

The relatively higher gross profit margins from online channels were driven by several factors. Sales through our self-operated stores on e-commerce platforms and private domain platforms are direct-to-consumer, which enable us to retain a greater portion of the transaction value compared to wholesale offline channels. Although platform-operated stores on e-commerce platforms do not generate full retail margins, they still deliver relatively high profitability owing to lower distribution costs and operational efficiency. In particular, the strong performance of our SKUs and marketing-led campaigns on leading e-commerce platforms contribute to high sell-through and more favorable unit economics.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

By contrast, offline sales are conducted through wholesale pricing to distributors and key accounts, which inherently result in lower margins as value is shared with channel intermediaries. In addition, to support sell-in and sell-through in offline retail, we may offer channel-specific discounts and promotional support depending on purchase volume, distributor margins, average market prices, marketing and promotional costs and designated distribution areas. See “Business — Pricing.”

Income Tax

Our income tax increased significantly from RMB8.8 million in 2022 to RMB33.5 million in 2023. Our effective income tax rate (calculated as income tax expense divided by profit before taxation) was (70.8%) in 2022 and 55.2% in 2023, primarily due to (i) the growth of our profit before income tax, as we began generating profits in 2023, (ii) an increase in interest expenses related to redeemable Preferred Shares and non-deductible marketing and promotion expenses in 2023, which are non-deductible for tax purposes, and (iii) one of our subsidiaries, BeBeBus Technology, ceased to qualify for preferential corporate income tax rates in 2023. See Note 8 to the Accountants' Report for further details.

Loss/Profit for the Year

As a result of the foregoing, we recorded a loss of RMB21.2 million in 2022 and a profit of RMB27.2 million in 2023.

The following table sets forth a breakdown of the net book value of our property, plant and equipment of the dates indicated.

	As of December 31,			As of June 30,
	2022	2023	2024	2025
	(RMB in thousands)
Plant and buildings	12,032	21,771	20,659	20,103

Our property, plant and equipment increased from RMB31.6 million as of December 31, 2022 to RMB48.5 million as of December 31, 2023, primarily due to (i) an increase in plant and buildings from RMB12.0 million as of December 31, 2022 to RMB21.8 million as of December 31, 2023, mainly in relation to the purchase of new office in Kunshan, and (ii) an increase in leasehold improvement from RMB1.5 million as of December 31, 2022 to RMB9.1 million as of December 31, 2023, mainly in relation to the leasehold of plant and buildings in Shanghai, Ningbo and Kunshan. The increase was partially offset by a decrease in machinery and equipment, primarily resulting from the depreciation of machinery and equipment. Our property, plant and equipment increased from RMB48.5 million as of December 31, 2023 to

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

RMB56.8 million as of December 31, 2024, primarily due to an increase in machinery and equipment from RMB9.6 million as of December 31, 2023 to RMB14.2 million as of December 31, 2024, mainly due to the transfer of certain molds from construction in progress to fixed assets upon reaching their intended use, partially offset by a decrease in leasehold improvements from RMB9.1 million as of December 31, 2023 to RMB7.2 million as of December 31, 2024, due to the amortization of office and store decoration costs. Our property, plant and equipment increased by 39.5% from RMB56.8 million as of December 31, 2024 to RMB79.2 million as of June 30, 2025, primarily driven by an increase in construction in progress from RMB10.5 million as of December 31, 2024 to RMB34.5 million as of June 30, 2025, mainly attributable to capitalized expenditures related to our New Ningbo Facility.

Right-of-use Assets

Our right-of-use assets mainly comprise leased properties for our own use. We had right-of-use assets of RMB8.2 million, RMB14.2 million, RMB45.3 million and RMB43.0 million as of December 31, 2022, 2023 and 2024 and June 30, 2025, respectively. Our right-of-use assets increased from RMB8.2 million as of December 31, 2022 to RMB14.2 million as of December 31, 2023, primarily due to an increase in leasehold properties in Shanghai and Ningbo, Zhejiang. Our right-of-use assets increased from RMB14.2 million as of December 31, 2023 to RMB45.3 million as of December 31, 2024, primarily due to the purchase of land use rights in Ningbo and the renewal of lease agreements for existing production facilities. Our right-of-use assets decreased by 5.0% from RMB45.3 million as of December 31, 2024 to RMB43.0 million as of June 30, 2025, mainly due to depreciation recognized during the period.

The following table sets forth a breakdown of our right-of-use assets for the years/periods indicated:

	As of December 31,			As of June 30,

Our deferred tax assets mainly arise from financial assets measured at FVTPL, deductible losses and lease liabilities. We had deferred tax assets of RMB22.2 million, RMB25.2 million, RMB25.7 million and RMB26.6 million as of December 31, 2022, 2023 and 2024 and June 30, 2025, respectively. Our deferred tax assets increased from RMB22.2 million as of December 31, 2022 to RMB25.2 million as of December 31, 2023, primarily due to deductible temporary differences arising from deductible losses. Our deferred tax assets remained relatively stable from RMB25.2 million as of December 31, 2023 to RMB25.7 million as of December 31, 2024, and increased to RMB26.6 million as of June 30, 2025, mainly due to deductible temporary differences arising from unrealized profits at period-end.

Inventories

Our inventories consist of (i) raw materials, primarily including raw materials and subcontracting materials in our production facility in Ningbo, (ii) work in progress, mainly including car seats and highchairs during production in our Ningbo production facility, and (iii) finished goods. Under our inventory management policies, we regularly monitor and analyze our historical procurement, inventory level and projected usage of our inventories to meet the demand of our customers in the ordinary course of our business. See “Business — Production Facilities — Inventory Control” for details. Finished goods represented a significant portion of our inventories, accounting for 69.1%, 88.1%, 87.9% and 85.8% of our total inventories, respectively, as of December 31, 2022, 2023, 2024 and June 30, 2025.

The following table sets forth our inventories as of the date indicated.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Our inventories increased by 15.7% from RMB52.8 million as of December 31, 2022 to RMB61.1 million as of December 31, 2023, primarily due to an increase in finished goods from RMB36.5 million as of December 31, 2022 to RMB53.8 million as of December 31, 2023, in the anticipation of the increasing demand for our products, which was also in line with our sales volume growth. Our inventories increased by 61.4% from RMB61.1 million as of December 31, 2023 to RMB98.6 million as of December 31, 2024, primarily due to an increase in the stock of finished goods in the anticipation of the increasing demand for our products, which was in line with the growth of sales volume and the expansion of our product offerings. Our inventories decreased by 36.9% from RMB98.6 million as of December 31, 2024 to RMB62.2 million as of June 30, 2025, mainly due to an increase in sales volumes during the mid-year promotional campaign, which resulted in inventory drawdowns across our product lines.

The following table sets forth the number of our inventories turnover days for the years/periods indicated.

	2022	2023	2024	2025

Our inventory turnover days were 58, 49, 47 and 39 in 2022, 2023 and 2024 and the six months ended June 30, 2025, respectively. Our inventories turnover days decreased from 58 days in 2022 to 49 days in 2023, primarily due to an increase in sales volume in 2023, resulting in a quicker inventory turnover. Our inventories turnover days decreased from 49 days in 2023 to 47 days in 2024, and further down to 39 days in the six months ended June 30, 2025, primarily due to improved inventory management and optimization of stock levels. The consistent improvement in inventory turnover days across all product categories during the Track Record Period was primarily driven by the increasing sales contribution of baby care products, which exhibit a faster sell-through rate and shorter inventory cycle compared to other types of products, particularly durable products.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Note:

- (1) The amounts due from related parties are non-trade in nature and are expected to be settled before the Listing. See Note 32(d) to the Accountants' Report included in Appendix I for further details.

Our trade receivables, net of loss allowance, increased from RMB12.9 million as of December 31, 2022 to RMB26.7 million as of December 31, 2023, primarily due to an increase in trade receivables from an e-commerce platform customer and one of our key accounts, partially offset by a decrease in trade receivables from another key account. Prepayments decreased from RMB12.2 million as of December 31, 2022 to RMB8.8 million as of December 31, 2023, primarily due to a decrease in the prepayments for purchase of raw material and merchandise, driven mainly by the recovery of certain mold development fees prepaid to suppliers in 2022.

Our trade and other receivables further increased to RMB64.1 million as of December 31, 2024, primarily due to a significant increase in prepayments from RMB8.8 million as of December 31, 2023 to RMB18.5 million as of December 31, 2024, resulting from an increased marketing prepayments as we continued to enhance market promotions to support business growth. All of the trade and other receivables are expected to be recovered or recognized as expenses within one year.

Our trade and other receivables further increased to RMB100.6 million as of June 30, 2025, mainly due to a significant increase in trade receivables from RMB31.4 million as of December 31, 2024 to RMB71.5 million as of June 30, 2025, resulting from sales growth during the mid-year promotional campaign.

The following table sets forth our trade receivables turnover days for the years/periods indicated.

Note:

- (1) Average turnover days of trade receivables are equal to the average of the beginning and ending net trade receivable balances of a year divided by revenue for that year and multiplied by the number of days in the relevant year.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Our trade receivables turnover days remained stable, which was eight days in 2022, 2023 and 2024 and increased to 13 days in the six months ended June 30, 2025, mainly due to the sales growth to e-commerce platforms, which have relatively longer credit terms compared to other types of customers, during mid-year sales promotions.

The following table sets forth an aging analysis of our trade and other receivables, based on the date of revenue recognition, as of the dates indicated.

Our trade and other payables increased to RMB167.4 million as of December 31, 2024, and further increased to RMB199.9 million as of June 30, 2025, primarily due to the increased external procurement to support increased sales volume. Our trade payables turnover days decreased from 74 days in 2022 to 49 days in 2023, to 42 days in 2024, primarily attributable to our improved inventory management capabilities that optimized inventory levels and kept them from rising in line with sales growth. Our trade payable turnover days further increased to 52 days in the six months ended June 30, 2025, primarily due to seasonal fluctuations in procurement and payment cycles tied to major marketing campaigns.

The following table sets forth an aging analysis of our trade and other payables, based on the invoice date, as of the dates indicated.

The contract liability in respect of unredeemed customer loyalty points will be recognized as revenue when the points are redeemed by those customers or expire, which is expected to occur before the end of the following year based on the expiry terms of the loyalty points.

Our total current liabilities increased from RMB162.3 million as of December 31, 2022 to RMB175.0 million as of December 31, 2023, primarily due to the increase of our trade and other payables, and income tax payables, which was partially offset by the decrease of our bank loans.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

Sources of Liquidity and Working Capital

Our primary use of cash is to fund our working capital requirements and other recurring expenses. During the Track Record Period, we have financed our operations primarily through cash generated from our operating activities and debt financing activities. In the foreseeable future, we believe that our liquidity requirements will be satisfied with a combination of cash flow generated from our operating activities, the net proceeds received from the Global Offering, and other funds raised from the capital markets from time to time. We will closely monitor the level of our working capital, and diligently review future cash flow requirements and adjust our operation and expansion plans, if necessary, to ensure that we maintain sufficient working capital to support our business operations. Our cash and cash equivalents were RMB49.7 million, RMB118.7 million, RMB217.1 million and RMB201.2 million as of December 31, 2022, 2023 and 2024 and June 30, 2025, respectively.

DIVIDEND

As advised by our Cayman Islands legal advisor, under Cayman Islands law, a position of accumulated losses does not necessarily restrict our Company from declaring and paying dividends to our Shareholders out of either our profit or our share premium account, provided this appears to the Board to be justified by the financial conditions and the profits of the Company and would not result in our Company being unable to pay its debts as they fall due in the ordinary course of business immediately following the date on which the dividend is proposed to be paid.

We do not maintain a formal dividend policy or have a fixed dividend distribution ratio. During the Track Record Period, we did not declare or distribute any dividend. We have no present plan to pay any dividends on our Shares in the foreseeable future. We intend to retain most, if not all, of our available funds and any future earnings to operate and expand our business.

As we are a holding company incorporated under the laws of the Cayman Islands, the payment and amount of any future dividends will also depend on the availability of dividends received from our subsidiaries. FINANCIAL RISKS

Our activities are exposed to a variety of financial risks, including credit risks, liquidity risks and interest rate risks. Our overall risk management strategy focuses on the unpredictability of financial markets and seeks to minimize potential adverse effects on our financial performance. Our operation management is responsible for the risk management. See Note 30 to the Accountants' Report.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Credit Risk

Credit risk mainly arises from cash and cash equivalents, trade receivables and other receivables.

In respect of trade receivables, we have established a credit risk management policy under which individual credit evaluations are performed on all customers requiring credit over a certain amount. These evaluations focus on the customer's past history of making payments when due and current ability to pay, and take into account information specific to the customer as well as pertaining to the economic environment in which the customer operates. Trade receivables are due within 30 to 90 days from the date of billing. Normally, we do not obtain collateral from debtors.

Our exposure to credit risk on trade receivables is influenced mainly by the individual characteristics of each customer rather than the industry in which the customers operate and therefore significant concentrations of credit risk primarily arise when we have significant exposure to individual debtors. As of December 31, 2022, 2023 and 2024 and June 30, 2025, 71%, 67%, 78% and 71% of total receivables were due from our largest customer in each year/period during the Track Record Period and 100%, 99%, 98% and 98% of the total trade receivables were due from our five largest customers in each year/period during the Track Record Period.

We measure loss allowances for trade receivables at an amount equal to lifetime ECLs, which is calculated using a provision matrix. As our historical credit loss experience does not indicate significantly different loss patterns for different customer segments, the loss allowance based on past due status is not further distinguished between our different customer bases.

Credit risk in respect of other receivables is limited since the balance mainly includes prepayments, deposits, value-added-tax recoverable, and amounts due from related parties. We have assessed that during the Track Record Period, other receivables have not had a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition. Thus, a 12-month expected credit loss approach that results from possible default event within 12 months of each reporting date is adopted by management. We do not expect any losses from nonperformance by the counterparties of other receivables and no loss allowance provision for other receivables was recognized.

Our exposure to credit risk arising from cash and cash equivalents is limited because the counterparties are banks and financial institutions with high-credit quality, for which we consider having low credit risk.

Liquidity Risk

In management of liquidity risk, our policy is to regularly monitor its liquidity requirements and its compliance with lending covenants, to ensure that it maintains sufficient reserves of cash and adequate committed lines of funding from major financial institutions to meet its liquidity requirements in the short and longer term. Historically, we have relied principally on both operational sources of cash and non-operational sources of equity and debt financing to fund its operations and business development.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

We considered historical cash requirements, working capital and capital expenditures plans, estimated cash flows provided by operations, existing cash on hand as well as other key factors, including utilization of credit facilities granted by financial institutions.

The following tables show the remaining contractual maturities at the end of each reporting year of our Group's financial liabilities, which are based on contractual undiscounted cash flows including interest payments computed using contractual rates or, if floating, based on rates current at the reporting date, and the earliest date our Group and can be required to pay.

Interest Rate Risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates. Our interest rate risk arises primarily from bank loans. Borrowings issued at fixed rates expose us to fair value interest rate risk.

Interest Rate Sensitivity

The sensitivity analyses below have been determined based on the exposure to interest rates at the end of each reporting period. The analysis is prepared assuming the financial instruments outstanding at the end of reporting period were outstanding for the whole year. A 50-basis point increase or decrease in bank loans are used when reporting interest rate risk internally to key management personnel and represents management's assessment of the reasonably possible change in interest rates.

If interest rates had been 50 basis point higher/lower and all other variables were held constant, our Group's post-tax profit for the year ended December 31, 2022 and 2023 and 2024 and the six months ended June 30, 2025, would decrease/increase by RMB1.2 million, RMB1.1 million, RMB1.2 million and RMB0.6 million respectively. This is mainly attributable to our Group's exposure to interest rates on its bank loans, lease liabilities and redeemable Preferred Shares.

Currency Risk

Our Group's businesses are principally conducted in Renminbi and most of our Group's monetary assets and liabilities are denominated in Renminbi. Accordingly, the Directors consider our Group's exposure to foreign currency risk is not significant.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

OFF-BALANCE SHEET COMMITMENTS AND ARRANGEMENTS

During the Track Record Period and up to the Latest Practicable Date, we did not have any material off-balance sheet commitments or arrangements.

MATERIAL RELATED-PARTY TRANSACTIONS

We enter into transactions with our related parties from time to time during our ordinary course of business and on terms comparable to the terms of transactions with other entities that are not related parties, details of which are set forth in Note 32 of the Accountants' Report.

Our Directors believe that each of the related party transactions set out in Note 32 to the Accountants' Report was conducted on an arm's-length basis and would not distort our track record results or make our historical results not reflective of our future performance.

LISTING EXPENSES

Our listing expenses mainly include underwriting-related expenses, professional fees paid to legal advisers and the Reporting Accountants for their services rendered in relation to the Listing and the Global Offering. The estimated total listing expenses (based on the mid-point of our indicative price range for the Global Offering and assuming that the Over-allotment Option is not exercised) for the Global Offering are approximately RMB63.4 million (equivalent to approximately HK$69.6 million), representing 9.5% of the gross IPO proceeds. The estimated total listing expenses consist of (i) underwriting-related expenses (including but not limited to commissions and fees) of approximately RMB23.3 million (approximately HK$25.6 million), and (ii) non-underwriting related expenses of approximately RMB40.1 million (approximately HK$44.0 million), which consist of fees and expenses of legal advisors and Reporting Accountants of approximately RMB23.2 million (approximately HK$25.4 million), and other fees and expenses of approximately RMB16.9 million (approximately HK$18.6 million). Approximately RMB27.6 million (equivalent to approximately HK$30.3 million) of the estimated listing expense is directly attributable to the issue of new shares. During the Track Record Period, we incurred listing expenses of RMB19.7 million (equivalent to approximately HK$21.7 million), which has been charged to our consolidated statements of profit and loss, and RMB3.4 million (equivalent to approximately HK$3.7 million), which is directly attributable to the issuance of Shares and will be charged to equity upon completion of the Listing. We expect to incur additional listing expenses of approximately RMB40.3 million (equivalent to approximately HK$44.2 million), of which RMB16.1 million (equivalent to approximately HK$17.6 million) is expected to be charged to our consolidated statements of profit and loss and RMB24.2 million (equivalent to approximately HK$26.6 million) will be accounted for as a deduction from equity upon the completion of the Global offering. This calculation is subject to adjustment based on the actual amount incurred or to be incurred.

FUTURE PLANS AND USE OF PROCEEDS

FUTURE PLANS

See “Business — Growth Strategies” for a detailed description of our future business plans and strategies.

USE OF PROCEEDS

We estimate that we will receive net proceeds from the Global Offering of approximately HK$661.7 million, after deducting estimated underwriting commissions, fees and expenses payable by us in connection with the Global Offering, assuming an Offer Price of HK$66.60 per Share, being the mid-point of the indicative Offer Price range of HK$62.01 to HK$71.20 per Share, and assuming the Over-allotment Option is not exercised.

We currently intend to apply the net proceeds from the Global Offering for the following purposes:

- Approximately 25.7% of the net proceeds, or HK$170.0 million, is expected to be used to enhance our production capabilities. We aim to achieve greater operational efficiency and maintain a more consistent level of production quality than what could be achieved through outsourcing or retrofitting existing facilities.
- (i) Approximately 19.6% of the net proceeds, or HK$130.0 million, will be allocated to the construction of our New Ningbo Facility in Ningbo, Zhejiang, which does not include land acquisition costs. The facility is intended to support anticipated growth in demand across our core product categories and enhance the long-term scalability of our supply chain, which we believe aligns with our strategy to grow the BeBeBus brand in both domestic and international markets through a steady rollout of new product offerings. In addition, we anticipate additional sales volume driven by the growth of stroller and crib categories. See “Business — Production and Supply Chain Management — Production Facilities — Production Facility Under Construction” for details.

We possess the required expertise to expand our in-house production to include strollers and cribs, supported by a team with industry experience in product development, quality management and project execution. Specifically, three members of our team each have over ten years of experience in the development of strollers and cribs, two team members each have over ten years of experience in the development of fabric components for strollers, cribs and other nursery products, two members each have over 14 years of experience in quality management for strollers and cribs, and two others each have over 12 years of experience in project management for stroller and crib manufacturing. Our team thus forms a solid foundation for the planned expansion of our in-house production, including the necessary capabilities to meet regulatory requirements such as the China Compulsory Certification for strollers. See “Business — Production and Supply Chain Management — Production Facilities — Production Facility Under Construction” for details.

- (ii) Approximately 6.0% of the net proceeds, or HK$40.0 million, will be used for purchasing new equipment to upgrade production process. These improvements are aimed at increasing operational efficiency, enhancing product quality, and meeting the growing demand in our markets.
- Approximately 16.6% of the net proceeds, or HK$110.0 million, is expected to be used for expanding our presence in overseas markets such as North America, Europe and Southeast Asia.
- (i) Approximately 7.6% of the net proceeds, or HK$50.0 million, will be used for our expansion in the U.S. and Canada.

According to Frost & Sullivan, the North American nursery product market grew from US$18.5 billion in 2020 to US$23.6 billion in 2024, with a CAGR of 6.3% from 2020 to 2024 and is expected to reach US$29.9 billion by 2029, with a CAGR 4.8% from 2025 to 2029. Consumers in the U.S. and Canada place strong emphasis on nursery products that meet stringent safety standards (e.g., CPSC-certified), are lightweight (e.g., strollers under 8kg), and use environmentally friendly materials (e.g., FDA food-contact grade components), according to Frost & Sullivan. See “Industry Overview” for details.

We consider market entry into North America to be feasible based on a combination of regulatory compliance, supply chain optimization and adaptive market strategies. To meet regulatory requirements, we are seeking to ensure full compliance with applicable U.S. and Canadian safety standards, including CPSC 16 CFR 1227 and SOR/2011-17. For example, certification processes for our strollers and cribs are currently underway, with inventory preparation targeted for completion by the end of 2025. To address cost and operational challenges, particularly those arising from cross-border logistics, we are optimizing our regional supply chain. Specifically, we plan to prioritize the localized production through partnerships with IMMEX-certified third-party manufacturers in Mexico. In addition, we intend to establish a bonded distribution center in Monterrey, Mexico, and a warehouse in Vancouver, Canada, to reduce delivery lead times to the U.S. and Canada to as short as seven days and improve cost efficiency related to transportation and import handling.

We have set up an office in New York in 2024 to support our expansion into the North American market. Understanding the differences in market dynamics and consumer preferences, we will adapt our product offerings, marketing strategies and distribution approach to better align with local expectations and purchasing behaviors. We plan to recruit approximately 150 to 200 employees between 2026 and 2028 to support business expansion in North America. Our planned headcount includes 16 to 25 in e-commerce operations, 30 to 40 in offline sales, 27 to 36 in brand marketing, 25 to 35 in customer service, 30 to 36 in logistics, 11 to 16 in finance and ten to 17 in human resources. Across these functions, the proposed roles will range from specialist to director level, with qualifications generally requiring a college or bachelor's degree and two to over five years of relevant experience depending on the function and position. We intend to offer market-competitive compensation based on seniority levels.

The table below sets forth our implementation plan in North America with the intended timeframe.

Country	Market Entry Timeline (Actual/Planned)	Distribution Channels (Actual/Planned)	Revenue Generation Timeline (Actual/Projected)	Order Status
U.S..	May 2025	Cross-border e-commerce platforms, direct- to-consumer websites and local distributors	May 2025	Received orders since May 2025
Canada	2027	Cross-border e-commerce platforms, direct- to-consumer websites and local distributors	2027	N/A

Given the scale of our planned investment to the U.S. market, we have also closely monitored recent policy developments and evaluated their potential impact on our strategy. We have evaluated the potential impact of recent tariff adjustments on our overseas expansion strategy, particularly in relation to the U.S. market. To mitigate these effects and support the continued execution of our international growth plans, we have made the following operational adjustments: (i) we have negotiated tariff-inclusive pricing arrangements with our freight forwarding partners, third-party logistics providers that manages shipping on behalf of companies, to reduce the extent to which increased tariffs are directly born by us, as our negotiated agreement fixes the price they receive, making them financially responsible for any subsequent duty increases; (ii) we will prioritize smaller products in the U.S. market, which incur lower shipping costs and, under the tariff-inclusive shipment arrangement, effectively result in a lower tariff burden as well, and we currently do not intend to promote bulkier nursery products in the U.S. market; and (iii) we will accelerate our expansion in the European market, which remains our primary destination for larger products and is currently less affected by tariff changes. Our diversified geographic footprint provides additional insulation against U.S.-specific trade risks. See “Risk Factors — Risks Relating to Our Business and Industry — Changes to international trade regulations, quotas, tariffs and duties may affect prices of and demand for our products.”

FUTURE PLANS AND USE OF PROCEEDS

- (ii) Approximately 6.0% of the net proceeds, or HK$40.0 million, will be used for our expansion in Germany, the United Kingdom, the Netherlands, Italy, Spain, Poland and France.

According to Frost & Sullivan, the European nursery product market grew from US$16.9 billion in 2020 to US$19.2 billion in 2024, with a CAGR of 3.3% from 2020 to 2024 and is projected to reach US$24.1 billion by 2029, with a CAGR of 4.7% from 2025 to 2029. Key demand regions in Europe include Germany, France and the United Kingdom, where safety-certified products (such as car seats) are particularly sought after, according to Frost & Sullivan. See “Industry Overview” for details.

To improve operational efficiency and market reach, we plan to utilize Amazon’s Pan-European Fulfilment Programme, which enables streamlined logistics across more than 30 countries and reduces compliance burdens, such as the need for separate VAT registrations. In addition, we intend to establish regional warehouses in the Netherlands or Poland, taking advantage of the strong logistics infrastructure in both Western and Central Europe. We are also actively preparing for CE certification and GDPR compliance to address legal requirements associated with market entry and cross-border operations.

In the initial phase up to 2026, we will conduct market research to gain a comprehensive understanding of certification requirements, consumer preferences and local regulations for nursery products in key countries and regions. We plan to select and enter three priority regions, establishing partnerships with major local retail chains for offline distribution. Based on market feedback, we will refine our product lines and introduce customized products tailored to local consumer needs. For the second phase from 2026 to 2028, we will expand our product portfolio to include a wider range of EU-compliant nursery products, such as feeding accessories, bedding and baby care products to meet the diverse needs of European consumers. Additionally, we plan to open interactive stores in select cities to enhance our brand presence and deepen consumer engagement.

FUTURE PLANS AND USE OF PROCEEDS

To support our business expansion into Europe, we plan to recruit between 40 and 80 employees from 2026 to 2028, with roles divided between offline sales and customer services. These positions will range from specialist to director level, typically requiring a college or bachelor's degree and two to over five years of relevant experience, depending on seniority. We intend to offer market-competitive compensation packages aligned with each role's level and responsibilities.

The table below sets forth our implementation plan in Europe with the intended timeframe.

- (iii) Approximately 3.0% of the net proceeds, or HK$20.0 million, will be used for our expansion in Southeast Asia, including Malaysia, Thailand, Indonesia and Philippines.

According to Frost & Sullivan, the nursery product market in Southeast Asia has experienced the fastest growth globally, expanding from US$5.6 billion in 2020 to US$7.7 billion in 2024, with a CAGR 8.6% from 2020 to 2024 and is expected to reach US$11.4 billion by 2029, with a CAGR 8.1% from 2025 to 2029. According to Frost & Sullivan, fertility rates in countries such as Indonesia and the Philippines remain above 2.0 as of 2024, and the growing middle class in markets including Indonesia, Thailand and Malaysia is driving increased demand for mid- to high-end nursery products. Despite this growth, high-quality nursery product penetration, particularly for categories such as strollers and car seats, remains below 30% in many Southeast Asian markets, which leaves significant opportunities in the underserved mid- to high-end segments. We believe we are well-positioned to capture market share in Southeast Asia by focusing on nursery product offerings targeting mid- to high-end consumers and operating with a localized approach, which has proven effective for other Chinese brands expanding into this region, according to Frost & Sullivan. In addition, Indonesia and Thailand have recently eased foreign investment restrictions and lifted import quotas, and we are actively developing compliance plans to address these regulatory changes and support our entry and expansion in these markets.

In connection with our expansion in Southeast Asia, we plan to recruit approximately 120 to 170 employees between 2026 and 2028 to strengthen key market-facing and operational functions, which include nine to 16 in e-commerce operations, 31 to 41 in offline sales, 23 to 29 in brand marketing, 34 to 41 in customer service, ten to 16 in logistics, seven to 11 in finance, and seven to 13 in human resources. The proposed roles will range from specialist to director level, and most positions will require a college or bachelor's degree and two to over five years of relevant experience depending on the function. For all functions, we expect to offer competitive salaries aligned with local market benchmarks and role seniority.

- Approximately 34.1% of the net proceeds, or HK$225.5 million, will be used for our branding activities and the expansion of our sales network. We plan to invest in online marketing initiatives to raise brand awareness and drive sales growth. Among them, (i) approximately 9.1% of the net proceeds, or HK$60.5 million, will be used for identifying, evaluating and collaborating with reputable influencers to create high-quality promotional content across online platforms that increases engagement with our target audience; (ii) approximately 1.5% of the net proceeds, or HK$10.0 million, will be used for producing promotional videos and documentaries for distribution on e-commerce platforms and private domains; (iii) approximately 2.3% of the net proceeds, or HK$15.0 million, will be used for recruiting approximately ten e-commerce sales personnel with experience in influencer partnerships and management in 2026 to increase our digital advertising efforts to support the continued growth of our online business; (iv) approximately 9.1% of the net proceeds, or HK$60.0 million, will be used for advertising placements, primarily including large-scale exposure campaigns associated with brand marketing events or major product launches, including but not limited to airport, high-speed rail station, shopping mall, elevator and subway advertising, and television and variety show placements; (v) approximately 7.6% of the net proceeds, or HK$50.0 million, will be used for performance-driven digital advertising on leading e-commerce platforms, which is aimed at converting online traffic on such platforms into sales at our online stores; and (vi) approximately 4.5% of the net proceeds, or HK$30.0 million, will be used for other types of marketing campaigns, encompassing cross-industry collaborations that broaden our brand reach, public welfare initiatives, and campaigns such as online IP collaboration events and offline themed promotional activities.

FUTURE PLANS AND USE OF PROCEEDS

- Approximately 13.6% of the net proceeds, or HK$90.0 million, is expected to be used for the research and development of new products, aimed at expanding both the breadth and depth of our product portfolio. Among them, (i) approximately 6.0% of the net proceeds, or HK$40.0 million, is expected to be used for recruiting 40 to 50 R&D professionals with expertise in packaging design, CMF design, structural design, molding, project quality and laboratory testing between 2026 and 2028, and offering them competitive compensation in line with market standards; and (ii) approximately 7.6% of the net proceeds, or HK$50.0 million, is expected to be used for (a) purchasing equipment for product analysis and testing, including building a digital-driven, fully-equipped laboratory to support the R&D team in product development and testing, (b) improving production techniques by implementing an automated warehouse and distribution system, introducing a fully unmanned molding system, and optimizing production lines with intelligent automation, and (c) protecting our intellectual property, filing new patent applications, and safeguarding our existing patents.
- Approximately 10% of the net proceeds, or HK$66.2 million, is expected to be used for working capital and general corporate purposes.

If the net proceeds of the Global Offering are not immediately applied to the above purposes, we will only deposit those net proceeds into short-term interest-bearing accounts at licensed commercial banks and/or other authorized financial institutions as defined under the SFO or the applicable laws and regulations in other jurisdictions.

If the Offer Price is set at HK$71.20 per Share, being the high end of the indicative Offer Price range, the net proceeds from the Global Offering will increase to approximately HK$710 million. If the Offer Price is set at HK$62.01 per Share, being the low end of the indicative Offer Price range, the net proceeds from the Global Offering will decrease to approximately HK$613 million. The above allocation of the net proceeds from the Global Offering will be adjusted on a pro rata basis in the event that the Offer Price is fixed at a higher or lower level compared to the mid-point of the indicative Offer Price range stated in this prospectus.

If the Over-allotment Option is exercised in full, the net proceeds that we will receive will be approximately HK$768 million, assuming an Offer Price of HK$66.60 per Share (being the mid-point of the indicative Offer Price range). In the event that the Over-allotment Option is exercised, we intend to apply the additional net proceeds to the above purposes in the proportions stated above.

We will issue an appropriate announcement if there is any material change to the above proposed use of proceeds.

Following the completion of the Global Offering, the Hong Kong Underwriters and their affiliated companies may hold a certain portion of the Shares as a result of fulfilling their respective obligations under the Hong Kong Underwriting Agreement and/or the International Underwriting Agreement. UNDERWRITING

International Offering

International Underwriting Agreement

In connection with the International Offering, our Company and the controlling Shareholders expect to enter into the International Underwriting Agreement with the International Underwriters. Under the International Underwriting Agreement and subject to the Over-allotment Option, the International Underwriters would, subject to certain conditions set out therein, agree severally but not jointly to procure purchasers for, or themselves purchase, their respective proportions of the International Offer Shares being offered pursuant to the International Offering. See “Structure of the Global Offering-The International Offering” for details. It is expected that the International Underwriting Agreement may be terminated in similar grounds as the Hong Kong Underwriting Agreement. Potential investors should note that in the event that the International Underwriting Agreement is not entered into, the Global Offering will not proceed. See “Structure of the Global Offering” for details.

Over-allotment Option

Our Company is expected to grant to the International Underwriters the Over-allotment Option, exercisable by the Overall Coordinators on behalf of the International Underwriters at any time from the date of the International Underwriting Agreement until 30 days after the last date for the lodging of applications under the Hong Kong Public Offering, to require our Company to issue and allot up to an aggregate of 1,647,100 additional Offer Shares representing approximately 15% of the number of initial Offer Shares, at the same price per Offer Share under the International Offering to, among other things, cover over allocations (if any) in the International Offering.

Commissions and expenses

The Underwriters will receive an underwriting commission of 2.5% of the aggregate Offer Price of all the Offer Shares for both the Hong Kong Public Offering and the International Offering (including Offer Shares issued pursuant to the Over-allotment Option), out of which they will pay any sub-underwriting commission and other fees. Our Company may pay the Underwriters an incentive fee up to 1.0% of the aggregate Offer Price of all the Offer Shares for both the Hong Kong Public Offering and International Offering (including Offer Shares issued pursuant to the Over-allotment Option) to be awarded at our Company’s discretion. For any unsubscribed Hong Kong Offer Shares reallocated to the International Offering, we will pay the underwriting commission for such Offer Shares to the International Underwriters (but not the Hong Kong Underwriters).

The aggregate underwriting commissions and fees payable to the Underwriters, together with the Stock Exchange listing fees, the SFC transaction levy, the AFRC transaction levy and the Stock Exchange trading fee, legal and other professional fees and printing and all other expenses in relation to the Global Offering are estimated to be approximately HK$69.6 million (assuming the Over-allotment Option is not exercised and no Shares are further issued pursuant to the Share Incentive Plan, and based on an Offer Price of HK$66.60 per Offer Share (which is the mid-point of the indicative Offer Price range) and the full payment of the discretionary incentive fee) in total and are payable by our Company.

UNDERWRITING

Indemnity

Each of our Company and the controlling Shareholders have agreed to indemnify the Hong Kong Underwriters for certain losses which they may suffer or incur, including losses arising from their performance of their obligations under the Hong Kong Underwriting Agreement and any breach by our Company of the Hong Kong Underwriting Agreement.

UNDERTAKING BY OTHER EXISTING SHAREHOLDERS

Other than the controlling Shareholders, each of the other existing Shareholders of the Company has entered into a deed of lock-up undertaking (the “Lock-up Undertakings”) in favor of the Company, the Joint Sponsors, the Overall Coordinators and the Hong Kong Underwriters imposing certain restrictions on dealings with their respective Shares.

Pursuant to the Lock-up Undertakings, each of the other existing Shareholders undertakes that, inter alia, it will not and, will procure that none of its associates and companies controlled by it will, without the prior written consent of the Overall Coordinators (for themselves and on behalf of the Hong Kong Underwriters), at any time during the period commencing from the Listing Date until the expiry of six months from the Listing Date (the “Lock-up Period”):

- (b) enter into any swap or other arrangement that transfers to another, in whole or in part, any of the economic consequences of ownership of the Relevant Shares;
- (c) enter into any transaction with the same economic effect as any transaction described in (a) or (b) above; or
- (d) offer or agree or contract to, or publicly announce any intention to enter into, any transaction described in (a), (b) or (c) above.

The restrictions in the Lock-up Undertakings shall not apply to any transfer of the Relevant Shares during the Lock-up Period to any Affiliate (as defined in the deed of the Lock-up Undertakings) of the other existing Shareholders, provided that the transferee(s) shall have duly executed a document by which such transferee(s) agree to be a party to, and bound by, the deed.

UNDERWRITING

The Syndicate Members and their affiliates are diversified financial institutions with relationships in countries around the world. These entities engage in a wide range of commercial and investment banking, brokerage, funds management, trading, hedging, investing and other activities for their own account and for the account of others. In the ordinary course of their various business activities, the Syndicate Members and their respective affiliates may purchase, sell or hold a broad array of investments and actively trade securities, derivatives, loans, commodities, currencies, credit default swaps and other financial instruments for their own account and for the accounts of their customers. Such investment and trading activities may involve or relate to assets, securities and/or instruments of our Company and/or persons and entities with relationships with our Company and may also include swaps and other financial instruments entered into for hedging purposes in connection with our Group’s loans and other debt.

In relation to the Shares, the activities of the Syndicate Members and their affiliates could include acting as agent for buyers and sellers of the Shares, entering into transactions with those buyers and sellers in a principal capacity, including as a lender to initial purchasers of the Shares (which financing may be secured by the Shares) in the Global Offering, proprietary trading in the Shares, and entering into over the counter or listed derivative transactions or listed or unlisted securities transactions (including issuing securities such as derivative warrants listed on a stock exchange) which have as their underlying assets, assets including the Shares. Such transactions may be carried out as bilateral agreements or trades with selected counterparties. Those activities may require hedging activity by those entities involving, directly or indirectly, the buying and selling of the Shares, which may have a negative impact on the trading price of the Shares. All such activities could occur in Hong Kong and elsewhere in the world and may result in the Syndicate Members and their affiliates holding long and/or short positions in the Shares, in baskets of securities or indices including the Shares, in units of funds that may purchase the Shares, or in derivatives related to any of the foregoing.

In relation to issues by Syndicate Members or their affiliates of any listed securities having the Shares as their underlying securities, whether on the Stock Exchange or on any other stock exchange, the rules of the stock exchange may require the issuer of those securities (or one of its affiliates or agents) to act as a market maker or liquidity provider in the security, and this will also result in hedging activity in the Shares in most cases.

UNDERWRITING

All such activities may occur both during and after the end of the stabilizing period. See “Structure of the Global Offering” for details. Such activities may affect the market price or value of the Shares, the liquidity or trading volume in the Shares and the volatility of the price of the Shares, and the extent to which this occurs from day to day cannot be estimated.

It should be noted that when engaging in any of these activities, the Syndicate Members will be subject to certain restrictions, including the following:

- (a) the Syndicate Members (other than the Stabilizing Manager or any person acting for it) must not, in connection with the distribution of the Offer Shares, effect any transactions (including issuing or entering into any option or other derivative transactions relating to the Offer Shares), whether in the open market or otherwise, with a view to stabilizing or maintaining the market price of any of the Offer Shares at levels other than those which might otherwise prevail in the open market; and
- (b) the Syndicate Members must comply with all applicable laws and regulations, including the market misconduct provisions of the SFO, including the provisions prohibiting insider dealing, false trading, price rigging and stock market manipulation.

Certain of the Syndicate Members or their respective affiliates have provided from time to time, and expect to provide in the future, investment banking and other services to our Company and our Company’s affiliates for which such Syndicate Members or their respective affiliates have received or will receive customary fees and commissions.

In addition, the Syndicate Members or their respective affiliates may provide financing to investors to finance their subscriptions of Offer Shares in the Global Offering.

STRUCTURE OF THE GLOBAL OFFERING

THE GLOBAL OFFERING

This prospectus is published in connection with the Hong Kong Public Offering as part of the Global Offering. CLSA Limited and Haitong International Securities Company Limited are the Sponsor-Overall Coordinators, Joint Global Coordinators, Joint Bookrunners and Joint Lead Managers of the Global Offering. Futu Securities International (Hong Kong) Limited is the Overall Coordinator, Joint Global Coordinator, Joint bookrunner and Joint lead manager of the Global Offering.

The listing of the Shares on the Stock Exchange is sponsored by the Joint Sponsors. The Joint Sponsors have made an application on behalf of our Company to the Stock Exchange for the listing of, and permission to deal in, the Shares in issue and to be issued as mentioned in this prospectus.

10,980,900 Offer Shares will initially be made available under the Global Offering (subject to reallocation and the Over-allotment Option) comprising:

- (i) the Hong Kong Public Offering of initially 1,098,100 Shares (subject to reallocation) in Hong Kong as described in “— The Hong Kong Public Offering”; and
- (ii) the International Offering of initially 9,882,800 Shares (subject to reallocation and the Over-allotment Option) outside the United States (including to professional and institutional investors within Hong Kong) in offshore transactions in accordance with Regulation S as described in “— The International Offering.”

Investors may either:

- (i) apply for Hong Kong Offer Shares under the Hong Kong Public Offering; or
- (ii) apply for or indicate an interest for International Offer Shares under the International Offering,

but may not do both.

The Offer Shares will represent approximately 12.1% of the issued share capital of our Company immediately following the completion of the Global Offering, assuming the Over-allotment Option is not exercised and no Shares are further issued pursuant to the Share Incentive Plan. If the Over-allotment Option is exercised in full, the Offer Shares will represent approximately 13.7% of the enlarged issued share capital of our Company immediately following the completion of the Global Offering (excluding any shares to be issued under the Share Incentive Plan).

The number of Offer Shares to be offered under the Hong Kong Public Offering and the International Offering may be subject to reallocation as described in “— The Hong Kong Public Offering — Reallocation.”

References in this prospectus to applications, application monies or the procedure for applications relate solely to the Hong Kong Public Offering.

STRUCTURE OF THE GLOBAL OFFERING

THE HONG KONG PUBLIC OFFERING

Number of Offer Shares Initially Offered

We are initially offering 1,098,100 Shares (subject to reallocation) for subscription by the public in Hong Kong at the Offer Price, representing approximately 10.0% of the total number of Offer Shares initially available under the Global Offering. The Hong Kong Offer Shares initially offered under the Hong Kong Public Offering, subject to any reallocation of Offer Shares between the International Offering and the Hong Kong Public Offering, will represent approximately 1.2% of the total issued share capital of our Company immediately following the completion of the Global Offering assuming that the Over-allotment Option is not exercised and no Shares are further issued pursuant to the Share Incentive Plan.

The Hong Kong Public Offering is open to members of the public in Hong Kong as well as to institutional and professional investors. Professional investors generally include brokers, dealers, companies (including fund managers) whose ordinary business involves dealing in shares and other securities and corporate entities that regularly invest in shares and other securities.

Completion of the Hong Kong Public Offering is subject to the conditions set out in “— Conditions of the Global Offering.”

Allocation

Allocation of Offer Shares to investors under the Hong Kong Public Offering will be based solely on the level of valid applications received under the Hong Kong Public Offering. The basis of allocation may vary, depending on the number of Hong Kong Offer Shares validly applied for by applicants. Such allocation could, where appropriate, consist of balloting, which could mean that some applicants may receive a higher allocation than others who have applied for the same number of Hong Kong Offer Shares, and those applicants who are not successful in the ballot may not receive any Hong Kong Offer Shares.

For allocation purposes only, the total number of Hong Kong Offer Shares available under the Hong Kong Public Offering (after taking into account any reallocation referred to below) will be divided equally (to the nearest board lot) into two pools: pool A and pool B. The Hong Kong Offer Shares in pool A will be allocated on an equitable basis to applicants who have applied for Hong Kong Offer Shares with an aggregate subscription price of HK$5 million (excluding the brokerage, the SFC transaction levy, the AFRC transaction levy and the Stock Exchange trading fee payable) or less. The Hong Kong Offer Shares in pool B will be allocated on an equitable basis to applicants who have applied for Hong Kong Offer Shares with an aggregate subscription price of more than HK$5 million (excluding the brokerage, the SFC transaction levy, the AFRC transaction levy and the Stock Exchange trading fee payable) and up to the total value in pool B.

STRUCTURE OF THE GLOBAL OFFERING

Investors should be aware that applications in pool A and applications in pool B may receive different allocation ratios. If any Hong Kong Offer Shares in one (but not both) of the pools are undersubscribed, such undersubscribed Hong Kong Offer Shares will be transferred to the other pool to satisfy demand in that other pool and be allocated accordingly. For the purpose of the immediately preceding paragraph only, the “price” for Hong Kong Offer Shares means the price payable on application therefor (without regard to the Offer Price as finally determined). Applicants can only receive an allocation of Hong Kong Offer Shares from either pool A or pool B and not from both pools. Multiple or suspected multiple applications under the Hong Kong Public Offering and any application for more than 549,000 Hong Kong Offer Shares are liable to be rejected.

Reallocation

The Offer Shares to be offered in the Hong Kong Public Offering and the International Offering may, in certain circumstances, be reallocated as between these offerings at the discretion of the Overall Coordinators (for themselves and on behalf of the Underwriters). Subject to the allocation cap described in the subsequent paragraph, the Overall Coordinators (for themselves and on behalf of the Underwriters) may in their discretion reallocate Offer Shares from the International Offering to the Hong Kong Public Offering to satisfy valid applications under the Hong Kong Public Offering. In addition, if the Hong Kong Public Offering is not fully subscribed, the Overall Coordinators (for themselves and on behalf of the Underwriters) will have the discretion (but shall not be under any obligation) to reallocate to the International Offering all or any unsubscribed Hong Kong Offer Shares in such amounts as they deem appropriate. In each case, the additional Offer Shares reallocated to the Hong Kong Public Offering will be allocated between pool A and pool B and the number of Offer Shares allocated to the International Offering will be correspondingly reduced in such manner as the Overall Coordinators deem appropriate.

If (i) the Offer Shares under the International Offering are fully subscribed or over-subscribed, and the Offer Shares under Hong Kong Public Offering are fully subscribed or oversubscribed irrespective of the number of times; or (ii) the Offer Shares under the International Offering are not fully subscribed, and the Hong Kong Offer Shares are fully subscribed or oversubscribed irrespective of the number of times, then up to 549,000 Offer Shares may be reallocated from the International Offering to the Hong Kong Public Offering, so that the total number of Offer Shares available for subscription under the Hong Kong Public Offering will increase up to 1,647,100 Offer Shares, representing approximately 15% of the number of Offer Shares initially available under the Global Offering (before any exercise of the Over-allotment Option) and the Offer Price must be fixed at the bottom of the offer price range, in accordance with Chapter 4.14 of the Guide for New Listing Applicants issued by the Stock Exchange. In the circumstance where the International Offer Shares are fully subscribed or oversubscribed and the Hong Kong Offer Shares are undersubscribed, there will be no reallocation from the International Offering to the Hong Kong Public Offering, and no over-allocation of Shares to the Hong Kong Public Offering.

STRUCTURE OF THE GLOBAL OFFERING

Given the initial allocation of the Offer Shares to the Hong Kong Public Offering and the International Offering follows Mechanism B set out under paragraph 2 of Chapter 4.14 of the Guide and the provision of Paragraph 4.2(b) of Practice Note 18 of the Listing Rules, no mandatory clawback or reallocation mechanism is required to increase the number of Offer Shares under the Hong Kong Public Offering to a certain percentage of the total number of Offer Shares offered under the Global Offering.

Details of any reallocation of Offer Shares between the Hong Kong Public Offering and the International Offering will be disclosed in the results announcement of the Global Offering expected to be published on Monday, September 22, 2025.

Where the International Offer Shares are undersubscribed, if the Hong Kong Offer Shares are also undersubscribed, the Global Offering will not proceed unless the Underwriters would subscribe or procure subscribers for their respective applicable proportions of the Offer Shares being offered which are not taken up under the Global Offering on the terms and conditions of this Prospectus and the Underwriting Agreements.

Applications

Each applicant under the Hong Kong Public Offering will be required to give an undertaking and confirmation in the application submitted by him/her/it that he/she/it and any person(s) for whose benefit he/she/it is making the application has not applied for or taken up, or indicated an interest for, and will not apply for or take up, or indicate an interest for, any International Offer Shares under the International Offering. Such applicant's application is liable to be rejected if such undertaking and/or confirmation is breached and/or untrue (as the case may be) or if it has been or will be placed or allocated International Offer Shares under the International Offering.

Multiple or suspected multiple applications and any application for more than 50% of the 1,098,100 Shares initially comprised in the Hong Kong Public Offering (that is 549,000 Hong Kong Offer Shares) will be rejected.

The listing of the Shares on the Stock Exchange is sponsored by the Joint Sponsors. Applicants under the Hong Kong Public Offering may be required to pay, on application (subject to application channels), the maximum Offer Price of HK$71.20 per Offer Share in addition to the brokerage, the SFC transaction levy, the AFRC transaction levy and the Stock Exchange trading fee payable on each Offer Share, amounting to a total of HK$7,191.80 for one board lot of 100 Shares. If the Offer Price, as finally determined in the manner described in “— Pricing of the Global Offering,” is less than the maximum Offer Price of HK$71.20 per Offer Share, appropriate refund payments (including the brokerage, the SFC transaction levy, the AFRC transaction levy and the Stock Exchange trading fee attributable to the surplus application monies) will be made to successful applicants (subject to application channels), without interest. See “How to Apply for Hong Kong Offer Shares” for details.

References in this prospectus to applications, application monies or the procedure for application relate solely to the Hong Kong Public Offering.

STRUCTURE OF THE GLOBAL OFFERING

THE INTERNATIONAL OFFERING

Number of International Offer Shares Initially Offered

Subject to reallocation as described above and the Over-allotment Option, the International Offering will consist of an offering of initially 9,882,800 Shares, representing approximately 90% of the total number of Offer Shares initially available under the Global Offering. Subject to the reallocation of Offer Shares between the International Offering and the Hong Kong Public Offering, the International Offer Shares will represent approximately 10.9% of our Company's enlarged issued share capital immediately after completion of the Global Offering assuming that the Over-allotment Option is not exercised and no Shares are further issued pursuant to the Share Incentive Plan.

Allocation

Pursuant to the International Offering, the International Offer Shares will be conditionally placed on behalf of our Company by the International Underwriters or through selling agents appointed by them. The International Offering will include selective marketing of Offer Shares to institutional and professional investors and other investors anticipated to have a sizable demand for such Offer Shares. Professional investors generally include brokers, dealers, companies (including fund managers) whose ordinary business involves dealing in shares and other securities and corporate entities which regularly invest in shares and other securities.

Allocation of Offer Shares pursuant to the International Offering will be effected in accordance with the "book-building" process described in "— Pricing of the Global Offering" and based on a number of factors, including the level and timing of demand, the total size of the relevant investor's invested assets or equity assets in the relevant sector and whether or not it is expected that the relevant investor is likely to buy further Offer Shares, and/or hold or sell its Offer Shares, after the Listing. Such allocation is intended to result in a distribution of the Offer Shares on a basis which would lead to the establishment of a solid professional and institutional shareholder base to the benefit of our Company and the Shareholders as a whole.

The Overall Coordinators (for themselves and on behalf of the Underwriters) may require any investor who has been offered Offer Shares under the International Offering and who has made an application under the Hong Kong Public Offering to provide sufficient information to the Overall Coordinators so as to allow them to identify the relevant applications under the Hong Kong Public Offering and to ensure that they are excluded from any allotment of Offer Shares under the International Offering.

Reallocation

The total number of Offer Shares to be issued pursuant to the International Offering may change as a result of the reallocation arrangement described in "— The Hong Kong Public Offering — Reallocation," the exercise of the Over-allotment Option in whole or in part and/or any reallocation of unsubscribed Offer Shares originally included in the Hong Kong Public Offering to the International Offering.

STRUCTURE OF THE GLOBAL OFFERING

OVER-ALLOTMENT OPTION

In connection with the Global Offering, we are expected to grant the Over-allotment Option to the International Underwriters, exercisable by the Overall Coordinators on behalf of the International Underwriters.

Pursuant to the Over-allotment Option, the International Underwriters will have the right, exercisable by the Overall Coordinators at any time from the date of the International Underwriting Agreement until 30 day period from the last day for lodging applications under the Hong Kong Public Offering, to require our Company to issue up to an aggregate of 1,647,100 additional Offer Shares, representing not more than 15% of the total number of Offer Shares initially available under the Global Offering, at the Offer Price under the International Offering to, amongst others, cover over-allocations in the International Offering, if any. If the Over-allotment Option is exercised, an announcement will be made.

If the Over-allotment Option is exercised in full, the additional International Offer Shares to be issued pursuant thereto will represent approximately 1.8% of the issued share capital of the Company immediately after the completion of the Global Offering.

STABILIZATION

Stabilization is a practice used by underwriters in some markets to facilitate the distribution of securities. To stabilize, the underwriters may bid for, or purchase, the new securities in the secondary market, during a specified period of time, to retard and, if possible, prevent a decline in the initial public market price of the securities below the offer price. Such transactions may be effected in all jurisdictions where it is permissible to do so, in each case in compliance with all applicable laws and regulatory requirements, including those of Hong Kong. In Hong Kong, the price at which stabilization is effected is not permitted to exceed the offer price.

In connection with the Global Offering, the Stabilizing Manager, its affiliates or any person acting for it, on behalf of the Underwriters, may, to the extent permitted by applicable laws of Hong Kong or elsewhere, over-allocate or effect transactions with a view to stabilizing or supporting the market price of the Shares at a level higher than that which might otherwise prevail for a limited period after the Listing Date. However, there is no obligation on the Stabilizing Manager or any person acting for it to conduct any such stabilizing action. Such stabilizing action, if taken, (i) will be conducted at the absolute discretion of the Stabilizing Manager or any person acting for it and in what the Stabilizing Manager reasonably regards as the best interest of us, (ii) may be discontinued at any time and (iii) is required to be brought to an end within 30 days of the last day for lodging applications under the Hong Kong Public Offering. The number of Shares that may be over-allocated will not exceed the number of Shares that may be issued and/or sold under the Over-allotment Option, namely 1,647,100 Shares, which is approximately 15% of the Offer Shares initially available under the Global Offering.

STRUCTURE OF THE GLOBAL OFFERING

Stabilization action permitted in Hong Kong pursuant to the Securities and Futures (Price Stabilizing) Rules of the SFO includes (i) over-allocating for the purpose of preventing or minimizing any reduction in the market price of the Shares, (ii) selling or agreeing to sell the Shares so as to establish a short position in them for the purpose of preventing or minimizing any reduction in the market price of the Shares, (iii) purchasing, or agreeing to purchase, the Shares pursuant to the Over-allotment Option in order to close out any position established under (i) or (ii) above, (iv) purchasing, or agreeing to purchase, any of the Shares for the sole purpose of preventing or minimizing any reduction in the market price of the Shares, (v) selling or agreeing to sell any Shares in order to liquidate any position established as a result of those purchases and (vi) offering or attempting to do anything as described in (ii), (iii), (iv) or (v) above.

Specifically, prospective applicants for and investors in the Offer Shares should note that:

- the Stabilizing Manager or any person acting for it may, in connection with the stabilizing action, maintain a long position in the Shares;
- there is no certainty as to the extent to which and the time or period for which the Stabilizing Manager or any person acting for it will maintain such a long position;
- liquidation of any such long position by the Stabilizing Manager or any person acting for it and selling in the open market, may have an adverse impact on the market price of the Shares;
- no stabilizing action can be taken to support the price of the Shares for longer than the stabilization period, which will begin on the Listing Date, and is expected to expire on the 30th day after the last day for lodging applications under the Hong Kong Public Offering. After this date, when no further stabilizing action may be taken, demand for the Shares, and therefore the price of the Shares, could fall;
- the price of the Shares cannot be assured to stay at or above the Offer Price by the taking of any stabilizing action; and
- Stabilizing bids or transactions effected in the course of the stabilizing action may be made at any price at or below the Offer Price and can, therefore, be done at a price below the price paid by applicants for, or investors in, the Offer Shares.

In order to effect stabilization actions, the Stabilizing Manager will arrange cover of up to an aggregate of 1,647,100 Shares, representing up to 15% of the initial Offer Shares, through delayed delivery arrangements with investors who have been allocated Offer Shares in the International Offering. The delayed delivery arrangements (if specifically agreed by an investor) relate only to the delay in the delivery of the Offer Shares to such investor and the Offer Price for the Offer Shares allocated to such investor will be fully paid on the Listing Date, accordingly there will be no delayed settlement of the Offer Shares.

STRUCTURE OF THE GLOBAL OFFERING

Our Company will ensure or procure that an announcement in compliance with the Securities and Futures (Price Stabilizing) Rules of the SFO will be made within seven days of the expiration of the stabilization period.

Over-allocation

Following any over-allocation of the Shares in connection with the Global Offering, the Stabilizing Manager or any person acting for it may cover such over-allocations by, amongst others, exercising the Over-allotment Option in full or in part, by using Shares purchased by the Stabilizing Manager (or any person acting for it) in the secondary market at prices that do not exceed the Offer Price or through the Stock Borrowing Arrangement as detailed below or a combination of these means.

STOCK BORROWING ARRANGEMENT

In order to facilitate the settlement of over-allocations in connection with the Global Offering, the Stabilizing Manager or any person acting for it may choose to borrow up to 1,647,100 Shares (being the maximum number of the Shares which may be issued pursuant to the exercise of the Over-allotment Option) pursuant to the Stock Borrowing Agreement, which is expected to be entered into between the Stabilizing Manager or any person acting for it and on or around the Price Determination Date or acquire Shares from other sources, including exercising the Over-allotment Option or by making purchases in the secondary market at prices that do not exceed the Offer Price.

If such Stock Borrowing Arrangement with WANGBOYAN is entered into, it will only be effected by the Stabilizing Manager or any person acting for it for the settlement of over-allocations in the International Offering and such arrangement is not subject to the restrictions of Rule 10.07(1)(a) of the Listing Rules, provided that the requirements set out in Rule 10.07(3) of the Listing Rules, being that the Stock Borrowing Agreement will be for the sole purpose of covering any short position prior to the exercise of the Over-allotment Option in connection with the International Offering, are complied with.

The same number of the Shares so borrowed must be returned to WANGBOYAN or its nominees, as the case may be, on or before the third Business Day following the earlier of (i) the last day for exercising the Over-allotment Option and (ii) the day on which the Over-allotment Option is exercised in full.

The Stock Borrowing Arrangement will be effected in compliance with all applicable laws, rules and regulatory requirements. No payment will be made to WANGBOYAN by the Stabilizing Manager or any person acting for it in relation to such Stock Borrowing Arrangement.

PRICING OF THE GLOBAL OFFERING

Pricing for the Offer Shares for the purpose of the various offerings under the Global Offering will be fixed on the Price Determination Date, which is expected to be on or about Friday, September 19, 2025, by agreement between the Overall Coordinators (for themselves and on behalf of the Underwriters) and us, and the number of Offer Shares to be allocated under the various offerings will be determined shortly thereafter.

The Offer Price will not be more than HK$71.20 per Offer Share and is expected to be not less than HK$62.01 per Offer Share unless otherwise announced, as further explained below. Applicants under the Hong Kong Public Offering may be required to pay, on application (subject to application channels), the maximum Offer Price of HK$71.20 per Offer Share plus brokerage, SFC transaction levy, the AFRC transaction levy and Stock Exchange trading fee, amounting to a total of HK$7,191.80 for one board lot of 100 Shares. Prospective investors should be aware that the Offer Price to be determined on the Price Determination Date may be, but is not expected to be, lower than the Offer Price range stated in this prospectus.

The International Underwriters will be soliciting from prospective investors indications of interest in acquiring Offer Shares in the International Offering. Prospective professional and institutional investors will be required to specify the number of Offer Shares under the International Offering they would be prepared to acquire either at different prices or at a particular price. This process, known as “book-building”, is expected to continue up to, and to cease on or around, the last day for lodging applications under the Hong Kong Public Offering.

The Overall Coordinators, on behalf of the Underwriters, may, where they deem appropriate, based on the level of interest expressed by prospective investors during the book-building process in respect of the International Offering, and with the consent of the Company, reduce the number of Offer Shares offered and/or the Offer Price range below that stated in this prospectus at any time on or prior to the morning of the last day for lodging applications under the Hong Kong Public Offering. In such a case, we will, as soon as practicable following the decision to make such reduction, and in any event not later than the morning of the last day for lodging applications under the Hong Kong Public Offering, publish notice of the reduction, the cancellation of the Global Offering and the relaunch of the Global Offering at the revised number of Offer Shares on the websites of our Company and the Stock Exchange at www.butong.com and www.hkexnews.hk, respectively. This notice will also include confirmation or revision, as appropriate, of the working capital statement and the Global Offering statistics as set out in this prospectus, as well as any other financial information which may change as a result of the reduction.

We will, as soon as practicable following the decision to make the reduction, in addition to publishing the notice, issue a supplemental prospectus containing details in relation to the change in the number of Offer Shares being issued. The Global Offering will be cancelled and subsequently relaunched on FINI pursuant to the supplemental prospectus.

STRUCTURE OF THE GLOBAL OFFERING

Before making applications for the Hong Kong Offer Shares, applicant should have regard to the possibility that any announcement of a reduction in the number of Offer Shares may not be made until or before the day which is the last day for making applications under the Hong Kong Public Offering.

In the absence of a notice of reduction, the number of Offer Shares (if the Company agrees with the Overall Coordinator (on behalf of the Underwriters)) will not be reduced.

The final Offer Price, the level of indications of interest in the International Offering, the level of applications in the Hong Kong Public Offering, the basis of allocation of the Hong Kong Offer Shares and the results of allocations in the Hong Kong Public Offering are expected to be made available through a variety of channels in the manner described in “How to Apply for Hong Kong Offer Shares — B. Publication of Results.”

UNDERWRITING

The Hong Kong Public Offering is fully underwritten by the Hong Kong Underwriters under the terms and conditions of the Hong Kong Underwriting Agreement and is conditional upon the International Underwriting Agreement being signed and becoming unconditional and is subject to our Company and the Overall Coordinators (for themselves and on behalf of the Underwriters) agreeing on the Offer Price.

We expect to enter into the International Underwriting Agreement relating to the International Offering on or around the Price Determination Date.

These underwriting arrangements, including the Underwriting Agreements, are summarized in “Underwriting.”

CONDITIONS OF THE GLOBAL OFFERING

Acceptance of all applications for Offer Shares will be conditional on:

- (i) the Stock Exchange granting approval for the listing of, and permission to deal in, the Shares in issue and to be issued pursuant to the Global Offering on the Main Board of the Stock Exchange (including the additional Shares which may be issued pursuant to the exercise of the Over-allotment Option, the Share Incentive Plan), and such listing and permission not subsequently having been revoked prior to the commencement of dealings in the Shares on the Stock Exchange;
- (ii) the Offer Price having been agreed between our Company and the Overall Coordinators (for themselves and on behalf of the Underwriters) on or around the Price Determination Date;
- (iii) the execution and delivery of the International Underwriting Agreement on or around the Price Determination Date; and

STRUCTURE OF THE GLOBAL OFFERING

- (iv) the obligations of the Underwriters under each of the Hong Kong Underwriting Agreement and the International Underwriting Agreement becoming and remaining unconditional and not having been terminated in accordance with the terms of the respective agreements, in each case on or before the dates and times specified in the respective Underwriting Agreements.

(unless and to the extent such conditions are validly waived on or before such dates and times).

If, for any reason, the Offer Price is not agreed between our Company and the Overall Coordinators (for themselves and on behalf of the Underwriters) on or before 12:00 noon on Friday, September 19, 2025, the Global Offering will not proceed and will lapse.

The consummation of each of the Hong Kong Public Offering and the International Offering is conditional upon, amongst others, the other offering becoming unconditional and not having been terminated in accordance with its terms.

If the above conditions are not fulfilled or waived prior to the dates and times specified, the Global Offering will lapse and the Stock Exchange will be notified immediately. Notice of the lapse of the Hong Kong Public Offering will be published by our Company on the websites of the Stock Exchange at www.hkexnews.hk and our Company at www.butong.com on the next day following such lapse. In such a situation, all application monies will be returned, without interest, on the terms set out in “How to Apply for Hong Kong Offer Shares — D. Despatch/Collection of Share Certificates and Refund of Application Monies.” In the meantime, all application monies will be held in separate bank account(s) with the receiving bank or other bank(s) in Hong Kong licensed under the Banking Ordinance (Chapter 155 of the Laws of Hong Kong).

Share certificates for the Offer Shares will only become valid at 8:00 a.m. on Tuesday, September 23, 2025, the date of commencement of the dealing in our Shares, provided that the Global Offering has become unconditional in all respects and the right of termination described in “Underwriting” has not been exercised. Investors who trade Shares prior to the receipt of Share certificates or prior to the Share certificates bearing valid evidence of title do so entirely at their own risk.

DEALING

Assuming that the Hong Kong Public Offering becomes unconditional at or before 8:00 a.m. in Hong Kong on Tuesday, September 23, 2025, it is expected that dealings in the Shares on the Stock Exchange will commence at 9:00 a.m. on Tuesday, September 23, 2025.

The Shares will be traded in board lots of 100 Shares each and the stock code of the Shares will be 6090.

Reporting Accountants' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Historical Financial Information and to report our opinion to you. We conducted our work in accordance with Hong Kong Standard on Investment Circular Reporting Engagements 200 “Accountants' Reports on Historical Financial Information in Investment Circulars” issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants (“HKICPA”). This standard requires that we comply with ethical standards and plan and perform our work to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the Historical Financial Information is free from material misstatement.

Our work involved performing procedures to obtain evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the Historical Financial Information. The procedures selected depend on the reporting accountants' judgement, including the assessment of risks of material misstatement of the Historical Financial Information, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the reporting accountants consider internal control relevant to the entity's preparation of Historical Financial Information that give a true and fair view in accordance with the basis of preparation and presentation set out in Note 2 to the Historical Financial Information in order to design procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. We believe that the evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

A review consists of making enquiries, primarily of persons responsible for financial and accounting matters, and applying analytical and other review procedures. A review is substantially less in scope than an audit conducted in accordance with Hong Kong Standards on Auditing and consequently does not enable us to obtain assurance that we would become aware of all significant matters that might be identified in an audit. Accordingly, we do not express an audit opinion. Based on our review, nothing has come to our attention that causes us to believe that the Stub Period Corresponding Financial Information, for the purpose of the accountants' report, is not prepared, in all material respects, in accordance with the basis of preparation and presentation set out in Note 2 to the Historical Financial Information.

NOTES TO THE HISTORICAL FINANCIAL INFORMATION

1 GENERAL INFORMATION

BUTONG GROUP (the “Company”) was incorporated as an exempted company with limited liability in the Cayman Islands under the Companies Act (as Revised) of the Cayman Islands on 2 August 2023. The registered office address of the Company is Palm Grove Unit 4, 265 Smith Road, George Town, P.O. Box 52A, Edgewater Way #1653, Grand Cayman KY1-9006, Cayman Islands.

The Company is an investment holding company and has not carried out any business operations since the date of its incorporation. The Company and its subsidiaries, (together, the “Group”) are principally engaged in designing, manufacturing and selling of premium nursery products in the People’s Republic of China (the “PRC”).

2 BASIS OF PREPARATION AND PRESENTATION OF HISTORICAL FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Prior to the incorporation of the Company, the aforementioned principal activities were carried out by BeBeBus IoT Technology (Shanghai) Co., Ltd. (“BeBeBus Technology”) and its subsidiaries. To rationalise the corporate structure in preparation of the listing of the Company’s shares on the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited, the Group underwent the reorganisation, as detailed in the section headed “History, Reorganisation and Corporate Structure” in the Prospectus (the “Reorganisation”). Upon completion of the Reorganisation, the Company became the holding company of the Group. Details of the Group’s subsidiaries as at 30 June 2025 are set out below.

Notes:

- (i) The official name of these entities is in Chinese. The English name is for identification purpose only.
- (ii) No audited financial statements of these entities for the years ended 31 December 2022, 2023 and 2024 were prepared as they are either newly incorporated or not required to issue audited financial statements under local statutory requirements of their respective places of incorporation.

- (iii) The statutory financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2024 is under preparation and not issued yet at the date of this report.
- (iv) All the above PRC companies are the limited liability companies.
- (v) All companies now comprising the Group have adopted 31 December as their financial year end date.

As the Reorganisation only involved inserting some newly formed entities with no business operations as the new holding companies of BeBeBus Technology, the former holding company of the Group, there were no changes in the economic substance of the ownership and the business of the Group. Accordingly, the Reorganisation has been accounted for using principles similar to those for a reverse acquisition, with BeBeBus Technology treated as the acquirer for accounting purposes. The Historical Financial Information has been prepared and presented as a continuation of the consolidated financial statements of BeBeBus Technology with the assets and liabilities of BeBeBus Technology recognised and measured at their historical carrying amounts prior to the Reorganisation. Intra-group balances, transactions and unrealised gains/losses on intra-group transactions are eliminated in full in preparing the Historical Financial Information.

As at 30 June 2025, the Group had net current liabilities of RMB129,597,000, including the redeemable preferred shares amounted to RMB361,016,000. The directors of the Company are of the opinion that no payment is expected for the settlement of the liabilities arising from redeemable preferred shares as the related redemption rights would terminate and the redeemable preferred shares would be converted into equity upon the qualified initial public offering of the Company's shares on the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited. Taken the above into consideration, and together with cashflow forecast for the next twelve months from the date of this report prepared by management of the Company, the directors of the Company are of the opinion that the Group will have sufficient financial resources to continue as a going concern for the next twelve months. Therefore, the directors of the Company are satisfied that it is appropriate to prepare the Historical Financial Information on a going concern basis.

The Historical Financial Information has been prepared in accordance with all applicable HKFRS Accounting Standards which collective term includes all applicable individual Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards, Hong Kong Accounting Standards ("HKASs") and Interpretations issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants ("HKICPA"). Further details of the material accounting policy information are set out in Note 3.

The HKICPA has issued a number of new and revised HKFRS Accounting Standards. For the purpose of preparing this Historical Financial Information, the Group has adopted all applicable new and revised HKFRS Accounting Standards to the Track Record Period, except for any new standards or interpretations that are not yet effective for the Track Record Period. The revised and new accounting standards and interpretations issued but not yet effective for the Track Record Period are set out in Note 33.

The Historical Financial Information also complies with the applicable disclosures provisions of the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (the "Stock Exchange"). The accounting policies set out below have been applied consistently to all periods presented in the Historical Financial Information. The Stub Period Corresponding Financial Information has been prepared in accordance with same basis of preparation and presentation adopted in respect of the Historical Financial Information.

3 MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICY INFORMATION

(a) Basis of measurement

Item included in the financial statements of each entity in the Group are measured using the currency that best reflects the economic substance of the underlying events and circumstances relevant to the entity (the "Functional Currency"). The Historical Financial Information and The Stub Period Corresponding Financial Information are presented in Renminbi ("RMB"), rounded to the nearest thousand except when otherwise indicated.

The measurement basis used in the preparation of the Historical Financial Information is the historical cost basis except certain financial assets, which are stated at their fair value as explained in Note 3(e).

(b) Use of estimates and judgments

The preparation of Historical Financial Information in conformity with HKFRS Accounting Standards requires management to make judgements, estimates and assumptions that affect the application of policies and reported amounts of assets, liabilities, income and expenses. The estimates and associated assumptions are based on historical experience and various other factors that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances, the results of which form the basis of making the judgements about carrying values of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

The estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognised in the period in which the estimate is revised if the revision affects only that period, or in the period of the revision and future periods if the revision affects both current and future periods.

Judgements made by management in the application of HKFRS Accounting Standards that have significant effect on the Historical Financial Information and major sources of estimation uncertainty are discussed in Note 4.

(c) Subsidiaries

Subsidiaries are entities controlled by the Group. The Group controls an entity when it is exposed to, or has rights to, variable returns from its involvement with the entity and has the ability to affect those returns through its power over the entity. The financial statements of subsidiaries are included in the Historical Financial Information from the date on which control commences until the date on which control ceases.

Intra-group balances and transactions, and any unrealised income and expenses (except for foreign currency transaction gains or losses) arising from intra-group transactions, are eliminated. Unrealised losses resulting from intra-group transactions are eliminated in the same way as unrealised gains, but only to the extent that there is no evidence of impairment.

Changes in the Group's interests in a subsidiary that do not result in a loss of control are accounted for as equity transactions.

When the Group loses control of a subsidiary, it is accounted for as a disposal of the entire interest in that subsidiary, with a resulting gain or loss being recognised in profit or loss. Any interest retained in that former subsidiary at the date when control is lost is recognised at fair value and this amount is regarded as the fair value on initial recognition of a financial asset or, when appropriate, the cost on initial recognition of an investment in an associate or joint venture.

In the Company's statement of financial position, an investment in a subsidiary is stated at cost less any impairment losses (see Note 3(i)(ii)). Cost includes deemed investment arising from the Reorganisation and equity-settled share-based payment expenses.

(d) Associates

An associate is an entity in which the Group or the Company has significant influence, but not control or joint control, over the financial and operating policies.

An interest in an associate is accounted for using the equity method, unless it is classified as held for sale (or included in a disposal group classified as held for sale). They are initially recognised at cost, which includes transaction costs. Subsequently, the consolidated financial statements include the Group's share of the profit or loss and other comprehensive income ("OCI") of those investees, until the date on which significant influence ceases.

When the Group's share of losses exceeds its interest in the associate, the Group's interest is reduced to nil and recognition of further losses is discontinued except to the extent that the Group has incurred legal or constructive obligations or made payments on behalf of the investee. For this purpose, the Group's interest is the carrying amount of the investment under the equity method, together with any other long-term interests that in substance form part of the Group's net investment in the associate, after applying the ECL model to such other long-term interests where applicable (see Note 3(i)).

Unrealised gains arising from transactions with equity-accounted investees are eliminated against the investment to the extent of the Group's interest in the investee. Unrealised losses are eliminated in the same way as unrealised gains, but only to the extent there is no evidence of impairment.

(e) Investments in securities other than equity investments

Investments in securities are recognised/derecognised on the date the Group commits to purchase/sell the investment. The investments are initially stated at fair value plus directly attributable transaction costs, except for those investments measured at FVTPL for which transaction costs are recognised directly in profit or loss. These investments are subsequently accounted for as follows, depending on their classification.

Non-equity investments are classified into one of the following measurement categories:

- amortised cost, if the investment is held for the collection of contractual cash flows which represent solely payments of principal and interest. Expected credit losses, interest income calculated using the effective interest method (see Note 3(t)(ii)(a)), foreign exchange gains and losses are recognised in profit or loss. Any gain or loss on derecognition is recognised in profit or loss.
- fair value through other comprehensive income (“FVOCI”) — recycling, if the contractual cash flows of the investment comprise solely payments of principal and interest and the investment is held within a business model whose objective is achieved by both the collection of contractual cash flows and sale. Changes in fair value are recognised in other comprehensive income, except for the recognition in profit or loss of expected credit losses and interest income (calculated using the effective interest method). When the investment is derecognised, the amount accumulated in OCI is recycled from equity to profit or loss.
- fair value through profit or loss (“FVTPL”) if the investment does not meet the criteria for being measured at amortised cost or FVOCI (recycling). Changes in the fair value of the investment (including interest) are recognised in profit or loss.

(f) Property, plant and equipment

Properties, plant and equipment are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and any accumulated impairment losses (see Note 3(i)(ii)).

Gains or losses arising from the retirement or disposal of an item of property and equipment are determined as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the item and are recognised in profit or loss on the date of retirement or disposal.

Depreciation is calculated to write off the cost of items of property, plant and equipment less their estimated residual values, if any, using the straight-line method over their estimated useful lives as follows:

Plant and buildings	20 years
Machinery and equipment	3 to 10 years
Motor vehicles	4 years
Office and other equipment	3 to 5 years
Leasehold improvement	2 to 5 years

Where parts of an item of property, plant and equipment have different useful lives, the cost is allocated on a reasonable basis between the parts and each part is depreciated separately. Both the useful life of an asset and its residual value, if any, are annually.

Construction in progress represents properties under construction and machinery and equipment pending installation and is stated at cost less impairment losses (see Note 3(i)(ii)). Cost comprises the purchase costs of the asset and the related construction and installation costs. Construction in progress is transferred to property, plant and equipment when the asset is substantially ready for its intended use and depreciation will be provided at the appropriate rates in accordance with the depreciation policies specified above. No depreciation is provided in respect of construction in progress.

(g) Intangible assets

Expenditure on research activities is recognised in profit or loss as incurred. Development expenditure is capitalised only if the expenditure can be measured reliably, the product or process is technically and commercially feasible, future economic benefits are probable and the Group intends to and has sufficient resources to complete development and to use or sell the resulting asset. Otherwise, it is recognised in profit or loss as incurred.

Other intangible assets, including software and patents, that are acquired by the Group and have finite useful lives are measured at cost less accumulated amortisation and any accumulated impairment losses (see Note 3(i)(ii)).

Amortisation is calculated to write off the cost of intangible assets less their estimated residual values, if any, using the straight-line method over their estimated useful lives, and is generally recognised in profit or loss.

The estimated useful lives of intangible assets are as follows:

– Software	3 to 5 years
– Patents	5 to 15 years

The estimates and associated assumptions of useful life of software determined by the Group are based on technical and commercial obsolescence, legal or contractual limits on the use of the asset and other relevant factors. Based on the current functionalities equipped by the software and the daily operation needs, the Group considers a useful life of 3 to 5 years to be their best estimation.

Patents are capitalised on the basis of the cost incurred to acquire and bring to use. The patents owned by the Group consists of the invention patents, the appearance design patents and the utility model patents, which have different validity periods as required by the Patent Law of PRC. The estimated useful lives of patents are determined based on the shorter between the residual validity period of the patents and the expected lifespan of the respective products using the patents.

Amortisation methods, useful lives and residual values are reviewed at each reporting date and adjusted if appropriate.

(h) Lease assets

At inception of a contract, the Group assesses whether the contract is, or contains, a lease. This is the case if the contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration. Control is conveyed where the customer has both the right to direct the use of the identified asset and to obtain substantially all of the economic benefits from that use.

(i) As a lessee

Where the contract contains lease component(s) and non-lease component(s), the Group has elected not to separate non-lease components and accounts for each lease component and any associated non-lease components as a single lease component for all leases.

At the lease commencement date, the Group recognises a right-of-use asset and a lease liability, except for leases that have a short lease term of 12 months or less, and leases of low-value items such as laptops and office furniture. When the Group enters into a lease in respect of a low-value item, the Group decides whether to capitalise the lease on a lease-by-lease basis. If not capitalised, the associated lease payments are recognised in profit or loss on a systematic basis over the lease term.

Where the lease is capitalised, the lease liability is initially recognised at the present value of the lease payments payable over the lease term, discounted using the interest rate implicit in the lease or, if that rate cannot be readily determined, using a relevant incremental borrowing rate. After initial recognition, the lease liability is measured at amortised cost and interest expense is recognised using the effective interest method. Variable lease payments that do not depend on an index or rate are not included in the measurement of the lease liability, and are charged to profit or loss as incurred.

The right-of-use asset recognised when a lease is capitalised is initially measured at cost, which comprises the initial amount of the lease liability adjusted for any lease payments made at or before the commencement date, plus any initial direct costs incurred and an estimate of costs to dismantle and remove the underlying asset or to restore the underlying asset or the site on which it is located, less any lease incentives received. The right-of-use asset is subsequently stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses (see Note 3(i)(ii)).

The lease liability is remeasured when there is a change in future lease payments arising from a change in an index or rate, if there is a change in the Group's estimate of the amount expected to be payable under a residual value guarantee, or if the Group changes its assessment of whether it will exercise a purchase, extension or termination option. When the lease liability is remeasured in this way, a corresponding adjustment is made to the carrying amount of the right-of-use asset, or is recorded in profit or loss if the carrying amount of the right-of-use asset has been reduced to zero.

The lease liability is also remeasured when there is a lease modification, which means a change in the scope of a lease or the consideration for a lease that is not originally provided for in the lease contract, if such modification is not accounted for as a separate lease. In this case, the lease liability is remeasured based on the revised lease payments and lease term using a revised discount rate at the effective date of the modification.

In the consolidated statement of financial position, the current portion of long-term lease liabilities is determined as the present value of contractual payments that are due to be settled within twelve months after the reporting period.

(i) Credit losses and impairment of assets

(i) Credit losses from financial instruments

The Group recognises a loss allowance for expected credit losses ("ECLs") on the financial assets measured at amortised cost, including cash and cash equivalents, trade receivables and other receivables. Financial assets measured at fair value are not subject to the ECL assessment.

Measurement of ECLs

ECLs are a probability-weighted estimate of credit losses. Credit losses are measured as the present value of all expected cash shortfalls (i.e. the difference between the cash flows due to the Group in accordance with the contract and the cash flows that the Group expects to receive).

The expected cash shortfalls are discounted using the following discount rates where the effect of discounting is material:

- fixed-rate financial assets and trade and other receivables: effective interest rate determined at initial recognition or an approximation thereof; and
- variable-rate financial assets: current effective interest rate.

The maximum period considered when estimating ECLs is the maximum contractual period over which the Group is exposed to credit risk.

In measuring ECLs, the Group takes into account reasonable and supportable information that is available without undue cost or effort. This includes information about past events, current conditions and forecasts of future economic conditions.

ECLs are measured on either of the following bases:

- 12-month ECLs: these are the portion of ECLs that result from default events that are possible within the 12 months after the reporting date (or a shorter period if the expected life of the instrument is less than 12 months); and
- lifetime ECLs: these are the ECLs that result from all possible default events over the expected lives of the items to which the ECL model applies.

Loss allowances for trade receivables are always measured at an amount equal to lifetime ECLs. ECLs on these financial assets are estimated using a provision matrix based on the Group's historical credit loss experience, adjusted for factors that are specific to the debtors and an assessment of both the current and forecast general economic conditions at the reporting date.

For all other financial instruments, the Group recognises a loss allowance equal to 12-month ECLs unless there has been a significant increase in credit risk of the financial instrument since initial recognition, in which case the loss allowance is measured at an amount equal to lifetime ECLs.

Significant increases in credit risk

In assessing whether the credit risk of a financial instrument has increased significantly since initial recognition, the Group compares the risk of default occurring on the financial instrument assessed at the reporting date with that assessed at the date of initial recognition. In making this reassessment, the Group considers that a default event occurs when the borrower is unlikely to pay its credit obligations to the Group in full, without recourse by the Group to actions such as realising security (if any is held). The Group considers both quantitative and qualitative information that is reasonable and supportable, including historical experience and forward-looking information that is available without undue cost or effort.

In particular, the following information is taken into account when assessing whether credit risk has increased significantly since initial recognition:

- failure to make payments of principal or interest on their contractually due dates;
- an actual or expected significant deterioration in a financial instrument's external or internal credit rating (if available);
- an actual or expected significant deterioration in the operating results of the debtor; and
- existing or forecast changes in the technological, market, economic or legal environment that have a significant adverse effect on the debtor's ability to meet its obligation to the Group.

Depending on the nature of the financial instruments, the assessment of a significant increase in credit risk is performed on either an individual basis or a collective basis. When the assessment is performed on a collective basis, the financial instruments are grouped based on shared credit risk characteristics, such as past due status and credit risk ratings.

ECLs are remeasured at each reporting date to reflect changes in the financial instrument's credit risk since initial recognition. Any change in the ECL amount is recognised as an impairment gain or loss in profit or loss. The Group recognises an impairment gain or loss for all financial instruments with a corresponding adjustment to their carrying amount through a loss allowance account.

Credit-impaired financial assets

Interest income recognised in accordance with Note 3(t)(ii) is calculated based on the gross carrying amount of the financial asset unless the financial asset is credit-impaired, in which case interest income is calculated based on the amortised cost (i.e. the gross carrying amount less loss allowance) of the financial assets.

At each reporting date, the Group assesses whether a financial asset is credit-impaired. A financial asset is credit-impaired when one or more events that have a detrimental impact on the estimated future cash flows of the financial asset have occurred.

Evidence that a financial asset is credit-impaired includes the following observable events:

- significant financial difficulties of the debtor;
- a breach of contract, such as a default or delinquency in interest or principal payments;
- it is becoming probable that the borrower will enter into bankruptcy or other financial reorganisation;
- significant changes in the technological, market, economic or legal environment that have an adverse effect on the debtor; or
- the disappearance of an active market for a security because of financial difficulties of the issuer.

Write-off policy

The gross carrying amount of a financial asset is written off to the extent that there is no realistic prospect of recovery. This is generally the case when the Group otherwise determines that the debtor does not have assets or sources of income that could generate sufficient cash flows to repay the amounts subject to the write-off.

Subsequent recoveries of an asset that was previously written off are recognised as a reversal of impairment in profit or loss in the period in which the recovery occurs.

(ii) Impairment of other non-current assets

At each reporting date, the Group reviews the carrying amounts of the following non-financial assets to determine whether there is any indication of impairment:

- property, plant and equipment, including the construction in progress;
- right-of-use assets;
- intangible assets;
- investments in subsidiaries in the Company's statement of financial position.

If any such indication exists, the asset's recoverable amount is estimated. In addition, for intangible assets that are not yet available for use and intangible assets that have indefinite useful lives, the recoverable amount is estimated annually whether there is any indication of impairment.

Calculation of recoverable amount

The recoverable amount of an asset is the greater of its value in use and its fair value less costs of disposal. Value in use is based on the estimated future cash flows, discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset. Where an asset does not generate cash inflows largely independent of those from other assets, the recoverable amount is determined for the smallest group of assets that generates cash inflows independently (i.e. a cash-generating unit).

Reversals of impairment losses

For other assets, an impairment loss is reversed only to the extent that the resulting carrying amount does not exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined, net of depreciation or amortisation, if no impairment loss had been recognised.

(j) Inventories

Inventories are assets which are held for sale in the ordinary course of business, in the process of production for such sale or in the form of materials or supplies to be consumed in the production process or in the rendering of services.

Inventories are measured at the lower of cost and net realisable value.

Cost is calculated using the weighted average cost formula and comprises all costs of purchase, costs of conversion and other costs incurred in bringing the inventories to their present location and condition.

Net realisable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business less the estimated costs of completion and the estimated costs necessary to make the sale.

When inventories are sold, the carrying amount of those inventories is recognised as an expense in the period in which the related revenue is recognised.

The amount of any write-down of inventories to net realizable value and all losses of inventories are recognised as an expense in the period the write-down or loss occurs. The amount of any reversal of any write-down of inventories is recognised as a reduction in the amount of inventories recognised as an expense in the period in which the reversal occurs.

(k) Contract liabilities

A contract liability is recognised when the customer pays non-refundable consideration before the Group recognises the related revenue. A contract liability is also recognised if the Group has an unconditional right to receive non-refundable consideration before the Group recognises the related revenue. In such latter cases, a corresponding receivable is also recognised (see Note 3(l)).

When the contract includes a significant financing component, the contract balance includes interest accrued under the effective interest method (see Note 3(t)(ii)).

(l) Trade and other receivables

A receivable is recognised when the Group has an unconditional right to receive consideration. A right to receive consideration is unconditional if only the passage of time is required before payment of that consideration is due. If revenue has been recognised before the Group has unconditional right to receive consideration, the amount is presented as a contract asset.

Trade receivables that do not contain a significant financing component are initially measured at their transaction price. Trade receivables that contain a significant financing component and other receivables are initially measured at fair value plus transaction costs. All receivables are subsequently stated at amortised cost, using the effective interest method and including an allowance for credit losses (see Note 3(i)(i)).

(m) Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents comprise cash at bank and on hand, demand deposits with banks and other financial institutions, and other short-term, highly liquid investments that are readily convertible into known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value, having been within three months of maturity at acquisition. Cash and cash equivalents are assessed for ECL in accordance with the policy set out in Note 3(i)(i)).

(n) Trade and other payables

Trade and other payables are initially recognised at fair value. Subsequent to initial recognition, trade and other payables are stated at amortised cost unless the effect of discounting would be immaterial, in which case they are stated at invoice amounts.

(o) Redeemable preferred shares

The Group's redeemable preferred shares are classified, on the basis of their component parts, as financial liabilities or equity in accordance with the substance of the contractual arrangements and the definitions of a financial liability and an equity instrument.

The Group's contractual obligations to purchase its own shares/redeem the preferred shares for cash upon the occurrence of events that are beyond the control of both the Group and the holders give rise to financial liabilities. The financial liabilities are initially measured at the present value of the redemption amount and subsequently measured at amortised cost with changes in the carrying amount of the financial liabilities recognised in profit or loss.

The Group derecognises the financial liabilities arising from redeemable preferred shares when, and only when, the Group's redemption obligations are discharged, cancelled, or have expired. When the redemption obligations expire without exercise or when the redeemable preferred shares are converted into ordinary shares upon the Listing of the Company, the carrying amount of the financial liabilities is reclassified or transferred to equity.

(p) Interest-bearing borrowings

Interest-bearing borrowings are measured initially at fair value less transaction costs. Subsequent to initial recognition, interest-bearing borrowings are stated at amortised cost using the effective interest method. Interest expense is recognised in accordance with the Group's accounting policy for borrowing costs (see Note 3(v)).

(q) Employee benefits(i) Short-term employee benefits and contributions to defined contribution retirement plans

Short-term employee benefits are expensed as the related service is provided. A liability is recognised for the amount expected to be paid if the Group has a present legal or constructive obligation to pay this amount as a result of past service provided by the employee and the obligation can be estimated reliably.

Obligations for contributions to defined contribution retirement plans are expensed as the related service is provided.

(ii) Share-based payments

The grant-date fair value of equity-settled share-based payments granted to employees is measured using the binomial option pricing model. The amount is generally recognised as an expense, with a corresponding increase in equity, over the vesting period of the options. The amount recognised as an expense is adjusted to reflect the number of options for which the related service conditions are expected to be met, such that the amount ultimately recognised is based on the number of options that meet the related service conditions at the vesting date. At the end of each period, the Group revises its estimates of the number of options that are expected to vest based on the non-market vesting and service conditions. It recognises the impact of the revision to original estimates, if any, in profit or loss, with a corresponding adjustment to equity. The equity amount is recognised in the reserve until either the option is exercised (when it is included in the amount recognised in share capital for the shares issued) or the option expires (when it is released directly to retained profits).

(iii) Termination benefits

Termination benefits are expensed at the earlier of when the Group can no longer withdraw the offer of those benefits and when the Group recognises costs for a restructuring.

(r) Income tax

Income tax expense comprises current tax and deferred tax. It is recognised in profit or loss except to the extent that it relates to a business combination, or items recognised directly in equity or in OCI.

Current tax comprises the estimated tax payable or receivable on the taxable income or loss for the year and any adjustments to the tax payable or receivable in respect of previous years. The amount of current tax payable or receivable is the best estimate of the tax amount expected to be paid or received that reflects any uncertainty related to income taxes. It is measured using tax rates enacted or substantively enacted at the reporting date. Current tax also includes any tax arising from dividends.

Current tax assets and liabilities are offset only if certain criteria are met.

Deferred tax is recognised in respect of temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities for financial reporting purposes and the amounts used for taxation purposes. Deferred tax is not recognised for:

- temporary differences on the initial recognition of assets or liabilities in a transaction that is not a business combination and that affects neither accounting nor taxable profit or loss and does not give rise to equal taxable and deductible temporary differences;
- temporary differences related to investment in subsidiaries to the extent that the Group is able to control the timing of the reversal of the temporary differences and it is probable that they will not reverse in the foreseeable future;
- taxable temporary differences arising on the initial recognition of goodwill; and
- those related to the income taxes arising from tax laws enacted or substantively enacted to implement the Pillar Two model rules published by the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development.

The Group recognised deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities separately in relation to its lease liabilities and right-of-use assets.

Deferred tax assets are recognised for unused tax losses, unused tax credits and deductible temporary differences to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profits will be available against which they can be used. Future taxable profits are determined based on the reversal of relevant taxable temporary differences. If the amount of taxable temporary differences is insufficient to recognise a deferred tax asset in full, then future taxable profits, adjusted for reversals of existing temporary differences, are considered, based on the business plans for individual subsidiaries in the Group. Deferred tax assets are reviewed at each reporting date and are reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that the related tax benefit will be realised; such reductions are reversed when the probability of future taxable profits improves.

The measurement of deferred tax reflects the tax consequences that would follow from the manner in which the Group expects, at the reporting date, to recover or settle the carrying amount of its assets and liabilities.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset only if certain criteria are met.

(s) Provisions and contingent liabilities

Generally provisions are determined by discounting the expected future cash flows at a pre-tax rate that reflects current market assessment of the time value of money and the risks specific to the liability. A provision for warranties is recognised when the underlying products of services are sold, based on historical warranty data and a weighting of possible outcomes against their associated probabilities.

Where it is not probable that an outflow of economic benefits will be required, or the amount cannot be estimated reliably, the obligation is disclosed as a contingent liability, unless the probability of outflow of economic benefits is remote. Possible obligations, whose existence will only be confirmed by the occurrence or non-occurrence of one or more future events are also disclosed as contingent liabilities unless the probability of outflow of economic benefits is remote.

Where some or all of the expenditure required to settle a provision is expected to be reimbursed by another party, a separate asset is recognised for any expected reimbursement that would be virtually certain. The amount recognised for the reimbursement is limited to the carrying amount of the provision.

(t) Revenue and other income

Income is classified by the Group as revenue when it arises from the sale of goods, or the provision of services in the ordinary course of the Group's business.

Further details of the Group's revenue and other income recognition policies are as follows:

(i) Revenue from contracts with customers

Revenue is recognised when control over a product is transferred to the customer at the amount of promised consideration to which the Group is expected to be entitled, excluding those amounts collected on behalf of third parties such as value added tax or other sales taxes.

The Group primarily sells its products to customers through online channels and offline channels. Revenue from the sale of products is recognised at the point in time when control of the asset is transferred to the customer, generally upon the acceptance by the customer.

The Group is the principal for its revenue transactions and recognises revenue on a gross basis, including the sale of products that are sourced externally. In determining whether the Group acts as a principal or as an agent, it considers whether it obtains control of the products before they are transferred to the customers. Control refers to the Group's ability to direct the use of and obtain substantially all of the remaining benefits from the products.

For the contract which the Group grants a customer the option to acquire additional goods (such as loyalty points and rebates), the Group assesses whether the option provides a material right to the customer. If the option provides a material right, the Group recognises the option as a performance obligation, and recognises revenue when those future goods are transferred or when the option expires. If the stand-alone selling price for a customer's option to acquire additional goods is not directly observable, the Group estimates it, taking into account all relevant information, including the difference in the discount that the customer would receive when exercising the option or without exercising the option, and the likelihood that the option will be exercised.

(ii) Other income

(a) Interest income

Interest income is recognised using the effective interest method. The "effective interest rate" is the rate that exactly discounts estimated future cash receipt through the expected life of the financial asset to the gross carrying amount of the financial asset. In calculating interest income, the effective interest rate is applied to the gross carrying amount of the asset (when the asset is not credit-impaired). However, for financial assets that have become credit-impaired subsequent to initial recognition, interest income is calculated by applying the effective interest rate to the amortised cost of the financial asset. If the asset is no longer credit-impaired, then the calculation of interest income reverts to the gross basis.

(b) Government grants

Government grants are recognised in the statement of financial position initially when there is reasonable assurance that they will be received and that the Group will comply with the conditions attaching to them. Grants that compensate the Group for expenses incurred are recognised as income in profit or loss on a systematic basis in the same periods in which the expenses are incurred. Grants that compensate the Group for the cost of an asset are deducted from the carrying amount of the asset and consequently are effectively recognised in profit or loss over the useful life of the asset by way of reduced depreciation expense.

(u) Translation of foreign currencies

Transactions in foreign currencies are translated into the respective functional currencies of group companies at the exchange rates at the dates of the transactions.

Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated into the functional currency at the exchange rate at the reporting date. Non-monetary assets and liabilities that are measured at fair value in a foreign currency are translated into the functional currency at the exchange rate when the fair value was determined. Non-monetary assets and liabilities that are measured based on historical cost in a foreign currency are translated at the exchange rate at the date of the transaction. Foreign currency differences are generally recognised in profit or loss.

The assets and liabilities of foreign operations, including goodwill and fair value adjustments arising on acquisition, are translated into RMB at the exchange rates at the reporting date. The income and expenses of foreign operations are translated into RMB at the exchange rates at the dates of the transactions.

Foreign currency differences are recognised in OCI and accumulated in the exchange reserve, except to the extent that the translation difference is allocated to non-controlling interest.

(v) Borrowing costs

Borrowing costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of an asset which necessarily takes a substantial period of time to get ready for its intended use or sale are capitalised as part of the cost of that asset. Other borrowing costs are expensed in the period in which they are incurred.

(w) Related parties

(a) A person, or a close member of that person's family, is related to the Group if that person:

- (i) has control or joint control over the Group;
- (ii) has significant influence over the Group; or
- (iii) is a member of the key management personnel of the Group or the Group's parent.

(b) An entity is related to the Group if any of the following conditions applies:

- (i) The entity and the Group are members of the same Group (which means that each parent, subsidiary and fellow subsidiary is related to the others).
- (ii) One entity is an associate or joint venture of the other entity (or an associate or joint venture of a member of a Group of which the other entity is a member).
- (iii) Both entities are joint ventures of the same third party.
- (iv) One entity is a joint venture of a third entity and the other entity is an associate of the third party.

- (v) The entity is a post-employment benefit plan for the benefit of employees of either the Group or an entity related to the Group.
- (vi) The entity is controlled or jointly controlled by a person identified in (a).
- (vii) A person identified in (a)(i) has significant influence over the entity or is a member of the key management personnel of the entity (or of a parent of the entity).
- (viii) The entity, or any member of a Group of which it is a part, provides key management personnel services to the Group or to the Group's parent.

Close members of the family of a person are those family members who may be expected to influence, or be influenced by, that person in their dealings with the entity.

(x) Segment reporting

Operating segments, and the amounts of each segment item reported in the Historical Financial Information, are identified from the financial information provided regularly to the Group's most senior executive management for the purposes of allocating resources to, and assessing the performance of, the Group's various lines of business and geographical locations.

Individually material operating segments are not aggregated for financial reporting purposes unless the segments have similar economic characteristics and are similar in respect of the nature of products and services, the nature of production processes, the type or class of customers, the methods used to distribute the products or provide the services, and the nature of the regulatory environment. Operating segments which are not individually material may be aggregated if they share a majority of these criteria.

4 ACCOUNTING JUDGEMENTS AND ESTIMATES

The significant sources of estimation uncertainty in the process of applying the Group's accounting policies are as follows:

(i) Net realisable value of inventories

Net realisable value of inventories is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business, less estimated costs to completion and selling expenses. These estimates are based on the current market condition and the historical experience of selling products of similar nature. It could change significantly as a result of changes in customer preferences and competitor actions in response to serve industry cycles. Management reassesses these estimates at the end of each reporting period.

(ii) Depreciation and amortisation

Property, plant and equipment, right-of-use assets and intangible assets are depreciated or amortised on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful lives of the assets. The Group reviews the estimated useful lives of the assets regularly in order to determine the amount of depreciation or amortisation expense to be recorded during the Track Record Period. The useful lives are based on the Group's historical experience with similar assets. The depreciation and amortisation expenses for future periods are adjusted if there are material changes from previous estimates.

(iii) Fair value of share-based payments

As mentioned in Note 28, the Group has granted share options to a director and certain employees. The Group has used binomial option-pricing model to determine the total fair value of the share options granted. Significant estimate on assumptions, such as the underlying equity value, risk-free interest rate, expected volatility and dividend yield, is required to be made by the Group in applying the binomial option-pricing model.

(iv) Recognition of deferred tax assets

Deferred tax assets in respect of tax losses carried forward and deductible temporary differences are recognised and measured based on the expected manner of realization or settlement of the carrying amount of the relevant assets and liabilities, using tax rates enacted or substantively enacted at the end of each reporting date. In determining the carrying amounts of deferred tax assets, expected taxable profits are estimated which involves a number of assumptions relating to the operating environment of the Group and require a significant level of judgement exercised by the directors. Any change in such assumptions and judgement would affect the carrying amounts of deferred tax assets to be recognised and hence the net profit in future years.

(v) Warranty provisions

As explained in Note 26, the Group makes provisions under the warranties it gives on sale of products taking into account the Group's recent claim experience. As the Group is continually upgrading its product designs and launching new models it is possible that the recent claim experience is not indicative of future claims that it will receive in respect of past sales. Any increase or decrease in the provision would affect profit or loss in future years.

5 REVENUE AND SEGMENT REPORTING

(a) Revenue

The principal activities of the Group are designing, researching and developing, and manufacturing and selling of premium nursery products.

The Group's chief operating decision maker is the chief executive officer of the Group, who reviews the Group's results of operations as a whole for the purpose of making decisions about resource allocation and performance assessment. Accordingly, the Group has one reportable operating segment with no reportable segment information presented.

(i) Disaggregation of revenue

(ii) Revenue expected to be recognised in the future arising from contracts in existence at the reporting date

As at 31 December 2022, 2023 and 2024 and 30 June 2025, the Group has applied the practical expedient in paragraph 121 of HKFRS 15 to its contracts for sales of products such that information about revenue expected to be recognised in the future is not disclosed in respect of revenue that the Group will be entitled to when it satisfied the remaining performance obligations under the contracts for sales of products that had an expected duration of one year or less.

(b) Geographic information

The following table sets out information about the geographical location of the Group's revenue from external customers at which the goods were delivered.

28 EQUITY-SETTLED SHARE-BASED PAYMENT

On 9 January 2021, BeBeBus Technology granted share options (the “2021 Options”) as equity-based awards to qualified employees with the purpose of motivating and rewarding certain employees. The exercise price is nil and the options were valid and effective for 10 years from the grant date of options. The 2021 Options shall vest upon the completion of a qualified IPO.

In anticipation of the Listing and as part of the Reorganisation, in September 2024, the Company adopted a Pre-IPO Share Option Scheme (the “Pre-IPO ESOP”) and granted 2,989,240 share options to entirely replace the previous 2021 Options. As compared with those for the replaced share options, other than the change of issuer of shares from BeBeBus Technology to the Company, there are no other changes in the terms of these new options. This change constituted a modification of the 2021 Options without material change to the total fair value of the options as at the modification date.

In addition, the Company granted additional 2,835,680 options under the Pre-IPO ESOP to other qualified employees on 26 September 2024. The additional share options issued under the Pre-IPO plan requires the employees to remain service for a 48 months period from the date of grant, and to meet certain performance conditions, along with a qualified IPO of the Company. The additional options granted under the Pre-IPO ESOP have exercise price of US$1.23 per share (equivalent to RMB8.64 per share) and are valid and effective for 10 years from the approval.

The terms and conditions of the grants are as follows:

	Number of instruments	Vesting conditions	Contractual life of options
Options granted to employees:
– In 2021, which were replaced with the Pre-IPO ESOP options in 2024	2,989,240	Vest on a qualified IPO	10 years
– In 2024 and 2025 under the Pre-IPO ESOP	2,835,680	48 months from the date of grant and a qualified IPO	10 years
Total share options granted	5,824,920

During the six months ended 30 June 2025, a total of 50,832 options were forfeited as two employees resigned and left the Group and the Company then granted these options to a newly qualified employee, which has been approved by the board of directors on 4 June 2025. There is no exercisable options at the end of each reporting period as Company has not completed a qualified IPO.

During the years ended 31 December 2023 and 2024, 2,989,240 and 1,586,398 ordinary shares were issued and allotted to WEILING HOLDING INC (“WEILING”) respectively. WEILING is wholly owned by Futu Trustee Limited indirectly, the trustee of the Pre-IPO ESOP Trust (“Trustee”). Such shares will be distributed to the qualified employees upon the exercise of the options granted under the Pre-IPO ESOP. The Trustee shall not exercise the voting rights in respect of any shares held upon trust by WEILING.

Fair value of share options

The fair value of share options was estimated using the Binomial Option Pricing Model. The determination of estimated fair value of the 2021 Options and new options issued in the Pre-IPO ESOP on the grant date is affected by the fair value of the Company’s ordinary shares as well as assumptions regarding a number of complex and subjective variables. These variables include the expected volatility of the shares of the Company over the expected term of the options, actual and projected employee share option exercise behaviors, a risk-free interest rate and expected dividends, if any. The grant date fair value of the share options was determined with the assistance of an independent third-party valuation firm. The fair value of the ordinary shares was principally developed through the application of the discounted cash flow (DCF) model. Based on fair value of the underlying ordinary shares, the Group has used Binomial Optional Pricing Model to determine the fair value of the share option as at grant date.

Key assumptions of the share options issued to the qualified employees in 2021 Options which was subsequently replaced in 2024 are set as below.

	As at 9 January 2021 (the grant date)
Risk-free interest rates	3.14%
Expected volatility	58.34%
Dividend yield	0%

Key assumptions of the share options issued to the other qualified employees in Pre-IPO ESOP in 2024 are set as below.

	As at 26 September 2024 (the grant date)
Risk-free interest rates	1.62%
Expected volatility	52.97%

(c) Dividends

No dividend or distribution has been declared or made by the Company or any of the companies now comprising the Group during the Track Record Period.

(d) Nature and purpose of reserves(i) Share-based payments reserve

The share-based payments reserve represents the portion of the grant date fair value of share options granted to a director and employees of the Group that has been recognised in accordance with the accounting policy adopted for share-based payments reserve in Note 3(q)(ii).

(ii) Other reserve

The other reserve represents the deemed distribution arising from (i) the fair value of the additional preferential rights granted for nil consideration upon the recognition of redeemable preferred shares; and (ii) tax expenses arising from the Reorganisation paid by the Group for the shareholders. The details of redeemable preferred shares is disclosed in Note 27.

(iii) Exchange reserve

The exchange reserve comprises all foreign exchange differences arising from the translation of the financial statements of certain subsidiaries within the Group. The reserve is dealt with in accordance with the accounting policies set out in Note 3(u).

(e) Capital management

The Group's primary objectives when managing capital are to safeguard the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, so that it can continue to provide returns for shareholders and benefits for other stakeholders, by pricing products and services commensurately with the level of risk and by securing access to finance at a reasonable cost.

The Group actively and regularly reviews and manages its capital structure to maintain a balance between the higher shareholder returns that might be possible with higher levels of borrowings and the advantages and security afforded by a sound capital position and makes adjustments to the capital structure in light of changes in economic conditions.

Neither the Company nor any of its subsidiaries are subject to externally imposed capital requirements.

30 FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT AND FAIR VALUES OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

Exposure to credit, liquidity and interest rate risks arises in the normal course of the Group's business. The Group's exposure to these risks and the financial risk management policies and practices used by the Group to manage these risks are described below.

(a) Credit risk

Credit risk refers to the risk that a counterparty will default on its contractual obligations resulting in a financial loss to the Group. The Group's credit risk is primarily attributable to trade and other receivables. The Group's exposure to credit risk arising from cash and cash equivalents is limited because the counterparties are banks and financial institutions with high-credit-quality, for which the Group considers to have low credit risk.

Trade receivables

In respect of trade receivables, the Group has established a credit risk management policy under which individual credit evaluations are performed on all customers requiring credit over a certain amount. These evaluations focus on the customer's past history of making payments when due and current ability to pay, and take into account information specific to the customer as well as pertaining to the economic environment in which the customer operates. Trade receivables are due within 30 to 90 days from the date of billing. Normally, the Group does not obtain collateral from debtors.

The Group's exposure to credit risk on trade receivables is influenced mainly by the individual characteristics of each customer rather than the industry in which the customers operate and therefore significant concentrations of credit risk primarily arise when the Group has significant exposure to individual debtors. As at 31 December 2022, 2023 and 2024 and 30 June 2025, 71%, 67%, 78% and 71% of total receivables were due from the Group's largest customer and 100%, 99%, 98% and 98% of the total trade receivables were due from the Group's five largest customers.

The Group measures loss allowances for trade receivables at an amount equal to lifetime ECLs, which is calculated using a provision matrix. As the Group's historical credit loss experience does not indicate significantly different loss patterns for different customer segments, the loss allowance based on past due status is not further distinguished between the Group's different customer bases.

The following table provides information about the Group's exposure to credit risk and ECLs for trade receivables as at 31 December 2022, 2023 and 2024:

As at 31 December 2022
	Expected loss rate	Gross carrying amount	Loss allowance
	%	RMB'000	RMB'000
Within 90 days	0.50%	12,955	65
As at 31 December 2023
	Expected loss rate	Gross carrying amount	Loss allowance
	%	RMB'000	RMB'000
Within 90 days	0.50%	26,790	134
As at 31 December 2024
	Expected loss rate	Gross carrying amount	Loss allowance
	%	RMB'000	RMB'000
Within 90 days	0.50%	31,527	158
As at 30 June 2025
	Expected loss rate	Gross carrying amount	Loss allowance
	%	RMB'000	RMB'000
Within 90 days	0.50%	71,823	359

Movement in the loss allowance account in respect of trade receivables during the Track Record Period is as follows:

	Year ended 31 December			Six months ended 30 June
	2022	2023	2024	2025
	RMB'000	RMB'000	RMB'000	RMB'000
Balance at the beginning of the year/period	61	65	134	158
Loss allowance recognised	4	69	24	201
Balance at the end of the year/period	65	134	158	359

Other receivables

Credit risk in respect of other receivables is limited since the balance mainly includes prepayments, deposits, value-added-tax recoverable, and amounts due from related parties.

The Group has assessed that during the Track Record Period, other receivables have not had a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition. Thus, a 12-month expected credit loss approach that results from possible default event within 12 months of each reporting date is adopted by management. The Group does not expect any losses from non-performance by the counterparties of other receivables and no loss allowance provision for other receivables was recognised.

(b) Liquidity risk

In management of liquidity risk, the Group's policy is to regularly monitor its liquidity requirements and its compliance with lending covenants, to ensure that it maintains sufficient reserves of cash and adequate committed lines of funding from major financial institutions to meet its liquidity requirements in the short and longer term. Historically, the Group has relied principally on both operational sources of cash and non-operational sources of equity and debt financing to fund its operations and business development.

The Group considered historical cash requirements, working capital and capital expenditures plans, estimated cash flows provided by operations, existing cash on hand as well as other key factors, including utilization of credit facilities granted by financial institutions. Management believes the assumptions used in the cash forecast are reasonable.

The following tables show the remaining contractual maturities at the end of the reporting period of the Group's financial liabilities, which are based on contractual undiscounted cash flows (including interest payments computed using contractual rates or, if floating, based on rates current at the reporting date) and the earliest date the Group and can be required to pay.

(c) Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates. The Group's interest rate risk arises primarily from bank loans. Borrowings issued at fixed rates expose the Group to fair value interest rate risk.

The following table details the interest rate profile of the Group's borrowings at the end of the reporting period.

	As at 31 December						As at 30 June
	2022		2023		2024		2025
	Effective interest rate	RMB'000	Effective interest rate	RMB'000	Effective interest rate	RMB'000	Effective interest rate	RMB'000
Fixed rate borrowings:
– Bank loans . . .	3.40% – 4.70%	59,850	3.15% – 3.60%	29,452	3.10%	40,000	3.10%	44,840
– Lease liabilities . . .	4.90%	8,281	4.90%	14,507	4.90% – 5.88%	14,867	4.90% – 5.88%	11,590
– Redeemable preferred shares	10.00%	300,140	10.00%	325,725	10.00%	348,428	10.00%	361,016
		368,271		369,684		403,295		417,446
Variable rate borrowings:
– Bank loans . . .	–	–	–	–	–	–	3.30%	20,000

It is estimated that a general increase/decrease of 50 basis points in interest rates, with all other variables held constant, would have decreased/increased the Group's profit after tax by approximately RMB1,243,000, RMB1,137,000, RMB1,165,000 and RMB619,000 for the years ended 31 December 2022, 2023 and 2024 and six months ended 30 June 2025.

(d) Currency risk

The Group's businesses are principally conducted in RMB and most of the Group's monetary assets and liabilities are denominated in RMB. Accordingly, the directors consider the Group's exposure to foreign currency risk is not significant.

(e) Fair value measurement

(i) Financial instruments carried at fair value

The following table presents the fair value of the Group's financial instruments measured at the end of the reporting period on a recurring basis, categorised into the three-level fair value hierarchy as defined in HKFRS 13, Fair value measurement. The level into which a fair value measurement is classified is determined with reference to the observability and significance of the inputs used in the valuation technique as follows:

- Level 1: Fair value measured using only Level 1 inputs i.e. unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities at the measurement date
- Level 2: Fair value measured using Level 2 inputs i.e. observable inputs which fail to meet Level 1, and not using significant unobservable inputs. Unobservable inputs are inputs for which market data are not available
- Level 3: Fair value measured using significant unobservable inputs

The following table presents the Group's financial assets that are measured at fair value at the end of each reporting dates:

	As at 31 December			As at 30 June
	2022	2023	2024	2025
	RMB'000	RMB'000	RMB'000	RMB'000
Financial assets measured at FVTPL
Level 3 – Wealth management products	73,593	36,637	31,039	152,285

During the Track Record Period, there were no transfers between Level 2 and Level 3. The Group's policy is to recognise transfers between levels of fair value hierarchy as at the end of reporting period in which they occur.

Information about Level 3 fair value measurements

	Valuation techniques	Significant unobservable inputs	As at 31 December			As at 30 June
			2022	2023	2024	2025
Wealth management products	Net asset value	Expected rate of return	1.8% to 2.8%	2.2% to 2.8%	1.0% to 2.9%	0.7% to 2.5%

The fair values of wealth management products have been estimated using a discounted cash flow valuation model based on assumptions that are not supported by observable market prices or rates. The valuation requires the directors of the Company to make estimates about the expected future cash flows including expected future interest return on maturity of the wealth management products. The directors of the Company believe that the estimated fair values resulting from the valuation technique are reasonable, and that they were the most appropriate values at the end of each of the reporting period.

As at 31 December 2022, 2023 and 2024 and 30 June 2025, if expected rate of return higher/lower by 0.5%, fair value of financial assets at FVTPL would have been approximately RMB128,000, RMB131,000, RMB11,000 and RMB70,000 higher/lower respectively.

	Financial assets

The following information does not form part of the Accountants' Report received from the Company's reporting accountants, KPMG, Certificated Public Accountants, Hong Kong, as set out in Appendix I to the prospectus, and is included herein for illustrative purposes only. A UNAUDITED PRO FORMA STATEMENT OF ADJUSTED CONSOLIDATED NET TANGIBLE ASSETS

The following unaudited proforma statement of adjusted consolidated net tangible assets of the Group prepared in accordance with paragraph 4.29 of the Listing Rules is to illustrate the effect of the Global Offering on the consolidated net tangible liabilities of the Group attributable to equity shareholders of the Company as at 30 June 2025 as if the Global Offering had taken place on that date.

The unaudited pro forma statement of adjusted consolidated net tangible assets of the Group has been prepared for illustrative purposes only and, because of its hypothetical nature, it may not provide a true picture of the consolidated financial position of the Group had the Global Offering been completed as at 30 June 2025 or at any future date.

Notes:

1. The consolidated net tangible liabilities attributable to equity shareholders of the Company as at 30 June 2025 is calculated based on the consolidated total equity attributable to equity shareholders of the Company of RMB21,136,000 as at 30 June 2025, less the intangible assets of RMB26,280,000 as at 30 June 2025, extracted from the Accountants' Report set out in Appendix I to the Prospectus.

2. The estimated net proceeds from the Global Offering are based on the expected issuance of 10,980,900 shares and the indicative Offer Prices of HK$62.01 and HK$71.20 per Offer Share, being the lower end price and higher end price of the stated Offer Price range, respectively, after deduction of estimated underwriting fees and other related listing expenses paid or payable by the Group (excluding the listing expenses charged to profit or loss during the Track Record Period of RMB19,717,000) and does not take into account of any shares which may be issued upon the exercise of the Over-allotment Option and the options granted under the Pre-IPO Share Option Scheme.
3. The estimated impact is calculated based on the redeemable preferred shares of RMB361,016,000 as at 30 June 2025 (as set out in Note 27 to the Historical Financial Information included in the Accountants' Report in Appendix I to this prospectus). Upon the Listing and completion of the Global Offering, all special rights of the preferred shares will terminate and the redeemable preferred shares will be converted into the ordinary shares on a one-to-one basis by way of re-designation and re-classification from the liabilities to equity.
4. The unaudited pro forma adjusted consolidated net tangible assets attributable to equity shareholders of the Company per Share are arrived at after the above adjustments and on the basis that 86,175,740 shares (excluding 4,575,638 shares held by WEILING HOLDING INC for the Pre-IPO Share Option scheme as shown in Note 29(a) to the Accountants' Report set out in Appendix I to this prospectus) are expected to be in issue immediately following the completion of the Global Offering and assuming that the Global Offering had been completed on 30 June 2025 without taking into account of the Shares which may be issued upon exercise of the Over-allotment Option and the options granted under the Pre-IPO Share Option Scheme.
5. For illustrative purpose, the estimated net proceeds from the Global Offering are converted from Hong Kong dollar into Renminbi and the unaudited pro forma adjusted consolidated net tangible assets attributable to equity shareholders of the Company per Share is converted from the Renminbi into Hong Kong dollar at a rate of HK$1 = RMB0.91094, being the PBOC rate prevailing on 8 September 2025. No representation is made that the Hong Kong Dollars amounts have been, could have been or may be converted into Renminbi, or vice versa at that rate.
6. No adjustment has been made to reflect any trading result or other transactions of the Group entered into subsequent to 30 June 2025.

B REPORT ON THE UNAUDITED PRO FORMA FINANCIAL INFORMATION

The following is the text of a report received from the reporting accountants, KPMG, Certified Public Accountants, Hong Kong, in respect of the Group's pro forma financial information for the purpose in this prospectus.

INDEPENDENT REPORTING ACCOUNTANTS' ASSURANCE REPORT ON THE COMPILATION OF PRO FORMA FINANCIAL INFORMATION*To the Directors of Butong Group

We have completed our assurance engagement to report on the compilation of pro forma financial information of BUTONG GROUP (the "Company") and its subsidiaries (collectively the "Group") by the directors of the Company (the "Directors") for illustrative purposes only. The unaudited pro forma financial information consists of the unaudited pro forma statement of adjusted net tangible assets as at 30 June 2025 and related notes as set out in Part A of Appendix II to the prospectus dated 15 September 2025 (the "Prospectus") issued by the Company. The applicable criteria on the basis of which the Directors have compiled the pro forma financial information are described in Part A of Appendix II to the Prospectus.

The pro forma financial information has been compiled by the Directors to illustrate the impact of the proposed offering of the ordinary shares of the Company (the "Global Offering") on the Group's financial position as at 30 June 2025 as if the Global Offering had taken place at 30 June 2025. As part of this process, information about the Group's financial position as at 30 June 2025 has been extracted by the Directors from the Group's historical financial information included in the Accountants' Report as set out in Appendix I to the Prospectus.

Directors' Responsibilities for the Pro Forma Financial Information

The Directors are responsible for compiling the pro forma financial information in accordance with paragraph 4.29 of the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (the "Listing Rules") and with reference to Accounting Guideline 7 "Preparation of Pro Forma Financial Information for Inclusion in Investment Circulars" ("AG 7") issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants ("HKICPA").

Our Independence and Quality Management

We have complied with the independence and other ethical requirements of the Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants issued by the HKICPA, which is founded on fundamental principles of integrity, objectivity, professional competence and due care, confidentiality and professional behaviour.

Our firm applies Hong Kong Standard on Quality Management 1 “Quality Management for Firms that Perform Audits or Reviews of Financial Statements, or Other Assurance or Related Services Engagements”, which requires the firm to design, implement and operate a system of quality management including policies or procedures regarding compliance with ethical requirements, professional standards and applicable legal and regulatory requirements.

Reporting Accountants’ Responsibilities

Our responsibility is to express an opinion, as required by paragraph 4.29(7) of the Listing Rules, on the pro forma financial information and to report our opinion to you. We do not accept any responsibility for any reports previously given by us on any financial information used in the compilation of the pro forma financial information beyond that owed to those to whom those reports were addressed by us at the dates of their issue.

We conducted our engagement in accordance with Hong Kong Standard on Assurance Engagements (“HKSAE”) 3420 “Assurance Engagements to Report on the Compilation of Pro Forma Financial Information Included in a Prospectus” issued by the HKICPA. This standard requires that the reporting accountants plan and perform procedures to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the Directors have compiled the pro forma financial information in accordance with paragraph 4.29 of the Listing Rules, and with reference to AG 7 issued by the HKICPA.

For purpose of this engagement, we are not responsible for updating or reissuing any reports or opinions on any historical financial information used in compiling the pro forma financial information, nor have we, in the course of this engagement, performed an audit or review of the financial information used in compiling the pro forma financial information.

The purpose of pro forma financial information included in an investment circular is solely to illustrate the impact of a significant event or transaction on unadjusted financial information of the Group as if the event had occurred or the transaction had been undertaken at an earlier date selected for purposes of the illustration. Accordingly, we do not provide any assurance that the actual outcome of events or transactions as at 30 June 2025 would have been as presented.

A reasonable assurance engagement to report on whether the pro forma financial information has been properly compiled on the basis of the applicable criteria involves performing procedures to assess whether the applicable criteria used by the Directors in the compilation of the pro forma financial information provide a reasonable basis for presenting the significant effects directly attributable to the event or transaction, and to obtain sufficient appropriate evidence about whether:

- the related pro forma adjustments give appropriate effect to those criteria; and
- the pro forma financial information reflects the proper application of those adjustments to the unadjusted financial information.

The procedures selected depend on the reporting accountants' judgement, having regard to the reporting accountants' understanding of the nature of the Group, the event or transaction in respect of which the pro forma financial information has been compiled, and other relevant engagement circumstances.

The engagement also involves evaluating the overall presentation of the pro forma financial information.

We believe that the evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Our procedures on the pro forma financial information have not been carried out in accordance with attestation standards or other standards and practices generally accepted in the United States of America, auditing standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) or any overseas standards and accordingly should not be relied upon as if they had been carried out in accordance with those standards and practices.

We make no comments regarding the reasonableness of the amount of net proceeds from the issuance of the Company's shares, the application of those net proceeds, or whether such use will actually take place as described in the section headed "Future Plans and Use of Proceeds" in the Prospectus.

Opinion

In our opinion:

- (a) the pro forma financial information has been properly compiled on the basis stated;
- (b) such basis is consistent with the accounting policies of the Group, and
- (c) the adjustments are appropriate for the purposes of the pro forma financial information as disclosed pursuant to paragraph 4.29(1) of the Listing Rules.

APPENDIX III SUMMARY OF THE CONSTITUTION OF OUR COMPANY AND CAYMAN ISLANDS COMPANY LAWS

Set out below is a summary of certain provisions of the constitution of the Company and certain aspects of the company laws of the Cayman Islands.

The Company was incorporated in the Cayman Islands as an exempted company with limited liability on August 2, 2023 under the Cayman Companies Act. The Company's constitutional documents consist of the Memorandum of Association and the Articles of Association.

1. MEMORANDUM OF ASSOCIATION

The Memorandum provides, inter alia, that the liability of the members of the Company is limited, that the objects for which the Company is established are unrestricted (and therefore include acting as an investment holding company) and that the Company shall have full power and authority to carry out any object not prohibited by the Cayman Companies Act or any other law of the Cayman Islands.

2. ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

The Articles were conditionally adopted on July 22, 2025 and will become effective on the Listing Date. A summary of certain provisions of the Articles is set out below.

2.1 Shares

(a) Classes of Shares

The share capital of the Company consists of a single class of ordinary shares.

(b) Variation of Rights of Existing Shares or Classes of Shares

If at any time the share capital of the Company is divided into different classes of Shares, all or any of the rights attached to any class of Shares for the time being issued (unless otherwise provided by the terms of issue of the Shares of that class) may, whether or not the Company is being wound up, be varied with the consent in writing of the holders of at least three-fourths of the issued Shares of that class, or with the approval of a resolution passed by at least three-fourths of the votes cast by the holders of the Shares of that class present and voting in person or by proxy at a separate meeting of such holders. The provisions of the Articles relating to general meetings shall apply mutatis mutandis to every such separate meeting, except that the necessary quorum shall be two persons together holding (or, in the case of a member being a corporation, by its duly authorized representative), or representing by proxy, at least one-third of the issued Shares of that class. Every holder of Shares of the class shall be entitled on a poll to one vote for every such Share held by him, and any holder of Shares of the class present in person or by proxy may demand a poll.

For the purposes of a separate class meeting, the Board may treat two or more classes of Shares as forming one class of Shares if the Board considers that such classes of Shares would be affected in the same way by the proposals under consideration, but in any other case shall treat them as separate classes of Shares.

Any rights conferred upon the holders of Shares of any class shall not, unless otherwise expressly provided in the rights attaching to the terms of issue of the Shares of that class, be deemed to be varied by the creation or issue of further Shares ranking pari passu therewith.

(c) Alteration of Capital

The Company may by ordinary resolution:

- (i) increase its share capital by the creation of new Shares of such amount and with such rights, priorities and privileges attached to such Shares as it may determine;
- (ii) consolidate and divide all or any of its share capital into Shares of a larger amount than its existing Shares. On any consolidation of fully paid Shares and division into Shares of a larger amount, the Board may settle any difficulty which may arise as it thinks expedient and, in particular (but without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing), may as between the holders of Shares to be consolidated determine which particular Shares are to be consolidated into a consolidated Share, and if it shall happen that any person shall become entitled to fractions of a consolidated Share or Shares, such fractions may be sold by some person appointed by the Board for that purpose and the person so appointed may transfer the Shares so sold to the purchaser(s) thereof and the validity of such transfer shall not be questioned, and the net proceeds of such sale (after deduction of the expenses of such sale) may either be distributed among the persons who would otherwise be entitled to a fraction or fractions of a consolidated Share or Shares rateably in accordance with their rights and interests or may be paid to the Company for the Company's benefit;
- (iii) sub-divide its Shares or any of them into Shares of an amount smaller than that fixed by the Memorandum; and
- (iv) cancel any Shares which, as at the date of passing of the resolution, have not been taken or agreed to be taken by any person and diminish the amount of its share capital by the amount of the Shares so cancelled.

The Company may by special resolution reduce its share capital or any undistributable reserve, subject to the provisions of the Cayman Companies Act.

(d) Transfer of Shares

Subject to the terms of the Articles, any member of the Company may transfer all or any of his Shares by an instrument of transfer. If the Shares in question were issued in conjunction with rights, options, warrants or units issued pursuant to the Articles on terms that one cannot be transferred without the other, the Board shall refuse to register the transfer of any such Share without evidence satisfactory to it of the like transfer of such right, option, warrant or unit.

Subject to the Articles and the requirements of the Stock Exchange, all transfers of Shares shall be effected by an instrument of transfer in the usual or common form or in such other form as the Board may approve and may be under hand or, if the transferor or transferee is a recognized clearing house or its nominee(s), under hand or by machine imprinted signature, or by such other manner of execution as the Board may approve from time to time.

Execution of the instrument of transfer shall be by or on behalf of the transferor and the transferee, provided that the Board may dispense with the execution of the instrument of transfer by the transferor or transferee or accept mechanically executed transfers. The transferor shall be deemed to remain the holder of a Share until the name of the transferee is entered in the register of members of the Company in respect of that Share.

Subject to the provisions of the Cayman Companies Act, if the Board considers it necessary or appropriate, the Company may establish and maintain a branch register or registers of members at such location or locations within or outside the Cayman Islands as the Board thinks fit. The Board may, in its absolute discretion, at any time transfer any Share on the principal register to any branch register or any Share on any branch register to the principal register or any other branch register.

The Board may, in its absolute discretion, decline to register a transfer of any Share (not being a fully paid Share) to a person of whom it does not approve or on which the Company has a lien, or a transfer of any Share issued under any share option scheme upon which a restriction on transfer subsists or a transfer of any Share to more than four joint holders. It may also decline to recognize any instrument of transfer if the proposed transfer does not comply with the Articles or any requirements of the Listing Rules.

The Board may decline to recognize any instrument of transfer unless a certain fee, up to such maximum sum as the Stock Exchange may determine to be payable, is paid to the Company, the instrument of transfer is properly stamped (if applicable), is in respect of only one class of Share and is lodged at the relevant registration office or the place at which the principal register is located accompanied by the relevant share certificate(s) and such other evidence as the Board may reasonably require is provided to show the right of the transferor to make the transfer (and if the instrument of transfer is executed by some other person on his behalf, the authority of that person so to do).

The register of members may, subject to the Listing Rules and the relevant section of the Companies Ordinance, be closed at such time or for such period not exceeding in the whole 30 days in each year as the Board may determine (or such longer period as the members of the Company may by ordinary resolution determine, provided that such period shall not be extended beyond 60 days in any year).

Fully paid Shares shall be free from any restriction on transfer (except when permitted by the Stock Exchange) and shall also be free from all liens.

(e) Redemption of Shares

Subject to the provisions of the Cayman Companies Act, the Listing Rules and any rights conferred on the holders of any Shares or attaching to any class of Shares, the Company may issue Shares that are to be redeemed or are liable to be redeemed at the option of the members or the Company. The redemption of such Shares shall be effected in such manner and upon such other terms as the Company may by special resolution determine before the issue of such Shares.

(f) Power of the Company to Purchase its own Shares

Subject to the Cayman Companies Act, or any other law or so far as not prohibited by any law and subject to any rights conferred on the holders of any class of Shares, the Company shall have the power to purchase or otherwise acquire all or any of its own Shares (which includes redeemable Shares), provided that the manner and terms of purchase have first been authorized by ordinary resolution and that any such purchase shall only be made in accordance with the relevant code, rules or regulations issued from time to time by the Stock Exchange and/or the SFC from time to time in force.

(g) Power of any Subsidiary of the Company to own Shares in the Company

There are no provisions in the Articles relating to the ownership of Shares in the Company by a subsidiary.

(h) Calls on Shares and Forfeiture of Shares

Subject to the terms of allotment and issue of any Shares (if any), the Board may, from time to time, make such calls as it thinks fit upon the members in respect of any monies unpaid on the Shares held by them (whether in respect of par value or share premium). A member who is the subject of the call shall (subject to receiving at least 14 clear days' notice specifying the time or times for payment) pay to the Company at the time or times so specified the amount called on his Shares. A call may be made payable either in one sum or by instalments, and shall be deemed to have been made at the time when the resolution of the Board authorizing such call was passed. The joint holders of a Share shall be severally as well as jointly liable for the payment of all calls and instalments due in respect of such Share.

If a call remains unpaid after it has become due and payable, the member from whom the sum is due shall pay interest on the unpaid amount at such rate as the Board shall determine (together with any expenses incurred by the Company as a result of such non-payment) from the day it became due and payable until it is paid, but the Board may waive payment of such interest or expenses in whole or in part.

If a member fails to pay any call or instalment of a call after it has become due and payable, the Board may, for so long as any part of the call or instalment remains unpaid, give to such member not less than 14 clear days' notice requiring payment of the unpaid amount together with any interest which may have accrued and which may still accrue up to the date of payment (together with any expenses incurred by the Company as a result of such non-payment). The notice shall specify a further day on or before which the payment required by the notice is to be made. The notice shall also state that, in the event of non-payment at or before the appointed time, the Shares in respect of which the call was made will be liable to be forfeited.

If such notice is not complied with, any Share in respect of which the notice was given may, before the payment required by the notice has been made, be forfeited by a resolution of the Board. Such forfeiture shall include all dividends, other distributions and other monies payable in respect of the forfeited Share and not paid before the forfeiture.

A person whose Shares have been forfeited shall cease to be a member in respect of the forfeited Shares, shall surrender to the Company for cancellation the certificate(s) for the Shares forfeited and shall remain liable to pay to the Company all monies which, as at the date of forfeiture, were payable by him to the Company in respect of the Shares together with (if the Board shall in its discretion so require) interest thereon from the date of forfeiture until the date of payment as the Board may determine and any expenses incurred by the Company as a result of such non-payment.

2.2 Directors

(a) Appointment, Retirement and Removal

The Company may by ordinary resolution of the members elect any person to be a Director. The Board may also appoint any person to be a Director at any time, either to fill a casual vacancy or as an additional Director subject to any maximum number fixed by the members in general meeting or the Articles. Any Director so appointed shall hold office only until the first annual general meeting of the Company after his appointment and shall then be eligible for re-election at such meeting. Any Director so appointed by the Board shall not be taken into account in determining the Directors or the number of Directors who are to retire by rotation at an annual general meeting.

There is no shareholding qualification for Directors nor is there any specified age limit for Directors.

The members may by ordinary resolution remove any Director (including a managing or executive Director) before the expiration of his term of office, notwithstanding anything in the Articles or any agreement between the Company and such Director, and may by ordinary resolution elect another person in his stead. Nothing shall be taken as depriving a Director so removed of any compensation or damages payable to such Director in respect of the termination of his appointment as Director or of any other appointment or office as a result of the termination of his appointment as Director.

The office of a Director shall be vacated if:

- (i) the Director gives notice in writing to the Company that he resigns from his office as Director;
- (ii) the Director is absent, without being represented by proxy or an alternate Director appointed by him, for a continuous period of 12 months without special leave of absence from the Board, and the Board passes a resolution that he has by reason of such absence vacated his office;
- (iii) the Director becomes bankrupt or has a receiving order made against him or suspends payment or compounds with his creditors generally;
- (iv) the Director dies or an order is made by any competent court or official on the grounds that he is or may be suffering from mental disorder or is otherwise incapable of managing his affairs and the Board resolves that his office be vacated;
- (v) the Director is prohibited from being or ceases to be a Director by operation of law;
- (vi) the Director has been required by the Stock Exchange to cease to be a Director or no longer qualifies to be a Director pursuant to the Listing Rules; or
- (vii) the Director is removed from office by notice in writing served upon him signed by not less than three-fourths in number (or, if that is not a round number, the nearest lower round number) of the Directors (including himself) then in office.

At each annual general meeting, one-third of the Directors for the time being shall retire from office by rotation. If the number of Directors is not a multiple of three, then the number nearest to but not less than one-third shall be the number of retiring Directors, provided that every Director shall be subject to retirement by rotation at least once every three years. The Directors to retire at each annual general meeting shall be those who have been in office longest since their last re-election or appointment and, as between persons who became or were last re-elected Directors on the same day, those to retire shall (unless they otherwise agree among themselves) be determined by lot.

(b) Power to Allot and Issue Shares and other Securities

Subject to the provisions of the Cayman Companies Act, the Memorandum and Articles and, where applicable, the Listing Rules, and without prejudice to any rights or restrictions for the time being attached to any Shares, the Board may allot, issue, grant options over or otherwise dispose of Shares with or without preferred, deferred or other rights or restrictions, whether with regard to dividend, voting, return of capital or otherwise, to such persons, at such times, for such consideration and on such terms and conditions as it in its absolute discretion thinks fit, provided that no Shares shall be issued at a discount to their par value.

The Company may issue rights, options, warrants or convertible securities or securities of a similar nature conferring the right upon the holders thereof to subscribe for, purchase or receive any class of Shares or other securities in the Company on such terms as the Board may from time to time determine.

Neither the Company nor the Board shall be obliged, when making or granting any allotment of, offer of, option over or disposal of Shares, to make, or make available, any such allotment, offer, option or Shares to members or others whose registered addresses are in any particular territory or territories where, in the absence of a registration statement or other special formalities, this is or may, in the opinion of the Board, be unlawful or impracticable. However, no member affected as a result of the foregoing shall be, or be deemed to be, a separate class of members for any purpose whatsoever.

(c) Power to Dispose of the Assets of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries

Subject to the provisions of the Cayman Companies Act, the Memorandum and Articles and any directions given by special resolution of the Company, the Board may exercise all powers and do all acts and things which may be exercised or done by the Company to dispose of the assets of the Company or any of its subsidiaries. No alteration to the Memorandum or Articles and no direction given by special resolution of the Company shall invalidate any prior act of the Board which would have been valid if such alteration or direction had not been made or given.

(d) Borrowing Powers

The Board may exercise all the powers of the Company to raise or borrow money, secure the payment of any sum or sums of money for the purposes of the Company, mortgage or charge all or any part of its undertaking, property and uncalled capital of the Company, and, subject to the Cayman Companies Act, issue debentures, debenture stock, bonds and other securities, whether outright or as collateral security for any debt, liability or obligation of the Company or of any third party.

(e) Remuneration

A Director shall be entitled to receive such sums as shall from time to time be determined by the Board or the Company in general meetings. The Directors shall also be entitled to be repaid all expenses reasonably incurred by them in connection with attendance at meetings of the Board or committees of the Board, or general meetings of the Company or separate meetings of the holders of any class of Shares or debentures of the Company, or otherwise in connection with the business of the Company and the discharge of their duties as Directors, and/or to receive fixed allowances in respect thereof as may be determined by the Board.

The Board or the Company in general meetings may also approve additional remuneration to any Director for any services which in the opinion of the Board or the Company in general meetings go beyond such Director's ordinary routine work as a Director.

(f) Compensation or Payments for Loss of Office

There are no provisions in the Articles relating to compensation or payment for loss of office.

(g) Loans to Directors

There are no provisions in the Articles relating to making of loans to Directors.

(h) Disclosure of Interest in Contracts with the Company or any of its Subsidiaries

With the exception of the office of auditor of the Company, a Director may hold any other office or place of profit with the Company in conjunction with his office of Director for such period and upon such terms as the Board may determine, and may be paid such extra remuneration for that other office or place of profit, in whatever form, in addition to any remuneration provided for by or pursuant to the Articles. A Director may be or become a director, officer or member of any other company in which the Company may be interested, and shall not be liable to account to the Company or the members for any remuneration or other benefits received by him as a director, officer or member of such other company.

No person shall be disqualified from the office of Director or alternate Director or prevented by such office from contracting with the Company, nor shall any such contract or any other contract or transaction entered into by or on behalf of the Company in which any Director or alternate Director is in any way interested be or be liable to be avoided, nor shall any Director or alternate Director so contracting or being so interested be liable to account to the Company for any profit realized by or arising in connection with any such contract or transaction by reason of such Director or alternate Director holding such office or of the fiduciary relationship established by it, provided that the nature of interest of any Director or alternate Director in any such contract or transaction shall be disclosed by such Director or alternate Director at or prior to the consideration and vote thereon.

A Director shall not vote on (or be counted in the quorum in relation to) any resolution of the Board in respect of any contract or arrangement or other proposal in which he or any of his close associate(s) has a material interest, and if he shall do so his vote shall not be counted and he shall not be counted in the quorum for such resolution. This prohibition shall not apply to any of the following matters:

- (i) the giving of any security or indemnity to the Director or his close associate(s) in respect of money lent or obligations incurred or undertaken by him or any of them at the request of or for the benefit of the Company or any of its subsidiaries;
- (ii) the giving of any security or indemnity to a third party in respect of a debt or obligation of the Company or any of its subsidiaries for which the Director or his close associate(s) has/have himself/themselves assumed responsibility in whole or in part whether alone or jointly under a guarantee or indemnity or by the giving of security;
- (iii) any proposal concerning an offer of Shares, debentures or other securities of or by the Company or any other company which the Company may promote or be interested in for subscription or purchase, where the Director or his close associate(s) is/are or is/are to be interested as a participant in the underwriting or sub- underwriting of the offer;
- (iv) any proposal or arrangement concerning the benefit of employees of the Company or any of its subsidiaries, including the adoption, modification or operation of (A) any employees' share scheme or any share incentive or share option scheme under which the Director or his close associate(s) may benefit or (B) any pension fund or retirement, death or disability benefits scheme which relates to the Director, his close associates and employees of the Company or any of its subsidiaries and does not provide in respect of any Director or his close associate(s) any privilege or advantage not generally accorded to the class of persons to which such scheme or fund relates; and
- (v) any contract or arrangement in which the Director or his close associate(s) is/are interested in the same manner as other holders of Shares, debentures or other securities of the Company by virtue only of his/their interest in those Shares, debentures or other securities.

2.3 Proceedings of the Board

The Board may meet anywhere in the world for the despatch of business and may adjourn and otherwise regulate its meetings as it thinks fit. Unless otherwise determined, two Directors shall be a quorum. Questions arising at any meeting shall be determined by a majority of votes. In the case of an equality of votes, the chairman of the meeting shall have a second or casting vote.

2.4 Alterations to the Constitutional Documents and the Company's Name

The Memorandum and Articles may only be altered or amended, and the name of the Company may only be changed, by special resolution of the Company.

2.5 Meetings of Members

(a) Special and Ordinary resolutions

A special resolution must be passed by a majority of not less than two-thirds (other than in relation to any resolution approving changes to the Company's constitutional documents or a voluntary winding up of the Company, in which case a special resolution must be passed by a majority of not less than three-fourths) of the voting rights held by such members as, being entitled so to do, vote in person or by proxy or, in the case of any members which is a corporation, by its duly authorized representative(s) or by proxy, at a general meeting of which notice specifying the intention to propose the resolution as a special resolution has been duly given. A special resolution may also be approved in writing by all the members entitled to vote at a general meeting in one or more instruments each signed by one or more of such members.

An ordinary resolution, in contrast, is a resolution passed by a simple majority of the voting rights held by such members as, being entitled to do so, vote in person or by proxy or, in the case of any member which is a corporation, by its duly authorized representative(s) or by proxy, at a general meeting. An ordinary resolution may also be approved in writing by all the members entitled to vote at a general meeting in one or more instruments each signed by one or more of such members.

The provisions of special resolutions and ordinary resolutions shall apply mutatis mutandis to any resolutions passed by the holders of any class of shares.

(b) Voting Rights and Right to Demand a Poll

Subject to any rights, restrictions or privileges as to voting for the time being attached to any class or classes of Shares, at any general meeting: (a) on a poll every member present in person (or, in the case of a member being a corporation, by its duly authorized representative) or by proxy shall have one vote for every Share and (b) on a show of hands every member who is present in person (or, in the case of a member being a corporation, by its duly authorized representative) or by proxy shall have one vote.

In the case of joint holders, the vote of the senior holder who tenders a vote, whether in person or by proxy shall be accepted to the exclusion of the votes of the other joint holders, and seniority shall be determined by the order in which the names of the holders stand in the register of members of the Company.

No person shall be counted in a quorum or be entitled to vote at any general meeting unless he is registered as a member on the record date for such meeting, nor unless all calls or other monies then payable by him in respect of the relevant Shares have been paid.

At any general meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided by way of poll save that the chairman of the meeting may, pursuant to the Listing Rules, allow a resolution which relates purely to a procedural or administrative matter to be voted on by a show of hands.

Any corporation or other non-natural person which is a member of the Company may in accordance with its constitutional documents, or in the absence of such provision by resolution of its directors or other governing body or by power of attorney, authorize such person as it thinks fit to act as its representative at any meeting of the Company or of any class of members, and the person so authorized shall be entitled to exercise the same powers as the corporation or other non-natural person could exercise as if it were a natural person member of the Company.

If a recognized clearing house or its nominee(s) is a member of the Company, it may appoint proxies or authorize such person or persons as it thinks fit to act as its representative(s), who enjoy rights equivalent to the rights of other members, at any meeting of the Company (including but not limited to general meetings and creditors meetings) or at any meeting of any class of members of the Company, provided that if more than one person is so authorized, the authorization shall specify the number and class of Shares in respect of which each such person is so authorized. A person so authorized shall be entitled to exercise the same rights and powers on behalf of the recognized clearing house or its nominee(s) as if such person were a natural person member of the Company, including the right to speak and vote individually on a show of hands or on a poll.

All members of the Company (including a member which is a recognized clearing house (or its nominee(s))) shall have the right to (i) speak at a general meeting and (ii) and vote at a general meeting except where a member is required by the Listing Rules to abstain from voting to approve the matter under consideration. Where any member is, under the Listing Rules, required to abstain from voting on any particular resolution or restricted to voting only for or only against any particular resolution, any votes cast by or on behalf of such member in contravention of such requirement or restriction shall not be counted.

(c) Annual General Meetings and Extraordinary General Meetings

The Company must hold a general meeting as its annual general meeting in each financial year. Such meeting shall be specified as such in the notices calling it, and must be held within six months after the end of the Company's financial year. A meeting of the members or any class thereof may be held by telephone, tele-conferencing or other electronic means, provided that all participants are able to communicate contemporaneously with one another, and participation in a meeting in such manner shall constitute presence at such meetings.

The Board may convene an extraordinary general meeting whenever it thinks fit. In addition, one or more members holding, as at the date of deposit of the requisition, in aggregate not less than one-tenth of the voting rights (on a one vote per Share basis) in the share capital of the Company may make a requisition to convene an extraordinary general meeting and/or add resolutions to the agenda of a meeting. Such requisition, which must state the objects and the resolutions to be added to the agenda of the meeting and must be signed by the requisitionists, shall be deposited at the principal place of business of the Company in Hong Kong or, in the event the Company ceases to have such a principal place of business, the registered office of the Company. If the Board does not within 21 days from the date of deposit of such requisition duly proceed to convene a general meeting to be held within the following 21 days, the requisitionists or any of them representing more than one-half of the total voting rights of all the requisitionists may themselves convene a general meeting, but any such meeting so convened shall be held no later than the day falling three months after the expiration of the said 21-day period. A general meeting convened by requisitionists shall be convened in the same manner as nearly as possible as that in which general meetings are to be convened by the Board, and all reasonable expenses incurred by the requisitionists shall be reimbursed to the requisitionists by the Company.

(d) Notices of Meetings and Business to be Conducted

An annual general meeting of the Company shall be called by at least 21 days' notice in writing, and any other general meeting of the Company shall be called by at least 14 days' notice in writing. The notice shall be exclusive of the day on which it is served or deemed to be served and of the day for which it is given, and must specify the date, time, place and agenda of the meeting, the particulars of the resolution(s) to be considered at the meeting and the general nature of the business to be considered at the meeting.

Except where otherwise expressly stated, any notice or document (including a share certificate) to be given or issued under the Articles shall be in writing, and may be served by the Company on any member personally, by post to such member's registered address, (to the extent permitted by the Listing Rules and all applicable laws and regulations) by electronic means or (in the case of a notice) by advertisement published in the manner prescribed under the Listing Rules.

Notwithstanding that a meeting of the Company is called by shorter notice than as specified above, if permitted by the Listing Rules, such meeting may be deemed to have been duly called if it is so agreed:

- (i) in the case of an annual general meeting, by all members of the Company entitled to attend and vote thereat; and
- (ii) in the case of an extraordinary general meeting, by a majority in number of the members having a right to attend and vote at the meeting holding not less than 95% of the total voting rights held by such members.

If, after the notice of a general meeting has been sent but before the meeting is held, or after the adjournment of a general meeting but before the adjourned meeting is held (whether or not notice of the adjourned meeting is required), the Board in its absolute discretion consider that it is impractical or unreasonable for any reason to hold a general meeting on the date or at the time and place specified in the notice calling such meeting, it may change or postpone the meeting to another date, time and place.

The Board also has the power to provide in every notice calling a general meeting that in the event of a gale warning, a black rainstorm warning or extreme conditions is/are in force at any time on the day of the general meeting (unless such warning is cancelled at least a minimum period of time prior to the general meeting as the Board may specify in the relevant notice), the meeting shall be postponed without further notice to be reconvened on a later date.

Where a general meeting is postponed:

- (i) the Company shall endeavor to cause a notice of such postponement, which shall set out the reason for the postponement in accordance with the Listing Rules, to be placed on the Company's website and published on the Stock Exchange's website as soon as practicable, provided that failure to place or publish such notice shall not affect the automatic postponement of a general meeting due to a gale warning, a black rainstorm warning or extreme conditions being in force on the day of the general meeting;
- (ii) the Board shall fix the date, time and place for the reconvened meeting and at least seven clear days' notice shall be given for the reconvened meeting. Such notice shall specify the date, time and place at which the postponed meeting will be reconvened and the date and time by which proxies shall be submitted in order to be valid at such reconvened meeting (provided that any proxy submitted for the original meeting shall continue to be valid for the reconvened meeting unless revoked or replaced by a new proxy); and
- (iii) only the business set out in the notice of the original meeting shall be considered at the reconvened meeting, and notice given for the reconvened meeting does not need to specify the business to be considered at the reconvened meeting, nor shall any accompanying documents be required to be recirculated. Where any new business is to be considered at such reconvened meeting, the Company shall give a fresh notice for such reconvened meeting in accordance with the Articles.

(e) Quorum for Meetings and Separate Class Meetings

No business shall be considered at any general meeting unless a quorum is present when the meeting proceeds to business, and continues to be present until the conclusion of the meeting.

The quorum for a general meeting shall be two members present in person (or in the case of a member being a corporation, by its duly authorized representative) or by proxy and entitled to vote. In respect of a separate class meeting (other than an adjourned meeting) convened to approve the variation of class rights, the necessary quorum shall be two persons holding or representing by proxy not less than one-third of the issued Shares of that class.

(f) Proxies

Any member of the Company (including a member which is a recognized clearing house (or its nominee(s))) entitled to attend and vote at a meeting of the Company is entitled to appoint another person (being a natural person) as his proxy to attend and vote in his place. A member who is the holder of two or more Shares may appoint more than one proxy to represent him and vote on his behalf at a general meeting of the Company or at a class meeting. A proxy need not be a member of the Company and shall be entitled to exercise the same powers on behalf of a member who is a natural person and for whom he acts as proxy as such member could exercise. In addition, a proxy shall be entitled to exercise the same powers on behalf of a member which is a corporation and for which he acts as proxy as such member could exercise as if it were a natural person member present in person at any general meeting. On a poll or on a show of hands, votes may be given either personally (or, in the case of a member being a corporation, by its duly authorized representative) or by proxy.

The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing and executed under the hand of the appointor or of his attorney duly authorized in writing, or if the appointor is a corporation or other non-natural person, either under its seal or under the hand of a duly authorized representative.

The Board shall, in the notice convening any meeting or adjourned meeting, or in an instrument of proxy sent out by the Company, specify the manner by which the instrument appointing a proxy shall be deposited and the place and time (being no later than the time appointed for the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting to which the instrument of proxy relates) at which such instrument shall be deposited.

Every instrument of proxy, whether for a specified meeting or otherwise, shall be in such form that complies with the Listing Rules as the Board may from time to time approve. Any form issued to a member for appointing a proxy to attend and vote at a general meeting at which any business is to be considered shall be such as to enable the member, according to his intentions, to instruct the proxy to vote in favor of or against (or, in default of instructions, to exercise the discretion of the proxy in respect of) each resolution dealing with any such business.

2.6 Accounts and Audit

The Board shall cause to be kept such books of account as are necessary to give a true and fair view of the state of the Company's affairs and to explain its transactions in accordance with the Cayman Companies Act.

The books of accounts of the Company shall be kept at the principal place of business of the Company in Hong Kong or, subject to the provisions of the Cayman Companies Act, at such other place or places as the Board thinks fit and shall always be open to inspection by any Director. No member (not being a Director) or other person shall have any right to inspect any account, book or document of the Company except as conferred by the Cayman Companies Act or ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction or as authorized by the Board or the Company in general meeting.

The Board shall cause to be prepared and laid before the Company at every annual general meeting a profit and loss account for the period since the preceding account, together with a balance sheet as at the date to which the profit and loss account is made up, a Directors' report with respect to the profit or loss of the Company for the period covered by the profit and loss account and the state of the Company's affairs as at the end of such period, an auditors' report on such accounts and such other reports and accounts as may be required by law and the Listing Rules.

The members shall at each annual general meeting appoint auditor(s) to hold office by ordinary resolution of the members until the conclusion of the next annual general meeting on such terms and with such duties as may be agreed with the Board. The auditors' remuneration shall be fixed by the members at the annual general meeting at which they are appointed by ordinary resolution of the members or in any other manner as specified in such ordinary resolution. The members may, at any general meeting convened and held in accordance with the Articles, remove the auditors by ordinary resolution at any time before the expiration of the term of office and shall, by ordinary resolution, at that meeting appoint new auditors in their place for the remainder of the term.

The accounts of the Company shall be prepared and audited based on the generally accepted accounting principles of Hong Kong, the International Accounting Standards or such other standards as may be permitted by the Stock Exchange.

2.7 Dividends and other Methods of Distribution

Subject to the Cayman Companies Act and the Articles, the Company may by ordinary resolution resolve to declare dividends and other distributions on Shares in issue in any currency and authorize payment of the dividends or distributions out of the funds of the Company lawfully available therefor, provided that (i) no dividends shall exceed the amount recommended by the Board, and (ii) no dividends or distributions shall be paid except out of the realized or unrealized profits of the Company, out of the share premium account or as otherwise permitted by law.

The Board may from time to time pay to the members of the Company such interim dividends as appear to the Board to be justified by the financial conditions and the profits of the Company. In addition, the Board may from time to time declare and pay special dividends on Shares of such amounts and on such dates as it thinks fit.

Except as otherwise provided by the rights attached to any Shares, all dividends and other distributions shall be paid according to the amounts paid up on the Shares that a member holds during the period in respect of which the dividends and distributions are paid. No amount paid up on a Share in advance of calls shall for this purpose be treated as paid up on the Share.

The Board may deduct from any dividends or other distributions payable to any member of the Company all sums of money (if any) then payable by him to the Company on account of calls or otherwise. The Board may retain any dividends or distributions payable on or in respect of a Share upon which the Company has a lien, and may apply the same in or towards satisfaction of the debts, liabilities or engagements in respect of which the lien exists.

No dividends or other distributions payable by the Company on or in respect of any Share shall carry interest against the Company.

Where the Board or the Company in general meeting has resolved that a dividend should be paid or declared, the Board may further resolve:

- (a) that such dividend be satisfied in whole or in part in the form of an allotment of Shares credited as fully paid on the basis that the Shares so allotted shall be of the same class as the class already held by the allottee, provided that the members entitled thereto will be entitled to elect to receive such dividend (or part thereof) in cash in lieu of such allotment; or
- (b) that the members entitled to such dividend will be entitled to elect to receive an allotment of Shares credited as fully paid in lieu of the whole or such part of the dividend as the Board may think fit on the basis that the Shares so allotted shall be of the same class as the class already held by the allottee.

Upon the recommendation of the Board, the Company may by ordinary resolution resolve in respect of any one particular dividend of the Company determine that notwithstanding the foregoing, a dividend may be satisfied wholly in the form of an allotment of Shares credited as fully paid without offering any right to members to elect to receive such dividend in cash in lieu of such allotment.

Any dividends, distributions or other monies payable in cash in respect of Shares may be paid by wire transfer to the holder of such Shares or by cheque or warrant sent by post to the registered address of such holder, or in the case of joint holders, to the registered address of the holder who is first named on the register of members of the Company, or to such person and to such address as the holder or joint holders may in writing direct. Any one of two or more joint holders may give effectual receipts for any dividends, distributions or other monies payable in respect of the Shares held by them as joint holders.

Whenever the Board or the Company in general meeting has resolved that a dividend be paid or declared, the Board may further resolve that such dividend be satisfied in whole or in part by the distribution of specific assets of any kind.

Any dividends or other distributions which remain unclaimed for six years from the date on which such dividends or distributions become payable shall be forfeited and shall revert to the Company.

2.8 Inspection of Corporate Records

For so long as any part of the share capital of the Company is listed on the Stock Exchange, any member may inspect any register of members of the Company maintained in Hong Kong (except when the register of members is closed in accordance with the Companies Ordinance) without charge and require the provision to him of copies or extracts of such register in all respects as if the Company were incorporated under and were subject to the Companies Ordinance.

2.9 Rights of Minorities in relation to Fraud or Oppression

There are no provisions in the Articles concerning the rights of minority members in relation to fraud or oppression. However, certain remedies may be available to members of the Company under the Cayman Islands laws, as summarized in paragraph 3.6 below.

2.10 Procedures on Liquidation

Subject to the Cayman Companies Act, the members of the Company may by special resolution resolve to wind up the Company voluntarily or by the court.

Subject to any rights, privileges or restrictions as to the distribution of available surplus assets on liquidation for the time being attached to any class or classes of Shares:

- (a) if the assets available for distribution among the members of the Company are more than sufficient to repay the whole of the Company's paid up capital at the commencement of the winding up, the surplus shall be distributed pari passu among such members in proportion to the amount paid up on the Shares held by them at the commencement of the winding up; and
- (b) if the assets available for distribution among the members of the Company are insufficient to repay the whole of the Company's paid up capital, such assets shall be distributed so that, as nearly as may be, the losses shall be borne by the members in proportion to the capital paid up, or ought to be paid up, on the Shares held by them at the commencement of the winding up.

If the Company is wound up (whether the liquidation is voluntary or compelled by the court), the liquidator may, with the approval of a special resolution and any other approval required by the Cayman Companies Act, divide among the members in kind the whole or any part of the assets of the Company, whether the assets consist of property of one kind or different kinds, and the liquidator may, for such purpose, set such value as he deems fair upon any one or more class or classes of property to be so divided and may determine how such division shall be carried out as between the members or different classes of members and the members within each class. The liquidator may, with the like approval, vest any part of the assets in trustees upon such trusts for the benefit of the members as the liquidator thinks fit, provided that no member shall be compelled to accept any shares or other property upon which there is a liability.

3. COMPANY LAWS OF THE CAYMAN ISLANDS

The Company was incorporated in the Cayman Islands as an exempted company on August 2, 2023 subject to the Cayman Companies Act. Certain provisions of the company laws of the Cayman Islands are set out below but this section does not purport to contain all applicable qualifications and exceptions or to be a complete review of all matters of the company laws of the Cayman Islands, which may differ from equivalent provisions in jurisdictions with which interested parties may be more familiar.

3.1 Company Operations

An exempted company such as the Company must conduct its operations mainly outside the Cayman Islands. An exempted company is also required to file an annual return each year with the Registrar of Companies of the Cayman Islands and pay a fee which is based on the amount of its authorized share capital.

3.2 Share Capital

Under the Cayman Companies Act, a Cayman Islands company may issue ordinary, preference or redeemable shares or any combination thereof. Where a company issues shares at a premium, whether for cash or otherwise, a sum equal to the aggregate amount or value of the premium on those shares shall be transferred to an account, to be called the share premium account. At the option of a company, these provisions may not apply to premium on shares of that company allotted pursuant to any arrangements in consideration of the acquisition or cancellation of shares in any other company and issued at a premium. The share premium account may be applied by the company subject to the provisions, if any, of its memorandum and articles of association, in such manner as the company may from time to time determine including, but without limitation, the following:

- (a) paying distributions or dividends to members;
- (b) paying up unissued shares of the company to be issued to members as fully paid bonus shares;

- (c) any manner provided in section 37 of the Cayman Companies Act;
- (d) writing-off the preliminary expenses of the company; and
- (e) writing-off the expenses of, or the commission paid or discount allowed on, any issue of shares or debentures of the company.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, no distribution or dividend may be paid to members out of the share premium account unless, immediately following the date on which the distribution or dividend is proposed to be paid, the company will be able to pay its debts as they fall due in the ordinary course of business.

Subject to confirmation by the court, a company limited by shares or a company limited by guarantee and having a share capital may, if authorized to do so by its articles of association, by special resolution reduce its share capital in any way.

3.3 Financial Assistance to Purchase Shares of a Company or its Holding Company

There are no statutory prohibitions in the Cayman Islands on the granting of financial assistance by a company to another person for the purchase of, or subscription for, its own, its holding company's or a subsidiary's shares. Therefore, a company may provide financial assistance provided the directors of the company, when proposing to grant such financial assistance, discharge their duties of care and act in good faith, for a proper purpose and in the interests of the company. Such assistance should be on an arm's-length basis.

3.4 Purchase of Shares and Warrants by a Company and its Subsidiaries

A company limited by shares or a company limited by guarantee and having a share capital may, if so authorized by its articles of association, issue shares which are to be redeemed or are liable to be redeemed at the option of the company or a member and, for the avoidance of doubt, it shall be lawful for the rights attaching to any shares to be varied, subject to the provisions of the company's articles of association, so as to provide that such shares are to be or are liable to be so redeemed. In addition, such a company may, if authorized to do so by its articles of association, purchase its own shares, including any redeemable shares; an ordinary resolution of the company approving the manner and terms of the purchase will be required if the articles of association do not authorize the manner and terms of such purchase. A company may not redeem or purchase its shares unless they are fully paid. Furthermore, a company may not redeem or purchase any of its shares if, as a result of the redemption or purchase, there would no longer be any issued shares of the company other than shares held as treasury shares. In addition, a payment out of capital by a company for the redemption or purchase of its own shares is not lawful unless, immediately following the date on which the payment is proposed to be made, the company shall be able to pay its debts as they fall due in the ordinary course of business.

Shares that have been purchased or redeemed by a company or surrendered to the company shall not be treated as cancelled but shall be classified as treasury shares if held in compliance with the requirements of section 37A(1) of the Cayman Companies Act. Any such shares shall continue to be classified as treasury shares until such shares are either cancelled or transferred pursuant to the Cayman Companies Act.

A Cayman Islands company may be able to purchase its own warrants subject to and in accordance with the terms and conditions of the relevant warrant instrument or certificate. Thus there is no requirement under the Cayman Islands laws that a company's memorandum or articles of association contain a specific provision enabling such purchases. The directors of a company may under the general power contained in its memorandum of association be able to buy, sell and deal in personal property of all kinds.

A subsidiary may hold shares in its holding company and, in certain circumstances, may acquire such shares.

3.5 Dividends and Distributions

Subject to a solvency test, as prescribed in the Cayman Companies Act, and the provisions, if any, of the company's memorandum and articles of association, a company may pay dividends and distributions out of its share premium account. In addition, based upon English case law which is likely to be persuasive in the Cayman Islands, dividends may be paid out of profits.

For so long as a company holds treasury shares, no dividend may be declared or paid, and no other distribution (whether in cash or otherwise) of the company's assets (including any distribution of assets to members on a winding up) may be made, in respect of a treasury share.

3.6 Protection of Minorities and Shareholders' Suits

It can be expected that the Cayman Islands courts will ordinarily follow English case law precedents (particularly the rule in the case of Foss vs. Harbottle and the exceptions to that rule) which permit a minority member to commence a representative action against or derivative actions in the name of the company to challenge acts which are ultra vires, illegal, fraudulent (and performed by those in control of the Company) against the minority, or represent an irregularity in the passing of a resolution which requires a qualified (or special) majority which has not been obtained.

Where a company (not being a bank) is one which has a share capital divided into shares, the court may, on the application of members holding not less than one-fifth of the shares of the company in issue, appoint an inspector to examine the affairs of the company and, at the direction of the court, to report on such affairs. In addition, any member of a company may petition the court, which may make a winding up order if the court is of the opinion that it is just and equitable that the company should be wound up.

In general, claims against a company by its members must be based on the general laws of contract or tort applicable in the Cayman Islands or be based on potential violation of their individual rights as members as established by a company's memorandum and articles of association.

3.7 Disposal of Assets

There are no specific restrictions on the power of directors to dispose of assets of a company, however, the directors are expected to exercise certain duties of care, diligence and skill to the standard that a reasonably prudent person would exercise in comparable circumstances, in addition to fiduciary duties to act in good faith, for proper purpose and in the best interests of the company under English common law (which the Cayman Islands courts will ordinarily follow).

3.8 Accounting and Auditing Requirements

A company must cause proper records of accounts to be kept with respect to: (i) all sums of money received and expended by it; (ii) all sales and purchases of goods by it; and (iii) its assets and liabilities.

Proper books of account shall not be deemed to be kept if there are not kept such books as are necessary to give a true and fair view of the state of the company's affairs and to explain its transactions.

If a company keeps its books of account at any place other than at its registered office or any other place within the Cayman Islands, it shall, upon service of an order or notice by the Tax Information Authority pursuant to the Tax Information Authority Act (2021 Revision) of the Cayman Islands, make available, in electronic form or any other medium, at its registered office copies of its books of account, or any part or parts thereof, as are specified in such order or notice.

3.9 Exchange Control

There are no exchange control regulations or currency restrictions in effect in the Cayman Islands.

3.10 Taxation

The Cayman Islands currently levy no taxes on individuals or corporations based upon profits, income, gains or appreciations and there is no taxation in the nature of inheritance tax or estate duty. There are no other taxes likely to be material to the Company levied by the Government of the Cayman Islands save for certain stamp duties which may be applicable, from time to time, on certain instruments.

3.11 Stamp Duty on Transfers

No stamp duty is payable in the Cayman Islands on transfers of shares of Cayman Islands companies save for those which hold interests in land in the Cayman Islands.

3.12 Loans to Directors

There is no express provision prohibiting the making of loans by a company to any of its directors. However, the company's articles of association may provide for the prohibition of such loans under specific circumstances.

3.13 Inspection of Corporate Records

The members of a company have no general right to inspect or obtain copies of the register of members or corporate records of the company. They will, however, have such rights as may be set out in the company's articles of association.

3.14 Register of Members

A Cayman Islands exempted company may maintain its principal register of members and any branch registers in any country or territory, whether within or outside the Cayman Islands, as the company may determine from time to time. There is no requirement for an exempted company to make any returns of members to the Registrar of Companies in the Cayman Islands. The names and addresses of the members are, accordingly, not a matter of public record and are not available for public inspection. However, an exempted company shall make available at its registered office, in electronic form or any other medium, such register of members, including any branch register of member, as may be required of it upon service of an order or notice by the Tax Information Authority pursuant to the Tax Information Authority Act (2021 Revision) of the Cayman Islands.

3.15 Register of Directors and Officers

Pursuant to the Cayman Companies Act, the Company is required to maintain at its registered office a register of directors, alternate directors and officers. The Registrar of Companies shall make available the list of the names of the current directors of the Company (and, where applicable, the current alternate directors of the Company) for inspection by any person upon payment of a fee by such person. A copy of the register of directors and officers must be filed with the Registrar of Companies in the Cayman Islands, and any change must be notified to the Registrar of Companies within 30 days of any change in such directors or officers, including a change of the name of such directors or officers.

3.16 Winding up

A Cayman Islands company may be wound up by: (i) an order of the court; (ii) voluntarily by its members; or (iii) under the supervision of the court.

The court has authority to order winding up in a number of specified circumstances including where, in the opinion of the court, it is just and equitable that such company be so wound up.

A voluntary winding up of a company (other than a limited duration company, for which specific rules apply) occurs where the company resolves by special resolution that it be wound up voluntarily or where the company in general meeting resolves that it be wound up voluntarily because it is unable to pay its debt as they fall due. In the case of a voluntary winding up, the company is obliged to cease to carry on its business from the commencement of its winding up except so far as it may be beneficial for its winding up. Upon appointment of a voluntary liquidator, all the powers of the directors cease, except so far as the company in general meeting or the liquidator sanctions their continuance.

In the case of a members' voluntary winding up of a company, one or more liquidators are appointed for the purpose of winding up the affairs of the company and distributing its assets.

As soon as the affairs of a company are fully wound up, the liquidator must make a report and an account of the winding up, showing how the winding up has been conducted and the property of the company disposed of, and call a general meeting of the company for the purposes of laying before it the account and giving an explanation of that account.

When a resolution has been passed by a company to wind up voluntarily, the liquidator or any contributory or creditor may apply to the court for an order for the continuation of the winding up under the supervision of the court, on the grounds that: (i) the company is or is likely to become insolvent; or (ii) the supervision of the court will facilitate a more effective, economic or expeditious liquidation of the company in the interests of the contributories and creditors. A supervision order takes effect for all purposes as if it was an order that the company be wound up by the court except that a commenced voluntary winding up and the prior actions of the voluntary liquidator shall be valid and binding upon the company and its official liquidator.

For the purpose of conducting the proceedings in winding up a company and assisting the court, one or more persons may be appointed to be called an official liquidator(s). The court may appoint to such office such person or persons, either provisionally or otherwise, as it thinks fit, and if more than one person is appointed to such office, the court shall declare whether any act required or authorized to be done by the official liquidator is to be done by all or any one or more of such persons. The court may also determine whether any and what security is to be given by an official liquidator on his appointment; if no official liquidator is appointed, or during any vacancy in such office, all the property of the company shall be in the custody of the court.

3.17 Mergers and Consolidations

The Cayman Companies Act permits mergers and consolidations between Cayman Islands companies and between Cayman Islands companies and non-Cayman Islands companies. For these purposes, (a) “merger” means the merging of two or more constituent companies and the vesting of their undertaking, property and liabilities in one of such companies as the surviving company, and (b) “consolidation” means the combination of two or more constituent companies into a consolidated company and the vesting of the undertaking, property and liabilities of such companies to the consolidated company. In order to effect such a merger or consolidation, the directors of each constituent company must approve a written plan of merger or consolidation, which must then be authorized by (a) a special resolution of each constituent company and (b) such other authorization, if any, as may be specified in such constituent company’s articles of association. The written plan of merger or consolidation must be filed with the Registrar of Companies of the Cayman Islands together with a declaration as to the solvency of the consolidated or surviving company, a list of the assets and liabilities of each constituent company and an undertaking that a copy of the certificate of merger or consolidation will be given to the members and creditors of each constituent company and that notification of the merger or consolidation will be published in the Cayman Islands Gazette. Dissenting members have the right to be paid the fair value of their shares (which, if not agreed between the parties, will be determined by the Cayman Islands court) if they follow the required procedures, subject to certain exceptions. Court approval is not required for a merger or consolidation which is effected in compliance with these statutory procedures.

3.18 Mergers and Consolidations involving a Foreign Company

Where the merger or consolidation involves a foreign company, the procedure is similar, save that with respect to the foreign company, the directors of the Cayman Islands exempted company are required to make a declaration to the effect that, having made due enquiry, they are of the opinion that the requirements set out below have been met: (i) that the merger or consolidation is permitted or not prohibited by the constitutional documents of the foreign company and by the laws of the jurisdiction in which the foreign company is incorporated, and that those laws and any requirements of those constitutional documents have been or will be complied with; (ii) that no petition or other similar proceeding has been filed and remains outstanding or order made or resolution adopted to wind up or liquidate the foreign company in any jurisdictions; (iii) that no receiver, trustee, administrator or other similar person has been appointed in any jurisdiction and is acting in respect of the foreign company, its affairs or its property or any part thereof; (iv) that no scheme, order, compromise or other similar arrangement has been entered into or made in any jurisdiction whereby the rights of creditors of the foreign company are and continue to be suspended or restricted.

Where the surviving company is the Cayman Islands exempted company, the directors of the Cayman Islands exempted company are further required to make a declaration to the effect that, having made due enquiry, they are of the opinion that the requirements set out below have been met: (i) that the foreign company is able to pay its debts as they fall due and that the merger or consolidated is bona fide and not intended to defraud unsecured creditors of the foreign company; (ii) that in respect of the transfer of any security interest granted by the foreign company to the surviving or consolidated company (a) consent or approval to the transfer has been obtained, released or waived; (b) the transfer is permitted by and has been approved in accordance with the constitutional documents of the foreign company; and (c) the laws of the jurisdiction of the foreign company with respect to the transfer have been or will be complied with; (iii) that the foreign company will, upon the merger or consolidation becoming effective, cease to be incorporated, registered or exist under the laws of the relevant foreign jurisdiction; and (iv) that there is no other reason why it would be against the public interest to permit the merger or consolidation.

3.19 Reconstructions and Amalgamations

Reconstructions and amalgamations may be approved by (i) 75% in value of the members or class of members or (ii) a majority in number representing 75% in value of the creditors or class of creditors, in each case depending on the circumstances, as are present at a meeting called for such purpose and thereafter sanctioned by the Grand Court of the Cayman Islands. Whilst a dissenting member has the right to express to the court his view that the transaction for which approval is being sought would not provide the members with a fair value for their shares, it can be expected that the court would approve the transaction if it is satisfied that (i) the company is not proposing to act illegally or beyond the scope of our corporate authority and the statutory provisions as to majority vote have been complied with, (ii) the members have been fairly represented at the meeting in question, (iii) the transaction is such as a businessman would reasonable approve and (iv) the transaction is not one that would more properly be sanctioned under some other provisions of the Cayman Companies Act or that would amount to a “fraud on the minority”.

If the transaction is approved, no dissenting member would have any rights comparable to the appraisal rights (namely the right to receive payment in cash for the judicially determined value of his shares), which may be available to dissenting members of corporations in other jurisdictions.

3.20 Takeovers

Where an offer is made by a company for the shares of another company and, within four months of the offer, the holders of not less than 90% of the shares which are the subject of the offer accept, the offeror may, at any time within two months after the expiration of that four-month period, by notice require the dissenting members to transfer their shares on the terms of the offer. A dissenting member may apply to the Cayman Islands courts within one month of the notice objecting to the transfer. The burden is on the dissenting member to show that the court should exercise its discretion, which it will be unlikely to do unless there is evidence of fraud or bad faith or collusion as between the offeror and the holders of the shares who have accepted the offer as a means of unfairly forcing out minority members.

3.21 Indemnification

The Cayman Islands laws do not limit the extent to which a company's articles of association may provide for indemnification of officers and directors, save to the extent any such provision may be held by the court to be contrary to public policy, for example, where a provision purports to provide indemnification against the consequences of committing a crime.

3.22 Economic Substance

The Cayman Islands enacted the International Tax Co-operation (Economic Substance) Act (2024 Revision) together with the Guidance Notes published by the Cayman Islands Tax Information Authority from time to time. If a company is considered to be a "relevant entity" and is conducting one or more of the nine "relevant activities", then such company will be required to comply with the economic substance requirements in relation to the relevant activity from July 1, 2019. All companies whether a relevant entity or not is required to file an annual report with the Registrar of Companies of the Cayman Islands confirming whether or not it is carrying on any relevant activities.

Our Shareholders passed resolutions on July 22, 2025, pursuant to which, among others:

- (a) our Company approved and adopted the Memorandum of Association and the Articles of Association with effect from the Listing;
- (b) conditional on (i) the Stock Exchange granting the listing of, and permission to deal in, the Shares in issue (including the Shares outstanding and to be converted from the Preferred Shares) and to be issued as stated in this prospectus and such listing and permission not subsequently having been revoked prior to the commencement of dealing in the Shares on the Stock Exchange, (ii) the Offer Price having been determined, (iii) the obligations of the Underwriters under the Underwriting Agreements becoming unconditional and not being terminated in accordance with the terms of the Underwriting Agreements or otherwise, in each case on or before such dates as may be specified in the Underwriting Agreements, and (iv) the Underwriting Agreements having been duly executed by the Underwriters and our Company:
 - (i) the Global Offering (including the Over-allotment Option) was approved, and the proposed allotment and issue of the Offer Shares under the Global Offering were approved, and our Directors were authorized to determine the Offer Price for, and to allot and issue, the Offer Shares; and

- (ii) a general unconditional mandate (the “Repurchase Mandate”) was given to our Directors to exercise all powers of our Company to repurchase on the Stock Exchange or on any other stock exchange on which the securities of our Company may be listed and which is recognized by the SFC and the Stock Exchange for this purpose, such number of Shares as will represent up to 10% of the aggregate nominal value of the Shares in issue immediately following the completion of the Global Offering, excluding any treasury shares of our Company and any Shares which may fall to be issued pursuant to the exercise of the Over-allotment Option and the Share Options.

The general mandate referred to in paragraph (b)(ii) above will remain in effect until whichever is the earliest of:

- (a) the conclusion of the next annual general meeting of our Company;
- (b) the expiration of the period within which the next annual general meeting of our Company is required to be held by any applicable law or the Articles of Association; or
- (c) the time when such mandate is varied or revoked by an ordinary resolution of our Shareholders in general meeting.

5. Repurchase of Our Own Shares

The following paragraphs include, among others, certain information required by the Stock Exchange to be included in this prospectus concerning repurchase of our own securities.

(a) Provision of the Listing Rules

The Listing Rules permit companies with a primary listing on the Stock Exchange to repurchase their own securities on the Stock Exchange subject to certain restrictions, the most important of which are summarized below.

(i) Shareholders' approval

All proposed repurchases of securities (which must be fully paid up in the case of shares) by a company with a primary listing on the Stock Exchange must be approved in advance by an ordinary resolution of the shareholders in general meeting, either by way of general mandate or by specific approval of a particular transaction.

Pursuant to a resolution passed by our Shareholders on July 22, 2025, the Repurchase Mandate was given to our Directors to exercise all powers of our Company to repurchase on the Stock Exchange or on any other stock exchange on which the securities of our Company may be listed and which is recognized by the SFC and the Stock Exchange for this purpose, such number of Shares as will represent up to 10% of the aggregate nominal value of the Shares in issue immediately following the completion of the Global Offering, excluding any treasury shares of our Company and any Shares which may fall to be issued pursuant to the exercise of the Over-allotment Option and Share Options, with such mandate to expire at the earliest of (i) the conclusion of the next annual general meeting of our Company, (ii) the expiration of the period within which the next annual general meeting of our Company is required to be held by any applicable law or the Articles of Association, or (iii) the time when such mandate is varied or revoked by an ordinary resolution of our Shareholders in general meeting.

(ii) Source of funds

Purchases must be funded out of funds legally available for the purpose in accordance with the Memorandum of Association and the Articles of Association and the applicable laws and regulations of Hong Kong and the Cayman Islands. A listed company may not purchase its own securities on the Stock Exchange for a consideration other than cash or for settlement otherwise than in accordance with the trading rules of the Stock Exchange from time to time. As a matter of Cayman Islands law, any purchases by our Company may be made out of profits or out of proceeds of a new issue of shares made for the purpose of the purchase or from sums standing to the credit of our share premium account or out of capital, if so authorized by the Articles of Association and subject to the Cayman Islands company laws. Any premium payable on the purchase over the nominal value of the shares to be purchased must have been provided for out of profits or from sums standing to the credit of our share premium account or out of capital, if so authorized by the Articles of Association and subject to the Cayman Islands company laws.

(iii) Trading restrictions

The total number of shares which a listed company may repurchase on the Stock Exchange is the number of shares representing up to 10% of the aggregate nominal value of the shares in issue (excluding treasury shares) on the date the repurchase mandate is granted. A listed company whose primary listing is on the Stock Exchange generally may not (i) issue new securities or sale or transfer treasury shares, or (ii) announce a proposed issue of new securities or sale or transfer of treasury shares for a period of 30 days after a repurchase without the prior approval of the Stock Exchange. A listed company whose primary listing is on the Stock Exchange may not repurchase any of its own securities on the Stock Exchange for a period of 30 days after any sale or transfer of treasury shares on the Stock Exchange without the prior approval of the Stock Exchange. In addition, a listed company is prohibited from repurchasing its shares on the Stock Exchange if the purchase price is higher by 5% or more than the average closing market price for the five preceding trading days on which its shares were traded on the Stock Exchange.

The Listing Rules also prohibit a listed company from repurchasing its securities on the Stock Exchange if the repurchase would result in the number of listed securities which are in the hands of the public falling below the relevant prescribed minimum percentage as required by the Stock Exchange.

A listed company is required to procure that the broker appointed by it to effect a repurchase of securities discloses to the Stock Exchange such information with respect to the repurchase made on behalf of the listed company as the Stock Exchange may require.

(iv) Status of repurchased securities

The shares repurchased by a listed company shall be held as treasury shares or cancelled. The listing of all shares held as treasury shares shall be retained. The listing of all shares repurchased (whether effected on the Stock Exchange or otherwise) but not held as treasury shares shall be automatically cancelled upon repurchase. The listed company shall ensure that the documents of title of these repurchased shares are cancelled and destroyed.

Under the laws of the Cayman Islands, unless the directors resolve to hold the shares repurchased by the company as treasury shares prior to the repurchase, shares repurchased by the company shall be treated as cancelled and the amount of the company's issued share capital shall be diminished by the nominal value of those shares. However, the repurchase of shares will not be taken as reducing the amount of the authorized share capital under Cayman Islands laws.

(v) Suspension of repurchase

A listed company may not make any repurchase of securities after inside information has come to its knowledge until the information is made publicly available. In particular, during the period of 30 days immediately preceding the earlier of: (i) the date of the board meeting (as such date is first notified to the Stock Exchange in accordance with the Listing Rules) for the approval of a listed company's results for any year, half-year, quarterly or any other interim period (whether or not required under the Listing Rules), and (ii) the deadline for a listed company to announce its results for any year or half-year under the Listing Rules, or quarterly or any other interim period (whether or not required under the Listing Rules), and ending on the date of the results announcement, the listed company may not repurchase its securities on the Stock Exchange, unless the circumstances are exceptional. In addition, the Stock Exchange may prohibit a repurchase of securities on the Stock Exchange if a listed company has breached the Listing Rules.

(vi) Reporting requirements

Certain information relating to repurchases of securities on the Stock Exchange or otherwise must be reported to the Stock Exchange not later than 30 minutes before the earlier of the commencement of the morning trading session or any pre-opening session on the following Business Day. In addition, a listed company's annual report is required to disclose details regarding repurchases of securities made during the year, including a monthly breakdown of shares repurchased, the purchase price per share or the highest and lowest price paid for all such repurchases, where relevant, and the aggregate prices paid.

(vii) Core connected persons

A listed company is prohibited from knowingly repurchasing securities on the Stock Exchange from a core connected person, and a core connected person is prohibited from knowingly selling securities to the listed company on the Stock Exchange.

(b) Reasons for repurchase

Our Directors believe that it is in the best interests of our Company and our Shareholders for our Directors to receive the general authority from our Shareholders to repurchase Shares in the market. Repurchase of Shares will only be made when our Directors believe that such repurchase will be in the interest of our Company and our Shareholders. Such repurchase may, depending on market conditions, funding arrangements and other circumstances at the time, lead to an enhancement in the net value of our Company and our assets and/or earnings per Share.

(c) Funding of repurchase

Repurchase of Shares must be funded out of funds legally available for such purpose in accordance with the Articles of Association and the applicable laws and regulations of Hong Kong and the Cayman Islands. Our Directors may not repurchase Shares on the Stock Exchange for a consideration other than cash or for settlement otherwise than in accordance with the trading rules of the Stock Exchange from time to time. Subject to the foregoing, our Directors may make repurchase with profits of our Company or out of a new issuance of shares made for the purpose of the repurchase or from sums standing to the credit of our share premium account or, if authorized by the Articles of Association and applicable laws and regulations of Hong Kong and the Cayman Islands, out of capital and, in the case of any premium payable on the repurchase, out of profits of our Company or from sums standing to the credit of the share premium account of our Company or, if authorized by the Articles of Association and subject to the Cayman Islands company law, out of capital.

However, our Directors do not propose to exercise the Repurchase Mandate to such an extent as would, in the circumstances, have a material adverse effect on the working capital requirements of our Company or the gearing position of our Company which in the opinion of our Directors are from time to time appropriate for our Company.

(d) Share capital

The exercise in full of the Repurchase Mandate, on the basis of 90,751,378 Shares in issue immediately following the completion of the Global offering (assuming that the Over-allotment Option is not exercised and without taking into account any Shares which may be allotted and issued pursuant to the exercise of Share Options), could accordingly result in up to 9,075,137 Shares being repurchased by our Company during the period until whichever is the earliest of:

- (i) the conclusion of the next annual general meeting of our Company;
- (ii) the expiration of the period within which the next annual general meeting of our Company is required to be held by any applicable law or the Articles of Association; or
- (iii) the time when such mandate is varied or revoked by an ordinary resolution of our Shareholders in general meeting.

(e) General

None of our Directors or, to the best of their knowledge having made all reasonable enquiries, any of their respective close associates currently intends to sell any Shares to our Company or our subsidiaries.

Our Directors have undertaken to the Stock Exchange that, so far as the same may be applicable, they will exercise the Repurchase Mandate in accordance with the Listing Rules and the applicable laws.

If, as a result of any repurchase of Shares pursuant to the Repurchase Mandate, a Shareholder's proportionate interest in the voting rights of our Company increases, such increase will be treated as an acquisition for the purpose of the Takeovers Code. Accordingly, a Shareholder, or a group of Shareholders acting in concert, depending on the level of increase of our Shareholders' interest, could obtain or consolidate control of our Company and become obliged to make a mandatory offer in accordance with Rule 26 of the Takeovers Code as a result. Save as aforesaid, our Directors are not aware of any consequences which may arise under the Takeovers Code if the Repurchase Mandate is exercised.

Any repurchase of Shares which results in the number of Shares held by the public being reduced to less than 25% of our Shares then in issue could only be implemented with the approval of the Stock Exchange to waive the Listing Rules requirements regarding public shareholding referred to above. It is believed that a waiver of this provision would not normally be given other than in exceptional circumstances.

No core connected person of our Company has notified our Company that he/she/it has a present intention to sell Shares to our Company, or has undertaken not to do so, if the Repurchase Mandate is exercised.

As of the Latest Practicable Date, all Share Options under the Share Incentive Plan have been granted to specific grantees, and no further Share Option will be granted after the Listing.

1. Summary of the Principal Terms of the Share Incentive Plan(a) Purposes

The purposes of the Share Incentive Plan are to (i) improve the corporate governance structure of our Company and establish a mechanism for sharing returns and risks among our Company, Shareholders and employees, and (ii) attract, motivate and stabilize the employees of our Group, fully mobilize their enthusiasm and support the realization of our Company's strategies and long-term sustainable development.

(b) Eligible optionees

Eligible optionees (each an “Optionee”) of the Share Incentive Plan include:

- (i) senior and middle management and core employees who have worked full-time in our Group for more than 12 months;
- (ii) employees to whom our Company has made oral or written undertaking regarding the grant of Share Options; and
- (iii) other personnel recognized by our Board.

(c) Plan limit

The maximum number of Shares underlying the Share Options is 5,824,920, representing approximately 6.42% of the Shares in issue immediately following the completion of the Global Offering (assuming that the Over-allotment Option is not exercised and without taking into account any Shares which may be allotted and issued pursuant to the exercise of Share Options).

(d) Term

The Share Incentive Plan took effect upon adoption by our Company and should be valid for a maximum term of ten years.

(e) Administration

The Share Incentive Plan shall be managed by our Board. Our Board shall be entitled to:

- (i) determine the list of Optionees;
- (ii) determine the number of Share Options to be granted to the Optionees;
- (iii) determine the exercise price of the Share Options;

- (iv) amend, suspend or terminate the Share Incentive Plan;
- (v) formulate, amend and cancel the terms of the Share Incentive Plan; and
- (vi) determine other matters relating to the implementation of the Share Incentive Plan.

(f) Grant of Share Options

Our Board shall be entitled to determine whether to grant Share Options to an Optionee and the number of Share Options to be granted pursuant to the Share Incentive Plan, taking into account the Optionee's position, seniority, length of service, work performance, etc.

When granting Share Options to an Optionee, our Company shall enter into an option agreement (the "Option Agreement") with the Optionee. The Option Agreement shall comply with the terms of the Share Incentive Plan.

If our Company increases or reduces share capital, the number of Share Options granted to the Optionee shall remain unchanged, but the percentage of shareholding of the Optionee in our Company after exercise of Share Options will be adjusted accordingly.

(g) Vesting of Share Options

Vesting schedule. Unless otherwise stipulated in the Share Incentive Plan and the Option Agreement, Share Options granted to an Optionee shall vest in four installments within 48 months (each an "Vesting Period") from the vesting commencement date (the "Vesting Commencement Date") stipulated in the Option Agreement. Specifically, 25% of the Share Options granted shall vest when the Optionee works in our Group for 12 months from the Vesting Commencement Date, 25% of the Share Options granted shall vest when the Optionee works in our Group for 24 months from the Vesting Commencement Date, 25% of the Share Options granted shall vest when the Optionee works in our Group for 36 months from the Vesting Commencement Date, and 25% of the Share Options granted shall vest when the Optionee works in our Group for 48 months from the Vesting Commencement Date.

Performance goals. The vesting conditions of Share Options granted under the Share Incentive Plan include company performance goals and individual performance goals.

- (i) Company performance goals: during each Vesting Period, the corresponding percentage of Share Options granted to an Optionee can only vest if the completion rate of the performance goals of our Company for the year is no less than 80% and the operating income of our Company increases compared to that of the previous year; if the completion rate of the performance goals of our Company for the year is less than 80% or the operating income of our Company decreases compared to that of the previous year, unless otherwise resolved by our Board, the corresponding percentage of Share Options will be automatically cancelled, and the Optionee will no longer have any right to such cancelled Share Options; and

- (ii) Individual performance goals: our Company will conduct performance appraisals of the Optionee during each Vesting Period. The appraisal results are divided into three levels: 80 points or above, 70 — 79 points, and 69 points or below, corresponding to a standard coefficient of 1.0, 0.8, and 0, respectively. The number of Share Options that can vest in each Vesting Period equals the number of Share Options that may vest in that Vesting Period multiplies the standard coefficient corresponding to the appraisal results. Share Options not vested because the appraisal results are below 80 points will be automatically cancelled, and the Optionee will no longer have any right to such cancelled Share Options.

If a Vesting Period spans two calendar years, unless otherwise resolved by the administrator of the Share Incentive Plan appointed by our Board, if the Vesting Commencement Date falls on or before June 30, the company performance goals and individual performance goals of the current year shall apply, and if the Vesting Commencement Date falls on or after July 1, the company performance goals and individual performance goals of the following year shall apply.

Suspension of vesting. Unless otherwise stipulated in the Option Agreement or resolved by our Board, if the number of absence days of the Optionee due to sick leaves, personal leaves or other reasons reaches 30 in any calendar year, the corresponding percentage of Share Options that may otherwise vest during the Vesting Period will cease to vest for a period equal to the number of absence days in the calendar year, and the vesting of the Share Options will be deferred accordingly.

(h) Exercise of Share Options

Exercise conditions. Share Options granted to an Optionee which are vested pursuant to the Share Incentive Plan may be exercised in compliance with relevant laws and regulations. The Optionee cannot exercise any Share Options before the Listing.

Exercise price. Unless otherwise resolved by our Board, the exercise price of the Share Options shall be 35% of the price per Share based on the valuation of our Company in the latest round of equity financing before the grant of the Share Options. Our Board shall determine the payment method of exercise price.

Exercise procedures and deadline. Upon satisfaction of the exercise conditions, the Optionee shall exercise Share Options in accordance with the procedures and deadline determined by our Board. The Optionee shall cooperate in executing all relevant documents as required by our Board. If the Optionee cannot exercise Share Options due to his/her failure to execute relevant documents as required by our Board, the Optionee shall bear full responsibilities. The Optionee shall also indemnify our Company if our Company suffers any loss because of such failure. The Optionee shall exercise Share Options within 10 years from the date of grant of the Share Options and pay the exercise price. Any Share Options not exercised before expiration will be automatically cancelled.

Rights of Optionee. Before exercise of Share Options, the Optionee shall not enjoy any voting rights, dividend rights or any other rights of the Shares underlying the Share Options. After exercise of Share Options, the Optionee shall hold the Shares directly or through trust as resolved by our Board.

Legal restrictions. If, in the opinion of our Company's legal counsel, exercising Share Options would result in a violation of any applicable laws, including but not limited to any applicable securities laws, the Optionee shall not exercise any Share Options, and our Company shall have no obligation to transfer any Shares to the Optionee.

(i) Cancellation of Share Options

Cancellation of Share Options due to misconduct. After the Listing, if the Optionee commits any misconduct, unless otherwise resolved by our Board, from the date such misconduct occurs, (i) Share Options that have not been exercised by the Optionee (whether vested or not) will be automatically cancelled, and the Optionee will no longer have any right to such cancelled Share Options, and (ii) Share Options that have been exercised by the Optionee can be disposed of by the Optionee in accordance with the rules of the exchange where the Shares of our Company are listed. The Optionee shall also indemnify our Group for all losses incurred due to his or her misconduct.

Misconduct refers to any of the following acts committed by the Optionee intentionally or due to gross negligence:

- (i) violating any law, regulation, policy or employee handbook of our Group;
- (ii) establishing employment relationships with other employers simultaneously which seriously affects completion of tasks of our Group or refusing to rectify the issue despite requests from our Group;
- (iii) causing our Group to execute or modify employment agreement with the Optionee against its true will by fraud, coercion or taking advantage of our Company, rendering the employment agreement invalid;
- (iv) violating professional ethics or committing serious dereliction or malfeasance of duty or fraud that causes significant monetary losses of RMB5,000 or more to our Group, or the foregoing acts indirectly or the Optionee makes negative remarks about our Group directly that causes negative impact on the reputation of our Group;
- (v) disclosing our Group's confidential information such as trade secrets or violating our Group's confidentiality policies or confidentiality agreements executed with our Group;

- (ix) violating the Share Incentive Plan or relevant agreements executed in accordance with the Share Incentive Plan;
- (x) being held criminally liable for committing a crime according to the law; and
- (xi) other acts that cause significant loss or material adverse effects to our Group.

Cancellation of Share Options due to termination of employment other than for misconduct. After the Listing, if the Optionee's employment is terminated other than for misconduct, from the date the Optionee resigns/ceases to provide services or terminates or rescinds the employment agreement, (i) Share Options that have not been vested will be automatically cancelled, and the Optionee will no longer have any right to such cancelled Share Options, (ii) Share Options that have been vested but not exercised will be automatically cancelled, and the Optionee will no longer have any right to such cancelled Share Options, unless the Optionee exercises such Share Options and pays the exercise price within 15 business days, and (iii) Share Options that have been exercised by the Optionee can be disposed of by the Optionee in accordance with the rules of the exchange where the Shares of our Company are listed.

Termination of employment other than for misconduct refers to any circumstance where the Optionee resigns or ceases to provide services or terminates or rescinds employment, service or cooperation agreement with our Group for any reason other than for misconduct specified above, including but not limited to the following circumstances:

- (i) the Optionee voluntarily resigns (including circumstances where the Optionee unilaterally notifies our Group to terminate the employment agreement before expiration, or the Optionee decides not to renew the employment agreement upon expiration even though our Group keeps or improves the terms of employment, or the Optionee terminates the employment agreement with a subsidiary of our Company due to its lawful dissolution and does not execute a new employment agreement with our Company or another entity designated by our Company);
- (ii) the Optionee leaves due to reasons attributable to our Group (including but not limited to circumstances where our Group proposes to terminate the employment agreement before expiration, or our Group and the Optionee mutually agree to terminate the employment agreement before expiration, or our Group decides not to renew the employment agreement upon expiration, or our Group terminates or rescinds the employment agreement due to economic redundancy);

- (iii) the Optionee is unable to perform the employment agreement due to termination or rescission of the employment agreement;
- (iv) the Optionee terminates the employment agreement with our Group as he/she reaches the statutory retirement age or begins to receive basic pension benefits according to law;
- (v) the Optionee is unable to perform his or her original job or any other job assigned by our Group due to sickness or non work-related injury, resulting in the termination of the employment agreement by our Group;
- (vi) the Optionee loses the ability to work and is unable to continue working in our Group, resulting in the termination of the employment agreement by our Group; and
- (vii) the Optionee is declared dead or missing in law or is deceased.

Cancellation of Share Options before the Listing. Before the Listing, if the Optionee's Share Options are cancelled for any reason (including but not limited to misconduct and termination of employment other than for misconduct specified above), unless otherwise stipulated in the Share Incentive Plan or the Option Agreement, all Share Options granted to the Optionee (whether vested or not) will be automatically cancelled from the date of such misconduct or circumstance, and the Optionee will no longer have any right to such cancelled Share Options.

Cancellation of Share Options in other circumstances. Share Options may also be cancelled and/or reclaimed in the following circumstances:

- (i) if the performance appraisal results of the Optionee are 69 points or below for two consecutive years, our Company or the entity designated by our Board shall be entitled (but not obligated) to reclaim the Share Options granted to the Optionee;
- (ii) before the Listing, if the Optionee's properties are divided due to divorce, all Share Options granted to the Optionee will be automatically cancelled, and the Optionee will no longer have any right to such cancelled Share Options;
- (iii) before the Listing, if our Company needs to reclaim Share Options granted to the Optionee due to financing needs or other reasons, our Company or the entity designated by our Board shall be entitled (but not obligated) to reclaim all or part of the Share Options granted to the Optionee at a mutually agreed price, and the Share Options not reclaimed will continue to vest in accordance with the terms of the Share Incentive Plan and the Option Agreement; and
- (iv) our Board has full discretion in all other unspecified circumstances.

The Optionee unconditionally and irrevocably agrees to the terms of the Share Incentive Plan and the Option Agreement regarding the cancellation and reclamation of Share Options, and acknowledges that the consideration specified therein for the reclamation of Share Options is the full consideration, and our Company is not required to pay any additional amounts (including any dividends). From the date our Company issues a reclamation notice to the Optionee in accordance with the Share Incentive Plan, the Optionee will no longer have any right to the Share Options proposed to be reclaimed.

If our Company chooses to reclaim Share Options, it shall pay the reclamation price to the Optionee within 180 days from the date of issuing the reclamation notice. If the Optionee commits any misconduct specified above during such period, the Share Options shall be cancelled according to the provisions regarding cancellation of Share Options due to misconduct set out above.

(j) Restriction on Disposal of Share Options

Before the Listing, unless otherwise stipulated in the Share Incentive Plan or resolved by our Company or our Board, the Optionee (whether he/she leaves our Group) shall not pledge, transfer, place any encumbrance, or otherwise dispose of any Share Option.

After the Listing, the transfer of exercised Share Options shall also comply with the rules of the exchange where the Shares of our Company are listed. In case of any conflict between the terms of the Share Incentive Plan and the rules of the exchange where the Shares of our Company are listed, the later shall prevail.

(k) Tax

The Optionee shall fund the exercise price himself/herself, and our Company will not provide any financial support. The Optionee must pay income tax or other applicable taxes on any gains derived from participation in the Share Incentive Plan in accordance with all applicable tax laws. To the extent permitted by law, our Company reserves the right to withhold taxes payable by the Optionee from any payment or transfer.

(l) Adjustment

Our Board shall resolve whether to adjust the Share Incentive Plan in the following circumstances:

- (i) merger or split-up of our Company; and
- (ii) other circumstances where our Board considers it necessary to adjust the Share Incentive Plan.

(m) Amendment, Suspension and Termination

Our Board may resolve to amend, suspend or terminate the Share Incentive Plan at any time. Our Board reserves the final right to interpret the terms of the Share Incentive Plan and related agreements, notices, undertakings, and other legal documents.

2. Outstanding Share Options

As of the Latest Practicable Date, 4,575,638 Shares underlying the Share Options granted to our senior management (other than Mr. Wang) and other employees have been allotted and issued to WEILING. WEILING is wholly owned by BUTONG ESOP LIMITED (“BUTONG ESOP”). BUTONG ESOP is wholly owned by Futu Trustee Limited (“Futu”), the trustee of the BUTONG ESOP Trust set up to facilitate the administration of the Share Options granted to our senior management (other than Mr. Wang) and other employees. Pursuant to the trust deed constituting the BUTONG ESOP Trust entered into between our Company and Futu, Futu shall abstain and shall cause BUTONG ESOP to abstain from exercising the voting rights attached to the Shares held by WEILING. In addition, 1,249,282 Shares underlying the Share Options granted to Mr. Wang will be allotted and issued when the Share Options are vested and exercised by Mr. Wang after the Listing. Such Shares represent approximately 1.38% of the Shares in issue immediately following the completion of the Global Offering (assuming that the Over-allotment Option is not exercised and without taking into account any Shares which may be allotted and issued pursuant to the exercise of Share Options). Assuming full vesting and exercise of all the Share Options granted to Mr. Wang under the Share Incentive Plan, the dilution effect on the shareholding of our Shareholders immediately following the completion of the Global Offering (assuming that the Over-allotment Option is not exercised) and on our earnings per Share would be approximately 1.36%.
